

weekend

18
The Daily Collegian
Friday, Dec. 17

Take some time out from your hectic weekend of packing, card-addressing and gift-buying to soak up some of the fine entertainment that comes to the area. For those of you film enthusiasts, Richard Gere stars as the impeccably groomed stud-for-hire in "American Gigolo," playing on campus.

Films

On Campus

"Victor/Victoria" Julie Andrews is wearing slacks, tails and a razor cut in this picture. Why, pray tell? She's playing a female impersonator in a Paris cabaret under the tutelage of a gay mentor (Robert Preston) and having the time of her life in Blake Edwards' acclaimed comedy-musical about sex role reversal. Co-stars Alex Karras, Leslie Ann Warren and James Garner. 7 and 9:15 tonight and Sunday, 112 Kern; 7 and 11:30 p.m. tomorrow, 112 Chambers.

"Double Suicide" A young man's affair with a prostitute is examined in this acclaimed 1969 film from Japanese director Masahiro Shinoda. 7 and 9:30 tonight and tomorrow, HUB Assembly Room.

"Harlan County, U.S.A." Stunning, sometimes gruesome Oscar-winning documentary about a bitter 1973 strike of Kentucky mineworkers against their anti-union company. 7:30 and 9:30 tonight, 111 Boucke.

"Annie Hall" A comic masterpiece, Woody Allen's rueful examination of a romance between two likeable neurotics (Allen and Diane Keaton) who try to hold on to their lifestyles and each other at the same time. The results of their efforts are hilarious. Allen's childhood remembrances are superb. A great little movie. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, 10 Sparks.

"Airplane!" Almost every disaster-movie cliché is run over the coats in Jim Abrahams, David Zucker and Jerry Zucker's fast-paced parody, featuring Robert Hays as a pilot who bores people to suicide and Lloyd Bridges as a gluesniffing air traffic controller. Peter Graves, Robert Stack and Julie Hagerty co-star. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, 101 Chambers.

"Montenegro" Susan Anspach is a bored American housewife who takes the binge of a lifetime in this offbeat, exotic Czechoslovakian comedy by Dusan Makajevic. 7 and 9 p.m. tomorrow and Monday, 112 Kern.

"Taps" Timothy Hutton leads a stalwart band of military school cadets who refuse — with force — to let their school be closed in this unusual drama. George C. Scott and Ronny Cox co-star. 7, 9:15 and 11:30 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9:15 p.m. Sunday, 102 Forum.

"American Gigolo" Richard Gere is a male "escort" in Paul Schrader's interesting, if downbeat, examination of California's arcane mores and materialistic lifestyles. Lauren Hutton co-stars as a political figure's wife who falls for Gere. 7, 9:15 and 11:30 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9:15 p.m. Sunday, 119 Osmond.

"Rosemary's Baby" Roman Polanski directed this genuinely scary, nightmarish drama about a young married (Mia Farrow) who just might be carrying a very evil child. John Cassavettes and Ruth Gordon co-star. Good screenplay by Polanski. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, 121 Sparks.

"Coming Home" Three Oscars went to this earnest, if somewhat trite, effort to examine the personal suffering of returning Vietnam veterans and their families. Film is heavy-handed but interesting. Jon Voight and Bruce Dern are exceptional as returning vets.

7:30 and 9:45 tonight, 9:15 p.m. tomorrow, 7 and 9:15 p.m. Sunday, 112 Chambers.

"Charlots of Fire" Stirring, well-crafted tale of two real-life English gents who ran for God and country in the 1924 Olympics won four Oscars, revived commercial faith in the British film industry and gave Vangelis a chart-topping single. Ian Charleson, Ben Cross and Ian Holm star. 7, 9:15 and 11:30 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9:15 p.m. Sunday, 105 Forum.

"Cinderella" Thrill to Disney's wonderful animated version this weekend. The holiday season was meant for films such as this. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, 105 Forum.

"Evil Under the Sun" Peter Ustinov is Belgian sleuth

Hercule Poirot in this star-studded mystery featuring Roddy McDowall and Maggie Smith. Put on your crime-solving caps! 7, 9:15 and 11:30 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9:15 p.m. Sunday, Waring Lounge.

"On Her Majesty's Secret Service" Australian George Lazenby is only fair as 007 in this 1969 installment from the James Bond legacy, but Diana Rigg is fetching as his sweetheart and the action scenes are well-staged. 7:30 and 10 tonight, tomorrow and Sunday, Findlay Rec Room.

"Wanda Whips Wall Street" Every stockbroker's fantasy, right? More porn. 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 p.m. Sunday, 111 Forum.

Downtown

"Tootsie" Dustin Hoffman is Michael Dorsey, a dedicated actor who can't land a job because of his irascible temperament, despite the enormous respect he has earned from his peers. In desperation he auditions for — and gets — a woman's role on a daytime soap. This new comedy co-stars Jessica Lange, Teri Garr and Sydney Pollack, who also directed. 7:30 and 9:30 tonight; 1:30, 3:30, 5:30, 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Cinema 1 and II.

