

Trackmen host Penn State Open

By FETE WALDRON
Daily Collegian Sports Writer

For all the Penn State sports fans who have not yet seen the men's track team in action this season, don't fret. The opportunity is still there.

Almost 800 collegiate and club athletes will gather at 4 this afternoon at Nittany Lion Track for the 13th annual Penn State Open Invitational. Penn State coach Harry Groves promised it will be a wing-ding.

"As usual, the Penn State Open is the best college meet in the state for 1981," Groves said. "It is track and field at its best and well worth watching."

"This meet can't amount to anything you will see on television — it's going to be that good. I can't promise any world records, but there haven't been any of them broken lately."

Though Groves does not expect any world records broken, he said 11 Penn State Open records are in jeopardy and he expects new Open records to be written into the books this afternoon.

Last year 10 records were broken and new NCAA qualifying marks were obtained.

Top collegiate teams from East Carolina, Maryland, Seton Hall and Villanova will be competing.

Running for Seton Hall, which has the top sprinters in the country, will be Derrick Reynaldo.

Reynaldo was named the outstanding athlete at the Pitt Invitational last weekend.

Seton Hall holds the fastest 1,600 relay time in the nation at 3:02.9 and will present a stiff challenge to the Lions' tandem of Vern Lucas, Paul McLaughlin, Mike McCall and Paul Lankford.

Penn State currently holds the meet record in the 1,600 relay (3:10.85) with the same team except for McLaughlin. Tom Walchuck ran the second leg last season and McLaughlin, a transfer from

Lady Lions aiming for qualifying times

For many Penn State students, tomorrow will be the last chance to enjoy college life before settling down to the cold reality of late-night cram sessions and tense testing environments. Finals are coming.

For the women's track team, tomorrow will be the last chance to perform at home before venturing to Austin, Texas, for the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women national championships as it hosts the Penn State Open beginning at noon tomorrow at Nittany Lion Track.

The open will feature athletes from St. John's, Princeton and other schools. Penn State coach Gary Schwartz said he has two goals in mind for his team for this meet.

First, Schwartz said he would like to "try to maintain a competitive edge" going into nationals. That might be difficult, though, because the Lady Lions may lose some of the intensity they had during last week's victory at the EAIAW championships.

Pleasant Colony is Preakness favorite

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Pleasant Colony will face seven horses he beat in the Kentucky Derby and six newcomers to Triple Crown competition tomorrow in the Preakness at Pimlico.

John Campo, Pleasant Colony's trainer, expects the same result in the Preakness as in the 1 1/4-mile Derby that was run on May 2.

"I'm a bad trainer, but I can't screw him up in two weeks," Campo said yesterday before entering his colt in the biggest Preakness field since 14 1/2-year-olds ran in 1970 when Personality won.

Pleasant Colony, who has won the Wood Memorial and the Derby in his only two starts for Campo, was made the early 5-2 favorite to take a successful second step toward the Triple Crown.

The leggy colt, who races in the colors of Thomas Melton Evans Buckland Farm, will start from the No. 13 post position under Jorge Velazquez, who first rode him in the

Golfers' season finished, host alumni tournament

With sunny skies in the forecast, this weekend should be an enjoyable one for everyone — even for the men's golf team, which has just completed one of its toughest schedules ever.

After facing competition this season against schools such as Ohio State, Temple and Navy, the Lions will be able to take it easy tomorrow when they host the Alumni Tournament at 10 a.m. at the Blue Golf Course.
