Frank Brickowski takes a shot over Pittsburgh's Sam Clancy (40) in last night's contest in Rec Hall, as Pitt defenders, Terry Knight (34) and Wayne Williams (42), and Penn State's Craig Buffie (12) look on. The Panthers held off the

Philadelphia ties Toronto

TORONTO (AP) — Mel Bridgman's goal with 4:51 remaining gave the Philadelphia Flyers a 2-2 tie with the Toronto Maple Leafs in a National Hockey League game last night.

Toronto took a 2-0 lead on first-period goals by Darryl Sittler and Lanny Mc-Donald. The Flyers got one back when Tom Gorence scored late in the second

The outcome dropped Toronto into a second-place tie with Buffalo in the Adams Division. The Maple Leafs and Sabres trail Boston by 18 points and are only four ahead of last-place Minnesota. Despite their early lead, the Leafs needed some acrobatic goaltending by Mike Palmateer to come away with a Sittler scored his 24th goal at 9:27 of the first period and McDonald rammed his 23rd past Philadelphia goalie Bernie Parent at 17:00.

Palmateer blanked the Flyers until Gorence tallied with 1:49 left in the second period. Bridgman's goal was his 14th of the season. Bridgman also assisted on Gorence's goal.

Panthers foul up Lions, 54-45

Daily Collegian Sports Writer The men's basketball team had the Pitt Panthers right where it wanted them last night.

The Lions, playing on their home court, caught the Panthers in front of a high home crowd, and they also caught Pitt with a cold Sam Clancy. But probably the most important factor was that the Lions caught Pitt with their heads high in the clouds after a big win over Duke.

Some might say that the Panthers were so high that they were ripe for the pickin'. Maybe they were, but the Lions weren't ready to harvest. They fell to the Panthers for the second time this season by a score of 54-45.

"We didn't deserve to win," Penn State coach Dick Harter said. "We did not have a good basketball game."

In order to stay in the game, the Lions knew they would have to slow down Pitt's 80-point-per-game pace. While they were successful in forcing the Panthers to trim 30 points off of their average, the Lions still had problems slowing things down.

"We didn't have a chance to control the speed like we would have wanted to," Harter said.

The Lions were forced to play their opponent's game for the first five minutes last night. The pace stayed fast even though the Lions tried to slow it down every time they came down the court.

Then, things started to change. The Lions became more successful in slowing things down but were still being troubled by the Panther's defense.

But it was only a matter of time before Pitt's tough defense started to turn against them. The Panthers were being called for fouls when they tried to prevent Lion buckets and they weren't making friends with the referees on the other end of the court either.

As a result of the constant blowing of whistles, Penn State ended the game with 34 team fouls and Pitt with 19. But one important factor in the game was that three of Pitt's team fouls were the Colegan tallied by their star player before the first half ended.

"A slow-down isn't his (Clancy's) type of basketball game," Pitt coach Tim Grgurich said after the game. "We knew they'd try to draw charges. That's their style of play."

Penn State centers Carving Jefferson, Frank Brickowski and Gary Korkowski denied Clancy the ball for most of the first half and well into the second.

Clancy's first legitimate chance to score came on an off-balance lay-up at 10:30 of the second half. When that ball rolled off the rim, that's when the Lion fans came to life. But, unfortunately, the Lion team wasn't able to capitalize on it.

"Right after that is when we made a lot of bad plays defensively," Harter said.

The Lions were trailing by only one point at that time but that was as close as they got. A few minutes later Pitt's lead was eight. The two teams traded baskets for the last eight minutes with the Panthers finishing on top by nine.

Clancy's play in final minutes trips cagers

Daily Collegian Sports Writer

Pitt center Sam Clancy, held scoreless most of the night, scored six points in the closing minutes of last night's game as Pitt beat the Nittany Lions.

"Sam Clancy is a game player and every time we need him he comes through," Tim Grgurich, Pitt's coach, Clancy was held scoreless in the first half and collected just four rebounds in the game, as Penn State continually kept him away from the basket.

"I was frustrated in the first half." Clancy said. A combination of tough defense and very tight officiating kept Clancy from playing his wide-open

"I'm proud that he's (Clancy) the kind of player that he is," Grgurich said. "The slow-down isn't his style of play."

Clancy, although stopped himself, let his teammates do the scoring. "Sam knew he had to sacrifice and he did," Grgurich said.

"A win is a win," Clancy said, "anytime we can beat Penn State on their own floor it's a big win."

Penn State threw a combination of players .at Clancy, including Carvin Jefferson, Frank Brickowski and Steve Kuhn. State continually denied Clancy the ball and kept the big center from going to the boards.

"I don't like their style of play," said Clancy. "I think they should run. I think they'd beat more people if they ran."

But it was Clancy who did the running as Pitt broke away in the final minutes. Clancy scored his first points of the game with just over five minutes remaining in the game. When Pitt opened up its running game.

As Pitt began to run, the offense was centered on Clancy, who took the ball to the basket when Pitt needed it most.

It was the quickness and ability of Clancy that got Pitt going and proved to be the deciding factor in the game.

"Clancy took over at the end of the game," Grgurich said. "He's just a great player. He comes through in the clutch.

Clancy led the attack in the closing moments by playing his style. "He's got a lot of quickness for his size," Lion center Carvin Jefferson said.
