

weekend

20
The Daily Collegian
Friday, April 15

Films

On Campus
"Rocky III" Sly Stallone is "the Rock" one more time as he defends his pride, his family and his title against hungry challenger Clubber Lang (Mr. T). In this action-packed, soulful third installment, Burgess Meredith, Carl Weathers, Talia Shire, 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 Sunday, 112 Chambers.

"Dirty Harry" Now legendary crime thriller from 1971 is Don Siegel's smartly directed film about a frustrated, overworked cop (Clint Eastwood) on the trail of a psychopathic killer (Andy Robinson) in San Francisco. Strong stuff, 7, 9 and 11 tomorrow, 7 and 9 Sunday, 121 Sparks.

"The Graduate" Mike Nichols won an Oscar for directing this monumental comedy about unruly youth and hypocritical elders in contemporary society. One of the all-time greats. What term would be complete without it? Anne Bancroft, Katherine Ross, 7, 9 and 11 tonight, 121 Sparks; 7 and 9 Sunday, HUB Assembly Room.

"THX 1138" Robert Duvall is an angry young man who tries to break free from his claustrophobic, sterile surroundings in George Lucas' interesting futuristic drama, the director's first feature-length film, 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 Sunday, 102 Forum.

"Bedazzled" An uproarious twist on the Faustian legend has the devil (Peter Cook) scheming madly for the soul of an essentially nice guy (Dudley Moore). Wild stuff, directed skillfully by Stanley Donen, 7, 9 and 9 Thursday, 112 Kern.

"Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid" Only a confused ending mars Carl Reiner's earnest parody of detective thrillers of the '40s, as private eye Steve Martin and mysterious lady Rachel Ward trade words (thanks to the magic of editing) with film clips of such stars as Humphrey Bogart, Veronica Lake, Barbara Stanwyck and Alan Ladd, 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 Sunday, 108 Forum.

"Performance" Acclaimed cinematographer Nicholas Roeg directed this unusual cult fave about the relationship between a singer and a gangster, Mick Jagger, 7 and 9 tonight and tomorrow, HUB Assembly Room.

"Z" Sharp political thriller about the wives of fascism in Algeria made waves when it was released in 1969. It still hits hard today. Directed by Costa-Gavras, Oscar winner for his screenplay of "Missing," Yves Montand, Charles Denner, 7 and 9 Monday, 112 Kern.

"A Midsummer Night's Sex Comedy" Woody Allen wrote, directed and stars as an inventor of strange gadgets in this uneven yet pleasant period comedy about the romantic and spiritual mishaps of three couples one weekend in 1906. Jose Ferrer, Mary Steenburgen, Tony Roberts, 7, 8:45 and 10:30 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 8:45 Sunday, 101 Chambers.

"Lord of the Rings" J. R. R. Tolkien's legendary mythical adventure about Middle Earth has been given serviceable treatment by animator Ralph Bakshi ("Fritz the Cat") in this long but enjoyable film. Gandalf, Frodo and all the gang, 7 and 9:30 tonight, tomorrow and Sunday, 111 Forum.

"Conan the Barbarian" "Crush your enemies" says the title warrior (played by Arnold Schwarzenegger) in this mythical fantasy adventure pic from director John Milus ("Big Wednesday"), Sandahl Bergman, James Earl Jones, 7, 9:15 and 11:30 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9:15 Sunday, 105 Forum.

"Return of the Dragon" Bruce Lee blows 'em away as he takes on some rough dudes singlehandedly in this kung-fu adventure, 7, 9 and 11 tonight and tomorrow, 7 and 9 Sunday, Pollock Rec Room.

"Monty Python's The Meaning of Life" Victimizing good, grotesque obscenity and sex education are but a few of the targets of the Python gang's lethal barbs in their new comedy. John Cleese, Michael Palin, Terry Jones, 8 and 10 p.m. tonight, 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Movies.

"Gandhi" Flawed but ambitious biography of peacemaker Mohandas K. Gandhi won a whopping eight Oscars, including Best Picture 1982, Best Actor (Ben Kingsley), Best Director (Sir Richard Attenborough), 8 p.m. tonight, 7, 4:30 and 8 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Garden.

"Sophie's Choice" Meryl Streep deservedly won an Detective Rigby Reardon (Steve Martin) and Field Marshal Von Kluck (Carl Reiner) argue over who gets to reveal the plot of the movie "Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid," showing on campus this weekend. Also starring Rachel Ward, scene recently in the television mini-series "The Thorn Birds."

