Opponent calls for his resignation

Flood pleads innocent to charges

WASHINGTON (AP) --- Rep. Daniel J. Flood, D-Pa., who has previously denied he took payoffs in exchange for his ' congressional influence, pleaded innocent yesterday to federal charges of bribery and conspiracy.

The plea was entered by Flood's lawyer, Axel Kleibomer, as Flood sat in 'the courtroom.

Judge Louis Oberdorfer released the 74-year-old congressman without bail and ordered him to return to U.S. District Court on Oct. 30 for the judge to set a timetable in the case and begin considering pre-trial motions.

Flood's Republican opponent in this November's election, Robert Hudock, held a news conference outside the court house to call for Flood's resignation. ' Hudock, who said he was in Washington on other unspecified legal matters, said it was "an outrage and an affront to the intelligence of the voters that he (Flood) even consider running for re-election."

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Pentagon sources disclosed yesterday that Defense Secretary Harold Brown is

- seeking funds for eventual production of a new type of weapon using nerve gas, the substance that killed 6,000

If the Pentagon plan is approved by the White House and becomes part of the final 1980 budget request, it would mark the first time any administration has sought money to move toward production of the controversial new weapon since Congress rejected the idea .

The Pentagon sources said Deputy Defense Secretary

'.' Charles Duncan, acting on Brown's orders, has secretly

th instructed the Army to program funds for the building

' 'of a ''binary'' - or two-stage - nerve gas weapon plant

Flood, who has represented the 11th district of Pennsylvania in the Wilkes-Barre area for 30 years, moved quickly past reporters and photographers outside the court house after the arraignment on his way to a waiting limousine.

He has previously said that the charges against him were "absurd" and were made by "desperate men under pressure."

Kleibomer protested to the judge about a meeting with reporters held earlier this week by a high-ranking Justice Department official who said no further charges would be brought against Flood by the federal government. The official, who requested anonymity, said, "at some point you say, 'we have enough'.'

Kleibomer said those remarks amounted to saying, "we're going to get him with what we have:"

said the unnamed Justice Department official only intended to indicate that the government's case would stand or fall on charges already filed.

But Tuohy assured the judge Justice Department officials would refrain from any further public comment.

Flood was indicted Oct. 12 by a federal grand jury in Washington on charges he conspired with a former aide, Stephen Elko, to take $65,000 in bribes from various sources and 100 shares of stock in a Pennsylvania bank.

Flood also was accused of seeking another $100,000 from the developer of a town house project in Pennsylvania.

Flood was also indicted on Sept. 5 by a federal grand jury in Los Angeles on charges he lied when he denied receiving payoffs.

Those charges were consolidated yesterday with the bribery and conspiracy allegations and will be tried together.

Robert Hudock, Rep. Daniel Flood's Republican challenger, calls for Flood's resignation outside of U.S. District Court in Washington. Flood, arraigned yesterday on charges of bribery and conspiracy, pleaded guilty.

Casey ripped while Flaherty pumps hands

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - In his strongest attack of the gubernatorial campaign, Republican Richard Thornburgh said yesterday it would be a disgrace if Robert Casey, the Democratic lieutenant governor candidate, is elected Nov. 7.

"I don't think the man deserves to hold any office in Pennsylvania," Thornburgh told editors of the Montgomery Publishing Co.

Thornburgh ripped Casey for remarks the Democrat made to a newspaper reporter that there was no need for special education for deaf children. 'Put those kids at the front of the classrooms if they can't hear," he was quoted as saying.

"I've developed some strong feelings against Mr. Casey in the last several days," Thornburgh, who has a son attending special education classes, said. He said it was outrageous that Casey, a high school teacher, could be so insensitive to the needs of the handicapped. Thornburgh called on Democratic gubernatorial candidate Peter Flaherty to repudiate Casey's statements.

"I can't believe that Mr. Flaherty would permit his running mate to say such a thing without a word of rebuke,' Thornburgh said.

'Mr. Flaherty owes all Pennsylvanians a guarantee that he will not allow Mr. Casey any influence in educational matters or any matter affecting handicapped citizens," Thornburgh said.

Flaherty, when asked by reporters about the matter later vesterday, brushed aside the questions by noting that Casey on Wednesday had denied ever making the statement.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) - Peter F. Flaherty brought his low-key, loosely scheduled Democratic gubernatorial campaign to central Pennsylvania yesterday, lunching with a Democratic congressman before pumping hands at city offices and a shopping mall here.

The Daily Collegian Friday, Oct. 20, 1978-9

The 54-year-old former Pittsburgh mayor was delayed 212 hours from a scheduled appearance in this Lycoming County community so he could visit with U.S. Rep. Allen Ertel, D-17th District.

Meanwhile, Mayor Dan Kirby and Lycoming County Chairman Dave Frey patiently waited for their guest.

"I think it's important to keep good communications with our people in Washington," Flaherty, who also gave two newspaper interviews yesterday, said.

"A campaign has to be flexible enough to allow for lunch," Flaherty added.He dined with Ertel in a Harrisburg restaurant.

Flaherty was greeted warmly in Williamsport, despite his tardiness.

"There's no problem. We've been friends too long. Candidates are always late anyhow," Mayor Kirby said, while escorting Flaherty to a downtown shopping mall.

At the mall, Flaherty shook hands with about 50 shoppers, seeking support in his race against Republican opponent Richard L. Thornburgh.

Flaherty jumped into checkout lines and startled shoppers during his swing. He walked past one woman, who then chased after him.

Flaherty finished a strong second to former Auditor General Robert P. Casey in central Pennsylvania in the primary this spring.
