the sports daily collegian

Players start to OK settlement Mets, Mariners, Orioles, Braves, Royals, Giants approve

By HAL BOCK AP Sports Writer

day started the ratification process on fore the strike, 10 fewer than the Oakland 1981. week strike.

polling the players.

Mets, who sat in on most of the negotia- were deeply involved in negotiations tions, briefed his teammates on the con- throughout the strike. thing we were talking about."

When the Mets voted yesterday in a as workouts continue in preparation for owners are unable to reach Chicago by sealed ballot, the contract won 'support 24-1. There was no word on which New York player voted against the agreement Other teams lined up with unanimous or near-unanimous support for the deal forged in the early morning hours last Friday

The Seattle Mariners voted 23-3, the San Francisco Giants 23-2 and the Minnesota Twins 21-6 in favor of the

'I don't understand one thing we were talking about.

> -N.Y. Mets relief pitcher Neil Allen agreement. Representatives for the Oakand A's, Detroit Tigers, Chicago Cubs and Chicago White Sox said their ratification votes would be taken today or

Player reps for the Kansas City Roy-Baltimore Orioles and Atlanta Braves sent word to their union headquarters yesterday that the agreement had been accepted unanimously by their eammates

Phil Niekro of the Braves said his team conducted its vote by a show of hands. 'Usually the thing is done by a secret ballot, but there was no point," Niekro said. "It would have been the same thing both ways."

Relief pitcher Dan Quisenberry explained the agreement to the Kansas City

"It was 100 percent for," Quisenberry said. "I asked them if anyone had any objections to it to raise their hands, and nobody did.''

Quisenberry said the Royals! players did have some questions. "A couple of guys with bonus clauses based on service time were concerned." he said, "and a couple of people wanted to know why we have to play so many games in the second half to make up for the first half."

when the strike began June 12. American League player rep.

the resumption of regular-season play tomorrow, a telephone conference call next Monday. Still pending is a decision will be arranged to discuss the matters. Maior league baseball players yester- The Royals played only 50 games be- on a playing format for the remainder of the agreement that ended their seven- A's, American League West leaders Major league owners are scheduled to meet tomorrow in Chicago for their own Player representatives, who voted Baltimore players voted 26-0 for the ratification vote of the strike settlement unanimously last Saturday to accept the agreement after hearing from shortstop and to discuss how to resume the season. agreement, were explaining details of Mark Belanger, their player rep, and They will decide either to start over with the settlement to their teams and then third baseman Doug DeCinces, the a split-season concept, creating a second tier of playoffs in October, or to resume After Rusty Staub of the New York Both players, like the Mets' Staub, where the teams left off, with the standings as they were on the day the strike tract, he told newsmen there were no The Orioles had one player over the The owners' meeting had been scheddissenting voices. But Met relief pitcher standard 25-man roster voting because uled for yesterday but was postponed that idea was scrapped when Cleveland Neil Allen said: "I don't understand one pitcher Steve Stone is on the disabled list. because of logistics problems created by club officials became concerned about Other clubs will vote later in the week the air traffic controllers strike. If the possible overcrowding of the college

As part of the strike settlement, the players agreed to stage the All-Star Game in Cleveland Stadium on Sunday night. On Saturday night, the Cleveland Browns will host the Pittsburgh Steelers in a National Football League exhibition

Because of that NFL contest, plans were made to stage the annual All-Star workout at Cuyahoga Community College in Parma, Ohio, on Saturday. But 50-day baseball strike.

HEY! IM ALIVE! Jom Mour THE DAILY CONEGIAN BASEBALL 81

George Brett of the Kansas City Royals fielder Ken Singleton of Baltimore and by Gillette was the only player to get more than 1 catcher Carlton Fisk of the Chicago Normally, 12 million votes are cast, but million votes in balloting for the Ameri- White Sox. can League All-Star team, which was announced yesterday

Brett led all major leaguers in the balloting, receiving 1,144,272 votes to win the starting spot in the 52nd All-Star geles, shortstop Dave Concepcion of Cincinnati, third baseman Mike Schmidt In both leage Game, to be played Sunday night at of Philadelphia, outfielders Dave Parker Cleveland.

team by four New York Yankees -out- Expos' catcher Gary Carter.

