Mary Sue Patterson reaches for a loose ball in yesterday's game against East Stroudsburg. The Lady Lions face

Stickgals shut out Stroudsburg was looking for some tough com- game.

far this season. The Lady Lions are at score again until freshman forward East Stroudsburg, 4-0. Connecticut's Rutgers tomorrow, and Sunday they Brenda Stauffer pushed one through only loss came against national travel to Connecticut, ranked fourth with only 6:46 left in the game.

the game, senior midfielder Deb 24 saves. Penn State's goalie, Jeannie centrate this weekend."

Stroudsburg goalie's shin guard and in recording her 11th career shutout.

Throughout the second half Penn

The Lady Lion field hockey team slapped home the first goal of the "It was a wide open fast-paced petition in preparation for this "It was really kind of a lucky goal," Rattray said. "There was a lot of weekend's big games and it got it Malone said. "The goalie made a bad crowding around their goal that made from East Stroudsburg State College play by kicking the ball back to me it difficult to get a shot off. Their yesterday, and defeated the Warriors and I just pulled to the left and put it defense was pretty strong though and their goalie played well also." With the win, third-ranked Penn The fieldwomen soon discovered, With yesterday's win, Penn State State (7-1) will now take to the road however, that the Warriors have a now hopes it is ready for the for two weekend games that should fine defense. The Lady Lions outshot demanding weekend. Rutgers, prove to be the most important thus East Storudsburg 35-10, but did not although unranked in the top 20, beat champion West Chester. In yesterday's game with East State controlled play and managed to psyched for us," sophomore forward Stroudsburg, it first appeared that keep the ball, in its shooting Candy Finn said. "But if we move the Penn State was going to put together perimeter, forcing East Stroud- ball and take control we can beat a potent scoring attack. Just 4:07 into sburg's goalie Debbie Cease to make anybody. We really have to con-

Dow, Daniels lead tenniswomen against Penn

pered the women's tennis team's weekend." practice for tomorrow's meet at the Royer has switched No. 1 seed Carol Kleis lost in the quarter-finals last "The players had a hard week of-practice," women's tennis coach Candy Rover said. "We had to play indoors

I'I thought that Cherie had a parweekend," Royer said. "Carol hasn't hit her stride. With the hamstring pull and ticularly good tournament last Silversteen. four or five days. Others and put her match together."

Daniels is expected to play No. 2 Lisa Penn 8.5-0.5. The competition was called "Some of the players haven't played the illness, she hasn't played that well because of darkness and the two teams split the last doubles match. by Glenn Kaup haven't played for eight or nine. So, Dow will meet another freshman, No.

Puerto Rico.

Stone-Ground 'Masa" Corn Dough Topped with Chili-Con-Carne and Pedro's Corn Chips.

Reg. $2.65 Today $2.19 131 S. Garner St. Phone for Take-Out 234-4725

The time is getting near. . .

o don't miss Monday's edition for ticket information on you know who.

Lartists_l series

Stamatis nears record

Terps challenge booters

WILL PAKUTKA aily Collegian Sports Writer Jim Stamatis has to score at least three points for the Lion soccer team this weekend. He just has to.

If he doesn't, Stamatis won't pass Chris Bahr for the school's scoring title. le won't have his name forever remembered in Penn State history. He'll cause turmoil in the Penn State Athletic Department. He'll set American soccer back five years. If Stamatis doesn't break State's alltime scoring record this weekend with games tonight and Sunday afternoon ...He'll probably break it sometime next week. Now that Stamatis is so close to the scoring mark, everyone seems to be wondering when and how the deciding goal will be scored. Everyone except Stamatis that is. With critical home games against Maryland tonight at 7:15 and LaSalle at 1:30 Sunday afternoon, Stamatis has a few other things to worry about. "I haven't changed my style of play just because of the record," Stamatis said. "I always try to score goals anyway, and I always try to pass off when somebody else has a chance." Of course there's always the old story of how the team has to worry about winning before the players can think about personal goals.

