

Kennedy makes little headway in rules showdown

Carter maintains his hold on committed delegates

NEW YORK (UPI) — With time running out, Sen. Edward Kennedy appeared to be making little headway yesterday in his attempts to win the crucial showdown on the proposed "loyalty" rule, a poll of Democratic convention delegates showed.

President Carter's delegates appeared to be holding firm, but given the high pressure tactics being used by both sides, many delegates were reluctant to take firm positions until the rollcall on the rule ended.

Amid conflicting claims, Kennedy and surrogates for Carter lobbied delegations at midtown-Manhattan hotels, seeking votes on the proposed rule that would bind them to vote for the candidate they were elected to support.

International yesterday showed Carter firmly in control on the rules fight. The Kennedy camp and other liberal groups claimed Carter delegates were wavering and some were.

But UPI reporters talked to Carter and Kennedy leaders in every delegation and the most optimistic figures given by anti-Carter forces showed the president would win the rules fight easily.

There were no hard figures available but it appeared — and Carter backers privately admitted — that 100-200 of the president's 1,988 delegates were either going to vote to uphold the rule or were undecided.

But some Kennedy delegates were backing the Carter position on the first presidential ballot.

More cautiously, Richard Moe, a strategist for Vice President Walter Mondale, conceded, "We expect a little erosion... on the rules question, but not very much."

Strauss said he could not imagine Carter losing more than 200 votes on the rules question — which would still give the president over a 100 votes more than number he needs.

The proposed rule requires delegates to vote for the candidate they were elected — through primaries or state conventions — to support.

If the proposed rule is adopted, Carter is assured renomination. He won more than a majority of the convention delegates in the primaries and caucuses.

Sen. Edward Kennedy, still maintaining his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination, addresses the California delegation on the eve of the Democratic National Convention which opens today.

Thousands of protestors gather in New York

NEW YORK (UPI) — Thousands of demonstrators demanding freedom for Puerto Rico, free abortions, and about every liberal-to-left cause in between, welcomed Democratic National Convention delegates to New York yesterday.

In a 10-block parade that included people representing the Communist Workers Party and "New Jerseyans against Nukes," about 4,000 to 5,000 demonstrators marched on Madison Square Garden for a rally that climaxed a day of convention-eve protests.

"Two, four, six, eight, please don't make us radiate," chanted the anti-nuclear contingent, who came equipped with their own gas masks.

They were followed in quick succession by anti-draft protesters ("Carter, Reagan, we say no — we won't fight for Texas"), feminists ("Hey, hey, what do you say — ratify the ERA") and a succession of left-wing international causes ("No draft, no war — no intervention in El Salvador").