NEW YORK (AP) — Third baseman baseman Rod Carew of California, out- the computer-card balloting

The National League starters are first baseman Pete Rose of Philadelphia, sec- over 3 million. During the walkout, votond baseman Davey Lopes of Los An- ing continued in minor league parks and He will be joined on the AL starting nati, and Andre Dawson of Montreal and 100,000 less than Brett.

and shortstop Bucky Dent - and first strike which cut deeply into vote totals in Trillo of Philadelphia.

Top seeds get wins tournament admitted he was playing tired. tournaments for me." Kathy Rinaldi beat Elise Burgin, 6-2, 6-2.

North on upswing at PGA championship

ATLANTA (AP) — Victory in the 1978 U.S. Open was the high point of Andy North's pro career, but it also triggered a slide into the depths of a golfing lepression. Now, three years later, North is just climbing out of it. "It is," he said, straight-faced as could be, "nice to be playing like a tour olaver again.

North, then 28, appeared headed for golf's front rank when he won the U.S Open in Denver. It set him up for a number of important invitational events and poosted his money-earnings to a career high of $150,398. Instead of capitalizing on his opportunities, however, North went the other

His winnings were cut by more than 50 percent in 1979 and last year dropped to $55,000. Through the first four months of this season, he missed the cut in seven of 13 starts, didn't finish higher than 29th and won only $6,200. And, North indicated, the decline can be traced to the U.S. Open.

"I think that I'm now finally over that," he said before a practice round for the 63rd PGA national championship, which begins tomorrow at the Atlanta Athletic Club. "I went through a period of a couple of years where it was very difficult for me to go out and concentrate on what I wanted to do," North said. "I was kind of lost at sea, floundering around, and wasn't doing much of anything. I've tried to get some priorities back in line and feel like I'm starting to play better golf than I have in a long, long time." The record shows it.

The turn-around started in the Memorial Tournament at the end of May. "Before that tournament I couldn't do anything," North said. "Since then, 've hit the ball reasonably well."

The revival reached a peak two weeks ago with a strong second-place finish in the Anheuser-Busch Classic, North's best performance in three seasons. North tried to analyze his slump

"I just got too concerned about making money instead of playing good golf," he said. "It got out of control."

addition to avoiding injuries, Vermeil's goals include execution of offensive and defensive fundamentals. "Those two, avoiding injuries and basic execution, are most important," Vermeil said. The Eagles open their four-game exhibition schedule tomorrow night against the Houston Oilers in Houston. Vermeil said he plans to play most of his regulars in the first half against the Oilers. "In the second half we'll play more younger people," he said yesterday. " don't know if everybody will get in (the game), but quite a few people will. I

Eagles preparing for exhibition with Oilers

WEST CHESTER, Pa. (AP) - Dick Vermeil says the top priority for his

Philadelphia Eagles in the NFL preseason is not to get anybody hurt. In may substitute in the first half with people competing for starting jobs." Vermeil plans to test the shotgun passing formation, installed in the Eagles' offense for the first time. "It's worked good in seven-on-seven drills," Vermeil said, "but we've only tested it once, and that was under a semi-live situation in which you don't tackle the quarterback." Vermeil said how much of the shotgun the Eagles use against Houston depends on third down situations — "I imagine we'll use it on 11 or 12 snaps, maybe more," he said. The Eagles may be without starting offensive tackle Stan Walters, who has been nursing a knee injury. In the event Walters can't play, Steve Kenney will get the assignment

Rookie cornerback Lyndell Jones is slated to replace Roynell Young, who has a hamstring pull, while guard Dean Miraldi, a second-round draft choice, starts in place of Petey Perot, who suffered a back injury more than a week ago. Vermeil said regular quarterback Ron Jaworski will play the first half, with Joe Pisarcik the third guarter and Rob Hertel the fourth. Al Chesley, second year linebacker from Pitt, will start at linebacker for ailing Bill Bergey. At fullback, Perry Harrington and 10th-round draft pick Hubert Oliver have been giving Leroy Harris a close fight for the job. Vermeil plans to start Harris, but Harrington and Oliver should see a lot of action.

