Winning is an unteachable quality. You either know how to win or you don't. Every sport has these so-called "money ballplayers." Franco Harris, known as "Mr. January" for his clutch running in NFL playoff games, and Reggie Jackson, known as "Mr. October" for his timely power-hitting in World Series games, are two glaring examples of athletes who know how to win.

Penn State has had many "winners," but none has accomplished a finer record than former quarterback Chuck Burkhart. Penn State never lost a game that
