BETHLEHEM - It's too bad "The $64,000 The men's soccer team could provide a perfect question for the top prize money. It would have the right degree of difficulty; the answer would elude all but the sharpest person. And the Lions

All season, the Lions have been plagued by their against lesser Lehigh — theoretically much lesser Lehigh — Penn State had the perfect opportunity to blow a team away, to get out of its rut with a bunch of goals before this Friday's game with when things don't go the way they should. It took more than 40 shots on goal, an entire regulation game, one overtime period and two minutes of another — 102 minutes, 58 seconds in a cross to midfielder Gerry Moyer. Moyer then neers' goal to give the Lions a 1-0 win in double overtime at Lehigh's Saucon Valley Fields. "I thought we were going to have to play until tomorrow to score a goal," Penn State coach Walt that about the game that started in the 2:30 a 5 o'clock shadow. The frustrated Lion offense outshot Lehigh by 30 shots in all. The Engineers set a new school record for shutouts in a season, and a win would have been Bahr's 100th as the freshmen goalies, Greg Kenney and Dave Wilson, who started the first seven games of the season. But Penn State never really put together an offense, while midfielder Dan Murphy led the onslaught of shot after shot that sailed wide in one his career milestone that no one seemed aware of. The field looked smooth, but it was actually treacherous enough, he said, that the Lions couldn't get the ball under control enough to put a few good passes together. It still came down to the basic question of why direction or another or hit a post. Part of the Lions' problem yesterday was the field, said Bahr, who gave little, if any, thought to the Lions can't score. At least one player doesn't

Penn State's Dan Murphy (left) and Steve Blumenthal leap for the ball while Jeff Maierhofer (below Fields. Behind Blumenthal is the Lions' Balfe Morrison. The Lions pulled out a 1-0 double-overtime left) awaits the result during the men's soccer match at Lehigh yesterday at the Saucon Valley win on Gerry Moyer's second goal of the season. The win ups Penn State's record to 13-3-1.

ular to the Lions?

be as good as mine. I know it's a contagious thing. nities, and we've had a dozen games like this saving shots. When you have opportunities and you don't make where we start the first 15, 20 minutes and should "I don't feel that Lehigh was giving us any them, maybe you start trying a little bit harder, have a couple of goals, and we don't have them." particular problems," Doug Moyer said. "It's one or trying to hit the ball a little bit harder or you

Penn State could have had a couple of goals of those things, if you get a goal early, then you become a little more impatient, I don't know.

Felli State could have had a count have little become a little more impatient, I don't know.

every 15 or 20 minutes. But the Lions were flat.

get better. If you go a long period without scoring with a tie." "(But) it's a soccer problem. You can dominate Many of the shots they took weren't good ones, or without having some good shots, you tend to brother. "We've been getting a lot of good shots. games, you can have 100 shots. . . it's difficult to and several times they didn't have as much drag things out." patience as they should have.

just couldn't put them in. I really don't know what Does that mean scoring isn't a problem partic- And as the shots kept missing, Penn State began not capitalizing on opportunites make the Lions to press offensively. Lehigh had, at the most, one worse. It got to the point, Bahr said, where the "Well," Bahr said, "maybe it is a little bit more serious scoring threat in the entire game, and its defenders were starting to think offensivley and "I wish I knew," Bahr said. "Your guess would so because we certainly have had lots of opportudefense was a factor mainly in front of the goal leave room for a defensive mistake.

many times," Bahr said, "you make one mistake defensively and the other team gets a goal. At one point there, I was going to be happy to come home

Today we made a lot of shots near the goal, but we score goals." Goal by Moyer buoys booters' playoff hopes

Daily Collegian Sports Writer

finally got an open cross. I spotted him BETHLEHEM — Gerry Moyer has (Moyer) inside the corner of the post." probably scored goals that have meant Waiting at the other end was Moyer, more. He probably has scored goals that , who did exactly as Bahr had instructed have looked nicer. And he is probably him to do. destined to score many more goals in his "Anytime we have a guy coming in the career as a member of the men's soccer coach has it that at least one person goes to the far post," said Moyer, a freshman

