the STOOTTS collegian

anahan tied the score at 32:24, but Gray scored her third of the game just 28 seconds later to give the Lady Lions a 7-6 lead. That would be the final Lady Lion goal until the final minute.

when Thompson scored. But by then goals by

Lanahan, Schofield, Jackie Williams, Tracie Duncan and Schofield again had given the Lady Terps

Tyler said that teamwork as the key to

"I think the key to it all is that we really did

"We had three key players we like to key in on.

Maryland's success and also said she thought the play more as a team this time," Tyler said. "The last time, a bunch of individuals went out there and tried to beat Penn State, and a bunch of and that was Lynn, Candy and Laurie Gray. When they had the ball on the outside, their passes were to be pressured. We left some of the other players absolutely free, which fortunately they didn't pick up on. There were two players that had no one on.

but they had not been threats throughout the Rattray said she saw what Maryland's defense was doing and told her team at halftime. But she also thought the Lady Lion offense was being too

"I picked up on (Maryland's defensive tactics)

- they didn't pick up on it," Rattray said. "We talked about it at haftime, but I guess it fell on deaf ears. We were focusing straight ahead instead of looking for the free players; we were looking for the first option instead of looking for Rattray also said she believed her team was ready for any changes the Lady Terps were to

"I don't think they did anything we didn't expect," she said. "They had the same personnel out. I just think they really clicked as a team, and ; lose, but we have to be gracious. And we have to

The Lady Lions must get up early again this

"We can either come out and be really down morning for their game against James Madison, at

"We're still Penn State proud, and it's tough to out there that I would have expected them to have they really came back.

That's the thing they did that we didn't do."

Lady Terps snuck up on Penn State a little.

individuals can't play lacrosse.

an 11-8 lead.

Laxers knocked out of AIAW title fight

Daily Collegian Sports Writer

For the first 12 minutes of their quarterfinal game against Maryland in the AIAW lacrosse ournament yesterday, the Lady Lions looked like the machine that had compiled an 11-1 regularseason record and was ranked first in the nation. They jumped out to a 4-0 lead and seemingly had a spot reserved in today's semifinals.

But the Lady Terps, who had only made the fournament because of an AIAW technicality and were playing without their leading scorer. bounced back to tie the score by halftime and then rode an air-tight defense to a stunning 12-8 upset of top-seeded Penn State.

Maryland now advances to the semifinals against Harvard, an 11-4 winner over James Madison in another quarterfinal game yesterday. The Lady Lions drop into the consolation bracket and take on the Dutchesses at 9:30 this morning at

"I thought we had a very good warmup and were raring to go," Penn State coach Gillian Rattray said. "That 4-0 up made us look really good. But I don't think it was a letdown: they sort of crept up on us and nibbled away, and suddenly we were level pegging. Then in the second

Maryland coach Sue Tyler was forced to juggle her lineup when Judy Dougherty, the leading scorer in Maryland history with 143 goals, was injured against Ursinus at the Mid-Atlantic regionals. It took a while for the Lady Terps to reconstruct their offense, but it paid dividend Tyler said. "We had to do a complete rearrangement the last week or so. It kind of hurt us in regionals, but we played in a tournament las week which helped us tremendously.

"I knew (Penn State was) up for us, and I knew they always are. But I think that they felt, 'We beat them 10-15,' and we lost two games at regionals to both Ursinus and Temple, who they had beaten. So I think inside they really felt. 'They're not as strong as we had thought they were,' the first time they played us."

The way Penn State opened the game, it looked ike no Maryland changes would help. Candy Filli got the Lady Lions started when she scored just 15 seconds into the game and then made it 2-0 at 3:43 with her 65th goal of the year. Goals by Lynn Thompson (4:45) and Laurie Gray (11:13) made it 4-0, and it seemed the rout was on.

"I thought we looked like a million dollars when we were 4-0 up," Rattray said. "It looked as though it would be a runaway."