Wednesday, August 5

Pirates ratify; vote not reported By BOB DVORCHAK

Associated Press Write

30-minute private meeting. He did not number of hits, etc. disclose a breakdown of the vote.

but the vote was not unanimous.

with major league parks shut down for seven weeks, the total for 1981 was just In both leagues, the starting third

And in both leagues, the tightest race

plained the agreement, particularly on compensation for free agents and how PITTSBURGH (AP) - The Pittsburgh the season would be completed. Pirates yesteray joined the list of teams: A number of players were also unsure that have ratified the pact that ended the of how the performance clauses in their contracts will be fulfilled. For example, "We voted to ratify," player represen- players can be paid bonuses for the tative Phil Garner said after the players' number of starts, number of at-bats, "That's been a big issue. A lot of people Asked if the vote was unanimous, Gar- have performance bonuses, and those ner merely repeated: "We voted to rati- will be pro-rated," said Garner following a workout at Three Rivers Stadium A source close to the team said the "Things weren't exactly the way you'd settlement was ratified overwhelmingly like to have them. But the owners didn't get exactly what they wanted either. It's Many unanswered questions remained one of those things where you gain some among the Pirates after Garner ex- and you lose some.

"Let's just say we're back playing now. We're going to live with it. Whether

'Let's just say we're back playing now. We're going to live with it. Whether it's fair or not. . .we'll have to take that up in decide. . .We're going to be playing under it."

-Phil Garner

up in 1985 to decide whether it was fair or not," the Pittsburgh second baseman said, adding that for now, "We're going to be playing under it." Garner will notify the players associan of the vote.

'I put it off for two days because I was ired of it. I didn't want to look at it for two days," he laughed. nity for workouts during the seven weeks in good shape. In fact, he started the season on the disabled list because of surgery on his right shoulder. And he said the arm

"It's better," he said. The Pirates will play a pair of exhibition games with the American League Cleveland Indians this week before resuming the season Aug. 10 in Montreal. Manager Chuck Tanner said Jim Bibby, Rick Rhoden and Don Robinson will pitch tomorrow night in Cleveland. Tanner will start Eddie Solomon and work in other pitchers as he sees fit Friday in ing with 631,522, followed by Singleton with 541,100 and Winfield at 505,580. Oakand's Tony Armas finished fourth. Fourth among NL outfielders was basemen were the leading vote-getters. rookie Tim Raines of Montreal, who did of Pittsburgh; George Foster of Cincin- Schmidt polled 1,037,307 votes, about not appear on the ballot but still received 412,364 votes as a write-in candidate.

In the AL, Randolph received the nod with 488,128 to 421,829 for Frank White of Kansas City

fielders Reggie Jackson and Dave Win- The game marks the return of major was at second base. Lopes won the NL position in the All-Star Game. He has field, second baseman Willie Randolph league baseball following the 50-day job with 536,368 to 523,830 for Manny previously started at second base, third ase, left field and right field.

Jackson led AL outfielders in the vot-

Christenson also said it would be opener, teammate Pete Rose gets time National League leader in 1985 to

it's fair or not. . .we'll have to take that

Meanwhile, Garner had little opportu-

of negotiations, but he reported for drills

*** actually feels stronger now.

Pittsburgh.

Rose will be starting at a record fifth

Christenson to pitch opener By RALPH BERNSTEIN

AP Sports Writer PHILADELPHIA (AP) — On the 59th day, he'll finally pitch weather permitting.

Larry Christenson was to have been the Philadelphia Phillies' starting pitcher on June 13. The baseball strike wiped that out. Christenson (2-5) has been named by manager Dallas Green as the starter for the Phillies when their season resumes Monday night against the St. Louis Cardinals. "Christenson appears to be the pitcher in the best physical condition," said Green in explaining the choice of the righthander who has an ERA of 3.73.

