

Different look at the convention

A view from the outside

As a divided Democratic party worked inside Madison Square Garden this week to reach a satisfactory party platform, protesters from all facets of the political scene gathered outside to have their own political views aired. Two innovative protesters (left) display a concise summation of their political leanings and a small boy (above) grasps a rising issue.

Once a Penn Stater, Always a Penn Stater with the Collegian

It doesn't matter when you graduated or what degree you received because Penn State will always be part of your memories.

Every time you hear a Penn State football score or see a PSU T-shirt... you nostalgically think about your days at Penn State. Why not enhance those feelings with

THE WEEKLY COLLEGIAN? THE WEEKLY is a newspaper designed especially for Penn State Alumni. It features the hottest sports and news stories from THE DAILY COLLEGIAN, the newspaper you woke up to every morning while at PSU. It's also published by the same people who write the daily.

THE WEEKLY COLLEGIAN just finished its 1st successful year of publication. September 17th begins its 2nd year.

What is so special about THE WEEKLY is that it is sent by 2nd-Class mail which assures you 1st-Class service.

36 issues, a year's subscription can be yours for $12.00. Allow your memories to continue to grow with THE WEEKLY, subscribe for yours today.
