Win nail biters, romps in football finals

By LEE DEORIO
Daily Collegian Sports Writer

The intramural football season, which featured over 200 teams, came to an exciting close last night with the crowning of four best champions.

Perhaps the evening's best game was in the graduate division, in which the Raiders defeated Le Bisto 3-0 on a last-second field goal by Bob Strong.

intramurals

Le Bisto completely dominated the game as evidenced by its 8-3 advantage in first downs, but it was unable to break a stubborn Raiders defense.

"By all rights, Le Bisto should have won this game," Raiders quarterback Reggie Serinko said. "They outplayed us the entire game. We only had one good drive. The only way to win a game like this one is the way we did."

The way the Raiders became champions was truly incredible.

With only 10 seconds remaining in the game, the Raiders were faced with a third down and 25 from the Le Bisto 45-yard line. They needed a big play to get into field goal range. And they got it.

Serinko found Strong open over the middle at the Le Bisto 15-yard line with just two seconds remaining.

"We just sent everybody deep and hoped someone would get open," Serinko said. "We wanted to get it as close as possible, and we were confident we could pull it off."

Strong, who earlier was short on a 40-yard attempt, then boomed his game winning 35-yard field goal as time expired.

"I was trying to relax," Strong said. "I knew it was a do or die situation, but we pulled out a couple of games this year in the last moments so it wasn't completely new to me."

Something new did happen in the fraternity championship game, however.

Tau Kappa Epsilon finally captured the elusive title it has been striving for the past four years. They defeated Phi Gamma Delta by virtue of a 5-1 edge in first downs. The contest ended in a scoreless tie.

"We've choked a lot of times before," TKE's Tom Tattersall said. "We made the playoffs all four years that I've been here, but this is the first time we've won all the way. The difference this year is that we played like a team. We were very close-knit."

Fiji had a last-gasp effort in the waning moments of the game, but TKE's defense forced them to give the ball over on downs.

"Our defense was outstanding," TKE quarterback Jim Colton said. "We played together as a unit and also played very aggressively. This is my fourth year, and I wanted this championship more than anything."

The only real threat Fiji could muster came after Jim Goldich recovered a fumble by Colton on the TKE 39-yard line with two minutes left.

"This game was closer than we expected," TKE defensive lineman Greg Keyes said. "We let it get too close for comfort. After the fumble we knew we had to push them out of field goal range, and we did."

While the fraternity and graduate games may have been nail-biters, the independent and dormitory finals were one-sided.

In the independent division, the Afterburners completed a perfect season (9-0) with a 13-0 triumph over Kanitz. The Afterburners were perfect in more ways than one. Their defense went through the entire season without surrendering a single point.

"Our defense was fantastic all year," Afterburner wide receiver Randy Simcox said. "We covered our zones very well despite playing on a wider field than usual."

Simcox, besides making aerobic catches on offense, contributed three interceptions on defense as well. Teammate Mike Sharkey also had three interceptions.

The Afterburners scored on a pair of Jim Samselski touchdown passes. The first was a 2-yard flair pass to Mark O'Neill in the first half.

The Afterburners led the game on their first series of the second half when Samselski hit Jim Scarpello on a 29-yard scoring pass.

"My receivers were wide open the entire game," Samselski said. "My line did a super job of protecting me. I think that was the key because I had plenty of time to throw."