Green also is faced with the fact that he plans to use Steve Carlton (9-1) and Dick Ruthven (8-3) in Sunday's All-Star game at Cleveland. The manager's tentative plans are to pitch Nino Espinosa.

and possibly Ruthven and Carlton, in the St. Louis series. Christenson was delighted when Green informed him that he would

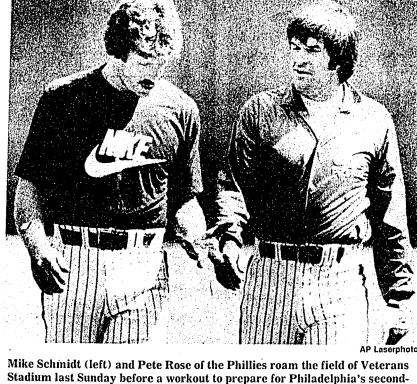

"I want it. I'm as ready as anybody else," said Christenson who underwent an operation for a deviated septum during the strike "I stayed in shape presuming I would start, since I was supposed to be the starter before the strike began," Christenson said. an honor to be the pitcher if, in the the hit that would make him the allcareer hits Christenson said he threw at least every six days during the strike to a pair of young catchers at Villanova "I really aired it out," Christenson said. "I worked with weights and did season opener against St. Louis this Monday. a lot of jogging. I jogged about 30 to 35 minutes a day, which is four miles or so. "I don't know what it's like after such a long layoff, and I didn't want to find out.'

Christenson explained he's been very prone to injuries due to a chronic back condition and some arm problems and wanted to be sure he didn't lose his physical edge. Christenson threw batting practice Sunday, and his teammates said he was alomst unhittable Green said he is pleasantly surprised with the condition of most of his pitchers. He said they threw

"If they continue, we'll be in better shape than I thought we'd be," Green said. After a Phillies' workout Monday Bob Boone, the National League player representative to the Major League Players Association, said only history will tell if the 50-day strike was worth it. "In my opinion, what happened here will be in the best interest of baseball," the catcher said. "I think the biggest thing we learned was how ridiculous it was. "As far as the players are concerned, it was necessary because the players had no choice.<sup>3</sup> television money." for a settlement.

Has the music stopped?

in U.S. clay tourney INDIANAPOLIS (AP) - Top-seeded Ivan Lendl of Czechoslovakia and a tired No.2 Jose-Luis Clerc of Argentina, the defending men's singles champion, turned in first-round victories yesterday in the $350,000 U.S. Clay Court tennis

Fifth-seeded Mel Purcell, runnerup to Clerc a year ago, won his first-round match when a shaking Pavel Slozil retired in the oppressive heat and humidity at the Indianapolis Sports Center. Later matches last night pitted No.3 Guillermo Vilas against Craig Wittus and the women's No.1 seed, Andrea Jaeger, against Donna Rubin.

Lendl, ranked fourth in the world, reached the second round with a 6-2, 6-1 victory over Rick Fagel. Clerc, who beat Lendl in the semifinals and then ousted Vilas for the championship in the Volvo International tournament at North Conway, N.H., on Monday, stopped Sherwood Stewart 6-4, 6-4 and It was/the 20th straight match victory for Clerc, who has won his past three

"I'm feeling tired, but I think I can win," he said. "The heat is really no good Purcell, a surprise finalist here in his first season as a professional last year, was leading 5-0 in the first set when his Czechoslovakian opponent retired. The victory advanced Purcell to a second-round showdown against three-time U.S. Clay Court champion Manuel Orantes of Spain. In other first-round singles matches yesterday, No.4-seed Harold Solomon easily beat Marco Ostoja of Yugoslavia 6-1, 6-1, and No.14 Shlomo Glickstein of Israel ousted Eduardo Bengoechea of Argentina 6-4, 6-3.

In women's second-round matches, No.2-seed Virginia Ruzici of Romania beat Brazil's Patricia Medrado, 6-3, 6-4; third-seeded Mima Jausovec of Yugoslavia beat Jeanne DuVall 6-2, 6-4, and No.4 Regina Marsikova of Czechoslovakia downed Kathleen Cummings 6-2, 6-1. Also, No.6 Sue Barker of England ousted Yvona Brzakova of Czechoslovakia, 6-4, 6-1; eighth-seeded Anne Smith beat Kim Steinmetz, 6-1, 6-3 and No.14

Boone said he hopes the bitte strike will be a deterrent to any future walkout. "I hope it makes ownership deal with the players fairly," he said. Did Boone feel both sides inderestimated each other's determination in the dispute before they settled last Friday? "I think ownership did," Boone replied. "I was told that across the (bargaining) table. "No, I don't think we inderestimated their resolve."

