

Rangers, out on links, await Stanley Cup finals

NEW YORK (AP) — It would be surprising to just about anyone who thinks practice makes perfect. But the New York Rangers are a very surprising hockey club.

They did not schedule a practice yesterday, as a team might, since the National Hockey League final playoff series begins Saturday. The New York Rangers took the day off. And they played golf.

"Yep, I'm going to try to break 100 again," said John Davidson, who helped carry the Rangers to a six-game upset of the New York Islanders in the semifinal round that ended Tuesday night.

Left wing Steve Vickers played, too. After suffering through four years where the suburban Islanders were New York's team and the Rangers didn't even make the Stanley Cup quarter-finals, Vickers can enjoy 18 holes as a member of the team that has won this city's love.

"I'm glad, in that now I can walk out on Long Island," he mused. "I've had to walk out the back door for the last four years."

That's over now. For the first time since 1972, the Rangers have made the finals, and they beat the regular season's best team in getting there.

Vickers, openly enjoying the triumph Tuesday night, knew only too well how the Islanders felt.

"I know exactly what they'll do. They'll go on a three-day drunk like I usually do, then wake up one morning and say, 'Let's get the heck out of here,' and go to Florida," said Vickers.

The Rangers have a different destination, though they won't know what it is until the Boston Bruins and Montreal Canadiens have played the seventh game of their semifinal tonight.

"Whoever it is (the Rangers play), they'd better be ready," said defenseman Denis Potvin after the Islanders made the semifinals for the fourth time in their seven-year history — and lost for the fourth time. "I just hope the Rangers' luck and tenacity will carry them through."

At least one Rangers player, Anders Hedberg, sees no reason why it shouldn't. "Why not?"

Bucs bop Braves in 'slug'fest

ATLANTA (AP) — John Milner hit a grand slam home run moments after the first of two near brawls in the ninth inning and Bill Robinson homered twice to power the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 17-9 victory Wednesday night over the Atlanta Braves.

In addition to the two near brawls, four Pirates and one Brave were ejected, three Pirates and Atlanta pitcher Phil Niekro were hit by pitches, and both teams played the game under protest.

Bill Robinson slammed his home runs in the first and fourth innings, giving him seven for the season, and the Pirates scored seven runs in the ninth, capped by Milner's grand slam.

Dave Parker was hit by Atlanta reliever Gene Garber in the ninth, the second hit batsman of the inning, and Parker charged the mound.

Parker was grabbed by Atlanta catcher Dale Murphy as he attempted to throw a punch, and both benches spilled onto the field. Order was quickly restored, but Parker was ejected from the game and he hurled his batting helmet as he left in anger.

In the bottom of the inning, Pirates reliever Kent Tekulve threw an inside pitch to pinch hitter Rowland Office, who threw down his helmet in disgust and walked toward the mound, again clearing both benches. Office was ejected before things got out of hand.

The Expos opened the scoring when Tony Perez walked, reached third on an error by Madlock and came home on Ellis Valentine's sacrifice fly.

Phils 2, Padres 0

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Dick Ruthven tossed a one-hitter, yielding only a two-out double in the seventh to Dan Briggs, and the Philadelphia Phillies won their sixth straight game, a 2-0 shutout over the San Diego Padres last night.

It was the second straight shutout for Ruthven and the sixth straight win against no losses. Ruthven struck out two and walked two batters in becoming the second six-game winner in the National League. Vida Blue of San Francisco picked up his sixth win earlier Wednesday, beating Montreal 9-2.

Greg Luzinski had three hits, driving in two runs, to lead the Phillies offense.

Yanks 5, Mariners 0

NEW YORK (AP) — Ed Figueroa silenced Seattle on five hits and Reggie Jackson hit a three-run homer last night to lead the New York Yankees to a 5-0 victory over the Mariners.

Figueroa, 3-3, walked three and struck out two to post his first shutout and third complete game of the season.

Glenn Abbott, 1-4, matched Figueroa until the fourth inning, when Graig Nettles beat out an infield single with one out and came around on singles by Jackson and Lou Piniella.

In the seventh, Jay Johnstone beat out an infield hit, was bunted to second by Bucky Dent and scored on a single by Thurman Munson. Nettles then doubled down the right field line before Jackson hit his sixth homer of the year, a 440-foot shot into the Yankee bullpen in left center field.

A's 4, Orioles 2

BALTIMORE (AP) — Mike Norris pitched a one-hitter and Mario Guerrero and Jeff Newman drove in ninth-inning runs, giving the Oakland A's a 4-2 victory over the Baltimore Orioles last night.

Norris, 3-1, hurled his first complete game in seven starts this season. He walked six, including three in the ninth, and struck out five.

He retired 13 consecutive batters before Eddie Murray reached on a one-out error by first baseman Dave Revering in the seventh. After Lee May walked, Gary Roenicke doubled to left-center, tying the score 2-2.

Wayne Gross drove in Oakland's first two runs with a first-inning homer and a third-inning single off Jim Palmer, 4-2.