But Maryland — and Sandy, Lanahan in particular — stopped the tide by scoring the next four goals to tie the score. Lanahan started the barrage just 19 seconds after Gray's goal to get the Terps on the board and then scored 20 seconds later to cut the lead to 4-2. It was after Lanahan's seven seniors on the team, it was twice as disappointing. For seniors Theresa Arena, Michele Fielder, Robyn Gansn-

Wilde, there can be no "We'll get 'em next year."

er, Alisa Logan, Lynn Thompson, Sandy Ticknor and Carolyn down on our team at all — I think we have a very good team."

Daily Collegian Sports Writer

pull through in the tight spots.

hard to take for the senior Lady Lions.

Penn State's Laurie Gray scored three goals yesterday at Jeffrey the quarterfinals of the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics Field in the top-seeded Lady Lions' 12-8 upset loss to Maryland in Women national lacrosse championships.

kind of tight against Penn State," Tyler said, halftime tie. "and they were choking the first 13 minutes or so when (Penn State) scored right away.

State cage and put it past Lady Lion goalie Alisa ing (Finn) very much on the edge of the zone," "They (the Maryland team) always start out Logan at the 24:58 mark, giving Maryland a Rattray said. "But I knew what she was trying to

"That was a key goal for us," Lanahan said. LeMire out of the defense. She tried to act as a "It gave us some momentum going into the decoy at midfield so that the attack wings could by Sally Schofield (from Lanahan) and Sharon Finn started the second half by scoring at would not be able to set up in the zone; as No. 11. Watson. Gray gave the Lady Lions the lead when 27:57, but it would be the last time in the game "However, it didn't come off too well because she scored her second goal at 19:16 off a Thomp- Penn State's leading scorer would be involved in a the attacks were playing very defensivly and son assist, and it appeared the Lady Lions would scoring play. This was partially due to her own dropped back. When we did get the ball, we didn't be happy to take a slim one-goal lead into the design and partially due to Maryland's air-tight always get the quick connections through midzone defense, the first time all season the Lady field. We tried to run the ball through midfield, But Lanahan had other ideas. The Maryland Terps wavered from their usual man-to-man. which gave their zone time to set up; you know,

We still have two games to go, and we have to show them what Penn State lacrosse is all about. It was just one of those days; what can you say?" do. She was trying to take (Maryland's) Laurie team they beat 18-8 back in their first game of the come down with the ball more and so that Laurie year. Finn said Penn State can appoach the game. from today's loss," she said, "or we can come out" and feel sorry for the team we're playing. Personally, I feel sorry for the team (James Madison)

San Francisco Giants was entitled to a mistake after being the With the game tied 5-5, Barry Foote opened the eighth with a hero in three victories over the last seven days. phia Phillies scored two unearned runs on the bobble to take a 2- base I lead and went on to post a 3-1 victory.

Mike Schmidt opened the eighth with a single and went to second on Manny Trillo's one-out single. With two out, Bowa lofted a wind-blown fly to right-center. North ran to his left and

Both runners scored, erasing a 1-0 deficit and deciding pitching duel between winner Dick Ruthven, 5-1, and loser Vida

"The wind definitely was a factor," North said. "I was there for the second time in two weeks and Wayne Krenchicki led a and it (the ball) just took off. It's tough to make that kind of 17-hit attack by driving in three runs last night as Baltimore catch when there's a light sky. I just missed it." Manager Frank Robinson of the Giants said, "It was like
It also was Baltimore's second shutout in as many nights trying to catch a butterfly."

The Giants lost for only the second time in seven games, while the Phillies snapped a three-game losing streak. Ruthven and Blue were locked in a scoreless duel until the Giants broke through with a run in the seventh. Darrell Evans led off with a single and moved to second o

Larry Herndon's sacrifice. After Joe Morgan was walked intentionally, Milt May singled for a 1-0 lead. Ruthven, who raised his record to 14-4 lifetime against th Giants, was replaced by Tug McGraw after issuing a leadoff pitching two scoreless innings. walk in the bottom of the ninth. McGraw earned his third save.

