reported yesterday a vehicle was driven through the lawn area of the

-News briefs-

yesterday in the snow-swept East raked by a storm that brought the earliest snowfalls in history to some

Most easterners got a respite from Wednesday's snow, though a dusting of snow wafted over the Buffalo. N.Y., area. Ice — formed by arctic temperatures that followed Wednesday's sloppy mix of rain and snow 40s in much of the Northeast early yesterday. Boston's 32-degree low Ice covered roads across the equalled a century-old record for the Boston area, and police reported date.

predicting an end to the market's to close at 844.62, down 4.70.

Three-day market slide stalls

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock — Trading was not at the fever pitch market's three-day slide stalled that characterized Tuesday's session, yesterday as trading on the New York when 55.56 million shares moved on Stock Exchange, although still heavy, the New York Stock Exchange, or was off considerably from Wed-Wednesday's session, when a record nesday's record-setting pace. 81.62 million shares changed hands, but the volume of 47.53 million shares Analysts were cautious i skid, attributing the calming in the many tales of woe. market to a number of internal At the Merrill Lynch booth at Grand Central Terminal, investors The closely-watched Dow Jones gathered to check on their holdings: industrial average, after plunging "I want to get out of the market," 48.29 in the first three days of the said one man, "But my wife doesn't week, began the day with a slight So far I'm not winning. My wife increase, fell sharply, and recovered bought some stocks three days ago.

So far she's lost $400."

government said.

A 22-vear-old woman was killed highway and struck a telephone pole in Boston's suburban Waltham vesterday. An 88-year-old struck and killed by a truck that skidded on the snow-glazed road in Temperatures dipped to the 30s and Despite the recovery, there were

LA PAZ, Bolvia (UPI) — Army

troops in the city of Trinidad took up arms vesterday to demand the ouster

of President Walter Guevara Arce

and the installation of a military government, but the rebels were persuaded to call off the coup attempt and return to their barracks, the

The government said Guevara,

with the full support of his top military leaders, yesterday persuaded rebellious army garrisons in the northeast jungles to call off the

The coup threat began shortly after nidnight when troops of the Sixth Division based in Trinidad, 310 miles northeast of La Paz, streamed out of barracks and took over major public and private buildings as well as radio compromise plan by which the Senate would agree to a 5.5 percent pay increase and accept additional restrictions on abortion funding, but front of her home Wednesday.

outhampton, Mass., woman was

Bolivia coup attempt falls short

Walter Gueuara Arce

stations in the city of 40,000 people. Joint committee is deadlocked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A House- The abortion and pay raise issues Senate conference committee are tied to and holding up a conyesterday failed to break a deadlock tinuing resolution that would provide over abortion funding and a authority for payments to be made congressional pay raise that until regular appropriations for fiscal threatens to delay regular pay checks for more than 2 million federal embegan Oct. 1.

The conference committee scheduled another session for this morning in an effort to resolve the dispute and keep government agencies from running out of money. If Congress does not resolve its

The plan floundered when the differences this week, 1.6 million Senate conferees insisted that the members of the armed forces will miss their payday Monday and some House first vote on the compromise 1.25 million federal employees — abortion language before the Senate more than half of the 2.3 million considered the pay hike. The House federal workers — will get only half members said the two issues should an appearance in Hazelton.

government funds.

Thornburgh explains shake-up

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Dick sonnel and your policies to meet the Thornburgh said yesterday that he problems as they arise on a day-tomade his first cabinet shakeup "to day basis," Thornburgh said. enhance the management "These were changes undertaken capabilities" of his administration. to enhance our management In two unexpected moves, Health capability within the ad-Secretary Gordon MacLeod and ministration,'

Labor and Industry Secretary Myron One administration source said Joseph were asked to leave after both were asked to quit "to improve meeting with the governor this week. the overall top executive structure." "Both tendered their resignations There had been no public inkling of as a result of discussions we had had dissension in the Thornburgh cabinet, concerning the direction of the ad- but friction apparently had been ministration," the governor said at building during the 30 weeks of "I think change is a necessary Both men will return to teaching at characteristic of government as you Pittsburgh universities after they try to adjust your course, your per- depart at the end of the month.