Oscar for her portrayal of concentration camp survivor Sophie Zawistowska in Alan Pakula's sensitive film about guilt and love, returning to State College after a week-long absence. Peter McNichol, Kevin Kline, 7 and 9:30 tonight, 2, 4:30, 7 and 9:30 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Screening Room.

"They Call Me Bruce?" Whatever they call him, it's probably inadequate to describe his amazing kung-fu skills in this comedy spoof of grunt-n-groan pictures, 7:45 and 9:45 tonight; 1:45, 3:45, 5:45, 7:45 and 9:45 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, State.

"Flashdance" An ironworker aspires to be a professional dancer in this new release; it's being marketed as sort of the women's "Saturday Night Fever," 8 and 10 tonight; 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Cinema I and II.

"The Man From Snowy River" Kirk Douglas plays two rival characters in this new Australian adventure pic, 8 and 10 tonight; 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, State.

"Spring Break" Guys 'n gals, beach balls 'n beer, gangsters with guns 'n pop music. Like, wow, 7:45 and 9:45 tonight; 1:45, 3:45, 5:45, 7:45 and 9:45 p.m.

tomorrow and Sunday, Cinema I and II.

"The Outsiders" Francis Coppola directed this earnest but amateurish film version of Sally Hinton's influential novel about youth gangs in the '60s. All its faults notwithstanding, it's America's number one moneymaking film right now. Matt Dillon, Diane Lane, 8 and 10 tonight; 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Flick.

"Lone Wolf McQuade" New action flick in town, no? 7:30 and 9:30 tonight, Arena.

"Lust Inferno" Porn for those with such burning desires, 7:30 and 10 tonight, Arena.

"Flashdance" An ironworker aspires to be a professional dancer in this new release; it's being marketed as sort of the women's "Saturday Night Fever," 8 and 10 tonight; 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Cinema I and II.

"The Man From Snowy River" Kirk Douglas plays two rival characters in this new Australian adventure pic, 8 and 10 tonight; 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday, State.

"Spring Break" Guys 'n gals, beach balls 'n beer, gangsters with guns 'n pop music. Like, wow, 7:45 and 9:45 tonight; 1:45, 3:45, 5:45, 7:45 and 9:45 p.m.

starts at 9:15 pm with open mike between sets.

Bobcat for Happy Hours; tonight John Daniel from Altoona; tomorrow afternoon at 3 Wasted Talent; Monday night Jamie Rounds; Tuesday Open Mike; Wednesday John Cunningham.

Hippo Room at The Dell Tonight and tomorrow Fred Helde.

Phyrrst Tonight Bobby Keys and the Igniters; tomorrow Phyrrst Phamly; Monday Mischief; Tuesday the Targets; Wednesday and Thursday, Cartoon.

The Pub (Holiday Inn) Tonight and tomorrow John Elder; Monday through Thursday Rick Jones.

Rathskeller Tonight Hemms and McGinnis; tomorrow Pat McGinnis; Wednesday Pat McGinnis; Thursday John Cunningham.

Saloon Tonight and tomorrow Joe; Sunday Tahoka Freeway; Wednesday Larry Moore.

Scorpion Tonight and tomorrow Foxide; Tuesday The Up; Wednesday Targets; Thursday Tahoka Freeway; Shandygaff Tonight through Thursday Oldies with Gran Stan and Ray Anthony.

The Wine Cellar (La Bella Vita) Tonight and tomorrow Kerry Palanjian; Thursday Bob and Debbie Sue.

Zoller Large, playful and sinister sculptors by Brent Oglesbee and Nahane Goodson, two MFA students, concerts and coffeehouses

Jawbone Tonight Kevin Slick; tomorrow Jerry Zoltan and Steve Shartel. Each show

weekend

includes a 4 foot ceramic and wood linker toy and a rubber ball entitled "In Lelu Of," with thin metal spiked forks pointing at it from above. Oglesbee maintains humor and monumentality in both his ceramics and paintings. Goodson abstracts and twists metal rods and creates an entirely different mood, through Sunday.

"Chambers" "Paper Images II" shows the handmade paper work of Diane Pepe's class where students concentrate on fiber, texture, color, shape and size to build anything from match books to brightly colored three dimensional wall hangings. They also combine paper and iron. A light airy piece hangs from the ceiling. The work is varied and exciting, through April 24.