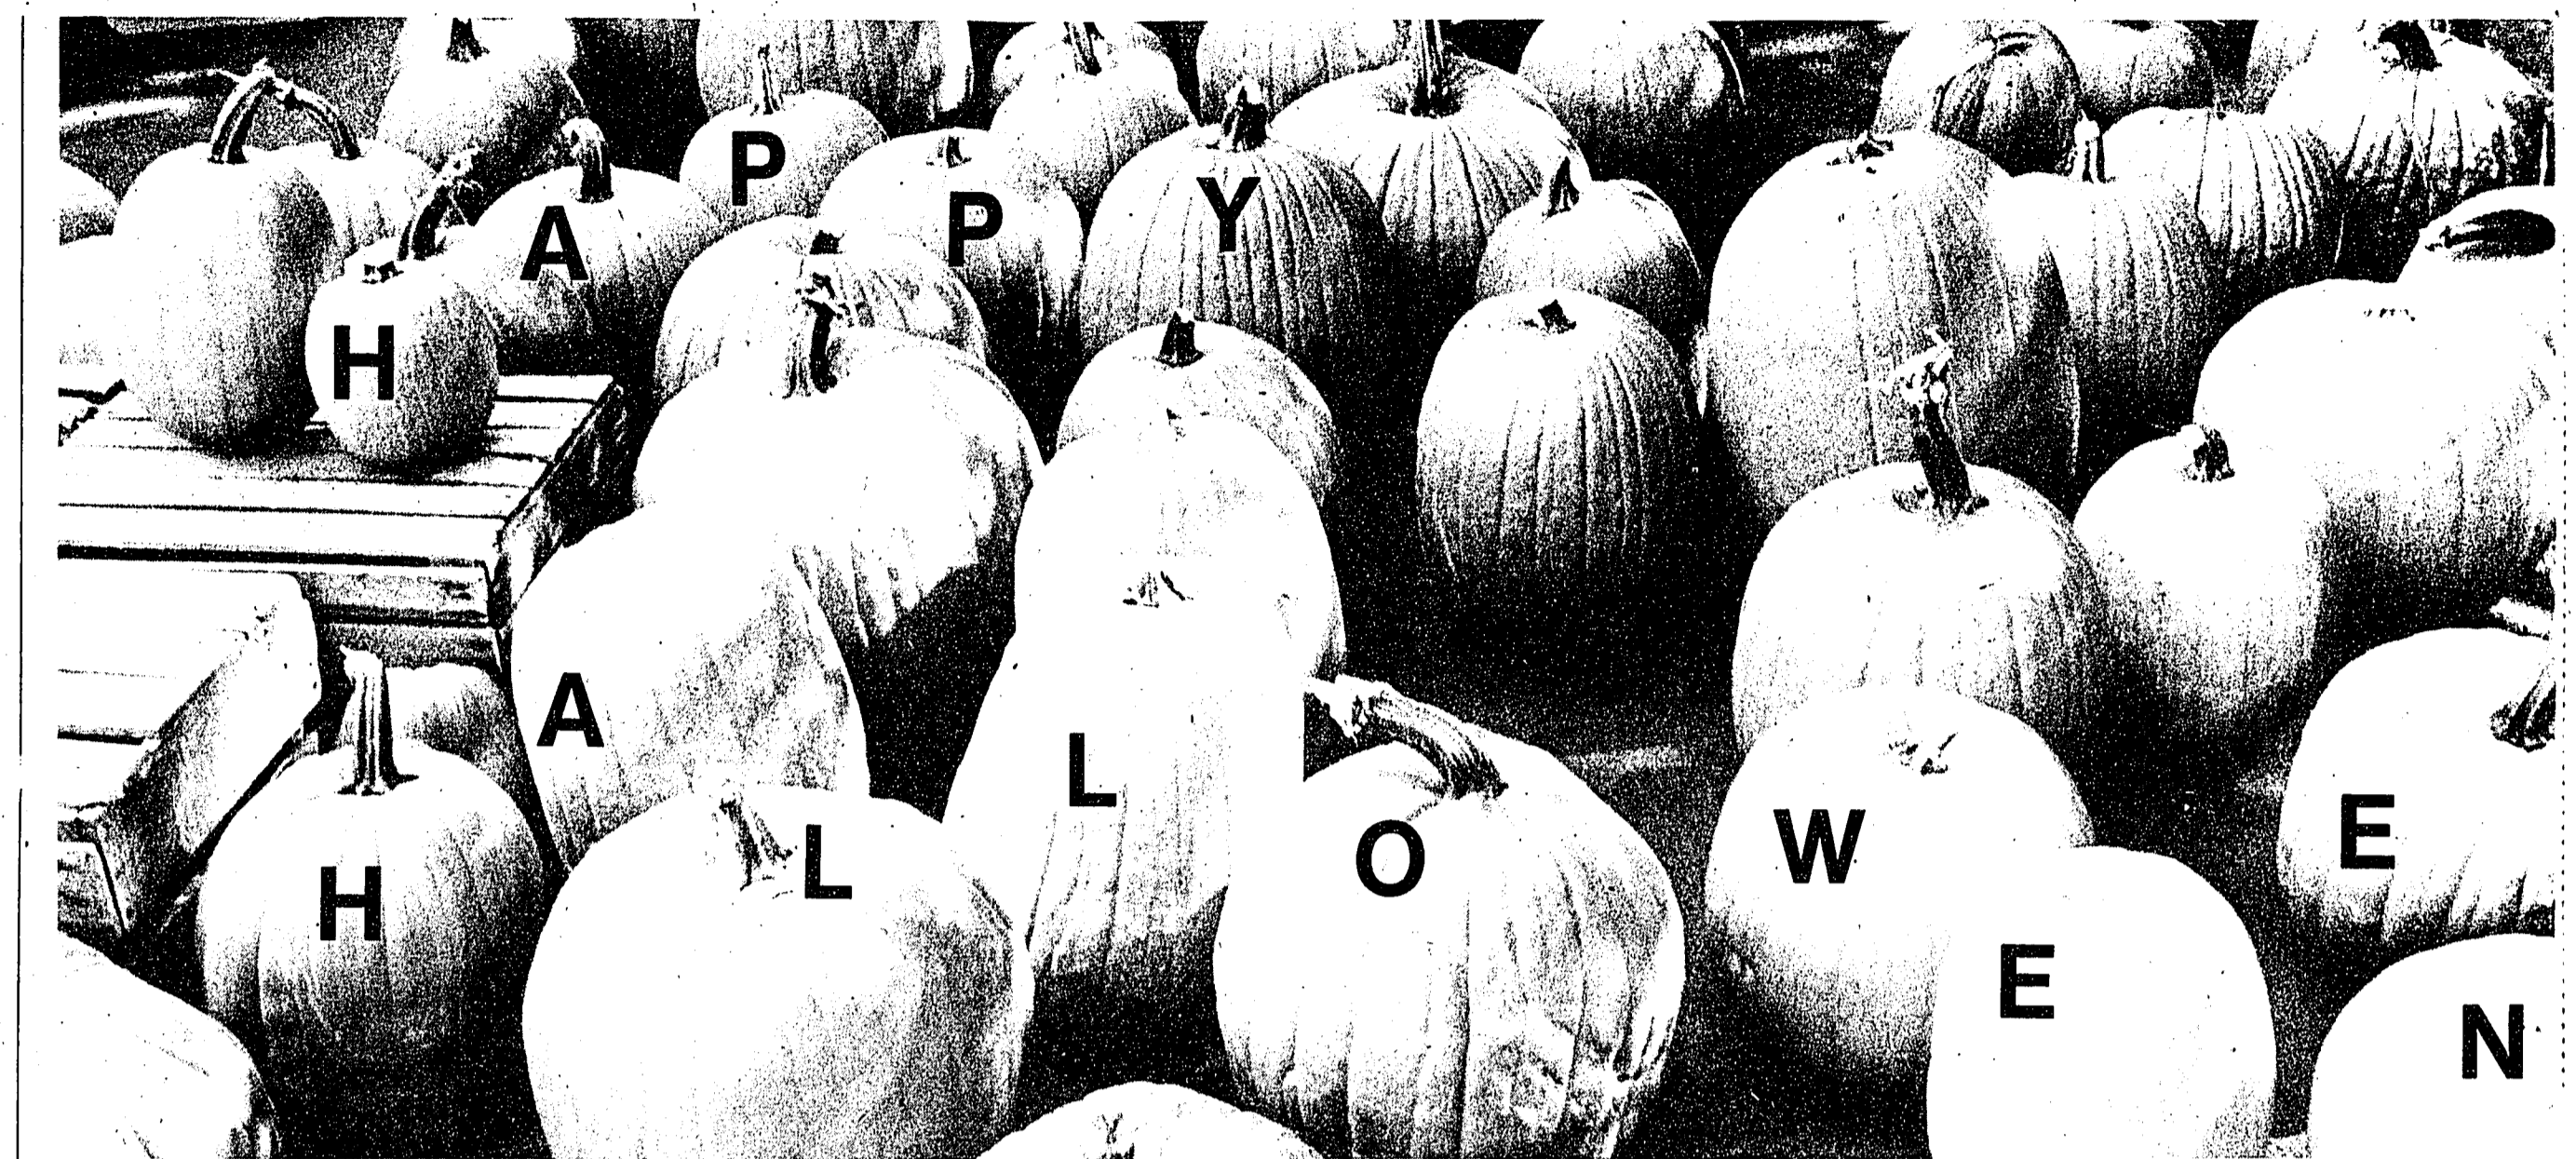

In the dormitory final, Fayette took the game's opening kickoff and marched 55 yards in four minutes, scoring on a Pat Burkhardt-to-Scott Matpede 10-yard pass on its way to a 17-3 victory over Sequoia.

