

Maulers hire 2 coaches

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League hired two former college head coaches yesterday as the first additions to the staff of newly named Coach Joe Pendry.

The Maulers said Ellis Rainsberger, 50, formerly the head coach at Washburn University, Southern Illinois and Kansas State, will be assistant head coach and offensive line coach. Rainsberger was the head coach at Kansas State when Pendry served as offensive coordinator there from 1975-77.

Rainsberger was an assistant coach with the USFL's Denver Gold last season and formerly was the offensive coordinator of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League.

Stoudt to start opener against Broncos

PITTSBURGH — Cliff Stoudt will be more than just an impatient spectator wandering the sidelines at Pittsburgh Steelers' games this season, carrying a clipboard and wearing a baseball cap.

Stoudt will be the Steelers' starting quarterback for the foreseeable future since 14-year veteran Terry Bradshaw still hasn't recovered from off-season elbow surgery, Coach Chuck Noll confirmed yesterday.

Stoudt will be the opening day quarterback for the first time in his seven-season career Sunday when the Steelers play the Denver Broncos at Three Rivers Stadium. It will be the first Steelers' opener that Bradshaw hasn't started since 1974, when Joe Gilliam got the call.

Eagles cut 10 players; put 2 on injured reserve

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Eagles yesterday cut 10 players, put two on injured reserve, including veteran quarterback Dan Pastorini, and acquired a center from the Kansas City Chiefs in moves that brought the NFL team's roster to 49 players.

Among the players cut were cornerback Richard Blakemore and center Mark Slater, who both made the Eagles in 1979 as free agents, said Eagles spokesman Ed Wisneski.

The others cut were: linebacker Mike Curcio, the Eagles' eighth-round draft choice in 1980, defensive end Thomas Brown, nose tackle Charles Johnson and tackle Frank Giddens — all in their third year; wide receiver Melvin Hoover, in his second year; and safety K.C. Keeler, Ken Jenkins, a running back who spent last year on the injured reserve, and tight end Scott Nizolek, all free agents.

Steelers to announce player changes today

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers will announce today which players they have cut in order to reach the NFL's 49-man roster limit.

All NFL teams were required to reduce their rosters to 49 players by yesterday. But the Steelers said they wouldn't announce their cuts until all of the affected players had been notified. The Steelers' players were given the day off yesterday.

The Steelers hope to similarly confuse Elway by "not showing him the same thing twice," Noll said.

"His offensive line couldn't protect him," Noll said of Elway's play in a 31-3 Denver loss to the Minnesota Vikings last week. "They had their problems, and that made prob-

$2 million U.S. Open to begin today

NEW YORK — Young Jimmy Arias, who has zoomed up the rankings this year after capturing the Italian Open and the U.S. Clay Courts, will kick off the 1983 U.S. Open Tennis Championships today when he meets fellow American Jonathan Canter at Louis Armstrong Stadium in Flushing Meadow.

Play begins at 11 a.m. EDT.

The men's No. 1 seed, John McEnroe, also will see action on the first day of America's premier tennis tournament. McEnroe, who also will play on the stadium court, will take on Trey Waltke, an American who delighted Wimbledon fans earlier this summer when he played in 1980's garb of long white pants and a white shirt with the sleeves rolled up.

As a result of yesterday's victory, it seems as though top-seed John McEnroe has his game peaking just in time for the U.S. Open.

The $2 million tournament, contested on hard-court DecoTurf II, will award $120,000 each to the men's and women's singles winners. The women's final is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 10, with the men's final being played the following day.

Martina Navratilova is the top women's seed, while the defending women's champion, Chris Evert Lloyd, is seeded No. 2. The men's defending champion, Jimmy Connors, is seeded third behind McEnroe and Czechoslovakia's Ivan Lendl.

Other key opening-day matches in the men's singles will pit Connors against Ramesh Krishnan of India, No. 8 Jose Luis Clerc of Argentina against Tim Wilkison, No. 10 Jose Higueras of Spain against Matt Anger and No. 15 Vilas Gerulaitis against Marcos Heccevar of Brazil.

