

Films

On Campus
"Mr. Klein" (1977) is a French psychological thriller, sans murder, about an aristocratic Catholic Frenchman (Alain Delon) who finds himself receiving a Jewish newspaper addressed to a man of the same name. Making his suspicions public to the police, they in turn begin to investigate him, believing him to be the other man, an alleged terrorist. Thus begins an obsession with his own past and the identity of the other "Mr. Klein," aggravated even more by the fear of "being" Jewish in 1942. Jeanne Moreau also stars in what is supposed to be a fairly effective mystery, directed by Joseph Losey. At 7 and 9 tomorrow night and Monday night, 112 Kern.

"Pink Panther Strikes Again" recreates, once again, Peter Sellers as Inspector Clouseau. Recently aired on network television, this is one of director Blake Edwards' more hysterical wind-ups. At 7 and 9 tonight and Sunday night, 112 Kern.

"Woodstock," the 1970 film about the thousands of young people who converged for one of the finest folk-rock concerts ever, should be seen for the music alone, if not for the engaging glimpses of a youth rebel movement that refused to die. Joan Baez, Crosby Stills Nash & Young are just some of the memorable performers of that time. At 7 and 10 tonight through Sunday night, Waring Lounge.

"Damnation Alley" stars George Peppard and Jan-Michael Vincent in a sci-fi flick about surviving a nuclear holocaust. At 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow night, 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. Sunday, Pollock Rec Room.

"Dumbo," the Walt Disney character with his big ears in full color animation, plays at 7 and 9:30 tonight and tomorrow night, 7:30 and 9:30 Sunday night, 108 Forum.

"The Mutations" is a British science fiction film released in 1974. It plays at 8:30 tonight and tomorrow night, 7:30 and 9:30 Sunday night, 108 Forum. Both films will also play a double bill beginning at 10:30 tonight and tomorrow night in 108 Forum.

Part one of "The Great Escape," a film said to contain "rare and devastating footage" of the Jewish holocaust in Nazi Germany, will be shown at 7:30 tonight in the main ballroom of the Sheraton Inn. The documentary is sponsored by the Messianic Jewish Congregation of State College as part of a continuing educational film series.

"Murder on the Orient Express" — Agatha Christie's murder mystery with a barrage of stars. Tonight through Sunday, 7:30 and 9:45, 321 Sparks.

"Pink Flamingos" — Davine at her sickest. Rated X. Tonight through Sunday, 7:30, 9:15 and 11, 10 Sparks.

"The Outlaw Josey Wales" (1976) is directed by and stars, who also, Clint Eastwood. Set in post-Civil War times in Kansas and Missouri, Eastwood as Josey Wales sets out on his characteristically bloody trail of vengeance (one critic said he stopped counting the killings after 25) when his family is killed by marauders. "Eastwood as hero . . . is indestructible," another wrote. "As director he has known how to give himself the best of it." At 7:30 and 10 tonight through Sunday, 105 Forum.

Clint Eastwood stars in "The Outlaw Josey Wales" this weekend on campus.

"Singin' in the Rain" (1952) starring Gene Kelly — who co-directed with Stanley Donen, is the famed and lively musical that was filmed in Williamsport, Pa. At 9 p.m. Tuesday in Schwab Auditorium.

Downtown
"Hardcore" stars George C. Scott as a self-righteous zealot in search of his missing daughter, only to find "she has been used in a shocking and sordid way," according to its advertisement. Unfortunately, that distorts the fact that screenwriter Paul Schrader has the young woman caught up in the skin flick trade from all reports, Scott's performance is fine as usual, but as a man who is never tempted by this decadence on display, his role seems oddly contrived. Schrader wrote the screenplay for Martin Scorsese's "Taxi Driver," so the neon hell and sleazy sex shops, at least, are authentic. Daily, 7:45 and 9:45, Cinema II.

"Halloween" is said to be one of the scariest (and thus one of the best) horror movies of late. Daily at 7:45 and 9:30, the State.

"Same Time Next Year" stars Alan Alda and Ellen Burstyn in the screen version of the long-running hit play. Nominated for four Academy Awards Daily at 7:15 and 9:30, the Movies.

"Fast Break" stars Gabe Kaplan in a basketball comedy that reeks of "Welcome Back Kotter" overtones. Daily at 7:45 and 9:30, Cinema I.

"Heaven Can Wait" is Warren Beatty's sugar-smacked remake of "Here Comes Mr. Jordan" but it's pleasant just the same Dyan Cannon (at her best), Charles Grodin and Julie Christie are some of the co-stars. It's nominated for nine Oscars. Daily at 7:30 and 9:30, the Flick.