But yesterday, Penn State coach Walt from Fleetwood. Bahr was probably just happy anybody on Penn State scored at Lehigh's Saucon was really a poor defensive play, he went Valley Fields. And it was Moyer's goal at right to the ball — so I was all alone. It 2:58 of the second overtime that gave the was just a matter of whether (Jobling) Lions a big 1-0 win over Lehigh and could get it over." possibly kept Penn State's post-season Jobling played his part, crossing per-

"That certainly wasn't a very pretty goal that went in," Bahr said. "But hey, at that point we would have taken any goal at all, whether they would have put t in with their feet, their head, their elbows or whatever. We would have taken any type goal that went into the net

For 102 minutes the two teams remained scoreless, mostly through the efforts of Lehigh goalkeeper Brian Blaser, teammate and defender Steve Schwartz, and the goalposts. The Lions took an amazing 44 shots at Blaser, turning the Lehigh keeper every which way but loose in the process, but none found the back of the net. Until the 103rd minute. The play started with Pete Jobling goal for me. It's not like we were in the breaking in on the left side, shadowed "I was trying to shake the defender that kind of goal. But without it we might loose, that was all," Jobling said. "I tried not get a chance to get to the finals."

new role as a starter, scored 15.

Sixers cruise past Bullets LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — Julius Erv- Bullets 13-1 with Jones contributing sev-

ing and Bobby Jones combined for 25 en of the points. first half points as the Philadelphia 76ers

Washington, which has lost its first two opened up a 20-point lead and raced to a games, was led by Don Collins with 17 112-99 NBA victory over the Washington points. Kevin Grevey had 16, seven of Bullets last night. them coming during a brief spurt at the Erving, the high scorer in each of the start of the third quarter when the Bulfirst three games for unbeaten Philadel-lets cut their deficit to 62-50. phia, finished with 19 points. Jones, in his

It was the third consecutive season The 76ers scored 15 fast-break points that the Bullets have opened at home while opening up a 58-38 halftime lead. against Philadelphia, and each game During one stretch, they outscored the resulted in a Washington defeat.

"I made the run on my defender — it fectly to Moyer. And the kid who led his Berks County high school team to the happened to be at the right place at the

that," he said. "But it was just one of those things where I happened to be the

"I think personally it was a real good finals or something like that — it's not person who was there.

"It feels real good to get a big goal like

Lions fall to 6th; Pitt new No. 1...

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

set a record — the first time in the 46- ratings began in 1936.

1958, 1960, 1961, 1962, 1965 and 1977. Twenty.

Pennsylvania state championship last year tipped the ball past Blaser for the biggest goal of his young Penn State winning goal, since he, his brother Doug, and two Lehigh players - all teammates at Fleetwood - were the subjects of a story about the game by the local Berks County newspaper, the Reading Eagle. But Gerry, who is fighting off the effects of an ankle injury, said he just

The Pitt Panthers, who thought they Miami of Florida 17-14. Pitt, a 29-24 entertain Clemson in Chapel Hill on sippi, which blanked North Texas were the best team in the country a winner over Boston College, received Saturday. year ago only to finish behind Georgia 49 of 65 first-place votes and 1,283 of a Arizona State, idle last weekend, this season. The Golden Eagles have a in the final rankings, became No.1 possible 1,300 points from a nationwide moved up from 10th to ninth with 658 6-0-1 record, the only blemish being a year history of The AP poll that six Clemson, which crushed Wake Forteams have held the top spot in one est 82-24, moved up from third place to ka, Michigan, Miami, Florida State, Michigan, Notre Dame, Southern 1,201 points. Southern Cal rose from ma, Ohio State, Arkansas and South-California, Texas and Penn State also fourth to third with seven firsts and 1,- ern Mississippi have been No.1 this season. The other 178 points following a 41-17 victory over Last week, it was Iowa State, Ne-five No.1-ranked teams were 1950, Cougars, 14th last week, out of the Top igan, Iowa, Florida State, Washington, ers Association of New York. "At the up from sixth to fifth with 1,007 points after a 24-7 loss to Illinois.

Asked if the No.1 ranking was especially sweet in view of last year's State was sixth with 869 points.