That same story will hold true for the Lions this weekend for a few reasons. First, of course, the simple one is Maryland and LaSalle are good teams. "I really think Maryland outplayed us last year even though we won (1-0)," Stamatis said. "LaSalle is a very good soccer team. We're not taking them Another reason is the low caliber of the Lion's play in the last few games - right now," assistant coach Mike Dit- we'll see this year," Ditchfield said. chfield said. "I think our team is starting "The last half of the season should be to come around. They're boosted and very interesting.' their morale is lifted. They know they've NOTES: Angelo Nickas should be the starting goalie for tonight's game. . . Finally, the Lions will have to play The Lions and the Terps have met 326 well to live up to some high goals their times with State holding a 14-12-5 edge in coaches set for them after the team's 4-0 the series. . . The game against LaSalle loss to Cleveland State a few weeks ago. will mark the first meeting between the

Into Racquet Sports?

Into the Racquet Shop!

Penn State's Duncan MacEwan goes for a steal against a Lafayette player. The Lions host Maryland and LaSalle in games this weekend.

HAPPY

HOUR

10 PM - 1 AM

Monday

thru Saturday

(the following at ½ price)

"Godfather" Night

"Godmother" Night

"Italian Stinger"

"Gladiator" Night

"Pina Colada" Night

'Strawberry Frozen

Daiquiri" Night

Also enjoy Authentic Italian

Specialties

Monday

Tuesday

Wednesday

Thursday

Saturday

Friday

especially against the smaller schools.

129 W. Beaver Avenue Find It!

At the Crow House Corner of Fairmount Ave. and Locust Ln.

THE ARTISTRY OF FINE LEATHER HATS PUTS

and see our act toppers. Personally in hand stained leathers. Beautifully detailed with that clean, casual Western look.

116 W. College

"Cross country open features top runners

Daily Collegian Sports Writer Quality and quantity highlight tomorrow morning's 11th annual Penn State Open at the Blue golf course. finishers are slated to compete, including last year's winner, Lion senior 30:12, a pace that averages out to a women's 5,000-meter race, which starts women's division in the Open, and more than 70 runners will attempt to break Kathy Mills' course record of 17:34. The men's team will get plenty of

In last year's race, Penn State won the team title, paced by Ziegler and thirdplace finisher Alan Scharsu. Three other Larry Mangan, Tom Rapp and Jim Clelland. All five will largely determine Providing the toughest competition sixth and ninth place finishers, Dan Rincon and former Southest Conference champ Jim Buell, respectively. Other top names entered include alumni Bruce Baden and Bob Snyder, should be the Washington Sports Club,

Saturday. 7:30 PM 🖫

spread of each other at the Paul Short "I'd like to see our guys stacked up close near the front." Penn State coach Harry Groves said, "But with such a featuring 30 teams and 252 runners, good field that may be difficult to do." starts at 10:30. Seven of last year's top 10 . "If the course dried off, there could be John Ziegler holds the course record at > will be senior All-American Kathy Mills. Heather Carmichael and Patty Murnane, both experiencing fine cross country seasons, can be expected to challenge for individual honors as well. Not to be neglected either are Penn State

Alumn Liz Berry, the No. 2 American woman marathoner in 1978, and Kris Bankes will test the Lady Lions' race should come from Frostburg State runners Mary Rawe, Peg Cleary, and Donna Gardner, who compose a most which finished second last year paced by two State College High School teams National-class competitors Brenda Webb, of Tennessee and Jenni White of the Washington, D.C.-based runners are

"They (the quartet of Berry, Bankes, Webb and White) will be able to provide some excellent competition for our top

McCullough captures lead in Southern Golf Open COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — Veteran Mike McCullough, his first victory of the year despite earnings of $188,000. $36,000 first prize after the opening round, which was struggling through a recent drought, surged to a 5- Pearce, who tied for second last week in the San delayed 75 minutes by an early morning fog. under-par 65 yesterday for a 1-shot lead after the first Antonio Open, had six birdies and failed to grab a share round of the $200,000 Southern Open Golf Tournament. of the lead because of a double-bogey 6 on the par-4, 462-Defending champion Jerry Pate and Eddie Pearce yard 11th hole. were tied for second with 66's over the hilly, par-70, 6.791-yard Green Island Country Club course.