"Best Friends" Burt Reynolds and Goldie Hawn are two enamored writers who decide — with some hesitation — to tie the knot. Barry Levinson ("Diner") and Valerie Curtin penned this new romantic comedy; Norman Jewison directed. 7:45 and 9:45 tonight; 1:45, 3:45, 5:45, 7:45 and 9:45 tomorrow and Sunday, State.

"Trail of the Pink Panther" Peter Sellers returns to the big screen as Jacques Clouseau in the latest in the Pink Panther series, pieced together from unreleased footage of past films. Blake Edwards ("10") directed. 7:45 and 9:45 tonight; 1:45, 3:45, 5:45, 7:45 and 9:45 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Screening Room.

"Six Weeks" Dudley Moore is running for office and chasing the skirt of Mary Tyler Moore in this new romantic comedy for the holidays. 8 and 10 tonight; 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Cinema I and II.

"The Toy" Richard Pryor is "bought" by a rich industrialist (Jackie Gleason) to entertain his bratty son (Scott Schwartz) in Richard Donner's unfunny, visually ugly comedy. 8 and 10 tonight; 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Movies.

Diane Keaton and Woody Allen (right) star as mismatched lovers in the classic "Annie Hall," playing on campus. Simon Dinnerstein's "Woman with Child, Table and Landscape, and Man Sitting" (below) is one of the new paintings on display in the Museum of Art's permanent collection.

through Thursday Richard Sleight.

Autopilot Tonight and tomorrow Jim Langton; Tuesday the Port Allstars.

Brewery Tonight, tomorrow and Monday Tahoka Freeway; Tuesday J.P. Rocks.

Wednesday Scratch and the Fur Tappers.

Brickhouse Tavern Dave Parry and Friends today for Happy Hours; tonight and tomorrow Jay and Harmony; Monday and Tuesday is open mike; Wednesday Terry Whitlock; Thursday Dave Parry and Friends.

Coffee Grinder Tonight Abby Sue; tomorrow Eventide; Monday Abby Sue; Tuesday Sherry McCamley; Wednesday Abby Sue; Thursday Sherry McCamley.

Phyrst Tonight Johnny Deadline; tomorrow the Phyrst Family; Tuesday and Wednesday Cartoon.

The Pub (Holiday Inn) Bill Filer tonight and tomorrow.

Rathskellar Tonight and tomorrow The Bobcat.

Scorpion Harpo tonight; tomorrow The Core; Wednesday Foxie.

Shandygaff Oldies with Ray Anthony and Gran Stan tonight through Thursday.

Sly Fox (Sheraton) Kaleidoscope tonight and tomorrow; Monday through Thursday Crossroads.

The Wine Cellar (La Bella Vita) Tonight and tomorrow Ken Volz; Wednesday is Comedy Night.

Sounds

The Bars

Allen Room Tonight and tomorrow Richard Sleight; Sunday Bill Filer; Monday

through Thursday Richard Sleight.

Autopilot Tonight and tomorrow Jim Langton; Tuesday the Port Allstars.

Brewery Tonight, tomorrow and Monday Tahoka Freeway; Tuesday J.P. Rocks.

Wednesday Scratch and the Fur Tappers.

Brickhouse Tavern Dave Parry and Friends today for Happy Hours; tonight and tomorrow Jay and Harmony; Monday and Tuesday is open mike; Wednesday Terry Whitlock; Thursday Dave Parry and Friends.

Coffee Grinder Tonight Abby Sue; tomorrow Eventide; Monday Abby Sue; Tuesday Sherry McCamley; Wednesday Abby Sue; Thursday Sherry McCamley.

Phyrst Tonight Johnny Deadline; tomorrow the Phyrst Family; Tuesday and Wednesday Cartoon.

The Pub (Holiday Inn) Bill Filer tonight and tomorrow.

Rathskellar Tonight and tomorrow The Bobcat.

Scorpion Harpo tonight; tomorrow The Core; Wednesday Foxie.

Shandygaff Oldies with Ray Anthony and Gran Stan tonight through Thursday.

Sly Fox (Sheraton) Kaleidoscope tonight and tomorrow; Monday through Thursday Crossroads.

The Wine Cellar (La Bella Vita) Tonight and tomorrow Ken Volz; Wednesday is Comedy Night.

Graduate Student Association presents an International Coffeehouse at 8 tonight in 102 Kern Building.

weekend

Music

School of Music presents baritone Joel Westa in a recital at 8:30 tonight in the Music Building recital hall.