Alabama's 13-10 triumph over Mis Miami, which was as high as 13th runnerup finish, Sherrill replied, sissippi State boosted the Crimson earlier in the year, returned after "Only if we're No.1 at the end of the Tide from eighth to seventh with 861 defeating Penn State. Ohio State, points and dropped MSU from seventh which had been as high as seventh, had Pitt, last week's runner-up, got its to 15th. North Carolina, a 17-10 victor been out of the rankings for three when No.1-ranked Penn State lost to eighth with 767 points. The Tar Heels triumph over Purdue. Southern Missis-yesterday in The Associated Press panel of sports writers and sporstcaspoints, while Southern Methodist rose 13-13 tie with Alabama. from 13th to 10th with 626 points after In becoming the sixth team to cap- This week's poll is the 500th, not beating Texas A&M 27-7. Mississippi ture the No.1 position this season, Pitt counting preseason polls, since The AP State was the only team to fall out of second with nine first-place ballots and Mississippi State, Washington, Oklahoyears in which there were as many as Washington State that knocked the braska, SMU, Washington State, Mich-Oklahoma and Arkansas.

"The way it's been going, I don't Defending national champ Georgia Iowa State dropped out of the Top know if I want to be No.1 or not," coach trounced Temple 49-3 and climbed Twenty by losing to Kansas State 10-7, Jackie Sherrill said yesterday at the from fifth to fourth with 1,075 points. Washington State was bumped out by weekly luncheon of the Football Writ- The Bulldogs were followed by Texas, Southern Cal and Iowa disappeared after whipping Texas Tech 26-9. Penn This week's newcomers are Miami, votes in parentheses, season's record and total points. Points based on 20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-6-1-0 1.007 6. PENN STATE

Top Twenty

...thanks to early open dates, says Sherrill college football ranking but the young Panthers will ball Writers Association of New York's weekly meethave to improve on their last two outings if they hope ing.

Cincinnati, which fell 38-7. Then came another off- lot of sacrifices.

in this week's Associated Press poll.

biggest thing that happened. That helped us more be heavy favorites in the first three.

to stay there, coach Jackie Sherr ill said yesterday. "We only have five seniors on the whole team. those are our characteristics.

week. By that time, Pitt was rolling. The Panthers "But November is probably the most important" "I don't think our freshmen can handle the preswere 5-0 in October, defeating South Carolina 42-28 month in college football, no question. You can take sure of being No.1, but we have some older players (after leading 42-7), West Virginia 17-0 (with quarterback Dan Marino out of action), Florida State 42- ber is when all the games come down to the wire, around. We're not a new kid on the block." 14, Syracuse 23-10 and Boston College 29-24 (after when conference championships and bowl games are In 1976, the Panthers won their first national

Coupled with No.1-ranked Penn State's 17-14 loss to Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first

Miami, Fla., Pitt climbed from second place to first at home on Nov.14, at Temple on Nov.21 and a home year the Panthers were 11-1.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) —An early seathan anything else in the early part of the season," "We have a young team," Sherrill said, "and the son schedule change helped Pitt attain the No.1 Sherrill said during an appearance before the Foot- last two weeks, all of a sudden we're playing not to got to attack people offensively and defensively:

Pitt moved its opening game with Illinois from Sept.12 to Sept.5 and posted a 26-6 triumph as the Illini broke in a new quarterback, Tony Eason, who has since become one of the nation's top passers.

Sometime continued. The open dates chapted as to sometime that shot true. Every team spend a lot of time rebuilding and move people today has good players. The 30-95 scholarship rule (which limits schools to 30 football scholarships a That gave the Panthers a week: off before meeting worked extremely hard and the players have made a year and 95 over a four-year period) is responsible for championship since 1937, when Jock Sutherland was

NCAA places Miami on probation

ami, coming off its biggest victory in sity's athletic interests loaned a stu-55 years of football, suffered a major 'dent-athlete cash, which the studentsetback yesterday when the NCAA athlete used as a down payment on an placed the 13th-ranked Hurricanes on probation for two years and barred the

of 107 recruiting violations that allegedly occurred between 1976 and 1980 while the Hurrricanes, 5-2 after a 17-14 upset of then-No. 1 Penn State Saturday, were struggling to rebuild their