Demonstrations greet convention delegates

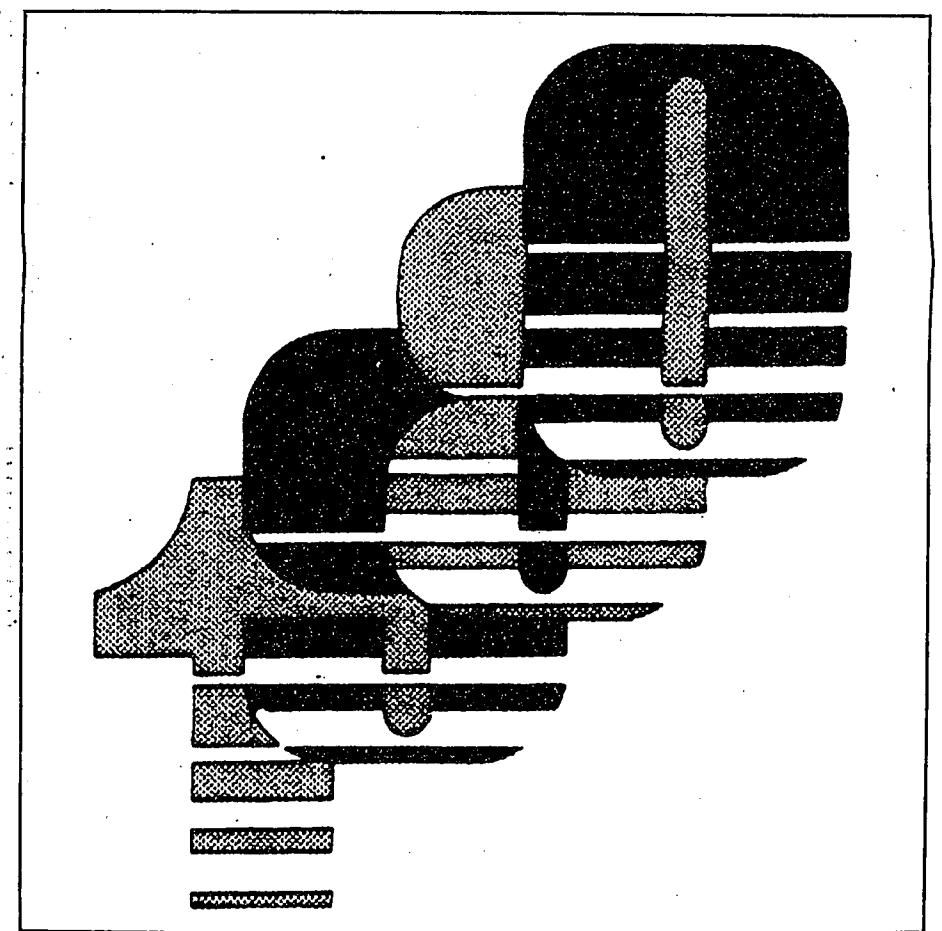

Most of the 3,331 delegates, however, were elsewhere. The most popular people in the city, the Democrats were invited to race in Central Park, yacht with Phyllis George and her husband, Gov. John Brown of Kentucky, disco with the party's "young leadership" and munch salmon on Fifth Avenue.

"This is larger than anything we've ever dealt with in some time, but it's peaceful and what the heck — it's Sunday and there's nothing else to do," said a police officer as the monster protest made its way to the Garden.

There, after some angry speeches denouncing both major political parties, the demonstrators settled down on Seventh Avenue with their children for some music and refreshments.

It was all a little too much, however, for delegate Robert McGaw, the mayor of Rockford, Ill.

"I think it's a little bit dangerous," he said. "I go home and tell people about this and they just don't believe it."

Pa. delegates urged not to betray party

NEW YORK (AP) — Vice President Walter Mondale yesterday told the 91 Pennsylvania delegates pledged to President Carter that to vote for an open convention would betray the party.

Mondale's remarks were made amid reports that at least six of Carter's Pennsylvania backers intended to vote for an open convention.

The vice president, who spent the evening visiting a number of state delegations to secure Carter loyalty, said the president's Pennsylvania delegates must prove they are in a "party of the people."

"That proof will lie in whether delegates vote to maintain a rule committing them to the candidate they pledged to support months ago in the primaries," Mondale said.

"This is larger than anything we've ever dealt with in some time, but it's peaceful and what the heck — it's Sunday and there's nothing else to do," said a police officer as the monster protest made its way to the Garden.

There, after some angry speeches denouncing both major political parties, the demonstrators settled down on Seventh Avenue with their children for some music and refreshments.

It was all a little too much, however, for delegate Robert McGaw, the mayor of Rockford, Ill.

"I think it's a little bit dangerous," he said. "I go home and tell people about this and they just don't believe it."

Education delegates back Carter

NEW YORK (AP) — Every seventh Carter delegate to the Democratic National Convention is a card-carrying member of the National Education Association. Small wonder the teachers' union has a special place in Jimmy Carter's heart.

The politically potent NEA says 302 delegates from 17 states are NEA members, and 90 percent of them are pledged to President Carter.

Another 102 NEA members are alternates. Together with a staff of 29 who will be on hand to direct the huge delegation's votes, the NEA will need a convention hall of its own when it caucuses during the Democratic convention.

The NEA says it will be represented by one of the largest special interest blocs in the history of party conventions — 9 percent of all the delegates. It has three times as many delegates as the United Auto Workers, which has the second largest union bloc. In fact, the unaffiliated NEA has nearly as many delegates as all the AFL-CIO unions combined.

Those are impressive figures for an organization that stayed out of presidential politics until less than a decade ago.