Padres 10, Mets 6 Broderick Perkins continued his major league-leading bat- Jim Rice plus Tony Perez's single, his fourth RBI. ting pace with a pair of hits yesterday, including a tie-breaking double that drove in the first of five eighth-inning runs as the Padres beat New York in San Diego. It was their fourth Perkins, batting .417 and riding a 13-game hitting streak stroked his double to left field off reliever Pete Falcone, 1-1, to score Gene Richards, who singled and was sacrificed to second.

SAS

Programmer

Work

State

SAS programmer for data analysis

Up to full time month of Phone 865 -5478 for

HI WAY PIZZA -112 S. Garner St. 237-0374

Saturdays

open til 4am

14,000 to 35,000 cases with 50 plus variables need variety of statistical treatments: cross

Needed

Dave Winfield drove in the tie-breaking run with a sacrifice The Brewers averted what would have been their sixth fly in the eighth inning and Reggie Jackson walloped an shutout of the season when Don Money hit his second homer of insurance three-run homer as the New York Yankees defeated the season in the sixth off Zahn, 5-3.

Dino, Genyk,

Linda and Zuco.

I'm going to miss you.

Love.

Special lunch time skate 🖪

11:45 a.m. - 1:15 p.m.

Weekdays

May 21 thru June 9

All Admissions

Rental skates 75°

and between midnight & 4:00 AM

Get a famous

Hi Way Cheesesteak

w/one topping and small sada

$1.99

Desia

single off reliever Jeff Jones, 2-1. Pinch-runner Larry Mil-But when North dropped Larry Bowa's fly ball for an error bourne beat the throw to second on Bucky Dent's sacrifice and is the eighth inning last night, it proved costly. The Philadel- a bunt single by Willie Randolph, who had three hits, loaded the > Bobby Murcer, who hit a two-run homer in the first inning, tapped into a force at the plate before Winfield came through with his sacrifice fly and Jackson slammed his fifth home run of the season into the right field bleachers. The four-run burst made a winner of Rich Gossage, 1-0, the three-hitter Wednesday night. Red Sox 9, Twins 7 Dave Schmidt's first major league home run, a leadoff shot Minn., yesterday after they blew a 6-0 lead. Don Cooper, 0-2. Bill Campbell, 1-0, was the winner in relief, The Red Sox, winning for the seventh time in their last eight

Mike Flanagan hurled a five-hitter in shutting out Toronto trounced the Blue Jays in Toronto.

Butch Hobson lined a bases-loaded misplayed triple to spark a four-run California second inning and Geoff Zahn pitched a Don Baylor added a solo home run for the Angels, who have won five games in a row and six of their last seven. The Brewers lost for the seventh time in their last eight games.

* Giant bobble gives Phils win Dartmouth downs netgals again

For the second time in as many days, Dartmouth was able to outlast the Lady Lions, beating them 5-4 at Yale yesterday in the final day of hird New York pitcher, after Oakland bounced from behind to tie the game with three runs in the seventh. Orioles 10. Blue Jays 0 against Toronto, coming on the heels of Scott McGregor's in the 11th inning, helped Boston beat Minnesota in Bloominton, Schmidt's homer, a 375-foot shot into the left field seats. was the fourth homer in Boston's 15-hit attack and came off reliever games, added another run on walks to Carl Yastrzemski and five-hitter, leading the Angels over the slumping Milwaukee Brewers last night in Milwaukee.

having a great EAIAW tournament Lion coach Candy Royer said. "We except for one minor problem — Dart- had played a lot of good, hard tennis

Penn State's No.1 singles player, Carol Daniels, said the team was having a hard time adjusting to the ley and Sue Whiteside-Dow seeded slow surface at Yale. regional team competition. The Lady Lions started the day off

