

This is no laughing matter guys. The St. Louis Cardinals are winless in their first eight games and Jets' defenseman Joe Klecko shows Cards' QB Steve Pisarkiewicz part of the reason why.

NFL Roundup

Pearsons, Cowboys corral Eagles

IRVING, Texas (AP) — Drew Pearson's diving touchdown reception and the clutch play of Preston Pearson, subbing for Tony Dorsett, ignited Dallas to a vital 14-7 victory Sunday over the Philadelphia Eagles.

The victory put the defending world champion Cowboys into a tie with Washington in the National Football League East with 6-2 records.

It was a day in which Dallas Coach Tom Landry demoted running star Dorsett to second string. Dorsett failed to show for a practice session Saturday and was replaced in the lineup by Preston Pearson.

The demoted Dorsett didn't see action until the second period and Preston Pearson started the second half. Dallas struck for two second quarter touchdowns, then turned the game over to a clanking defense which permitted the Eagles to score just once.

After a scoreless first quarter, a fumble by Eagles fullback Mike Hogan opened the floodgates.

Mark Washington pounced on the fumble at the Eagles 46. Preston

Pearson gained 12 yards and Robert Newhouse powered 22 yards with a pass over the middle. Newhouse scored from 1 yard out.

Dallas drove 71 yards in 10 plays after the Eagles failed to move, and Drew Pearson made a shoestring catch of an 11-yard Roger Staubach touchdown pass. The Cowboys wide receiver was almost perfectly defended by Johnny Outlaw on the play.

The Eagles, now 4-4, only forged five first downs in the first half but put together a 92-yard scoring drive in the third quarter.

Eagles quarterback Ron Jaworski hit Harold Carmichael with passes of 11 and 23 yards, then nailed tight end Kieth Krepfle with a 34-yard touchdown pass.

Philadelphia made a mild threat at the end of the game, driving to the Dallas 36-yard line when an intentional grounding and an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the same play backed the Eagles out of scoring position.

Jaworski had completed a 28-yard fourth down pass to Krepfle to keep the drive alive.

However, Jaworski dumped the ball off trying to weather a fierce Cowboy rush and was flagged for grounding. Eagle Coach Dick Vermeil stormed across the sidelines and was tagged with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty.

Philadelphia eventually ran out of downs and the Cowboys ran out the clock.

Dallas sacked Jaworski six times while the scrappy Eagle defense put Staubach on the ground four times.

Dallas held the NFL's leading rusher, Wilbert Montgomery, to only 57 yards on 18 carries.

Staubach completed 10 of 22 passes for 108 yards.

Preston Pearson caught a key 10-yard pass from Staubach on third and five from the Dallas 43 to keep the winning touchdown drive alive.

Tight end Billy Joe DuPree scampered 15 yards with an end around play then Staubach hit Drew Pearson with his only touchdown pass of the day.

Krepfle caught four passes for 100 yards as he constantly beat strong safety

Charlie Waters.

Waters was a doubtful starter for the game because of a cut that required 34 stitches on his face, which he suffered in an off the field accident last week.

Dallas starting defensive end Harvey Martin only played in the first series of downs because of a knee injury, and Hogan suffered a groin pull.

Jaworski completed 14 of 27 passes for 179 yards.

Yesterday's Games

Tampa Bay 33, Chicago 19
Buffalo 5, Cincinnati 0
New York Jets 23, St. Louis 10
N. Y. Giants 17, Washington 6
Dallas 14, Philadelphia 7
Detroit 31, San Diego 14
Minnesota 21, Green Bay 7
Kansas City 17, Cleveland 3
New England 33, Miami 24
Atlanta 20, San Francisco 17
Baltimore 7, Denver 6
Seattle 27, Oakland 7
New Orleans 10, Los Angeles 3

Tonight's Game

Houston at Pittsburgh, (n)

Ex-Steeler Gilliam breaks loose

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Former professional football quarterback Joe Gilliam was back at a drug abuse center Saturday less than eight hours after he walked away from the facility's detoxification program, officials said.

Stanley Jernigan, director of the Meharry drug abuse program, said Gilliam contacted one of the center's staff members late Saturday night and turned himself in to a night court judge after learning that an escape warrant had been issued against him.

"The judge left it up to a Metro Sheriff's Deputy to decide whether Gilliam could be released to our custody and he was, shortly before midnight," Jernigan said Sunday in a telephone interview. "He's back and he's settled in," he said.

Sheriff Fate Thomas said Gilliam, 27, had been transferred Wednesday from the workhouse to the Meharry Medical College alcohol and drug abuse detoxification program to get long-term treatment.

A star quarterback at Tennessee State University in Nashville, Gilliam later was with the National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers and New Orleans Saints. He was Pittsburgh's starting quarterback for six weeks in 1974, but later was waived and picked up by New Orleans. He was dropped from the Saints' squad, however, after leaving training camp the following year with no explanation.

Jernigan said he notified police and the district attorney general's office shortly after learning that Gilliam had left.

"We have 24-hour supervision but it's not custodial or a security facility," Jernigan said. "He's been remanded to our custody but we expect that will be reviewed at a court hearing sometime this week because an escape warrant was issued."

