Penguins tie Hawks on late goal

CHICAGO (AP) — Greg Malone scored with 21 seconds left to play last night as the Pittsburgh Penguins overcame two three-goal deficits to gain a 3-5 tie with the Chicago Blackhawks in NHL action.

With goalie Michel Dion out of the nets in favor of another skater, Malone tied the score after taking a pass from Randy Carlyle and skating up the middle of the Hawks' defense to thread a shot past Chicago netminder Tony Esposito.

The Hawks had broken a 4-1 tie at 16:08 of the final period when Denis Savard scored his second goal of the game.

It was the first game of the season for Chicago, while the Penguins had lost to the St. Louis Blues 6-2 Tuesday in their season opener.

Trailing 4-1, the Penguins began their comeback with Pat Boutelle's power-play goal at 17:22 of the second period. Forty-three seconds later, Pittsburgh's Mike Bullard scored to make it 4-3. Rick Kesho's power-play goal at 3:25 of the final period tied the score at 4-4.

Sabres 5, Caps 3

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Buffalo forward Lindy Ruff scored a goal and an assist as the Sabres defeated the Washington Capitals 5-3 in an NHL opener for both clubs last night.

Washington's Bobby Carpenter, an 18-year-old American bowing into the NHL without having played junior hockey, earned his spurs with a goal and an assist. Washington made Carpenter the No. 3 pick in this year's entry draft — the highest draft position in history for a U.S.-born hockey player.

Ryan Walter of the Capitals scored the first and last goals of the game and also assisted on Carpenter's goal, which put the visitors ahead 2-1 early in the second period.

The Sabres, however, reeled off four unanswered goals for a 5-2 advantage.

Luck's luck may run out against Panther defense

By ALAN ROBINSON
AP Sports Writer

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — In West Virginia University's first four football games this season, opposing defenses failed to sack Mountaineer quarterback Oliver Luck a single time.

"He's been flushed out of the pocket a few times, but he hasn't been sacked," West Virginia coach Don Nehlen said.

Last week, Pitt's rebuilt defense — which lost nine starters from its 1980 Fiesta Bowl team — sacked South Carolina quarterback Gordon Beckham on an amazing 14 times in a 42-28 Panther victory. Defensive ends Chris Doleman, a 6-6, 220-pound freshman, and Michael Woods, a 6-1, 219-pound junior, each had four sacks.

Pitt ranks 28th in scoring defense, giving up 13.7 points per game, even though South Carolina stung the Panthers for 28 points after Pitt had built up a 35-0 lead in the second quarter.

The Panthers' awesome defense concerns Nehlen. West Virginia has yet to develop an effective running game, despite the presence of veterans back Curtin Beck and Dane Conwell, and is averaging 220 yards a game through the air but just 175.5 yards a game on the ground.

Beck, the top rusher with 307 yards in four games, is averaging only 3.5 yards per carry, and prior to last week's Boston College game, he was averaging just 2.1 yards per carry.

"At Notre Dame we have similar problems with space and the hours of service," he said. "Although here there is a stronger demand for longer hours of service."

Neal said both libraries have problems with the increasing cost of materials and maintenance.

"Pattee is an older building with parts added on, and that creates problems," he said. "The Notre Dame library is just one building."

He said that Pattee is more advanced in its progress, with an automated library system.

"It's more exciting because it's being developed by Penn State, rather than being bought by a company," he said.

Neal said his internship will include several projects, although he does not know the details yet.

"It may be looking at problems the library has identified where I can draw upon my experience," he said. "I've done work with the physical preservation of library materials, and also with staff development."

Braves' Cox reported fired

ATLANTA (AP) — Manager Bobby Cox of the Atlanta Braves said he was fired yesterday during a meeting with team owner Ted Turner, the Atlanta Constitution reported.

The Braves made no official announcement on Cox's status, but said a news conference would be held at 11 a.m. EDT today.

In the past week, executives of three other major league baseball teams have been quoted in published reports as saying Braves officials told them Cox would be fired. Turner, however, maintained that the decision had not been made.

Cox, who has one year left on his contract, compiled a 566-324 record during his four years with the Braves.

Following an executive session of the commission, the group issued a statement saying that Los Angeles Mayor Tom Bradley has been meeting with an NFL representative, seeking a solution to the legal battles between the Oakland Raiders' general managing partner and the LA Coliseum on one side and the league on the other.

The trial of an antitrust suit filed by the Coliseum and Davis against the NFL, with the commission and Davis seeking to move the Raiders to Los Angeles, recently ended in a mistrial.

Sports briefs

Braves spokesman Bob Korch would say only that there would be an announcement of "a very important nature" at the news conference.

Cox, however, said Turner had fired him, according to the newspaper's Thursday edition.

"Ted just told me a change was needed and we didn't have a great year," Cox said. "We didn't have a terrible year, either."

"I like Ted, and I respect him. And I thanked him for the four years I have been here. In that time, I think the team has come leaps and bounds. The Braves were little more than an expansion club when I got here."

Cox was unavailable for comment on the Constitution report.

Turner, who had retorted as saying whether Cox would manage the Braves next season, told reporters earlier this week that he would meet with Cox yesterday and "decide what to do."

Neal said his internship will include several projects, although he does not know the details yet.

"It may be looking at problems the library has identified where I can draw upon my experience," he said. "I've done work with the physical preservation of library materials, and also with staff development."

Two libraries compared

Pattee, Notre Dame libraries have similar problems

By MARY BETH HORWATH
Daily Collegian Staff Writer

Although Pattee is larger than the Notre Dame University Libraries, both have similar space and cost problems, said visiting librarian James G. Neal.

"Size is the big difference," he said. "Pattee is four to five times bigger than Notre Dame (libraries)."

The size creates many more demands. There is a larger faculty and more research," he said.

Neal is head of the collections management department at the Notre Dame University Libraries, and is visiting the University as an intern through the Council on Library Resources Academic Library Management Intern Program. For the next 10 months he will be working with Dean of University Libraries Stuart Forth.

interior, and during the course of their interview are expected to research and analyze library problems.

Although Neal works primarily with library administration, he has had some contact with students.

"I observe mainly, and I was at an event with my first week here," he said. "That was a good experience because I got to meet student leaders. I'm looking forward to that type of contact."

Neal is the first intern the University has had from this program, he said. Interns are selected by application and