"Dartmouth is a good team," Penn well, winning their first three singles State No.3 doubles player Liz Camp- and doubles matches against Syrabell said. "They caught us off guard." The final team standings placed Penn State carried away a 6-4 victory. cause they know it's the last chance Princeton first, followed by Yale, well," Royer said, "but we were able als." to win the big points. That was the al competition at 9 a.m. today. Everyearlier, and Dartmouth had played an one on the team will be playing, with Daniels and Cherie Dow seeded third and seventh, respectively, in singles, and the teams of Daniels-Anne Beascuse. At the end of the long match, al competition," Royer said, "be-"They played well, and we played they have to be represented in nation-second and third, respectively, in the Lady golfers end season at Ohio State

Daily Collegian Sports Writer

The women's golf team is in Columbus, Ohio, today through Sunday for the Lady Buckeye Invitational — the last collegiate tournament of the season and perhaps the last taste of Lady Lion golf ever for Penn State coach Annette Thompson.

Thompson said she informed her players at the beginning of on their own course." Spring Term she would be leaving Penn State at the end of the season because of professional interests in Florida. A victory at Columbus would cap off a very successful season and would greatly increase the women's chances of reaching nationals. In other words, Thompson might not have to pack her suitcases too soon. The task, however, will not be an easy one. In fact, Thompson described the Lady Buckeye Invitational as the most difficult tournament of the season. Georgia and one from Oklahoma," she said. "Oklahoma and the Florida teams are always tough, and Georgia is the

"There will be three schools from Florida there, one from defending national champion.'

Penn State also has to go up against the home team. In squeaked past them out by three strokes in the first round of the Bowling Green Invitational, 319-322. Ohio State. nevertheless. ended up winning the tournament by eight strokes. "In the latest national rankings, Ohio State is ranked 16th."

Thompson said. "It will be very hard to beat them, especially Which brings up another challenge the Lady Lions must face

- the course itself. Thompson described it as the best collegiate golf course in the United States. "The course is extremely difficult," Thompson said. "Or Monday they will be using the course as a qualifier for the U.S. Open, which will make the conditions that much tougher." Thompson said if the Lady Lions concentrate on their own games and don't worry about the other teams, they should have a strong showing this weekend, although the chances of getting to nationals are rather slim. "Our team average right now is 316." Thompson said order to make it to nationals we have to have about a 314 average, which means we will have to get our scores down to around 310 or 311 this weekend, which will be extremely

LAST CALL! VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

ROAD SHOW '81

SUMMER 5 UNITS FALL 15 UNITS ABSOLUTELY WILD Phone (408) 429-2822 or write Wilderness Studies Sierra Institute, Carriage House UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

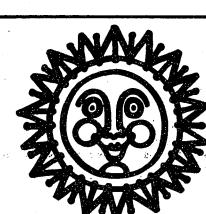

102 Kern free

RAISINS VITAMIN

Ken Lawson

Glenn Kricher

(also Steve Hoffman

W. C. Billhick Band Benefit Party

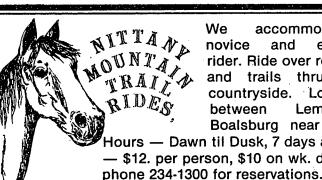

Featuring the Hipsters 8:30 p.m. Friday, May 15

TUMBLEWEED

The Best In Country Rock

at the Brewery

833 West College Ave. $1.50 Admission Benefit of F.O.C.A.L. (Friends of Central American Liberty)

novice and experienced RATE and trails thru beautiful countryside. Location between Lemont and Boalsburg near Oak Hall. Hours - Dawn til Dusk, 7 davs a week, Fee - $12. per person, $10 on wk. days. Please

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! De Olde

College Diner Breakfast Specials Served 7 Days a Week from 6 a.m. to 11 a.m.