Boone said he felt that the end of the owners' $100,000-per-day strike insurance was one of the variables that helped bring about the settlement. But it was more than

"I think practicality entered into it," he said. "I think the risk of losing the season was as important as the insurance issue. Also, the owners didn't want to lose the

Boone noted also that the players were losing money and suggested the time was conducive to both sides Boone also disagreed with teammate Mike Schmidt, who said the fans lost the most in the strike. "The fans lost entertainment the last two months," Boone said. "The players lost two months from a short career. The owners lost profit and may have damaged the image of baseball for the next few years." Boone admitted that the players ost in the settlement.

"There is no question the players were in a takeback situation," he said. "We were fighting not to lose the reserve clause as it was June 12. with the six-year free agency. We had to do whatever was necessary to preserve that. We're in worse shape now than when we went in, plus we ost two months salary."

Men Only

99¢

Jon Kolb

By VITO STELLINO Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

getting closer for Jon Kolb, and he knows him to overcome much of the criticism.

At 33, Kolb is trying to come back from a serious ankle injury. The odds are that packing plant. he's going to make it, but he realizes more football is behind him than ahead of

"There's life after death, but there's no football after retirement," the veteran offensive tackle said. Kolb admits football has been the "focal point of his life'' since he was 11 years

"I haven't found anything that comes close to the feeling you get after a good game, when you contribute to a team effort.'' he said. "If that sounds high schoolish, so be

Kolb said the involvement of reporters and fans makes it doubly difficult for a player to cope with ending his career. "The press decides to get down on a guy, and they write he's bum, and the fans react to it," he said, adding that Dwight White suffered such a situation last year.

"The implication was that he's a dog said.

sainthood. Kolb admitted he felt "an almost internal rage" when a radio guy stuck a time? microphone in his face and said some-

"Are the fans determining the way I'm LATROBE, Pa. (AP) — The end. It's For Kolb, his love for the game helps He also has other career alternatives. He works on his farm and runs a meat

> Kolb, who will turn 34 on Aug. 30, isn't really old for an offensive linemen. Gene Upshaw is 36: Art Shell is 35. And they helped Oakland win the Super Bowl last

But Kolb knows it's easier for an older player in Oakland's straight-ahead blocking scheme. The Steelers stress much more movemer in their line play. Kolb always aims high. The third-round 1969 draft pick is in his 13th season, and only Sam Davis and Joe Greene have seniority on him. In one stretch, Kolb started 112 consecutive games and 141 out of 142.

Last year, however, the ankle injury limited him to seven games. It was one of the few times football stopped being fun.

"I've got an 11-year old boy, Eric, who's wrestling, and I'm always telling him to do his best and have a good time," Kolb

now. Here's a guy who got out of a "I didn't know if I was getting through hospital bed (for the first Super Bowl), to him until that 1979 game in San Diego and now he's a dog. Of course, once he when they almost ran us off the field. I does retire, he immediately qualifies for just got home Monday morning as he was leaving for school. As I came inside the house, he said, 'Well, did you have a good

Sidelined with injuries are Zak Valenthing like, "The fans don't think you can tine (knee sprain), Ted Petersen (hip bursitis), Theo Bell (knee injury) and come back from this injury." "Are the fans my judge?" Kolb asked. Tyrone McGriff (injured calf muscle). THIS SUMMER PREPARE FOR: MCAT•DAT•LSAT•GMAT•GR one lyich . Ave bin . Loui OCAT · VAT · MAT · SAT · TOEFL MSKP•NMB I,II,III•ECFMG•FLEX•VQE•CPA NDB LII · NPB I · NLE Flexible Programs & Hours Join our Summer Classes to prepare for Fall 1981 exams Stanley H EDUCATIONAL CENTER TEST PREPARATIK SPECIALISTS SINCE Eleanor Coburn 444 E. College Ave. State College, PA 238-1423

