

Annual Arts Festival top event of summer

By MIKE HEIMOWITZ
Daily Collegian Staff Writer

For a few days every July, thousands of people descend on Happy Valley. Some are artists, some are students on summer break. Many are just people from throughout the state and country who attend the event year after year.

The drawing card is the Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts, the highlight of Summer Term.

This year's Arts Festival, the 15th annual, is scheduled for July 8 through 12.

In booths lining the campus Mall and South Allen Street, 400 artists from 33 states will display and sell ceramics, posters, woodwork, jewelry, toys, leather goods, drawings, paintings, glass, photos and other works.

The 400 artists were chosen from more than 1,000 applications, the most ever received. To apply, each artist submitted three sides of his or her work for judging by a three-person committee.

Lurene Frantz, managing director of the festival, said the jurors used a point huge amount of work into it and have really polished it up to standard."

Altman has always been interested in making prints. He made his first when he was 12 years old, 45 years ago.

Besides the sale of art, more than 200 live performances will take place, including a number of musicians playing on outdoor stages. The musicians scheduled range from a steel band to fiddlers to rock groups.

Other events planned are shows by theatre and dance groups, poetry readings and numerous other activities.

"The Arts Festival gives people an opportunity to see all kinds of art which they wouldn't normally see because it's in an unusual setting. People will see the Atherton String Quartet on the mall, but not in a concert hall," Frantz said.

"It helps people to learn about many different kinds of art," she said.

The Arts Festival is organized by more than 24 volunteer committees that have worked with a $125,000 budget this year. The money comes from a number of sources.

Bob Petter, Arts Festival publicity chairman, said: "A lot comes from a grant from the Pennsylvania Council for the Arts, we get a grant from Penn State, and we get applications and entry fees (from the artists). A big gap is made up by contributions and endowments from corporations in the area."

Attempted rape reported to police

• An attempted rape occurred at about midnight Monday in Wolf Alley, the State College Police Department said yesterday.

Police said the incident occurred when a woman was walking in front of 709 E. Foster Ave.

Police said the woman heard someone running in her direction so she turned into Wolf Alley. As she turned into the alley, a man grabbed her, placed his hand over her mouth, and attempted to remove her clothes, but he suddenly stopped and ran off, police said.

Police said they have no suspects, but they describe the man as white, in his 20s, and about 5 feet 11 inches tall. Police said he was wearing a T-shirt and jeans.

• State College police told University Police Services on Friday that someone was assaulted on Old Main lawn.

police log

• Stereo equipment was removed between Wednesday and Monday from an apartment at 841 Southgate Drive, State College police said yesterday. There were no signs of forcible entry, police said. Police estimated the value of the equipment at $950.

• William Betz, Box 22-G, R.D. 1, Port Matilda, told University police on Monday that his wallet and its contents were missing from the men's locker room at Rec Hall. Police estimated the value of the wallet and contents at $117.

• Robert Hudzik, supervisor for the athletic fields, told University police Saturday that three flag poles and three flags were missing from the White Golf Course. He also told police that the No. 5 green on the White Golf Course was vandalized. Police estimated the value of the items and damage to the green at $100.

HOW I APPRECIATE YOUR WANTING TO BE BUT I THINK WE'VE GOT IT ALL UNDER CONTROL.

WHAT ABOUT THE GUEST LIST?

YOU HAVEN'T HEARD? THESE WERE A TERRIBLE MESS. I'M POSSIBLY DIDN'T GET HER INVITATION.

WHEN SHE WASN'T HERE, I'D EXPECT HER TO BE SMALL. I'VE BEEN TOLD SHE'S A REPTILE.

FINE. BREAK HER SENTENCE. I'D EXPECT HER TO BE PARVY TO IT. TALK HER INTO LOSING IT IN THE HILL.

GLADYS WATCHED YOU GROW UP. YOU GROW UP. YOU DON'T WANT HER, YOU CALL HER, YOU CALL.

DOONESBURY

YOU CAN'T IMAGINE HOW RELIEVED I AM ABOUT THIS MARRIAGE. I'VE BEEN SUCH A STUBBORN WITH THE NEIGHBORS.

YOU KNOW YOUR MOTHER HOW LONG PEOPLE LIVE TOGETHER. ANY OF YOUR HIGH-PRICED MARRIAGES ARE STILL PRETTY OLD-FASHIONED.

YOU CAN'T KEEP ANYTHING FROM NEIGHBORS. DESK: THEY'VE FOUND OUT THEY'VE BEEN FOUND OUT. ROCK IS A REPTILE!

WELL, YOU KNOW HOW I FEEL ABOUT YOU. I HAVE TO PAY CASH FOR CREDIT. I'VE BEEN TELLING YOU I HAVE TO PAY CASH FOR CREDIT. I'VE BEEN TELLING YOU I HAVE TO PAY CASH FOR CREDIT.

SHOE

OKAY, IF ONE OF THE KIDS HITS ONE THAT BOUNCES OVER THE WALL...

WE'LL CALL IT A GROUND RULE DOUBLE.

HECK IF ONE OF MY KIDS HITS ONE THAT FAR, WE'LL CALL IT A GROUND RULE MIRACLE!
