

Clockwise from top left: Van Morrison performed some of his best known hits before an audience in Rec Hall Saturday night; the Penn State Cheerleaders — featuring the Nittany Lion — joined the Homecoming Parade Friday night; right tackle Matt Millen extended a Lion welcome to a Syracuse player during Saturday's game; Tim Molsch (7th-landscape architecture) had his hands full of potential jack-o'-lanterns at a pumpkin sale; Alpha Sigma Phi members, past and present, let the good times roll at an alumni reception; bonfire blaze on the grounds of Beaver Stadium added warmth to the Homecoming weekend; the U.S. Women's Volleyball team defeated the Japanese women's team in an exhibition match Friday night in Rec Hall; the clock on the Old Main bell tower served as a reminder of gifts of previous Penn State classes; and pre-Halloween characters paraded along College Avenue in the Homecoming Parade.

*Photos by Lynn Dudinsky,
Jack Waldron, Chip Connelly*