"Superman" — will it ever go away? Daily at 7:15 and 9:45, the Garden.

"Rocky Horror Picture Show," weekly, midnight Friday and Saturdays.

Television

Today:
"Torn Curtain" (1966) stars Paul Newman and Julie Andrews in Alfred Hitchcock's 50th film, about an American scientist who defects to East Germany. It's not as suspenseful as some of his better works, but Newman makes it worthwhile. At 4 p.m., Channel 9.

"The Child Stealer" is a 1979 TV-movie exploring the problem of futile legal attempts to bring back children "kidnapped" by their fathers when custody has been awarded to the mothers as a result of divorce. Beau Bridges plays the straying father and Blair Brown his ex-wife in this drama. At 9 p.m., Channel 9.

"Goodbye, Agn!" is a sentimental but nonetheless interesting film due to the presence of Ingrid Bergman, Anthony Perkins and Yves Montand, in a story about a Paris interior decorator who takes up with a younger man to hurt her former lover. At 11:30 p.m., Channel 5.

This untitled creation was done by James McMurray from Eastern Michigan University. It is on display with the Super Mud Student Invitational exhibit in Zoller Gallery.

"The Paradine Case" is yet another Hitchcock movie (1948) about a crime of passion on trial in a suspenseful courtroom. Stars Gregory Peck, Ann Todd and Charles Laughton. At 12:45 a.m., Channel 10.

Saturday:
"The Murder Clinic" (1966) is an Italian thriller that sounds attractive if only because it takes place in a psychiatric hospital in turn-of-the-century Britain. Said to be "handsomely filmed." Stars William Berger, Françoise Prevost. At 10 a.m., Channel 9.

Cinematic Eye — Film observers will appreciate Benjamin Dunlap's intelligent commentary on PBS' weekly "Cinema Showcase" presentation, beginning at noon on Channel 3. This week's movie stars Charles Laughton and John Mills in "Hobson's Choice" (1954), an English comedy about a widower's plan to wed his daughters. At 12:30 p.m., Channel 3.

"Wuthering Heights" (1939), Emily Bronte's classic story of an ill-fated romance between a woman (Merle Oberon) who cares more about money than she does about her love for a stableboy called Heathcliff (Laurence Olivier) William Wyler directed; David Niven also stars. At 8 p.m., Channel 11.

Academy Leaders presents award-winning short films and cartoons that are considerably more fun than the Saturday morning kiddie show. This week's line-up includes "The Sand Castle" (1977), featuring Canadian animation using sand figures; "First Edition" (1977) about the daily routine of a metropolitan newspaper. In this case the horrors of alimony, strictly from a man's point of view. Dick Van Dyke, Debbie Reynolds, Jean Simmons and Jason Robards head a good cast. At 11:30 p.m., Channel 5.

"Divorce American Style" (1967) is an amusing and occasionally hilarious account of the horrors of alimony, strictly from a man's point of view. Dick Van Dyke, Debbie Reynolds, Jean Simmons and Jason Robards head a good cast. At 11:30 p.m., Channel 5.

Saturday Night Live for the die-hard tonight is hosted by actor Gary Busey (star of "The Buddy Holly Story"). At 11:30 p.m., Channel 6.

"Melody" (1971) is an English film about a young romance, starring "Oliver" veterans Mark Lester and Jack Wild. At 1:30 a.m., Channel 11.

Sunday:
Academy Leaders repeats at 2 p.m., Channel 3. (See above.)

"Body and Soul" (1947) is director Robert Rossen's story of a middleweight boxer's bout with success, starring John Garfield and Lilli Palmer. At 3 p.m., Channel 5.

Laurel and Hardy, two of the sharpest (if underrated) comics of our time, play policemen looking into a burglary in "The Midnight Patrol" (1933). At 3:45 p.m., Channel 10.

Merle Oberon and Laurence Olivier star in the 1939 film classic, "Wuthering Heights," Saturday at 8 p.m. on Channel 11.

"The Innocents," (1961), an English version of Henry James' "The Turn of the Screw" stars Deborah Kerr and Michael Redgrave. At 6 p.m., Channel 5.

Andres Segovia at the White House presents the 86-year-old master classical guitarist in recital. At 8 p.m., Channel 3.

Master Theatre opens tonight with "Lillie," a 13-part series about the English actress Lillie Langtry, played by Francesca Annis. At 9 p.m., Channel 3.

The Mary Tyler Moore Hour is back and revised as a talk show within a show, similar to the format of the New Dick Van Dyke Show which failed not too long ago. Let's hope Moore fares better than her still funny ex-TV-husband, Van Dyke, who plans to be one of her guests, some week. Beatrice Arthur ("Maude") co-stars tonight. At 10 p.m., Channel 10.

