Eagles fumble one away

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP) — A 58-yard touchdown pass from Steve Grogan to Stanley Morgan and three key fumble recoveries by linebacker Steve Nelson lifted the New England Patriots to a 24-14 National Football League victory over the Philadelphia Eagles Sunday.

The picture-perfect touchdown pass early in the third quarter gave the Patriots a 24-7 lead and New England held on, improving its record to 4-2.

Nelson personally halted Eagles' drives, recovering bobbles in the first, third and fourth quarters.

The Patriots took a 17-0 lead in the second quarter but let Philadelphia, now 3-3, back in the game late in the first half on a 28-yard touchdown pass from Ron Jaworski to Harold Carmichael.

Fullback Don Calhoun's 4-yard touchdown run and newcomer David Bosey's first NFL field goal, a 42-yarder, put New England ahead 10-0 in the first quarter.

Sam Cunningham made it 17-0 with 5:19 left in the half with a one-yard scoring bolt after Horace Ivory danced 21 yards to the goal line.

New England had gotten caught in an all-out defensive blitz with 1:12 left in the first half and Carmichael snared the touchdown pass.

Morgan outraced the Eagles' secondary after 2:02 of the third quarter to give the Patriots a temporary 17-point lead, but the Eagles struck back on their next series, as John Sciarra — normally a free safety — scampered in from the 1-yard line.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Terry Bradshaw's pinpoint passing, blended with 104 yards rushing by Franco Harris, carried the unbeaten Pittsburgh Steelers to a 31-7 victory over the Atlanta Falcons Sunday in a National Football League game.

Bradshaw, showing no ill effects from a knee injury sustained the week before, hit 13 of 18 attempts for 231 yards, ran 6 yards for one touchdown and passed 11 yards to John Stallworth for another.

Falcons quarterback Steve Bartkowski was sacked four times and intercepted twice by a Pittsburgh defense that lost a shutout with 2:03 left to play when Bartkowski hit Wallace Francis with an 11-yard touchdown pass.

Fred Steinfort missed field goal tries of 34 and 31 yards as Atlanta fell to 2-4 on the season, while Pittsburgh climbed to 6-0, best start in the 46-year history of the Steeler franchise.

While Harris, who rushed 20 times, surpassed the 100-yard mark for the first time of the season, backfield mate Rocky Bleier scored a pair of touchdowns on runs of 8 and 2 yards.

Bradshaw's 6-yard scoring run came with 59 seconds left before halftime and helped the Steelers to a 17-0 intermission lead.

In the third quarter, Bradshaw's 70-yard pass to Stallworth, set up Bleier's 2-yard scoring run.

Stallworth's 11-yard touchdown reception gave Pittsburgh a 31-0 lead 3:08 into the final period.

Jets 45, Bills 14
Kevin Long ran for three touchdowns as quarterback Matt Robinson guided a run-oriented New York Jets offense to the highest score by any NFL team so far this season. Long's three touchdowns tied a club record and Bruce Harper turned in the second longest punt return for a touchdown in Jets history, an 82-yarder.

Cowboys 24, Giants 3
Roger Staubach threw three touchdown passes, two to wide receiver Tony Hill, and the Dallas defense extended its string of consecutive quarters without allowing a touchdown to 11.

