Bomb threat reported downtown

- A bomb threat at Centre Engineering, 1810 E. College Ave., was reported to State College police shortly after 8 p.m. Wednesday.
- A spokesman for the police said Centre Engineering received a call at about 7:40 p.m. saying that a bomb would go off in 45 minutes. When police arrived, the area had been evacuated.
- Police searched the building, and after finding no bomb concluded the threat was a hoax.
- Steven Kelly, 207 E. Park Ave., and Timothy E. Cooper, 446 Beaver Hall, were arrested by University police for theft of items from a car parked in Blue lot E on September 6.

• Edward Antoini, 128 Mifflin Hall, reported to University police the theft of a color television from the lounge in Mifflin. The set was taken sometime Wednesday night or Thursday morning.

• University police have taken a black, brown and white female beagle, about three years old, to the veterinary hospital of Charles L. Meyers, on West College Avenue in State College. The owner may claim the dog there.

A career in law—without law school

After just three months of study at The Institute for Paralegal Training in Philadelphia, you can have an exciting and rewarding career in law or business—without law school.

As a lawyer's assistant you will be performing many of the duties traditionally handled only by attorneys. And at The Institute for Paralegal Training, you can pick one of seven different areas of law to study. Upon completion of your training, The Institute's unique Placement Service will find you a responsible and challenging job in a law firm, bank or corporation in the city of your choice.

The Institute for Paralegal Training is the nation's first and most respected school for paralegal training. Since 1970, we've placed over 2,500 graduates in over 85 cities nationwide.

If you're a senior of high academic standing and looking for an above average career, contact your placement office for an interview with our representative.

We will visit your campus on:
