Stock prices still declining

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock prices continued their decline yesterday amid concern over turbulent interest rates and the sluggish performance of oil and technology issues. The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks, which fell 7.11 points Monday, slid another 4.06 points to close at 989.10. The blue-chip average ended last week at 1,000.27. Eastman Kodak registered the sharpest loss in the Dow, plunging 2º to 81 as of the 4 p.m. close in New York. Wall Street sources attributed the fall to a change in a Paine Webber evaluation of the stock. Paine Webber confirmed a report has been prepared on Eastman Kodak, but declined comment.