Besides forbidding post-season play findings and accept the imposed penalfor the first year of probation, which runs from Nov. 2, 1981, through Nov. 1, and at least part of the thinking of 1983, Miami is restricted to only 20 new those of us involved in making this scholarships for the 1982-83 school decision was that it is time to get on involved such things as use of rental cars to drive recruits during visits to "I want to emphasize that although campus, improper recruiting contacts, we have admitted some violations and improper entertainment of recruits decided to take our penalty and get on and providing small loans to recruits with it that none of these allegations

VETERANS

Last meeting of PSUVO for Fall Term.

Wednesday — Nov. 4, 1981

at 8:00 p.m. 227 E. Nittany

Come On Over

ACCOUNTING CLUB / BAY

"What the stockholder wants and is entitled to from corporate management"

Wednesday, November 4

The NCAA also cited one violation in will be ineligible for post-season play school officials were notified of the NCAA's action Oct. 21, but had 15 days The Hurricanes will still be allowed to decide whether to appeal the penal-university history behind us." said Miami chose not to contest about half of the alleged violations, which foote, in his first year as UM president took over the program in 1979, said he Foote said the school wouldn't apfelt some relief from pressure that had reversing the findings or penalties the NCAA investigation shortly after

ACADEMIC SURVIVAL

Learn an effective method

at term's end of preparing for finals!

Thurs., Nov. 5, 1981, 4-5 p.m. Walnut Bldg.—Conference Room

Come down and dance with

Tahoka Freeway

at the Brewery Tonight! Be there.

Fingers named winner of AL Cy Young award AP Sports Writer

kee Brewers, was named winner of the league career and none since 1971. American League Cy Young Award for He broke in with the Oakland A's in of America yesterday. others with a 1.04 earned run average in the 1974 World Series when he won one 47 appearances for the Brewers, second game and saved two others with a 1.93 half winners of the American League's ERA against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

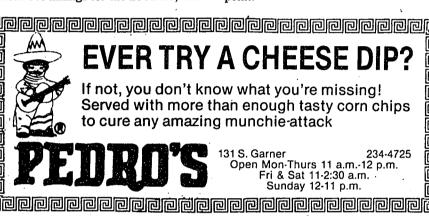

Fingers beat Oakland right-hander tee composed of two writers from each of the league's 14 franchise cities. He finished with 126 points and was the only pitcher named on every ballot. McCatty had the other six first place votes and finished with 841/2 points, well Fingers, 35, had a hand in 34 of the Brewers' 62 victories last season and Sparky Lyle of the New York Yankees.

after the Cardinals had obtained him points and Ron Guidry with 21/2, followed from San Diego during the winter meet- by Britt Burns of Chicago with two and ings at Dallas last December, Fingers Larry Gura of Kansas City with one

Fingers won six games and saved 28 club, named the most valuable player in win the AL Cy Young award, following Vuckovich, fourth with 81/2 points, fol-Acquired from St. Louis just two days teammates Goose Gossage with three

Nittany Racquet Club

Single Room $2000 Double Room *25⁹

1420 S. Atherton St./322 East Next to the Holiday Inn

814-238-3004

HUB Ballroom

SPECIAL EVENTS Wednesday, November 4 Commons concert, Chris Lee, noon, Kern Lobby. Free U, Advanced Dungeons and Dragons meeting, 6 p.m., Room 227 HUB. Aikido course for Beginners, 6:30 p.m., IM Wrestling Room. Nittany Grotto meeting, 7 p.m., Room 219 Willard. Pre-Vet Club meeting, 7 p.m., Room 111 Animal Industries. Real Estate Club and Insurance Club meeting, 7 p.m., Room 203 Willard. Chess Club meeting, 7 p.m., Room 225 HUB. Froth meeting, 7 p.m., Room 316 Boucke. Horticulture Club meeting, 7 p.m., Room 108 Tyson. Amateur Radio Club meeting, 7:30 p.m., Room 216 Hammond Bldg. Biological Society meeting, 7:30 p.m., Rooms 8-9 Mueller

UNIVERSITY CALENDAR

