IM Scores

Fraternity: Th Chi def. Z Psi, for.; B Th Pl def. Sig Pi, 2-1; Lambda Chi Al def. Al Chi Rho, 2-0; Al Kap Lambdá def. Al Zeta, 2-0; Del Chi def. Al Sig Phi, 2-0; Phi Kap Sig def. Phi Del Th. 2-1.
Dormitory: Carbon def. Lackawanna, 2-0; Cumberland def. Linden, 2-1; Butler def. Cedar, for.; Jefferson def. Crawford, 2-0; Cameron def. Jordan II. Monroe, 2-0; Leete II def. York, 2-0; Lebanon def. Beech, 2-0; Locust def. Snyder, 2-0; Fayette def. Cen-re, 2-0; Fleetwood def. Birch, 2-0.

Equestrians fifth

The equestrian team placed fifth among an 18-team field on Sunday in

Penn State Outing Club

Division Meeting & Slide Presentation

"Mountaineering in the Alps" by Dave Galson Tues., Oct. 14th, 7:30 p.m.

Room 214 Boucke Bldg.

WANTED

FOR DONATING PLASMA

At least 110 lbs., good health, and interested in being a

DISTINGUISHING MARKS: All Blood Types LAST KNOWN ADDRESS: Penn State University

AGES: 18 through 65

plasma donor to help provide critically needed plasma for the treatment of Hemophiliacs and other blood disorders.

REWARD OFFERED

Mountaineering Division

West Chester won the tournament which was hosted by Rutgers. Penn State's Rich Weeber was named reserve high-point rider of the show since he captured a first and second place in individual events.

Phils call on Walk in Series opener

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Phillies, who also had their weary Philadelphia Phillies will de- playoff problems with consecutive pend on rookie right-hander Bob eliminations in 1976-77-78, won their Walk against Kansas City's 20-game first NL pennant in 30 years, beating winner, Dennis Leonard, in tonight's Houston in a pulsating five-game ding a string of three playoff frustra- Green did not name a third-game

Italian Hoagie w/cole slaw tions by eliminating the Yankees.

he Press Box is located at 129 S. Pugh St. across from enjoying the afterglow of that victory Dallas Green did not use in the ex- Monday. Knots of fans were outside hausting five-game National League the stadium to greet the Phillies when playoffs against Houston. Called up they arrived for a late-afternoon from Oklahoma City in May, Walk workout. won his first six decisions and eight of

They cheered madly when the first burgundy jersey emerged from the Philadelphia dugout, even though the player wearing it was Hank McGraw, ner, posting a 20-11 record. He was brother of the Philadelphia bullpen the winning pitcher in the second ace, who serves only as a batting game of the Royals' American practice pitcher for the club. The Phillies, a bit bleary-eyed after their late-night victory Sunday and history that baseball's world cham- ed at the Stadium as the Royals were pionship will be decided without the benefit of grass fields. Both Veterans Jim Frey, manager of the Royals, Stadium in Philadelphia and Royals said he would use left-hander Larry Stadium in Kansas City have ar- Gura in the second game of the Series with Rich Gale, another righty, set an expansion team, won their first Philadelphia's ace left-hander, will league championship this year, en- start Game Two but Mnager Dallas

the Original State College Sports Bar

Fisher tops lady booters

it lost to St. John Fisher in a fast, aggressive contest at Pollock Field. The Lady Lions jumped ahead in the da scored on a pass from midfielder Pat Guinan. But in the second half Fisher goal in the second half, sweeper Laurie came back to score four goals and win anyone who put as much pressure on us another goal for Fisher, widening its with his team's performance.

us the whole game.

Jones committed a hand-ball foul which resulted in a successful penalty kick that put St. John Fisher ahead 2-1. Goal keeper Patti Wisnewski exuded a take a St. John Fisher player one-on-one as Fisher did. Physically, they were on lead to 3-1. played well overall against them." But now the Lady Lions are looking ahead to the Cortland game next week. "We'll get Cortland," Wisnewski said. "We'll practice really hard this week

Read & recycle The Collegian kranich's kranich's kranich's 宝

"They came out stronger in the second half," she said. "We panicked. With Saturday's weather started off sunny each goal they scored we tried harder but ended up cloudy and cold, and in a and harder. We tried so hard we forgot way, so did the women's soccer team as what we were supposed to do."

"After we scored the first goal," Ladda said, "we were really up. But after they scored we seemed to lose During a mad scramble in front of the Even with the loss, Penn State coach Tim Conley was not at all displeased fine performance, and a few times had to - one of those instances resulted in cer," he said. "We haven't played

"They were tough, had good skills and didn't give us much room, so we weren't able to do as much. It cost us in the second half. We tried to force the ball up Goalkeeper Patti Wisnewski agreed with a lot of intensity, because if we beat with Conley and said that the second Cortland, we'll have a good chance of magnetic field theory led to huge practical scientific advances. His light theory photos and the kinetic designing and building communications, data, antenna, intelligence and reconnaissance systems that are often the first-of-akind in the world. For a reprint of the

E-Systems continues the tradition of the world's great problem solvers.

V.P.—Research and Engineering, E-Systems, Corporate Headquarters, P.O. Box 226030, Dallas,

STUDY MASS MEDIA IN MANCHESTER ENGLAND

Spring Term, 1981 For 9 PENN STATE credits
There is still time to apply.

Application Deadline - October 17th.

Welcome

Alumni

Fellow

Each Spring Term, since 1971, Penn State has sent a group of 25-30 students to the University of Manchester for the purpose of studying British Mass Communication Systems (Broadcast, Print, Film, Advertising). The Program involves students in both classroom and internship experiences.

If you are interested in finding out more about the Program attend one of the following orientation meetings.

Tuesday, October 14 in Room 2 Sparks at 10:00 a.m.

The Penn State Alumni Association

welcomes

Homecoming Alumni Fellow

CHARLES BIERBAUER '66, '70

ABC-TV foreign correspondent who will be on campus October 14-18

to share his experiences with students.

The Daily Collegian Tuesday Oct. 14, 1980-9 31 "The King and I" setting 35 Greeted, in a way 38 Sinai climber 39 "— But the Brave" 3 Closes tightly
9 Desires
0 Blazing
31 Employment
52 Less valid, as an excuse
53 Tracy's Trucheart
54 The "1" in 31 Down
55 Opera star
58 Energy
59 Regret 1 Put -: shove off 2 Rich veins
3 Ragout need
5 Family member, for short 9 Obnoxious 3 They're sometimes turned 5 Lavish love on 6 "A rose — rose..." 7 — Gay: Hiroshima bomb Illusory hope

220 S. Allen St. State College 237-0884

We're looking for a top microelectronics engineer and we've got $100,000,000 to spend.

for top electrical engineering BS and MS graduates. We're committed to joining the leaders in the microelectronics industry, and as part of that program, we're spending $100 million to build an ultra sophisticated new GE Microelectronics Center at Research Triangle Park, North Carolina. Right now, we're looking for key people to fill positions at the Center as well as a other General Electric microelectronics facilities.

Technical recruiters will be on campus Tuesday and Wednesday, October 14-15, to conduct interviews. Contact your campus Placement Office for the exact time and place Specific microelectronics openings at General Electric exist in: [] Integrated Circuit Design [ | VLSI Device Structure Design | | VLSI Process Development [ ] Integrated Circuit Application Engineering [] Integrated System Architecture [] Integrated Circuit

Advanced Microelectronics Operations General Electric

