Films

Campus

"Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid" Paul Newman and Robert Redford star as two bank robbers caught out of their element with the demise of the old West at the turn of the century. Katharine Ross costars as the woman whom they both love. 7, 9:15 and 11:30 tonight, tomorrow and Sunday, 10 Sparks.

"Jesus" Sponsored by LAMB Fellowship, a film depicting Jesus' ministry. 7:30 tonight, HUB Fishbowl.

"Song of the South" One of Walt Disney's most delightful and entertaining movies in which Uncle Remus and Briar Rabbit come alive. The use of live actors and animation in the same scene is a cinematographic triumph. The popular song, "Zip-a-dee-Do-Do," stemmed from this movie. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and Sunday, 7, 9 and 9 p.m. tomorrow, 105 Forum.

"...And Justice For All" Al Pacino portrays a criminal lawyer fed up with the legal system. Both funny and shocking, it's a movie that is thoroughly entertaining, yet thought provoking. 7, 9:15 and 11:30 tonight and Sunday, 7 and 9:15 p.m. tomorrow, 108 Forum.

"What Do You Say to a Naked Lady?" Alien Funt's risque version of the popular Candid Camera show. The film records the reactions of people who were caught in the bedroom. 7, 8:45 and 10:30 tonight and tomorrow, 102 Forum.

"One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" This was the second movie in history to sweep all the major Academy Awards. Jack Nicholson and Louise Fletcher, in their Oscar-winning roles, play the free-spirited McMurphy and the domineering Nurse Cratchet, a sort of cat and mouse situation that is never quite resolved. 7 and 9:15 tonight and Sunday, 112 Kern.

"Outland" Crime and corruption in a mining community on one of Jupiter's moons force the mine's owner to bring in marshal Sean Connery to clean up the town. It's a futuristic western that scores with its costumes and sets, but lacks originality. 7 and 10:30 tonight and tomorrow, 9 p.m. Sunday, Chambers.

"Slit Crazy" Richard Pryor and Gene Wilder play two easy going guys who are mistakenly accused of robbing a bank. Their fight to get out of prison and struggle to stay alive while there are hilarious. 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, Chambers.

"Southern Comfort" Keith Carradine stars in this rather low budget look at hostility in the south. A group of National Guardsmen get a less than hospitable treatment from some good ' boys. 7 and 8:45 tonight and tomorrow, 7 p.m. Sunday, Chambers.

"The Marriage of Maria Braun" One of the top 10 foreign films of the '70s and one of the most spectacular movies of the New German Cinema. "The Marriage of Maria Braun" reminds us of the still immense possibilities of movies made by the masters." — Vincent Canby, The New York Times. 7 and 9 p.m. tomorrow and Monday, 112 Kern.

"Kentucky Fried Movie" A sometimes funny movie with some humor of questionable taste. A real hodge-podge, patchwork kind of film much in the style of "Laugh-In" and "The Groove Tube." 7 and 9 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, HUB Assembly Hall.

"Outlaw Ladies" This week's porn flick. It should be outlawed. 7, 9 and 11 tonight, tomorrow and Sunday, 111 Forum.

Downtown
"Making Love" Michael Ontkean as Zack and Kate Jackson as Claire, his wife, play a young married couple whose deep love is tested when he finally acknowledges his sexual attraction for another man. Harry Hamlin co-stars as the gay novelist whose involvement with Zack dramatically changes the lives of all three. State (237-7656).

"The Seduction" A thriller starring Morgan Fairchild as an actress/model whose seductive beauty causes a psychopath to make attempts on her life. State.

"On Golden Pond" A brilliant and moving picture dealing with the problems of growing old. Henry Fonda and Katherine Hepburn are in perfect form as the aging couple, as is Jane Fonda, as their estranged daughter. An engrossing tearjerker. Cinema I (237-7657).

"Chariots of Fire" One of the five movies up for the Academy Award. It's the story of two runners and the competition between them in the 1924 Olympics. Cinema II.

"Evil Under the Sun" Peter Ustinov stars again as Hercule Poirot in this star-studded version of Agatha Christie's best seller of murder on a luxury resort island.

Maggie Smith and Diana Rigg also star. The Flick (237-2112).

"Missing" Stars Jack Lemmon and Sissy Spacek as a father and daughter-in-law searching for their son/husband, who disappeared in a political strife in a South American country. Garden (237-0012).

"Richard Pryor: Life at Sunset Strip" Outrageous comedy by Richard Pryor filmed live on two consecutive nights in a Hollywood nightclub. The Movies (237-0003).

"Raiders of the Lost Ark" The movie smash of last summer. It's still here. Arena II (237-2444).

"The Rocky Horror Picture Show" A Sweet Transvestite, a nerd, Transylvanians and the Time Warp. What else do you need? The Movies

"Mao to Mozart" A semi-documentary about Isaac Stern in China. The Screening Room (238-8005).

"Lassie Come Home" One of the first in the "Lassie" series and probably one of the best. This story has Lassie fighting the elements to return to his real master. An adolescent Elizabeth Taylor is featured in this touching film. 7 tonight, Schlow Library.

"Las Vegas Girls" This weekend's off-campus porn flick. It's one of the better ones. Arena I.