"We felt we took control of the game right from the start," Burkhardt said. "That opening drive gave us momentum, and we never lost it."

After Sequoia kicked a field goal to narrow the margin to 7-3, Fayette capitalized on a Sequoia turnover with a Burkhardt-to-Joe Chambers touchdown pass to lead at the half 14-3.

Films

On Campus
"Halloween" One of the many horror films playing on this Halloween weekend. A psychotic mental patient, who murdered his sister as a young boy after caring her making out with her boyfriend, escapes. He goes on a rampage in his town, bloody striking out at teenagers for sexual thoughts and acts. John Carpenter ("Escape From New York") wrote and directed. P. J. Soles is one of the victims. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 105 Forum, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, Pollock Rec Room.

"Aller" A powerful creature terrorizes the crew of a spacecraft. Tom Skerritt, Signourney Weaver, John Hurt and Yaphet Kotto are among the alien's prey. "As the suspense and dread escalate, the camera's power of premonition grows as well." (L. A. Times), 7 and 9:15 tonight and tomorrow, 10 Sparks.

"Don't Look Back" Based on a book by Daphne du Maurier, this erotic horror story features Donald Sutherland and Julie Christie and unfolds in Venice, Italy, 7 and 9 tonight and tomorrow, 112 Chambers.

"Friday the 13th, Part II" Another entry in the weekend's chiller competition, 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, 121 Sparks.

"Divine Madness" The boisterous concert of busy Beate Midler come to film. If you think you've seen everything in the performances, you've obviously never seen Midler on stage. Includes "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" and other favorites. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, Waring Lounge.

"Love and Death" Woody Allen is a Russian soldier during the Napoleonic Wars. Woody and co-star Diane Keaton satirize the great Russian novels, speaking philosophical nonsense. Their attempt to assassinate Bonaparte is hilarious. 7 and 9 tonight and Sunday, Kern.

"Casablanca" Classic cinema love triangle set in World War II Morocco. Ingrid Bergman and Humphrey Bogart. Winner for Best Picture, Best Screenplay and Best Director. Sidney Greenstreet and Peter Lorre also star. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, 108 Forum.

"Inherit the Wind" Down the warm waters of the flesh, sang Frank N. Furter in "The Rocky Horror Picture Show." Go for it porn fans. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, 111 Forum.

"Wild Strawberries" Ingmar Bergman film about a doctor who experiences wild flashbacks that startle him. Won awards in Denmark, Germany and Italy. "Brilliant scenes and beautifully touching." (N. Y. Times), 7 and 9 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, 111 Forum.

"Annie" Musical film featuring Carol Kane and Albert Finney. Cinema.

"Bonnie" Brand new horror flick. Stars: John Wood and John Wood. 7 and 9 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, 111 Forum.

"Halloween, Part II" The sequel to the one on campus. Picks up where the action left off on that fateful Halloween night. Stars Jamie Lee Curtis and Donald Pleasence. Movies.

"Callgirl" A war film that concentrates on two of the participants, telling us how they got there more than what they go on once they get there. The battle really happened during World War I, with the British and Australian fighting side by side against the Germans. Directed by Peter Weir ("Picnic at Hanging Rock," "The Last Wave"). Screening Room.

"Carbon Copy" Rich WASP George Segal is faced with an illegitimate black son. The movie contrasts their lifestyles and studies their relationship. Susan St. James plays Segal's wife. Flick.

"Arthur" Screwball comedy starring Dudley Moore as an eccentric millionaire and Liza Minnelli as his low class love. John Gielgud has some of the best lines as Moore's butler, Gordon.

"Stripes" Bill Murray and Harold Ramis play a couple of down-and-out losers who decide to join the volunteer Army. Suffice to say they make a mockery of the institution. Arena.

"Only When I Laugh" Marsha Mason is an actress with an alcohol problem and Kristy McNichol is her daughter in this Neil Simon film. James Cagney and Joan Hackett star as Mason's closest friends. Arena.
