PHILADELPHIA — A two-run homer by Sixto Lezcano started the San Diego Padres to a 7-5 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies and a split of a twi-night doubleheader last night. The Phillies won the opener 6-0 as rookie Kevin Gross pitched his first major league shutout and first complete game. San Diego spoiled pitcher Tug McGraw's 39th birthday with three third-inning runs off the left-hander, who started his first game since July 7, 1979. McGraw, now 3-1, had worked 184 games in relief since then. Ed Whitson, 3-7, allowed six hits over seven innings, including solo home runs in the first Reds 3 and fourth innings by Mike Schmidt, who leads the National League with 32 homers. Luis DeLeon pitched the final two innings, vielding a sacrifice fly by Pete Rose in the eighth, for his 12th save. Bobby Brown, who went 0-for-3 in the opener and ended his 21-game hitting streak, started the San Diego third with a single, moved to second on Alan Wiggins' hit and took third on a fly out. Wiggins then stole his 46th base of the season, and when catcher Ozzie Virgil's throw sailed into center field for an error, Brown scored and Wiggins moved to third. Lezcano followed with his eighth home run.

The Padres scored three runs in the fourth off Ron Reed as Bruce Bochy singled and Mario Ramirez tripled. Whitson singled home Ramirez and then scored on a triple by Brown. Luis Salazar tripled in another Padres run in the sixth.

The Phillies scored twice in the seventh when Schmidt singled and scored on a double by Joe Lefebvre, who came home on a pair of infield outs.

In the opener, Gross allowed six hits, struck out eight and walked one as he registered his fourth victory against four losses. Only two right-hander. The Phillies jumped on Andy Hawkins, who was recalled Sunday from Las Vegas of the Pacific Coast League, for five runs in the first inning

Von Hayes' two-run bloop single and a tworun error highlighted the uprising against Hawkins, 3-6, who was sent down to June 27 after failing to win in seven straight starts. Joe Morgan started the Philadelphia first with a walk and raced to third on an infield out. After Schmidt struck out, Lefebvre walked and Tony Perez was hit by a pitch to load the bases.

CINCINNATI (AP) - Rookie Jose DeLeon allowed two hits over six innings and Dave Parker had four hits, including a home run, to power the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 5-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds last night. DeLeon, 6-2, pitched no-hit ball for 5 1-3 innings until Gary Redus beat out a soft grounder to third baseman Rich Hebner for an infield single. DeLeon, making his ninth major-league start, struck out seven and walked one before he was removed for a pinch hitter in the seventh DeLeon, who won his fourth straight game, had taken a no-hitter into the seventh in three of his eight previous starts. Kent Tekulve, the fourth Pittsburgh pitch-

r, recorded the final two outs for his 17th Parker singled to start the fourth against rookie Jeff Russell, 2-1, who absorbed his first major-league loss. Parker scored on Jason Thompson's double, and Thompson scored one out later on Doug Frobel's double. Parker lined a one-out homer in the fifth, his ninth of the season, to make it 3-0.

Redus scored the first Reds runs in the sixth when he got his infield hit, stole second, took third on DeLeon's wild pitch and scored on

In the eighth, Redus singled, moved up on a walk to Dave Concepcion and then surprised the Pirate defense by scoring from second on Dan Driessen's sacrifice fly to center fielder Marvell Wynne.

Pittsburgh added a run in the eighth off reliever Ted Power. Froebel singled, stole second and continued to third on catcher Dann Bilardello's throwing error, and then scored on Tony Pena's single.

NEW YORK (AP) — Pat Zachry, making his first start of the season, pitched the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 2-1 victory over the New York Mets in the second game for a split of their twi-night doubleheader last night. The Mets won the opener 3-2, on Ron Hodges' two-out, RBI single in the eighth inning as Jesse Orosco set a team record for relievers by earning his 12th victory. Zachry, 5-0, pitched six-hit ball over six innings, striking out six and walking four. Tom Niedenfuer got the final out for his ninth

The Dodgers scored both runs in the first inning off Scott Holman, 1-6. Steve Sax walked and two outs later Pedro Guerrero doubled to left for the first run, and Greg Brock followed with an RBI single.

The Mets scored in the ninth on singles by Bob Bailor, Junior Ortiz and Mookie Wilson. In the opener, Orosco ran his record to 12-5 with two scoreless innings. Orosco, in his last 17 outings covering 31 2-3 innings, has gone 8-0 with six saves and allowed only one run.
