Films

On Campus
"The Graduate" Mike Nichols' Oscar-winning 1967 production starring Dustin Hoffman. Hoffman plays a recent college graduate who returns home to his rich parents, falls around with an older woman (Anne Bancroft) and falls in love with the woman's daughter (Katherine Ross). One of the best films to come out of the sixties, the movie humorously examines American values and the generation gap. Simon and Garfunkel wrote some of their biggest hits for the picture including "Mrs. Robinson," "The Sounds of Silence," and "Scarborough Fair." 7 and 9 tonight, tomorrow and Sunday, HUB Assembly Room.

"Belief Them" Two late greats, Peter Sellers and Melvyn Douglas, top the bill in what many thought was Seller's best performance. He plays a butler who has lived a sheltered life and knows nothing of the world except what he has seen on television. Through a number of flukes and misunderstandings, he ends up a trusted counsellor to the President of the United States. Also starring Shirley Maclaine, the movie is based on a bestselling book by Jerry Kobinsky. Directed by Hal Ashby. 7:30 and 10:00 tonight, tomorrow and Sunday, Waring Lounge.

"The Jazz Singer" Remake of the classic Al Jolson picture from 1927. Neil Diamond plays the son of a cantor. Diamond is chastised by his family for his love of jazz music and thrown out of the house. Barbara Streisand also stars. 7, 9:15 and 11:30 Tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9:15 Sunday night, Findlay Rec Room.

"Airplane" Hilarious parody of airplane disaster movies. The gags never let up. Playboy called it the best movie of 1980. Cast includes Lloyd Bridges, Peter Graves, Robert Stack and Karen Allen. 7:30 and 10:00 tonight, tomorrow and Sunday, 101 Chambers.

"Fame" Alan Parker's touching film about students at the New York High School for the Performing Arts. The kids are all trying to break into the world of show business. 7 and 9:15 tonight and Sunday, Ken, 7 and 9:15 tomorrow, 112 Chambers.

"Deep Throat" The first X-rated film accepted by a large audience, probably because of its light approach to sex. The movie, made for a small sum and shot in a few days in Miami, has grossed millions. Harry Reems plays a sex therapist and Linda Lovelace is a patient suffering from a strange malady. Lovelace contends in her autobiography "Ordeal" that she was mistreated during the film's production. Reems disputed that when he spoke on campus a few years ago. A must for new students. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow and 7 and 9 Sunday, 111 Forum.

"Le Caze Aux Folles" Outrageous French farce featuring a female impersonator and his boyfriend, a nightclub owner. The son of the nightclub owner wishes to marry but the father says, "No, not to a girl!" The movie, based on a play gets crasier from there. 7 and 9 tonight, 112 Chambers, 7 and 9 tomorrow and Monday, Ken.

"Check and Chong's Next Movie" Hollywood's dope snobster, long-haired duo follow "Up in Smoke" with another one of their wild escapades as they try out for a movie, sell marijuana, run through a massage parlor and generally turn the world upside-down. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow and 7 and 9 Sunday, 101 Sparks.

Downtown
"Heavy Metal" Characters from the magazine Heavy Metal come to life in this animated anthology of eight stories. The film's soundtrack contains a number of new songs by groups including Journey, Grand Funk Railroad, Blue Oyster Cult, Black Sabbath, Nazareth, Cheap Trick, Devo and Steely Dan's Donald Fagen. State.

"Stripes" Cabdriver Bill Murray loses his job, apartment and girlfriend in the first five minutes of the movie and decides to join the Army. Produced by Ivan Reitman ("Heavy Metal"). "National Lampoon's Animal House". Movies.

"Raiders of the Lost Ark" George Lucas ("Star Wars," "American Graffiti," "The Empire Strikes Back" and Steven Spielberg ("Close Encounters of the Third Kind") teamed up to make this throwback to the adventure movies our parents grew up with. Archaeologist Indiana Jones (Harrison Ford) races Nazis for the original copy of the Ten Commandments. The tablets are thought to contain God-like powers. Karen Allen plays Jones' tough female sidekick. "Flash" "Eyes of the Needle" Donald Sutherland stars as a spy working in England during World War II. "The final showdown sends chills down the spine." (N.Y. Daily News). Cinema.

"Arthur" Spoiled millionaire Dudley Moore, who cruises through Times Square in his Rolls Royce, faces a tough decision. He either marries the woman his parents have chosen for him or goes with his true love, played by Liza Minnelli. If he opts for Minnelli, she sacrifices his fortune. Great performance by Sir John Gielgud as Moore's butler, Garden.

"First Monday in October" Jill Clayburgh plays the first woman appointed to serve on the Supreme Court. Based on a play, the film also stars Walter Matthau as another justice with opposing viewpoints. Cinema.

"American Werewolf in London" Horror-comedy about two American kids hiking through Northern England. One of them becomes affected by an uncontrollable affliction. Written and directed by John Landis ("Animal House"). "...a delicious treat...gristy but fun." (Los Angeles Times). Arena.

"Chu Chu and the Philly Flash" Carol Burnett plays a nightclub entertainer and Alan Arkin is a washed-up baseball player. The two fall in love. Arena.

"Nightschool" Just-released horror flick. State.

"Coed Fever" Perfect porn film for a college town. Screening Room.