Gilliam was drug-free when he began the program, which tries to treat the emotional and psychological problems related to drug addiction, Jernigan said.

"He didn't offer any explanation about why he walked away but it's not uncommon for people to run. It's tough for anyone facing 12 to 18 months of treatment. But he seems to have a much better attitude about things now," Jernigan said.

Sheriff Thomas said Gilliam was to receive treatment in the drug detoxification program during and after the 45-day jail sentence he received Oct. 13 after a Criminal Court judge revoked the bond, which Gilliam posted on a drug possession charge still pending against him, after the state said he was unemployed and using drugs in violation of his probation.

Thomas said Gilliam was placed in the center at the request of his family.

Gilliam was arrested Oct. 12 by a police vice squad officer on a warrant issued earlier charging him with parole violation. The probation stems from Gilliam's 1976 arrest for possession of heroin, said Roger May, assistant district attorney general.

After being treated last year at a drug rehabilitation center in Richmond, Va., Gilliam tried out with the Saints but was cut. He played semi-pro ball with the Pittsburgh Wolf Pak last summer but left the team after a dispute with coaches.

College Football Roundup

California ties embarrassing mark

By The Associated Press

The games ran mostly true to form in The Associated Press Top Twenty, but it wouldn't have been a real college football weekend without something screwy going on.

For example, the California Golden Bears tied a major college record by throwing 10 interceptions in a 45-0 rout at the hands of 10th-ranked UCLA . . . but UCLA didn't set a record with the 10 interceptions.

Huh?

Well, there's a very simple explanation. California did indeed equal the embarrassing mark of 10 interceptions suffered by the University of Detroit against Oklahoma State on Nov. 28, 1942. However, the record for interceptions is 11 on Oct. 8, 1949, by Brown against Rhode Island, which is not considered a major college.

The Golden Bears not only picked the second annual Joe Roth Memorial

Game to tie a record for futility but also forced a national television audience to witness their ineptitude. Brian Baggott led the rout by returning interceptions 61 and 62 yards for touchdowns while Billy Don Jackson, a defensive tackle of all things, lumbered 16 yards for another score.

"I'm not making any excuses for our quarterbacks," said Cal Coach Roger Theder. "I'm ashamed of the way we played."

Besides the interception returns, UCLA got scoring runs of 34 yards and 1 yard from James Owens, a 22-yard touchdown by Freeman McNeil and Peter Boormeester's 28-yard field goal.

For the most part, the weekend was a far cry from last week's deluge of upsets, although third-ranked Arkansas fell to No. 8 Texas and 12th-ranked Texas A&M bowed for the second week in a row, losing to previously winless Baylor 24-6.

EAST
Maryland 39, Wake Forest 0
Navy 9, William & Mary 0
Pittsburgh 7, Florida St. 3
Temple 28, W. Virginia 27

SOUTH
Alabama 30, Tennessee 17
Louisiana St. 21, Kentucky 0

MIDWEST
Michigan 42, Wisconsin 0
Michigan St. 49, Indiana 14
Missouri 56, Kansas St. 14
Ohio St. 31, Iowa 7

SOUTHWEST
Baylor 24, Texas A&M 6
Houston 42, Southern Methodist 28
Texas 28, Arkansas 21

FAR WEST
Nebraska 52, Colorado 14
Notre Dame 38, Air Force 15
Southern Cal 38, Oregon St. 7
Stanford 43, Washington St. 27
UCLA 45, California 0

REELECT HELEN D. WISE !!

Your full-time representative from the 77th District

WISE HAS WORKED WITH PENN STATE AS AN ALUMNI TRUSTEE AND AS STATE LEGISLATOR.

WISE PLEDGES CONTINUED FULL-TIME REPRESENTATION AND SERVICE.

EARN OVER $650 A MONTH RIGHT THROUGH YOUR SENIOR YEAR.

If you're a junior or a senior majoring in math, physics or engineering, the Navy has a program you should know about.

It's called the Nuclear Propulsion Officer Candidate-Collegiate Program (NUPOC-C for short) and if you qualify, you can earn as much as $650 a month right through your senior year. Then after 16 weeks of Officer Candidate School, you'll receive an additional year of advanced technical education. This would cost you thousands in a civilian school, but in the Navy, we pay you. And at the end of the year of training, you'll receive a $3,000 cash bonus.

It isn't easy. There are fewer than 400 openings and only one of every six applicants will be selected. But if you make it, you'll have qualified for an elite engineering training program. With unequaled hands-on responsibility, a $24,000 salary in four years, and gilt-edged qualifications for jobs in private industry should you decide to leave the Navy later. (But we don't think you'll want to.)

Ask your placement officer to set up an interview with a Navy representative when he visits the campus on Nov. 7-8 or contact your Navy representative at 237-5704.

If you prefer, send your résumé to the Navy Nuclear Officer Program, Code 312-B537, 4015 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, Va. 22203, and a Navy representative will contact you directly. The NUPOC-Collegiate Program. It can do more than help you finish college: it can lead to an exciting career opportunity.

NAVY OFFICER.
IT'S NOT JUST A JOB, IT'S AN ADVENTURE.