 PENN STATE CONTINENTAL — Large Glass of OUR OWN Citrus Juice, 2 slices of OUR OWN Sourdough Bread Toasted or Regular Toast, Butter & Jelly (OUR OWN). Honey Butter on Request .20).................................99

• TRUE CONTINENTAL — OUR OWN Croissant or Brioche, Butter, Jam, Jelly or Marmalade, Cheddar Cheese and Fresh Apple Slices (OUR OWN Honey Butter on Request .20).....

 FIRST PERIOD RUSH — Two Eggs, Fried or Scrambled, Home Fries and Two Slices of Toast, Butter & Jelly (OUR OWN Honey Butter on Request .20).....

• TWO BY TWO — Two Eggs, Fried or Scrambled and Two Large Pancakes, Butter and Syrup.....

• SECOND PERIOD FEAST — Two Eggs, Fried or Scrambled, Home Fries, Bacon or Sausage and Two Slices Toast, Butter & Jelly (OUR OWN Honey Butter on Request .20).

ALSO FEATURING BROWN-BAG-LUNCH-TO-GO — only $1.95 126 W. College Ave.

Lady Lion seniors miss out on 4th championship • This will also be the first time these Lady Lions have glad they were the team we lost to. We do have a rivalry with been beaten by more than one goal. In 1978 they went 11-0-1 and them, but they played a good game of lacrosse. They were not has a season record of three goals and one assist. The women's lacrosse team's 12-8 loss to Maryland yester- in 1979 they went undefeated. In 1980 they lost to Maryland, 7-6, overly rough and played a clean game. day was a disappointment to the team as a whole, but to the and their only loss of the 1981 regular season was to Ursinus, 11-• They lost to long-time nemesis, Maryland. Maryland and Penn State have had a stiff rivalry since their first meeting Maryland accounted for Penn State's only loss in 1980, "I have tried not to think about it," Ticknor said. "I'm sorry it happened this year. As a senior, we felt a lot of pressure to but that was in the regular season. The Lady Lions redeemed had a bad day. The season play showed how good a team we their loss by beating Maryland 3-1 to win last year's national are. Last year (when the Lady Lions were 11-1-2 and national "But it was a good four years, and I'm glad that I came to • If it wasn't for Penn State earning the top seed in the a lot wider.' this school. And I'm proud to play for Penn State. It would have tournament, Maryland would not even be in it. The Terps been good to go out with another championship, but I'm not received the final berth that was reserved for the host team.

On top of the loss and the fact that they won't be returning next year, there are several other aspects that not being able to Ticknor said losing to Maryland, even though the two teams clinch the championship will make the ending of the season are rivals, was not a crushing blow. She said if any team This will be the first time these seniors HAVEN'T won a deserved it — the Terps did.

This was the first loss EVER at University Park for the

"It's a shame, though, that we had to play them in the first burg and Lock Haven) and a school record 176 saves last game, when last year we both played for the championship in Fielder. Lady Lion third man, said yesterday's game was saves in 13 games.

in 1973. The Lady Lions' series record with Maryland is 6-3-1. not the game she knows Penn State is capable of playing. "We know inside we're the No.1 team," she said. "We just champs) we just got by every game. This year the margin was

> The Lady Lion seniors have a lot to be proud of, as each has Arena, who plays center, has been a starter since the first over yet. round of the 1978 United States Women's Lacrosse Association "Personally, I feel proud," she said. "You can't take away Goalkeeper Logan, recorded two shutouts (East Strouds season, her first as a starter. She made a career-high 22 saves in this year's Temple game and had 17 saves in last year's national championship against Maryland. This year she has 133

Ticknor is a four-year starter at point but began her career at center. She scored seven goals her freshman year.

Thompson, a four-year starter who plays first home, has racked up several school records and ranks fourth on Penn State's all-time scoring list with 102 goals and 53 assists. Thompson expressed her pleasure at being a Lady Lion, and added that her season, as well as the rest of the team's, is not national championship, when she replaced injured Chris Lar- three titles and the great team we had this year. We should son at third home and scored two goals. She has a season record come out strong the next two games — we're not the kind of team to sit just sit back on our laurels."