In women's singles, third-seeded Andrea Jaeger will meet Betsy Nagelsen, No. 8 Hana Mandlikova of Czechoslovakia will play Nancy Yeargin and No. 15 Virginia Ruzici of Romania will face Catherine Tanvier of France.

Skies are expected to be partly sunny with temperatures in the mid 80s today as 256 players, evenly split into 128-player draws, begin the two-week running of the world's richest tennis tournament at the West Side Tennis Club in Forest Hills.

Liberty opens Courageous in America's Cup trial race

By PETER BREWER
Associated Press Writer

NEWPORT, R.I. — Liberty had to come from behind in feeble, erratic winds yesterday to take an abbreviated one minute, 22 second sailing victory over Courageous in America's Cup trials.

In the challenge camp, the fickle winds of Rhode Island Sound cost the Australian sailors a headstart, time ran out before they could finish the race.

Australia II led Britain's Victory '83 through five legs of a 24.4 mile course, but there wasn't enough wind to finish the last beat within the five hour, 15 minute time limit, and the race was discarded.

That forced the start of the best-of-seven series between the Aussie yacht, sailed by John Bertrand, and the British entry, skippered by Rodney Pattison and Lawrie Smith postponed until today.

The two American boats and the two foreign entries are racing separately to determine which two will meet in the championship cup finals beginning Sept. 13.

The races yesterday were held in glum, overcast, rain-spattered Rhode Island Sound in winds that lazied around from south to easterly and ranged from 11 knots to virtually zero.

Courageous, the senior citizen among 12-meter being sailed by John Kollus, took a three-second edge at the start, and expanded it to :23 at the first mark and :39 at the second.

But then the 1974 and 1977 cup winner ran out of wind and Liberty, skippered by Dennis Connor, sailed by on a leg that took one hour to complete. The race committee decided to end competition for the day.

The decision made Liberty 10-6 for the final trials, while Courageous is 9-9.

Australia II, the winged keel speedster which has dominated the foreign racing here, had a dead heat start with Victory '83, but by the first mark had a top-side 3-46 advantage.

The Aussies upped that to 6:11 by the fourth mark, but then the wind went dead. By the fifth turn the British yacht had cut it to 2:31, and time ran out.

The races for the historic cup are sailed in 12-meter yachts, sailing vessels about 65 feet long with masts nearly 90 feet high.

The two foreign boats are the survivors of seven yachts from five foreign nations which began racing here last June.

A third American boat — Defender, sailed by Tom Blackaller — began the defense series in June but was eliminated from competition last Saturday after two final losses to Liberty.

This is the 25th challenge for the cup by foreign skippers and boats.

WHY WOULD AN ENGINEER JOIN THE AIR FORCE?

...Perhaps the excellent benefits
...Perhaps the instant responsibility
...Perhaps the leading edge technology
...Perhaps the $30,000 plus annual salary in four short years
...Perhaps the worldwide travel
...And finally, perhaps the outstanding scholarship opportunities to become an engineer in the first place. Air Force ROTC scholarships are available at the 3½, 3, 2½, and 2 year point. They pay full tuition, books, fees, and $100/month.

Find out more about our scholarship program by stopping by 109 Warner or call 865-5453 and you may ask yourself why WOULDNT an engineer join the United States Air Force.

Get down to business faster. With the BA-35.

If there's one thing business students have always needed, this is it: an affordable, business-oriented calculator. The Texas Instruments BA-35, the Student Business Analyst.

Its built-in business formulas let you perform complicated finance, accounting and statistical functions — the ones that usually require a lot of time and a stack of reference books, like present and future value calculations, amortizations and balloon payments.

The BA-35 means you spend less time calculating, and more time learning. One keystroke takes the place of many.

The calculator is just part of the package. You also get a book that follows most business courses: the Business Analyst Guidebook. Business professors helped us write it, to help you get the most out of calculator and classroom.
