Capt. James Elder said 76 freshmen, 37 sophomores, 91 juniors and about 70 seniors participate in the Army ROTC program at the University this year. The clubs which put on exhibitions yesterday included: the Lion's Guard, the Rangers, the Orienteering Club, the Rifle Club and Tae Kwan Do. The Lion's Guard is a precision drill team that competes at other colleges and universities. It works to promote excellence in drill and teamwork.

Edward Lorimer, public relations officer for the 1st Brigade, said the orienpopular. The club uses maps and cumpasses to navigate courses.