It used to be that public school teachers scrupulously avoided politics, but that changed in the mid-1960s, when teachers started winning the right to organize and to bargain collectively. From there, it was a short jump to political activism.

The 1.8-million-member NEA is ideally suited for getting members elected as convention delegates. It has chapters in all 50 states and nearly 10,000 committees, with articulate, informed members in nearly every precinct.

The sexual and racial mix of association members also makes it easy

Pa. delegates urged not to betray party

NEW YORK (AP) — Vice President Walter Mondale yesterday told the 91 Pennsylvania delegates pledged to President Carter that to vote for an open convention would betray the party.

Mondale's remarks were made amid reports that at least six of Carter's Pennsylvania backers intended to vote for an open convention.

The vice president, who spent the evening visiting a number of state delegations to secure Carter loyalty, said the president's Pennsylvania delegates must prove they are in a "party of the people."

"That proof will lie in whether delegates vote to maintain a rule committing them to the candidate they pledged to support months ago in the primaries," Mondale said.

"This is larger than anything we've ever dealt with in some time, but it's peaceful and what the heck — it's Sunday and there's nothing else to do," said a police officer as the monster protest made its way to the Garden.

There, after some angry speeches denouncing both major political parties, the demonstrators settled down on Seventh Avenue with their children for some music and refreshments.

It was all a little too much, however, for delegate Robert McGaw, the mayor of Rockford, Ill.

"I think it's a little bit dangerous," he said. "I go home and tell people about this and they just don't believe it."

YOUR COLLEGE RING FREE PLUS A CASH REBATE!

When you trade in your men's 10K gold high school ring for... $86.00

on a Lustrum college ring, America's newest fine Jeweler's alloy... $79.95

Your rebate... $ 6.05

Trade in your women's 10K gold high school ring for $35.00 and buy your Lustrum college ring for only $44.95. 10K gold high school trade-ins also apply on all Josten's 10K gold college rings.

OFFER GOOD THRU AUGUST 31ST

JOSTEN'S moyer jewelers
ONE HUNDRED EAST COLLEGE AVENUE
OPPOSITE THE MAIN CAMPUS GATE

HAD MONO RECENTLY?

If you have had mononucleosis in the last 2 months, you may have developed antibodies to this disease. These antibodies can be used as controls for MONO TESTING. If you qualify we will pay $50.00 for a PLASMA DONATION. Please call or come in for details.

SUMMER HOURS
Mon, Tues, Thurs 10-6:30 p.m.
Wed & Fri 8-3:30 p.m.

SERA-TEC BIOLOGICALS
Rear 120 South Allen
237-6761

IT IS NOT A SECRET ANY MORE

BELL'S GREEK PIZZA

is the best.

FREE DELIVERY

Starts at 4:30 pm Daily

Across from S. Halls
538 E. College Ave.
237-8616

CASH for USED RECORDS

PAPERBACKS

BASEBALL CARDS

& TAPES

ARBORIA Used Books & Records
151 S. Allen St., Jersey
State College, Pa. 16801
(814) 237-3808

FOR SALE

ALL LENGTHS and most brands. videocassettes, VHS, Betamax, U-Matic, State College TV Supply, 232 S. Allen, State College, Pa. 16801.

SMALL REFRIGERATORS for rent or sale. Please call for details. 221 East Beaver. Open afternoons except Sunday.

LOWER PRICE than Dixie VHS. All Zenith color TV. State College, Pa. Supply, 232 S. Allen.

KODAK FILM. Low prices, fresh dates. Call for details. 128 W. College Ave. by PSU Diner 237-4253.

COOL. FERRISBUSS FERRIER. Ginger Beer, Juices, Pop. The Candy Cafe 128 W. College Ave. by PSU Diner 237-4253.

MOTORCYCLE FOR SALE 1978 Honda 600 cc. Call 284-1984 after 5pm.

STEREO AMPLIFIER 110/240 volt. mod. AU-317. 65 watts. Serial number 38333. Pat. BIC-44 speakers 75 watts. Excellent condition. Oxnard 895-7639.