Senators denounce Talmadge

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate against the Georgia Democrat. voted overwhelmingly yesterday to While Stevenson listed the charge denounce Herman E. Talmadge, one against Talmadge, the Georgia of its senior members, for Democrat sat quietly in the Senate "reprehensible" handling of chamber with his lawyer. After detailing the charges financial misconduct against the of investigation by the Senate Ethics senator, Stevenson urged the Senate Committee and a brief debate on the to "characterize his conduct as Senate floor. It was the first time the reprehensible (and) denounce that Senate has used the word "denounce" in expressing disapproval of the Immediately after the vote, actions of one of its members.

Talmadge took the floor to say he had Sen. Adlai Stevenson III, D-Ill., made mistakes of negligence and that chairman of the ethics panel, had he regretted them. However, he urged the Senate to "discharge a added that the Ethics Committee had disagreeable duty" and accept the panel's resolution of denunciation were willful.

Cambodian refugees given aid

TAPRIK, Thailand (UPI) — The in the past two days. Thai military and international relief organizations yesterday distributed emergency food and medicine to thousands of Cambodian refugees who crossed into Thailand to escape Vietnamese attacks. A Thai military officer at the procession of refugees said the best-

Some of the refugees were so weak from disease and lack of food they collapsed as they tried to get away from the border.

Thai soldiers guarding the ragged border estimated that more than fed were unarmed Khmer Rouge 15,000 Cambodian refugees, mostly soldiers, Communist Party cadre and women and children, fled Cambodia their families.

X-ray scientists capture award

developing a revolutionary X-ray scanner. scanner whose pinpoint accuracy has made some once-incurable diseases human body is photographed. "This is the biggest breakthrough mostly looking forward to breakfast with since the invention of the X-ray," said his wife and three children, "if I ever get Uls Rudhe of the Nobel committee of the to it."

Karolinska Institute. Especially remarkable, the Nobel Cormack was cited for pioneering 10 years later. research into the theory of tomography the 1979 Nobel Prize for Medicine for machine, also known as the CAT dlesex, England.

their award when they were called by reporters for their reaction. Allan MacLeod Cormack, 55, of Cormack awoke to a ringing telephone Winchester, Mass., and Godfrey in his suburban Boston home and it took Newbold Hounsfield, 60, of Middlesex, him a minute to comprehend the news. England. shared the $193.000 award for "I'm astonished," he managed to say. work in the field of tomography, an X-ray method by which a "slice" of the As the morning wore on, the telephone kept ringing. Cormack said he was Cormack heads the physics department at Tufts University in Medford, committee said, was that the two men Mass. He was born in Johannesburg, conducted their research independently South Africa, but moved to the United States in 1956 and became a U.S. citizen

American and a Briton yesterday won the computerized axial tomography and Musical Industries (EMI) in Mid-"That's fantastic." he exclaimed

Both men received the first news of when reached at his laboratory and told the news. "You've knocked me sideways. I didn't expect anything like and he headed the design team for the > Cormack was cited by the Nobel committee as the first person to make an accurate analysis of the conditions for recise X-ray pictures of "entire first large, solid-state computer to be "made the major contribution to introducing computer tomography into medicine by constructing the first Hounsfield, a bachelor who has won 25 practical system applied to general

Castro's arrival turns city into 'armed camp'

an address to the United Nations and turned a quiet Batista. Manhattan neighborhood into an armed camp. Castro went into seclusion in the Cuban U.N. Mission, on his arrival at Kennedy Airport at 12:53 a.m. In an

New York. Castro was upset because the management the U.S. military presence in the Caribbean. cash deposit against damages.

tourage had plucked chickens in their rooms and like movement - troop movement. It keeps us on the scattered feathers and bones over the carpets.

