For the second week in a row the men's golf team finished way back in the pack. But considering the cold and windy conditions, its coach is

The Nittany Lions, who finished 15th out of 17 teams two weekends ago at the Marshall Invitational, duplicated a 15th place performance this past weekend at the Ohio State Invitational. "I think we could have played better," Lion Head Coach Mary Kennedy said. "But considering the conditions, I thought they fared pretty The host Buckeyes played better than just good outdistancing runner-up Indiana by 44 shots and the Lion quintet by more than 100 strokes. "The weather was a big problem, but it didn't seem to bother Ohio State," Kennedy said. "They're up there with the best." Kennedy said the wind chill factor in Columeverywhere but right in Columbus." The Buckeyes' Chris Perry may have been cold, but he didn't play like it, as he burned up the 7,200, par 72 course with a three-round total of 215 (71-71-73), 11 strokes ahead of his nearest com-ular." Kennedy said. "With the shots he made this weekend, he should be on the (PGA) Tour." as they walked away with their own tourney, The Lion nearest to getting his name on the leaderboard was captain Brian Corbett who fired a 240 (79-80-81), good enough to garner a tie for "For the conditions and not being a long hitter,

Brian played real well," Kennedy said. "The course plays long as it is and with the wind, it just bus, Ohio was 14 degrees, and "there was snow made things that much tougher." Close on the heels of Corbett were Lions Scott Lundeen and Mike Fingleton, who both carded

> "Although the scores were a little high, any round around 80 was a good one," Kennedy said. Lion Scott Tharrington, who led Penn State after the first two rounds, ballooned his score in the finale. Impressive rounds of back-to-back 78s kept Tharrington in the hunt for Lion honors but a final round of 89 ended his chances at 245.

Battling windy, cold, and wet conditions for the second straight day, the women's golf team - led by Jane Abood — shot a combined 319 second round total yesterday to take second place in the Boilermaker Spring Classic at Purdue University in West Lafayette, Ind.

The Lady Lions' second round ef fort, combined with their first day total of 316, gave them an overall total of 635, which was 26 shots behind Abood, who was in first place individually at the end of the first day of play with a 73, fired a second round 72, but still had to settle for second place overall when she lost a sudden