1978 MCPEL. Low mileage, good condition, skinned, 12x60. 96900. 238-0983.

1978 MCPEL. Low mileage, good condition. Must sell. Will be best offer. Call 234-2778 anytime.

ASPER GUITAR $100. Played few times. Call after 8:30pm 237-6642.

MOVING SALE. 100+ books, newspapers, kitchenware, etc. etc. etc. Monday Aug. 11. Call 234-8273.

QUALITY VIOLIN—white, rose, Brand new condition. Must be seen. Office open 10-9 daily. Call 234-1294.

FOR SALE Premier drum set 4 pieces. 234-1294.

BIASIS BEDS full size $250. Queen size $300. Call 235-1473.

INSURANCE FOR YOUR auto, motorcycle, home, personal belongings, hospitalization. For quotes, call 238-9933.

RENT A TV. Low rates for color or B/W. State College TV Supply, 232 S. Allen.

Bucs move into first-place tie Pirates take four from Phillies

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Mike Easler drove in two runs and Don Robinson and two relievers combined on a six-hitter as Pittsburgh beat the Philadelphia Phillies 4-1 Sunday to sweep a doubleheader and extend the Pirates' victory streak to seven games.

The Phillies, given an angry lecture between games by Manager Dallas Green, lost the opener 7-1 as Jim Bibby notched his 4th victory against 2 losses and Tim Lincecum drove in three runs. Loser Randy Lerch is 3-13. The Phillies are winless in their last 10 road games.

The sweep boosted the Pirates into a tie with Montreal atop the National League East. The Phillies fell six games back.

The Philadelphia clubhouse was closed between games, but reporters gathered outside heard Green shouting at his team, swept in a four-game weekend series with the Pirates.

"Get up off your rear ends and beat somebody," Green yelled. "... You've got to stop being so cool, and if you don't get that through your minds you're going to be so far buried it won't even be funny."

"We didn't play good ball," Green said after the doubleheader. "That's what hurts more than anything else."

"I'm just not going to let them quit on themselves," he said. "I won't quit on them. I'm sure the fans in Philadelphia won't quit."

Said Pete Rose: "What are we going to do? Cry all the way to the airport? It's history."

In the nightcap, Easler's sacrifice fly of loser Dan Larson, 0-5, gave the Pirates a 1-0 lead in the third.

Dale Berra drove in another Pittsburgh run in the fourth and Easler added a run-scoring double in the seventh off reliever Ron Reed.

Robinson, 4-5, allowed a solo home run in the seventh inning by Mike McBride, his sixth of the season. But Lee Lacy countered with a solo homer in the eighth.

Left-hander Grant Jackson replaced Robinson in the eighth inning and needed relief help in the ninth from Kent Tekulve, who gained his 17th save.

In the first game, the Pirates took a 2-0 lead in the second off loser Randy Lerch, 3-13, on a run-scoring single by Bill Madlock and a sacrifice fly by Phil Garner.

Lacy singled home another run in the fifth. Foli rapped a three-run, bases-full double in the sixth off reliever Dickie Noles and Garner doubled home another run in the Pirate seventh.

Bibby, 14-2, scattered eight hits. He allowed an RBI single by Keith Moreland in the sixth.

Bibby noted the Pirates are in typical August form in their bid to repeat as World Series champions.

"We've got a good ballclub," said Bibby. "I'm not cutting down on anybody else. But right now we're doing all the things we expect to be doing to win ballgames."

the daily collegian sports

Padres 3, Astros 2

HOUSTON (AP) — Tim Flannery's two-out RBI single in the ninth inning scored Dave Winfield from third base with the winning run in the San Diego Padres' 3-2 victory over the Houston Astros yesterday.

Winfield and Willie Montanez, singled off loser Joe Sambito, 7-3, to start the ninth, but reliever Frank LaCorte came on to retire pinch-hitters Gene Tenace and Jerry Turner before Flannery's game-winning hit.

Then Ken Singleton walked and Larry Jackson let get by him for a double. Kiko Garcia, running for Dempsey, scored the winning run on the play. Tim Loddard, 2-3, the fourth Baltimore pitcher, was the winner.