NEW YORK (UPI) - Fidel Castro, surrounded by and he reminisced about a "honeymoon" trip to New speech at 11:30 a.m. today, but the scene outside the bodyguards and Secret Service agents carrying sub- York in 1949 - 10 years before he came down from the mission on East 38th Street yesterday was one of calm, machine guns, came to the United States yesterday for Sierra Madre Mountains to oust dictator Fulgencio "I am happy to be in the United States," Castro said iust one block from the Shelbourne Hotel, the East Side interview aboard his jetliner later broadcast by NBCestablishment he stormed out of during a 1960 visit to TV, he scoffed at President Carter's plans to increase refused to fly the Cuban flag and demanded a $10,000 "I think that's very interesting," Castro said i Spanish. "They're spending a lot of money of the U.S. The hotel later claimed the Cuban president's en-taxpayers and they're not solving any problems. We

On this visit the bearded Cuban leader said he Anti-Castro Cuban exiles promised demonstrations brought lobsters, which he caught himself, for dinner, outside the United Nations during Castro's scheduled enforced by the presence of hundreds of police officers and security men.

Police dogs sniffed garbage cans along the streets for Other dogs, including a Boston terrier named Hayden, were miffed that their favorite curbstones had been declared off limits. "His whole modus operandi has been upset by that cigar smoker," grumbled

About 30 members of the anti-Castro group known as Alpha-66 carried placards reading, "Cuba is a Soviet satellite," and chanted, "Fidel, go to hell," and

Bloodmobile sign-up to be held

mobile registration from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. lot on Route 26 south of State College. today at the dining halls during mealtimes and in the HUB basement.

 An exhibition of mixed-media works is on display in the Kern Gallery until

• The Landscape Architecture Student Society will sponsor a fall festival from 10:30 a.m. today to 6 p.m. Sunday on the tonight at the State College Skating campus mall'at Willard.

• The Penn State Organization for the Paul Robeson Cultural Center. Reform of Marijuana Laws will give refunds for Chris Rush tickets from second through fifth periods today on the HUB ground floor.

Deleware Law School will be on campus to talk with students interested in law school at 1:30 p.m. today in 113 Sparks. join the Penn State Glee Club for the sponsor a bike ride to Valley View and Appointments can be made by con- annual Homecoming Concert at 7:30 tacting the political science department tomorrow night in Eisenhower HUB parking lot. secretary, 107 Burrowes, at 865-7515.

hold Homecoming '79 Candlelight dance at 7:30 tomorrow night in the HUB Paul Robeson Cultural Center.

• The Shaver's Creek Nature Center

Of Dinners from 4:45 to 6:45 tonight.

the Blue golf course Interested persons be on display beginning Sunday at the 223 HUB.

will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday in the

 The ballroom dance club will meet at 7 tonight in 133 White Building. • Iota Alpha Delta will sponsor picnic on Sunday at Sunset Park.

• Interlandia Folkdancing will be held • The Catholic Center will sponsor a at 7:30 tonight in the HUB Ballroom. Homecoming Mass at 11 a.m. Sunday in • The Black Caucus Social Services Committee will sponsor a Sir Skate at 11

Cultural Center will sponsor a talk by Joseph L. Johnson from the class of 1918 at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Paul Robeson Rink. A Sadie Hawkins night will also be

• The West Point Cadet Glee Club will • The PSOC bike committee will

• The Terrace Room at the HUB will • Campus 4-H will sponsor a square Greek Forum at 2 p.m. Sunday at the

• The model railroad club will meet at • The Unity Christian Ministries Mass p.m. Sunday at the Shaver's Creek 7 tonight in the HUB basement. Choir will present an open-air gospel. Nature Center located in Stone Valley concert at 4 p.m. tomorrow on the steps Recreation Area.

will sponsor a star watch at 8 tonight on Photographs by Aaron Siskind will general meeting at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in