WDFM Ted Nugent will be featured from 9 to midnight tonight as part of the Metal Wind programming. Verdi's "Macbeth," conducted by James Levine, will be broadcast at 2 tomorrow afternoon. Selections from Dr. Tony Lantz's reading of "A Christmas Carol" will be broadcast at 8 Sunday night. Glee Club will present its holiday concert at 3 Sunday afternoon in Schwab Auditorium.

Galleries

Museum of Art "A Decade of Collecting" surveys art's permanent collection with two full floors of paintings, sculptures, prints and drawings. Director William Hull says the purpose of the art collection is "to explore, discover and understand what is of quality, what is of value and importance." The museum has developed a collection of about 1500 objects with variety and quality in mind, and the exhibit, which runs through Dec. 22, invites you to judge for yourself. Selections from the permanent collection of prints hang on the first floor and display the techniques in several print methods and the range of results from fine details to pop minimalism.

Zoller Students in the MFA program display their current work in a comprehensive exhibit. Ceramic sculptured ducks swimming in whirlpools, large wooden tinkertoys, steel and wood structures, photos, graphic designs and paintings survey the variety and quality in the graduate study of fine art.

Chambers Harriet Rosenberg has installed her emotional and instinctively spiritual art around the second floor lobby including prints, drawings, paper cuttings, arranged silks and rocks and a necklace made with real tumble bees.

Kern A "Sculpture Gap" displays sculptural work by MFA students also exhibiting

In Zoller, including "Adjustable" by Brent Oglesbee, a large colorful toy like piece, and "Night on the Mountain" by Christopher Voll, a dark gray steel and granite piece. Rosalana Morean's paintings of pretty pastel scenes with cute little egg creatures playing in the foreground hang through Dec. 21.

Pattee Strong poses of everyday activity, like watering the lawn and walking down the street are portrayed with bright colors and the realistic hand of Robert Neffson in the East Corridor Gallery, through Dec. 24.

HUB Beautiful ornate crafts, jewelry, clothing and ornaments from different countries like India, Vietnam, Ecuador and more are displayed in the Art Alley. Religious art is in the main gallery, showing banners, paintings and a whole table of Mother Marys from around the world, including one made of Pennsylvania coal. The art spans faiths and intensity and will be on display through Dec. 19.

Chambers Harriet Rosenberg has installed her emotional and instinctively spiritual art around the second floor lobby including prints, drawings, paper cuttings, arranged silks and rocks and a necklace made with real tumble bees.

Kern A "Sculpture Gap" displays sculptural work by MFA students also exhibiting Earth and Mineral Sciences Museum and Art Gallery A continuous exhibit of rocks, cut, raw and fluorescent from all over the world, as well as paintings depicting mineral work can be seen daily.

Sports

Home

Ice Hockey After a two game split against Buffalo last weekend, the lions will be home this weekend for a game with the Junior Flyers at 9:15 tonight at the Indoor Sports Complex. Rink action continues at 7 tomorrow night when Penn State hosts Cortland State.

Away

Men's basketball Dick Harter will lead the 5-1 Nittany Lions to Texas to play two games in the SMU-Dallas Morning News Classic tonight and tomorrow in Dallas. Penn State will open with Hardin-Simmons at 8 tonight and the victor will play the winner of the Central Michigan-Southern Methodist game tomorrow.

Wrestling After a second-place finish in last weekend's Mat-Town USA Classic, the Lions travel north tomorrow for a 1:30 match against the Syracuse Orangemen.

Women's fencing No. 1 ranked Lady Lion fencer Jana Angelakis will lead Penn State in competition tomorrow and Sunday in the Michele Aleaux Open in New York City.

Etc.

Holiday Festival IX Czechoslovakian dough sculpture by Dagmar Tichy and wheat weaving by Linda Rossman will be featured at the craft demonstration from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. today in Kern Lobby. A traditional German dinner is being served at 6 tonight in the Maple Room of the Human Development Building. Dr. Maulana Ron Karenga will present a dramatization and speech on "Kwanzaa — An African-American Holiday" at 7:30 tonight in the Paul Robeson Cultural Center.

Cartoon (above) will put you in the holiday mood when they perform Wednesday night at the Phyrst.

Cartoon (above) will put you in the holiday mood when they perform Wednesday night at the Phyrst. Robert Preston and Julie Andrews (right) star in the zany "Victor Victoria," playing on campus this weekend.

The ice hockey club, seen in action against Buffalo, is set for a fiery weekend on home ice. Rink action begins at 9:15 tonight when Penn State plays host to the Junior Flyers at the Indoor Sports Complex. Cortland State invades the Complex tomorrow for a 7 p.m. contest.

Let your pockets jingle with happiness this holiday season by sending a Collegian Seasons Greetings classified ad to your friends far and near.

One greeting could surprise all your friends and it only costs $2.00 for 1-15 words, 15¢ each additional word.

TODAY, at 1:00 pm, is our deadline.

Don't delay!

PUBLISHED: Tuesday, Dec. 21

the daily Collegian
126 Carnegie