Orioles 6, Yankees 5

NEW YORK (AP) — Clutch singles by Rick Dempsey and Eddie Murray and some shoddy Yankee fielding in the ninth inning propelled the Baltimore Orioles to a 6-5 victory over New York yesterday and a three-game sweep of their weekend series.

The red-hot Orioles moved within 2 1/2 games of first-place New York thanks to the final-inning rally that gave them their ninth straight victory.

Lenn Sakata led off with a fly ball that left fielder Bobby Brown misplayed into a triple. Two outs later, he scored on a two-strike single by Rick Dempsey and Tommy John, 15-6.

Then Ken Singleton walked and Larry Jackson let get by him for a double. Kiko Garcia, running for Dempsey, scored the winning run on the play. Tim Loddard, 2-3, the fourth Baltimore pitcher, was the winner.

Golly racks up billiard victory

By JANET DURKIN
Daily Collegian Staff Writer

Tom Golly (4th-accounting) won the Tournament of Champions in the HUB Billiard Room yesterday afternoon in what he called his "stepping stone to the national championship."

Golly earned a $25 gift certificate by defeating other first and second place winners of the HUB's weekly summer pool tournaments, Mark Mauger, coordinator of the final tournament, said.

Second place went to Gerald Lauchle, senior research associate, and third place went to Andy Way, 22, 545 Easterly Parkway. Both competitors had won two of the weekly tournaments.

Mauger and Way said competition was close among the players, but Way later said Golly — "We're all out of his class."

Golly said he hopes to be one of the two students chosen to represent Penn State at the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association regional division one pool competition in the winter.

Last minute changes were made yesterday to "reduce the luck factor," Mauger said. Instead of best-of-three games originally scheduled for the championship tournament, each match was best-of-five games in eight-ball.

Golly apparently had an edge on the other competitors. He has played about 12 years, while the other competitors range in experience from about two to five years.

Golly said early in the competition he wanted to win because it was the last HUB tournament of the summer.

"It's good to go out with a bang," he said.

Five weekly winners competed in the tournament sponsored by the University's Office of Student Activities.

Lauchle said all three games included in each match helped balance the competition.

"The game makes a difference," he said, "I am best at straight pool."

Golly said, "It isn't how much you win, it's who (you beat)." He said he liked the tournament because of the good competition.

Way and Lauchle have placed in the Pennsylvania eight-and-nine-ball championship's top twenty.

"All of us have played each other at sometime before," Ed Lawrence, another competitor, said.

"I wouldn't play Golly unless I had to in a tournament," Way said, who also said he liked the challenges of the tournament.

Golly apparently had an edge on the other competitors. He has played about 12 years, while the other competitors range in experience from about two to five years.

Golly said early in the competition he wanted to win because it was the last HUB tournament of the summer.

"It's good to go out with a bang," he said.

Five weekly winners competed in the tournament sponsored by the University's Office of Student Activities.

Tom Golly (4th-accounting) lines up a shot during yesterday's Tournament of Champions held in the HUB billiard room. Golly won the pool competition that culminated summer-long weekly tournaments held in the billiard room.

the daily collegian scoreboard

NL				AL
W	L	Pct.	GB	W	L	Pct.	GB
Los Angeles	62	50	.550	New York	67	42	.615
Pittsburgh	62	50	.550	Baltimore	64	44	.593
Philadelphia	52	54	.489	Oakland	58	52	.523
New York	54	56	.491	Milwaukee	59	52	.523
St. Louis	48	64	.430	Boston	57	52	.520
Chicago	46	64	.417	Cleveland	55	52	.514
San Diego	46	63	.422	Toronto	46	63	.422
San Francisco	45	60	.430	Kansas City	70	41	.631
Cincinnati	39	53	.427	Oakland	58	52	.523
Atlanta	36	60	.380	Los Angeles	53	56	.486
Montreal	35	62	.358	Minnesota	48	63	.433
St. Louis	35	62	.358	Chicago	47	62	.433
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Seattle	44	65	.400
Pittsburgh	35	62	.358	San Diego	41	69	.369
Atlanta	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
San Diego	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369
Philadelphia	35	62	.358	San Francisco	41	69	.369
New York	35	62	.358	Los Angeles	41	69	.369