Keep Art from Australia, including Aboriginal baskets, boomerangs, hollow log coffins used in mourning dances, bark paintings and more recent oil landscapes, are on display through today.

Pattee Architectural themes prevail in the prints by Thomas Carney and Peter Lucchetti in the East Corridor Gallery. Lucchetti uses dramatic lighting and deep black to create a lot of weight in his work, through April 24.

Women's Awareness Week prompted an exhibit in mixed media by Centre County. Women, in Lending Services through Saturday.

HUB Black and white photographs by professor Gerald Lang hang in the Gallery and reveal a special relationship between humans and animals through physical attachments, shadows and perspectives. Beautiful, ornate, colorful folk art, both Polish and Ukrainian, fill the glass cases in Art Alley with dolls, eggs and embroidery. Soviet Propaganda Posters addressing the evils of waste and the benefits of hard work hang on the Art Alley walls.

Robeson Cultural Center Nigerian, African and Afro-American art, including carvings, leather work and photographs, will be on display in cooperation with Black Arts Festival, April 16-23.

Earth and Mineral Science Museum and Art Gallery Stunning gems and rocks are displayed with paintings about the mineral industry. Many of the paintings come from Works Progress Administration commissions. In the Fluorescent Room rocks glow naturally with color.

Douglas Albert Gallery This downtown gallery offers the community lots of art, including work by established local artists. A free public lecture will be held at 8:30 p.m. April 20. Director Steven Hirshon will talk about the History of Prints and Phil Sauerlander will demonstrate lithography, etching, engraving and drypoint techniques. Space is limited. Call 234-9822 for reservations.

Gandalf, Frodo and Sam can be seen in J.R.R. Tolkien's "The Lord of the Rings," one of the many movies showing on campus this weekend.

Sports

Home
Men's Track and Field The trackmen will host the Nittany Lion Relays at 12 this afternoon and at 12 tomorrow at the Nittany Lion Track.

Women's Track and Field The Lady Lions will compete in the Nittany Lion Relays at 12 today and tomorrow afternoon at the Nittany Lion Track.

Women's Softball The Lady Lions will host a doubleheader against Princeton starting at 2 on Sunday at Lady Lion field.

Men's Lacrosse Penn State's men's lacrosse team will play Rutgers at 1:30 Sunday.

Men's Tennis The Nittany Lions will travel to Mercyhurst to compete in the Mercyhurst

Quadrangular tomorrow and Sunday.

Baseball The Penn State baseball team will play a doubleheader at 1 Sunday afternoon at St John's University.

Men's Golf The men's golf team will travel to Columbus, Ohio to compete in the Ohio State Invitational.

Women's Golf The Lady Lion golf team will play in the North Carolina Invitational at Wilmington, N.C.

Etc.
University Resident Theatre Company performs George M. Cohan's "45 Minutes From Broadway" at 8 tonight and tomorrow night and 7:30 Sunday at The Playhouse. The musical will also be presented Apr. 20-24 and 27-30.

The Ice Pavilion presents "Ice Rhythms" at 7:30 tonight and tomorrow at the Penn State Ice Pavilion.

Penn State Nalads display their synchronized swimming in "Games People Play" at 8 tonight and tomorrow night in the Natatorium.

Penn State Astronomy Club will hold an open house from 7:30-11 tonight on the sixth floor of Davey Lab. In case of clouds, the open house will be held at the same time tomorrow night.

WOODY ALLEN'S A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S SEX COMEDY

FRI & SAT 7,8:45 & 10:30
SUN 7 & 8:45
101 Chambers

ROCKY III

FRIDAY & SATURDAY 7,9,&11 / SUNDAY 7&9
112 CHAMBERS Graduate Student Association

J.R.R. Tolkien's
the Lord of the Rings

One man cast a lingering spell of awe and wonder, of magical innocence overcoming evil, of simple courage conquering fear — he gave us the legend that will live forever in our minds.

J.R.R. Tolkien triumphed with the perception that a single dream is more powerful than a thousand realities. Come to Middle-earth, a world beyond the furthest reaches of your imagination.

FRI, SAT, SUN 7,9:30 111 FORUM $1.50

Entertainment available on campus this weekend includes Woody Allen (left) and Mia Farrow starring in "A Midsummer Night's Sex Comedy," the University Resident Theatre Company performing George M. Cohan's

"45 Minutes From Broadway" (middle), and Dustin Hoffman (right) and Anne Bancroft starring in Mike Nichols' Academy Award winning film "The Graduate."