Celtics run away with NBA championship

AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) - The Boston Celtics, with Larry Bird finally breaking out of his scoring slump, won their 14th NBA championship by defeating the Houston Rockets 102-91 last night.

series, scored 27 as the Celtics won the best-of-seven playoff finals four games to two. Boston made 13 of 18 field goal attempts in the second quarter and matched that torrid shooting in the third period, outscoring Houston 57-43 in the two averaged just 13 points in the first five games of the Bird, Boston's brilliant second-year forward who middle periods. And when Robert Parish scored the opening basket of the fourth quarter, Boston had its biggest lead of the game at 84-67. The Rockets, the Cinderella team of the NBA playoffs, refused to buckle under to the storied They held Boston scoreless for nearly five minutes and reeled off 12 points to pull to within 84-79 with 5:32 to play Parish ended the drought by hitting a turnaround jumper, but two free throws by Bill Willoughby and a driving basket by Tom Henderson pulled Houston to within three points at 86-83 with 4:26 left. At that crucial juncture, Bird asserted himself with a baseline jumper followed by an 18-footer to build Boston's lead back up to seven points. Houston was twice able to reduce the margin to

from the left corner gave Boston a 95-89 advantage and Parish scored 18.

with 1:36 left and ended the Rockets' hopes. any other team has won in the NBA's 35-year Four free throws by Cedric Maxwell and three by Chris Ford in the final 1:19 assured the victory. Maxwell wound up with 19 points for the Celtics

Moses Malone finished with 23 —but they managed just five points apiece in the second half. Calvin Murphy, the Rockets' explosive reserve guard, did not play because of a shoulder separation

Maxwell, who led the Celtics with 17.7 points per game in the finals, was voted the Most Valuable Player of this series by a panel of newsmen. He will receive a gold watch and a $5,000 scholarship will be awarded in his name to the college of Parish scored 10 quick points for the Celtics but picked up his third personal foul after just 8:44 of Reserves Rick Robey and M.L. Carr scored six points apiece in the second quarter to help Boston to a 53-47 halftime lead. The Celtics shot 56 percent from the field in the first half to 41 percent for Houston.

Bird led Boston with 12 first-half points and Nate Archibald had nine assists while Reid scored 18 for Houston and Malone had 16 points and 10 rebounds period and nobody else on the Rockets could pick up the slack as Boston outscored them 29-20. A pair of baskets by Bird started a 10-2 spurt that three points again, but a three-point basket by Bird gave Boston an 82-67 lead going into the final period and the Celtics were able to hang on for the victory. The 14 Celtics championships are double what

The Minneapolis-Los Angeles Lakers are next

Boston center Rick Robey hauls in a rebound as the Celtics clinched the National Basketball Association title with a 102-91 victory over the Houston Rockets last night in Houston.

Stars fall to Isles again UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) - The Minnesota North Stars lacked a snockout punch last night in their 6-3 loss to the New York Islanders in Game 2 of the Stanley Cup finals. The North Stars fought back from a 3-1 deficit to tie the game 3-3 but then wilted in the final 12 minutes when the Islanders scored three

"After throwing our best at them, we slowed down," said Brad Palmer, who scored Minnesota's second goal at 9:15 of the second period to cut New York's margin to 3-2. "We should have kept coming. When you get one, you should go for two." Minnesota played considerably better than in the first game, taking a 1-0 lead early in the first period when rookie Dino Ciccarelli scored his 13th goal of the playoffs. But the advantage was short-lived as New York stormed back with three straight goals, the first at 4:33

"The Islanders aren't going to let you have things your own way just because you decide you want to control the tempo," Minnesota's

Bobby Smith said. "They tightened up and really forced the game in our "We looked much more like ourselves," North Stars coach Glen

236 Calder Way (Behind Mid-State Bank) 234-0304