eight years on the tour, had six birdies including five four tourneys. between 15 and 30 feet and a single bogey. Pate, who has won this tournament two consecutive well," said the resident of Scottsdale, Ariz. years, had five birdies and a pair of bogeys as he sought Meanwhile, Pate remained confident of taking the Eichelberger.

III FREE III

Campus 4-H's Fall Term All-U

SQUARE DANCE

This coupon worth

PSU RED HOT

and 12 oz. Beverage

FINDLAY POLLACK

WARING WARNOCK

SNACK BARS

Offer good Oct. 15 to Oct. 19

McCullough, who earned close to $38,000 after four rounds and still haven't been in the 70s. I play this. months this year, fell into a slump and has earned less course better than any I've played." The 34-year-old McCullough, a non-winner during his than $4,000 since. He failed to make the cut in his last

Nursing Students

SNA Meeting

Sunday, Oct. 14

H-Dev Living Center

Speaker: Sylvia Schraff

Also: Elections of new officers

"I have to feel confident," the 26-year-old 1976 U.S. Open champion said. "I've averaged 66.9 here for eight

"I don't know what happened but it feels good to play Reid. At 68 were a group which included Frank Beard,

Tommy Aaron, Peter Oosterhuis and Dave

Students' Self Help Guides How To Be Assertive On A College Campus — $1. 'Riting, Reciting - $1. 3. The Easy Way To Higher Grades — and handling = $2.45. Log Cabin Publishers PO Box 1536-DC1, Allentown, PA 18105

Guaranteed — $1.95 plus 50° postage

Look For... The Other Side Of State College

Health Center

Abortions Menstrual Extractions Free Pregnancy Tests And Related Counseling Call Collect

Allegheny Reproductive

1-412-661-8811

HUB Ballroom

Your Senior Portrait. . . You don't want to miss your chance to it off until now. Well, time is up. La Vie is now making appointments up through the last possible

LATCH YOUR OWN LION! NITTANY LION

LATCH HOOK RUG OR WALLHANGING KIT Finished Size 39" x 26"

Hand-printed Canvas

Precut Polyester Yarn in Penn State Blue and White Latch Hook Simple Instructions $39.00 Postpaid

Hand-Printed Canvas only $15:00 Postpaid Send check or money order SUNWORKS 60 MIDWAY LANE EATONTOWN, N. J. 07724

New quarterback rule cuts down on injuries

Lambert: Why not put 'em in dresses?

Kenny Stabler dropped back to pass. tackled, officials are expected to quick-Larry Gordon dropped in on Stabler's air whistle things to a halt, rather than to space. The Oakland quarterback flipped wait for a quarterback to be buried the ball out to the right, a little outlet quarterback is running, though, he's fair pass to Derrick Jensen, and . . Wait a minute. The whistle had blown. game, subject to the same punishment Stabler, in Gordon's grasp but still vertical and still able to get the ball > than one "quick whistle" per game. "I'd imagine it's been about a dozen

Frustrating? Sure — but a lot better NFL's supervisor of officials. "What than the frustration of a shoulder we've seen is that players are doing separation, torn-up knee or some other everything they can to adhere to the kind of injury that takes quarterbacks rule. We feel it's been effective." out of entire games rather than single away, had been sacked for a 9-yard loss

analysis

by the Miami linebacker.

dresses?" Jack Lambert once snorted. Lambert, a linebacker of some note with the Pittsburgh Steelers, was talking about quarterbacks, one of his very favorite Sunday snacks. He tends to chew them up by the fistful. Instead of putting 'em in dresses, the NFL owners put 'em in a slightly special category - not quite untouchable but then not quite as bashable, either.

the grasp of any tackler."