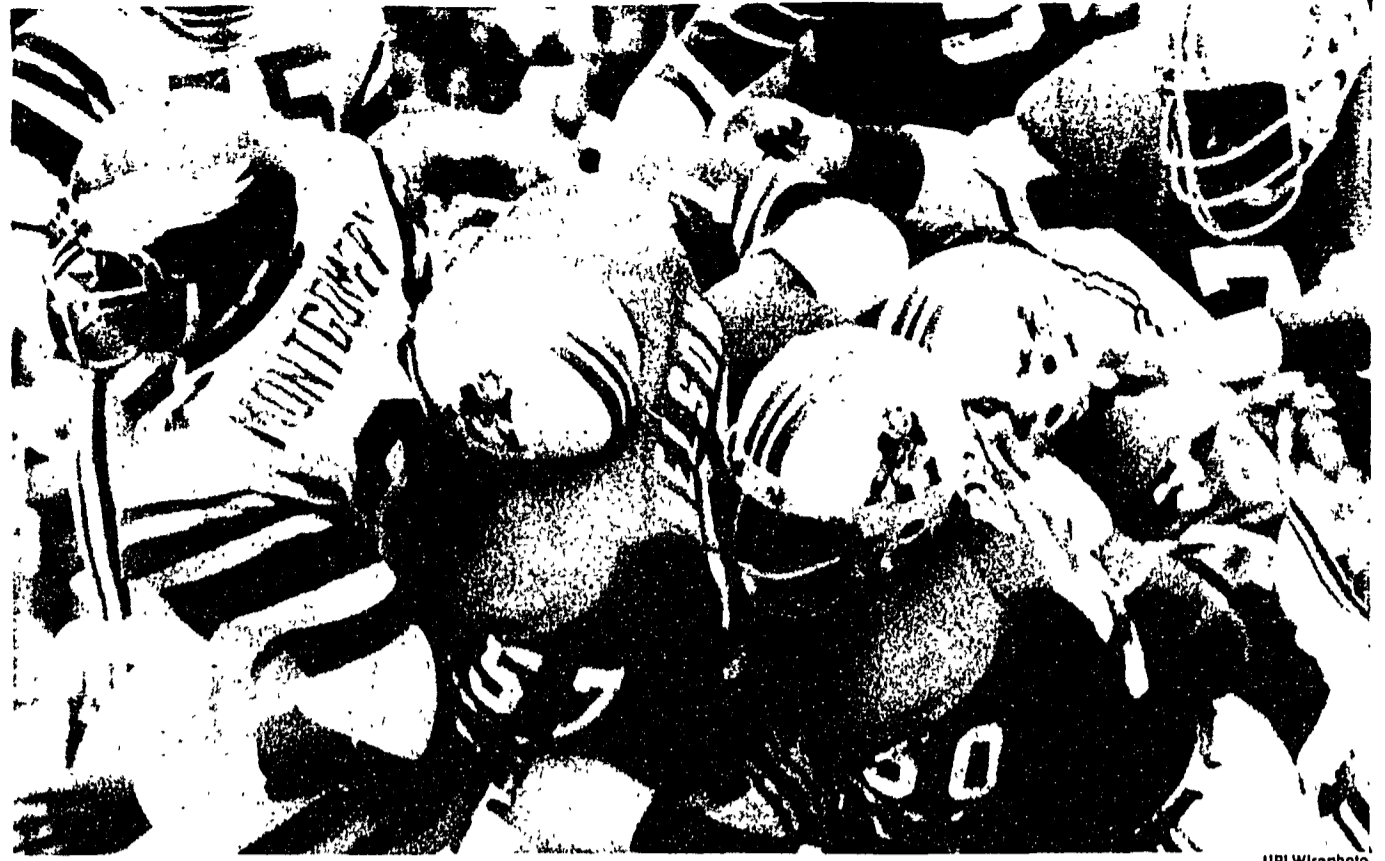

The Cowboys led 14-3 at the half on Staubach TD passes of 17 yards to Hill and 23 yards to tight end Billy Joe DuPree. Staubach's other scoring pass to Hill was a 30-yarder.

Raiders 21, Oilers 17
Tight end Dave Casper wrestled a 4-yard Ken Stabler pass from the arms of Houston defensive back Greg Stenrick for a touchdown with 42 seconds left to cap a 14-point second-half Oakland comeback.

Trailing 17-7 in the third quarter, Raiders safety Charles Phillips recovered a fumble and returned it 96 yards for a touchdown that drew Oakland to within three points and set up Stabler's winning pass.

Seahawks 29, Vikings 28
Efen Herrera kicked a 19-yard field goal with three seconds left in the game to give Seattle its victory after Seahawks quarterback Jim Zorn had cut the deficit to 28-26 with 9:02 to play on a 22-yard TD run, his second scoring dash of the game.

Chargers 23, Broncos 0
Don Woods ran for one touchdown and San Diego quarterback Dan Fouts threw for another and the Charger defense dominated Denver.

Wilbert Montgomery may have had a busy day Sunday when the Eagles took on the Patriots but he did find time left to right Steve Nelson, Sam Hunt, Tim Fox and Ray Hamilton of the Patriots. When they let go of Montgomery, the Patriots went on to win the game 24-14.

Steelers' Cunningham hurts knee

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers, unbeaten and untied, weren't unscathed in Sunday's 31-7 win over the Atlanta Falcons.

Tight end Bennie Cunningham left the game in the first quarter with damaged ligaments in his left knee. He'll be sidelined indefinitely.

"I don't think I'll be missed too much," said Cunningham, whose leg was quickly placed in a cast by Steeler doctors pending a decision on whether surgery is needed.

His replacement, Randy Grossman, finished the rest of the game and caught one pass for 16 yards.

Grossman is 6 feet 1, 215 pounds. Cunningham is 6 feet 5, 250 pounds.

"I'm not taking anything away from Randy, but Bennie's a great talent and we're going to miss him," said quarterback Terry Bradshaw. "I would have used Cunningham a lot today."

Just how much the Steelers get to use Cunningham in the weeks ahead remains to be seen.
