6-The Daily Collegian Tuesday, May 8, 1979

Gordon Johncock, left talks to his master mechanic George Bignotti prior to his first practice at the Indianapolis 500. Johncock was the first CART member to run his car on the track after a federal judge ruled that CART members were allowed to run in the Memorial Day classic.

CART members preparing

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) - Crews and drivers for the six reinstated Championship Auto Racing Teams, unsure until last weekend if they would even be allowed into Gasoline Alley, started making up for lost time yesterday at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

"We were fortunate it was not really a setback," said Wally Dallenbach, the drivers' representative for CART and one of the plaintiffs in the breakaway organization's antitrust suit against the U.S. Auto Club and the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

A federal judge Saturday night granted a preliminary injunction that put the six CART teams back on the entry list for the May 27 Indianapolis 500. "The crews on my team were able to continue working (during the three-day hearing), anticipating a favorable decision," said Dallenbach, whose cars are built nearby at George Bignotti's The bulk of the work will be on engine changes to conform with USAC restrictions on manifold pressure boost, lower than has been used on the CART race circuit.

"Some of the other teams that had to travel two or three days and had to have other engines built, I would assume it would be more of a setback for them." said Dallenbach, who is seeking his 13th straight start at Indianapolis.

'Rolaids' don't give Indiana relief

By PETE DOUGHERTY

Daily Collegian Sports Writer

Fortunately for the baseball team, someone remembered to pack the Rolaids before yesterday's trip to Indiana (Pa.).

The "Rolaids" in this case were pitchers Todd Kresge and Lonnie Styles, who provided necessary relief as Penn State saved face to sweep Indiana, 6-2 and 5-3.

Senior Frank Deutsch started the opener for the 17-4 Lions but was taken out of a 2-2 ballgame against lowly regarded IUP with two out in the sixth.

"Deutsch pitched well until he ran out of gas," Penn State coach Chuck Medlar said, delivering a sermon he has given often. "He walked a couple so we brought Kresge in, and he did an excellent job."

Kresge didn't allow a baserunner in his 1 1-3 innings. The Lions came up with four runs in the top of the seventh keyed by Bob Orwig's and Bill Benner's run-scoring singles — to give the junior pitcher his first win of the year.

Styles came to the rescue in the second game after Indiana had tied the game 3-3 in the bottom of the fourth. Dave Spamer, who threw a two-hit shutout his last outing, lasted only 2 2-3 innings yesterday. John Pucky relieved, but he, too, had problems. 'Spamer got into trouble and started aiming the ball," Medlar explained. "He got the ball in their eyes. Pucky wasn't doing much better, so we brought in Styles.

"Styles had his fast ball and a good slider. As long as he has that good fast ball and good slider, and has control of them, he's tough to beat," Medlar said.

Dave Simononis got his seventh gamewinning RBI of the year with a one-out homer in the fifth inning of the second game. Jeff Rumberger homered earlier, and pitcher-turned-designated hitter Mike Guman delivered a couple of runs with a pair of singles.

"He's starting to get his timing," Medlar said. "He hasn't hit in two years. He didn't hit last year because we had a pretty good designated hitter (Rumberger).'

Guman will get to test his defensive skills tomorrow. He'll see if his sore arm has recovered when he gets the call to start one of the games of the Cornell doubleheader at Beaver Field. Dave June will pitch the other game.

EXTRA BASES: Catcher Terry Brown was hit in the shoulder by a pitched ball in the seventh inning of the first game. He was removed and did not play the nightcap, but his injury is not

				GAN	AE 1
PENN STATE				INDI	ANA
	ab	r	h	bi		ab	r	h	b
Orwig ss	3	1	1	1	Murphy dh	4	1	2	0
Benner 2b	2	1	1	2	Miscik ss	3	0	0	0
Rumberger 1b	3	1	2	1	Cerilli 1b	3	0	0	0
Simononis cf	4	0	1	1	Farina c	3	1	2	1
Urbanovich 3b	3	0	0	0	Kalna cf	3	0	0	0
Cervino rf	3	0	0	0	Eckley If	1	0	0	0
McKnight If	2	1	0	0	Kromel rf	2	0	0	0
Brownc	2	1	0	0	Runyan 3b	3	0	0	0
Morrell pr	0	1	0	0	McIlvaine 2b	3	0	0	0
Brushc	0	0	0	0	Mitskadich p	0	0	0	0
Goshorn dh	2	0	0	0	Navagep	0	0	0	0
Guman dh	0	1	0	0
Deutsch p	0	0	0	0
Kresge p.	0	0	0	0
Totals	24	6	5	5	Totals	25	Z	4	1
Penn State		(	000	10	1 4 6
Indiana E — Orwig, F	ເບກ		100 n.		00 0 - 2 3 - Penn State :	5, In	dia	ina	6.
2B — Rumbe	rge	r.	3H	3	- Farina. SB -	— N	/u	rpt	ıy,
					ner. S — Eckle
			er