Upstairs Downstairs, the Emmy-winning Masterpiece Theatre British series written by John Hawkesworth returns at 8 p.m., Channel 11, and 11:30 p.m., Channel 6.

Theatre

Artists Series — Lewis Carroll's classic fairy tale, "Alice in Wonderland" will be set to music and presented by the Prince Street Players from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday in Schwab Auditorium. Tickets are $1 for children and students and $2 for adults. Unreserved seating.

Music

Concerts:
State College Choral Society will present Hayden's "The Creation" at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the State College Area Senior High School auditorium. The 100-voice choral society, now in its 30th season, will be joined by three professional soloists and a symphony orchestra under the direction of D. Douglas Miller, associate professor of music at the University. Tickets are available at the HUB and will be available at the door.

Lois Oakley (graduate-music) will present a violin concert at 3:30 p.m. Sunday in the Music Building Recital Hall. Selections to be performed are Mozart: Violin Sonata, K. 378; Bach: Partita No. 1 in B minor for Violin Solo, BWV 1002; Debussy: Sonate pour Violon et Piano. Admission is free.

Stephen Harrison (graduate-music) will give a cello concert, at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Music Building Recital Hall. Admission is free.

The Jazz Blue Band will perform tonight for the National Association of Jazz Educators at its annual conference at the Philadelphia Sheraton. The 20 musicians will be led by graduate assistant Larry Fisher.

On the Air:
Arts Showcase — 2 to 7 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1 to 8 p.m. Saturday and Sunday (WDFM, 91 FM).

Saturday:
The Metropolitan Opera, 2 to 5:30 p.m. (WDFM). R. Strauss. Ariadne auf Naxos. James Levine cond., Leontyne Price, Edita Gruberova, Talana Troyanos, Rene Kollo, Allan Monk.

Chicago Symphony Orchestra, 8:10 to 8 p.m. (WDFM). Sir Georg Solti cond., Victor Altay (violin), Emanuel Ax (piano), Schuller. Recitative and Rondo for Violin and Orchestra; Liszt: Piano Concerto No. 2 in A; Brahms: Symphony No. 1 in C minor, Op. 68.

Sunday:
"The Living Classics", 6 a.m. to noon (WXLN, 103.1 FM).

New York Philharmonic, 1 to 3 p.m. (WDFM). Erich Leinsdorf cond., Donald Gramm (bass-baritone), Gianna Rolandi (soprano), Diane Curry (mezzo-soprano); Westminster Choir; Rousset; Symphony No. 4, R. Strauss; Burger aus Edelfarn.

Library of Congress Chamber Music Series, 6:10 to 8 p.m. (WDFM). Julliard String Quartet, Jorge Bolei (piano), Donald Palma (double bass). Mozart: Eine Kleine Nachtmusik; Rachmaninoff Sonata for Cello and Piano; Schubert: Quinet in A Major; "The Trout."

"Andres Segovia at the White House." 8 to 9 p.m. (WPSX-TV, Ch. 3). The guitarist performs works by de Navarre, Bach, Sor, Castelnuovo-Tedesco, Torroba and Albeniz. Taped earlier in the day.

"Horowitz Live Encore." 10 to 11 p.m. (WPSX-TV). New York Philharmonic, Zubin Mehta cond., Vladimir Horowitz (piano). Rachmaninoff: Piano Concerto No. 3. Taped and first shown in 1978.

Sounds

The Coffeehouses: Jawbone: Bob Doyle performs at 9:45 and 11 tonight with open mike available in-between.

Kern: Reuben Sayers, Dick McEwen, Jeff McLaughlin and Carrie Palanjan are the scheduled performers beginning at 8 tonight in 102 Kern.

Around Town, tonight and tomorrow:
Alexander's, 1450 S. Atherton St., Crystal Dream.

Allen Room, 100 W. College Ave.: Ken Mathieu.

Autosport, 1405 S. Atherton St.: Jim Langton.

Brewery, 233 E. Beaver Ave.: Tahoka Freeway.

Coffee Grinder, 815 Crickwood Dr. — Toltrass: Randy Hughes.

Gatsby's, 100 W. College Ave.: The Dance Band.

Le Bistro, 210 W. College Ave.: Arthur Goldstein, tonight; Goldstein Jazz Trio tomorrow night.

Mr. C's: 112 W. College Ave. televised "Disco World," tomorrow night only.

Phyrs!, 112 1/2 E. Beaver Ave.: Tarnished Six, tonight; Phyrs! Family tomorrow night.