• The Free University will hold a

OUR EXPENSIVE SHOES

20% off all men's and women's dress & designer shoes

AREN'T ANYMORE

Besides a good looking head, we're now beautiful from the neck down

Local arson attempts fail, police say

• State Police at Rockview safe, police said reported two cases of attempted Oil was poured on the floor and There was an unknown amount of under a desk and then lit, but police damage and it is not known whether The first fire occurred at the U.S. said the oil did not ignite although the anything was taken, police said. The Post Office in Pine Grove Mills either floor was charred. An estimate of the Boalsburg Fire Co. responded. late Tuesday or early Wednesday, damages is unknown, police said. The Harris Township Municipal building was the scene of the second building was smashed, and the door fire at 5 a.m. Wednesday. unlocked, police said. The office was Police said their office was first North Halls quad. Damage was set at then ransacked and $75 taken from a burglarized and a fire set afterwards $125, police said. — by Lynne Reese • The Office of Religious Affairs will sponsor a University Chapel Service at sponsored at 11 tomorrow night at the 11 a.m. Sunday in the Recital Hall of the USG committee to promote women's concerns

 John Loyd Jr. of Washington, D.C. will give the morning message at the services of the Unity Christian Increasing the awareness of women's concerns is the goal of Ministries at 11:15 a.m. Sunday in the the Undergraduate Student Government department of Frizzell Room of Eisenhower Chapel. women's affairs, acting director Jill Jacoby said Wednesday. Jacoby said the department existed last year, but "nothing really happened" since there was no input. About 20 women came to a meeting to discuss reorganizin Bellefonte at 1 p.m. Sunday. Meet at the the department, Jacoby said, but attendance has dropped at the last few meetings. Jacoby said apathy is a problem, and the department needs active members who are willing to make the commitment to get the organization on its feet.

• Greek Council will sponsor an Inner "We'd like this to be more of a feminist-oriented organization," Jacoby said. "We want to raise awareness on campus as far as women's concerns." • A winter weeds walk will be held at 2 Some of the concerns include better lighting on campus, which Jacoby said would be a project of the department. Member Helene Meyers said a rape prevention committee has been formed, and the department has discussed an escort system consisting of pairs of women, as an alternative to the male escort system provided by student counselors.

Jacoby said the department would like to have women a combination of the extremes most people associate with the Member Lisa Petruzzi said feminism is "making women publish a newsletter for women.

be abolished.

aware of themselves as individuals, and their own self-worth." She said that goal would entail restructuring a society that keeps women from becoming individuals. "Women should be aware that there are other choices oper to them," Meyers said.

sponsoring a speaker with Colloguy. The department also hopes to hold a seminar on women's health concerns and to Everything is still tentative, Jacoby said. Input and dedicated people are needed to help establish the department, she said, and "if it doesn't get off the ground, it will eventually

"At this stage, we need student support and student input,"

she said. Meyers said the department wants to represent

Meyers said feminism is misunderstood, and the depart ment hopes to increase awareness on campus that feminism is women on campus, and is "interested in women as a whole."

are the ones who

-offer peer counseling -give out information -handle escort calls -want to help

YOU

STUDENT COUNSELORS

135 Boucke

COUNSELORS

4pm - midnight Noon - 8pm

MPENNSTATEMAGODH JLIONSROARNPFTO CEINVADERWOSM GONEYSHRRSEC ONXGPTENJSERTLN EANPUTCQHTSFYG AQUARTERFREEAJTM PPLAYAWAYARCADES UDALUMNIOQXFREUA

Find the Following Words: (they may be frontwards, backwards, rightside up and upside down)

LIONS ROAR

SHARPE SHOOTER LUNAR LANDER WARRIORS

PLAY-A-WAY ARCADES PARAGON SPACE INVADER FREE-2 SUNDANCE

Find the words and bring the completed puzzle to PLAY-A-WAY-ARCADES 127 S. Pugh Street Find 10 words - receive 1 FREE game, 25 words - receive 2 FREE games, 30 words - receive 5 FREE

(one per person – expires 10-18-79 Open 8 AM-4 AM

PUGH STREET