	տո	п	Г	сг	80	00
Deutsch	5%	4	2	1	4	3
Kresge (W, 1-0)	1 1/3	0	0	0	1	0
Matskadich (L)	6*	5	6	5	2	5
Navage	1	0	0	0	0	0
* pitched to fiv	e batte	rs ir	ıse	ver	ıth.
HBP - by Mitsk believed to be serious. ... Brown's replacement, little-used Terry Brush, was 2-for-2 in the second game with a double.

Orwig got his second game-winning hit of the season in the opener. . . . Medlar

WP-Spamer 2 wouldn't say for sure, but the announcement of tomorrow's pitcher would indicate Mark Lambert, who

3%

abrhbí

3 1 1 0

3022

4 0 1 0

0000

1 0'0'0

2 0.0 0

2 0 0 f/ 2 1 0 0

0 0 0 0

25 3 7 3

č

45

INDIANA

PENN STATE

Rumberger 1b 4 1 1 1

Simononis cf 3 1 1 1

Urbanovich 3b 4 0 1 0

Orwig ss

Benner 2b

Cervino 3b

Brush c

Morrell pr

Guman dh

Spamer p

Pucky p

Styles p

Penn State

Indiana

Miscik

Spamer

Pucky

Styles (W, 2-0)

Bednar (L)

Totals

ab r h bi

4000

0 1 0 0

3022

0000

0 0 0 0

0000

30 5 9 5 Totals

011 111 0 - 5

002 100 0 - 3

E-Bednar. LOB-Penn State 8, Indiana 8. 2B-Urbanovich, Brush, Farina. 3B-Murphy. HR-

Rumberger, Simononis, S-Brush, McIlvaine, SF-

inn h r er sobb

23/3 4 2 2 2 2 2

1 1 1 1 0 2

7 9 5 5 5 3

20021

McKnight If 4 2 2 1 Kalna rf 2020

3000 Murphy dh

Cerilli 1b

Farina c

Mele ph

Eckley l

Runyan 3b Fisher cf

Bednar p

McIlvaine 2b

Picoloni c

3 0 0 0 Miscikss

threw a four-hit shutout at Pitt Sunday, will be the pitcher for Saturday's big home game with Temple.

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, named "Athlete of the Decade," yesterday said there are no more mountains he aspires to climb - he just wants to build a bigger mountain.

"I always have put great emphasis on major championships," said golf's all-time winner. "Some day someone will come along to beat my records. My aim is to make that job tougher by building a bigger mountain.

"At 38, I still enjoy the game. I want to continue playing as long as I feel I can be competitive. I hope to enlarge on my list of major championships.'

Realistic observers believe Nicklaus has built a mountain that no man ever will scale — 17 major pro and amateur titles and more than $3.4 million in prize money. No other modern player is close in either category.

The late Bob Jones formerly held the record for major tournament victories, 13, but six of these were amateur titles, five U.S. and one British. Ben Hogan and Gary Player captured nine major professional championships each. Arnold Palmer has seven major pro crowns, one U.S. Amateur.

When Jones retired in 1930 at the age of 28 with his sweep of the heralded Grand Slam --- the U.S. and British opens and the U.S. and British amateurs — those events were regarded as the "majors." With the sudden explosion of pro golf, the face of the game changed, the Masters replacing the amateur events as one of the standards. Nicklaus' money total is almost twice that of any other player.

Golfers eighth at Qualifier

Penn State's golf season ended on a dismal note Sunday when the Lions finished eighth in the NCAA District Qualifier played at the Wilmington Country Club course in Delaware.

Perennial favorite Temple won the 13-team tournament by edging out first day leader Bucknell, 617-624. Kevin Kleir led the Owls with a medalist score of 78-71-149. Two Lions were 10 strokes off the pace in leading Penn State to a 328-318-646 finish. Senior Gary Durbinregistered rounds of 77 and 82 on his way to a 159 total while freshman Steve Krolikowski shot the same' score via rounds of 83 and 76.

Mike Boyle (87-78-165), Jeb Boyle (84-82-166), and senior Rob Geiger (84-87-171), rounded out the scoring for Penn State.

-by Mike Poorman