Rathskeller, 108 S. Pugh St.: J.B. Saloon, 101 Heister St.: Cook & Cozey. Shandygaff, rear 212 E. College Ave.: Beau Marcs.

Scorpion, downstairs 232 W. Calder Way: Sinder tonight; 7-11 Band tomorrow night.

Galleries

Museum of Art — work by 26 contemporary Japanese potters and French works from the permanent collection are now on display. Opening Sunday is Chinese Paintings and Mounted Rocks, an exhibit which concentrates on landscape art. Also opening Sunday is an exhibit by a contemporary Chinese painter, C.C. Wang. Wang will deliver a gallery talk on Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. in the museum discussing the ancient Chinese tradition of wen-jan (scholar-painters) which he follows.

Zoller Gallery — "Super Mud," an exhibit of ceramic works created by graduate students of eight universities.

Black Cultural Center — "Blacks in History," a series of portraits Also, carvings and fabrics from Africa.

Kern Commons Gallery — "Folk Arts and Crafts: The Deep South" is on national circulation by the Smithsonian Institution. Works include quilts, needlework, sculpture, paintings, baskets, and musical instruments.

HUB — multi-media exhibit by the Art Alliance of Pennsylvania; Masterworks from the Super Mud competition.

Pattee Library — through Wednesday, a glass invitation in the East Corridor Gallery. University art students are represented in conceptual and multi-media works; photographs by Scott Bluebond in the lending services lobby.

Etc., etc.

Speakers:
Rev. Robert Boyer, campus minister for the United Ministries at the University will be the guest at the 11 a.m. interdenominational service in the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel Sunday. His topic will be "The Great Parable."

Dr. Edward Anders of the University of Chicago will give a series of talks for the 53rd annual Priestley Lectures next Monday through Thursday at 8 p.m. in 119 Osmond. The lectures are: "Earliest History of the Solar System as Inferred from Meteorites;" "Origin of Organic Compounds in Meteorites;" "Composition and Origin of the Inner Planets;" and "Was There a Superheavy Element in Meteorites?"

Sports

Home:
Volleyball — The team will face Pittsburgh at 7 tonight in Rec Hall as the Lions (15-1) begin a weekend home series against two eastern teams. The Lions will host Army at 7 tomorrow to round out the weekend.

Bowling — The team meets Maryland at 1 tomorrow in Rec Hall.

Away:
Women's Basketball — The Lady Lions will meet Rutgers in the semi-final round of the Mid-Atlantic Regionals at 7 tonight in Towson, Md. A win for the Lady Lions (21-6) will assure them a spot in the national women's basketball tournament. If the Lady Lions advance to the final round, they will meet the winner of the Cheyney St.-Maryland contest, which will be played at 9 tonight. The championship will be played tomorrow night.

Wrestling — Penn State wrestlers Sam Salitt and John Hanrahan will represent the Lions in the National Collegiate Athletic Association wrestling tournament which began yesterday at Iowa State. The tournament will also run today and tomorrow.

Fencing — The men's team will defend its team championship at the North Atlantic Intercollegiate Conference fencing meet tomorrow at Princeton. Lion entries in the tourney will be Jeff Haney and Mike Corona in epee, Matt Harris and Brian Gibson in foil and Don Lear and Dan Jaroshov in sabre.

Women's Track — The team will be defending its team title in the Eastern Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women championships this weekend at Princeton. The team will send 18 girls to the competition including senior Liz Berry, twice the EIAAW three-mile champion.

Men's Track — The indoor track team will journey to Detroit to compete in the National Collegiate Athletic Association championships "Definite" qualifiers according to coach Harry Groves should be Robert Snyder in the two mile run and Allen Scharsu in the three mile run.

Directory

The Theatres
• Cinema One and Cinema Two, 116 Heister St.	237-7657
• The Flick, 129 S. Atherton St.	237-2112
• The Garden, 114 S. Allen St.	237-0012
• The Movies, corner of Beaver Avenue and Garner Street	237-0003
• Screening Room, 127 S. Fraser St.	238-6005
• State Theatre, 128 W. College Ave.	237-7866
On Campus
• Artists Series, Pine Cottage	865-1871
• Chambers Gallery	865-8579
• Eisenhower Auditorium	865-0225
• HUB Desk	865-2000
• Kern Commons Gallery	865-1878
• Museum of Art	865-7672
• Paul Robeson Cultural Center	865-3776
• Playhouse and Pavilion Theatres	865-1884
• Zoller Gallery	865-0444
Weekend , a summary of entertainment and events at Penn State each weekend, appears every Friday in The Daily Collegian. Contributions can be dropped off daily at the Collegian office, 126 Carnegie.

The Lady Lions meet Rutgers at Maryland in tournament action tonight.