Boone's squeeze bunt leads Phils by Bucs

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bob Boone's 14th-inning squeeze bunt scored Gary Maddox from third base to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 5-4 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates last night.

Maddox opened the 14th with his second double of the game, a line drive into the left-center field alley. Larry Bowa then grounded out to first, with Maddox advancing to third.

The Pirates elected to pitch to Boone, who dropped a bunt in front of relief pitcher Mark Lee and Maddox scored easily as Lee picked up the ball and threw it past catcher Ed Ott.

Expos 3, Mets 0

MONTREAL (AP) — Warren Comarrie cracked a leadoff home run and Ron LeFlore added a two-run triple in a seven-inning uprising that carried Steve Rogers and the Montreal Expos to a 3-0 victory in the first game of a doubleheader with the New York Mets that was delayed nearly four hours by rain last night.

The second game could not be played because of the Mets' travel plans and probably will be played Sept. 16 in New York before the Expos' regularly-scheduled game against the Mets.

Astros 5, Dodgers 4

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston first baseman Art Howe drove in two runs, including a game-winning sacrifice fly in the seventh inning, to lead the Astros to a 5-4 victory over error-plagued Los Angeles last night and cut the Dodgers' National League West Division lead to one game.

Orioles 2, Tigers 0

DETROIT (AP) — Doug DeCinces belted a home run and scored another run and Baltimore left-hander Scott McGregor made them stand up with three-hit pitching as the Orioles defeated the Detroit Tigers 2-0 last night.

The Orioles managed only two hits off Detroit starter Dan Schatzeder, 9-11, before DeCinces clouted his 12th homer of the season leading off the Baltimore fifth.

Blue Jays 6, Yankees 4

TORONTO (AP) — John Mayberry whacked a two-run homer in the Blue Jays' four-run third inning last night, powering Toronto to a 6-4 victory over New York.

Jancevski's goals pace booter win

By RICH SCARCELA
Daily Collegian Sports Writer

Until last night, the soccer team was searching for goals almost as intently as the presidential candidates are searching for voters.

But after their regular season opener, the Lions may be feeling as secure as the front-runner will the week before the election.

Penn State displayed the offensive firepower it will need against stronger opponents as it overwhelmed Penn State-Behrend, 6-0, before 3,000 fans at Erie Municipal Stadium.

Lion coach Walter Bahr was looking for a goal-scorer — a player, Bahr said, who could score goals on sheer talent and sheer desire. That role was unexpectedly filled last night by junior forward Peter Jancevski, who tallied a pair of goals.

Jancevski, the second-leading scorer on last year's Final Four club, had been hobbled with a foot injury. X-rays, to determine if Jancevski had a stress fracture, proved negative. He practiced Monday, and felt no pain so Bahr allowed him to play against Behrend.

"I think coach Bahr felt we needed him," junior defender Dan Canter said. "The main reason why we scored a lot of goals was that we played a lot more aggressive. We just shut them down."

The statistics back up Canter's statement. The Lions fired 30 shots on goal, while Behrend managed just three shots.

"They were all excited to play us," Canter said, "but when they saw us pushing up and down the field, they knew they were in trouble. Everything we hit was going down the middle of the field because of the narrow field. Once we started clearing out wide, we were OK."

Freshman Pete Jobling scored the first goal of the game from about 12 yards out. Midfielder Duncan MacEwan set it up with a crossing pass from the right side.

Jobling took part in the second goal, also. He passed to Jancevski, who tallied from 15 yards out on the left side. The junior opened the scoring in the second half off a long pass from sophomore forward Lou Karbeiner to make it 3-0.

Peter Jancevski (right) showed no signs of a foot injury as he scored two goals last night to lead the Lions to a 6-0 blanking of Penn State-Behrend at Erie Municipal Stadium.

Unassisted goals by sophomore forward Dan Murphy, junior forward Bill Mueller and sophomore forward Steve Blumenthal put the game away for Penn State.

"We got some good goals tonight," senior defender Kevin Scott said. "The people that have to score the goals — the forwards — did tonight. We went after them just like any other game."

Even though Behrend isn't powerhouse, Canter said the Lions were looking forward to the game.

Scott, however, reminded his teammates and fans not to get overly excited with the win.

"The party's over now," he said. "Things will change very quickly. He's right. Just ask Ted Kennedy."

Pittsburgh can't look past Colts

PITTSBURGH (AP) — From Chuck Noll's viewpoint, Bert Jones and the Baltimore Colts' offense will pose a stiff test for the Steeler defense on Sunday.

"They have outstanding personnel. And it seems as though, from what I can tell, that they are playing well together," he said.

The Steelers turned back Houston in its home opener and travel to Baltimore, which opened with a 17-14 victory over the New York Jets in coach Mike McCormack's debut with the Colts.

Jones, the oft-injured quarterback, started only four games last year after suffering two different shoulder injuries.

But it is Jones, whose feared but delicate shoulder earned him a spot in the 1978 Pro Bowl, back in top form?

"From what I can tell, yes," said Noll, noting that Jones has a splendid group of receivers in veteran Roger Carr, third-year man Randy Burke and rookie Raymond Butler.

"Their receiving corps is much better than it was a few years ago," Noll said. "They have more depth, more speed. They've got three guys who are outstanding receivers."

"And they throw the ball to their backs out of the backfield and (Joe) Washington is super quick. He catches the ball and runs with it."

Pittsburgh has beaten the Colts the past two years, and Jones was out with injuries both times. Against the Jets, Jones completed 24 of 42 passes for 257 yards.

"Since realignment in 1970, the Steelers have won five of seven games including two playoff victories.

The Steelers are guarding against a letdown after a big performance against the Oilers. And Noll was asked this week if the Steelers keep it in the back of their minds they could be upset.

"I hope they aren't keeping it in the back of their minds. We hope its right out in front there someplace. There's nobody in the National Football League that's easy," he said, choosing a new way to phrase the "any given Sunday" cliché.

"Everybody has good people. And this a.m. and was back in the Steeler locker room later Monday.

The former Southern Cal standout was released on the final cut by the Steelers after battling for a roster spot with wide receivers Lynn Swann, John Stallworth, Jim Smith and Theo Bell.

Before Pittsburgh called, the 6-2, 190-pound Sweeney was considering signing with San Francisco.

"A lot of things went through my head," Sweeney said. "The Steelers have great wide receivers already. At San Francisco, I figured if I had gone there I'd be able to start within a matter of time."

"But then again, I wasn't sure San Francisco would sign me. So I said, well, I'd better go where I have the sure thing."

Though nobody claimed Sweeney on waivers after he was cut by the Steelers, he said he'd been contacted by several teams.