According to Rule 12, Section 2, Article 1: "Officials are to blow the play dead as soon as the quarterback is clearly in dragging, whip-around, drive-'em-back the rule hasn't altered things that much,

that on the average there has been less per weekend," said Art McNally, the too, namely fewer quarterback fumbles.

play has been blown dead before the ball

- or the passer - hit the ground, per-

Concerned consumers read Collegian ads. Right?

UNIVERSITY CALENDAR SPECIAL EVENTS

Friday-Sunday, Oct. 12-14 Friday, Oct. 12

Penn State Press, "Best Designed Books of the Year," 9 am-4 pm, Kern Lobby. IAHS, Aeolian Chamber Players, 11 am., Music Bldg. Recital Hall. Free. Sports: JV football, vs. Milford Academy, 2 pm.; soccer, vs. Maryland, 8 pm. Reography Dept. Coffee and lecture, 3:45 pm., Room 319 Walker. Joseph Kockelmans, philosophy, on "Critique of Scientific Reason." omecoming '79 Candlelight Dinner, 4:45-6:45 pm, HUB Terrace Room rance-Cinema, Scola, We All Loved Each Other So Much, 7 and 9 pm, Room 11

omecoming activities. Parade, 7pm, College Ave; Penn State Glee Club

Candlelight Ceremony, after parade, Old Main Steps; bonfire and pep rally, 1 pm, Beaver Stadium; all night vigil, Nittany Lion Shrine. allroom Dance Club meeting, 7 pm, Room 133 White. Vargamers meeting, 7 pm-midnight Sunday, Room 101 EE East Colloquy USG IFC, Gil Eagles discusses ESP and hypnosis, 8 pm, Eisenhower Auditorium. Free.

Commonsplace Coffeehouse, 8 pm, Room 102 Kern. Shaver's Creek Nature Center, John Farr, Star Watch, 8-9 pm, parking lot on Rt. 26 south of State College. Cancelled if cloud cover. URTC, The Shadow Box, 8 pm, The Playhouse.

Sports: Men's fencing, vs. Alumni, 8 am; men's and women's cross country, Artists Series, The Aeolian Chamber Players, 8:30 pm, Schwab WDFM, Earplay, "The Antique Bearers," 9 pm, FM 91.

Penn State Open, 10:30 am; football, vs. Army (Homecoming), 1:30 pm Iomecoming Oktoberfest, Nittany Lion Inn, following football game.

ommonsplace Theatre, Pink Floyd: Live at Pompeli, 7, 8:30 and 10 pm, Room Campus 4-H, All University Square Dance, 7:30 pm, HUB Ballroom. Penn State Glee Club, Homecoming Concert, 7:30 pm, Eisenhower Auditorium URTC, The Shadow Box, 8 pm, The Playhouse

PSOC Hiking Division, "Flaming Fall Foliage Hike," Thickhead Wild Area, 9 am, HUB parking lot. Alumni Brunch, 9:30 am, HUB Ballroom.

University Choirs Special Homecoming Chapel Service, 11 am, Music Bldg. Recital Hall. Dr. Rustum Roy, MRL, speaker Sports: Lacrosse, vs. Alumni, 10:30 am; soccer, vs. LaSalle, 1:30 pm. Shaver's Creek Nature Center, Winter Weeds Walk, 2 pm, Stone Valley. Commonsplace Theatre, Pink Floyd: Live at Pompeii, 7, 8:30 and 10 pm, Room

112 Kern. Opening Reception, Aaron Sisking, photographer, 7-9 pm, Visual Arts

119 S. Atherton St.

telephone 237-6191

"Under the Red Canopy"

ween College Ave. & Beave

YOUR ACT TOGETHER The head-up look for your act, come in fashioned to fit styles by Henschel with stay in shape brims. A variety of colors

Leather to Boot

Open Daily 9:30-5:30 Mon & Fri nights till 9:00

day. Sign up NOW because space is