Penn State Off-Campus students: your last assignment
could save you money.

If you're a Penn State student who lives off campus, you might leave school this term without having your telephone service suspended or disconnected. If you do, you may have to pay a lot of unnecessary bills for maintaining telephone service while you're away. So it's very important that you complete your last assignment: let us know whether to suspend or disconnect your telephone service.

Here's how.
If you plan to return to your present residence, please call our Business Office at 234-5466 and tell us. If you do not plan to return to the same residence, you should complete and return the disconnect application you recently received. Or fill-out the coupon below and mail it to us.
Any questions? Call our Business Office at 234-5466.
