

Noah, Evert Lloyd win at Open

By BOB GREENE
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK — France's Yannick Noah, showing no ill effects from his knee injury or from a rain delay, defeated young Scott Davis 6-1, 6-6, 6-4 yesterday in a first-round match in the U.S. Open Tennis Championships.

The fourth-seeded Noah, who captured the French Open in May — the first Frenchman to win that clay court title since 1946 — was joined in the second round by Ivan Lendl of Czechoslovakia, the No. 2 seed, who brushed aside Florin Segarceanu of Romania 6-2, 6-0, 6-2 at the National Tennis Center in Flushing Meadow, and No. 5 Mats Wilander of Sweden, who stopped Guy Forget of France 3-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2.

Also winning her opening-round match yesterday was defending women's champion Chris Evert Lloyd, who dropped the first game before crushing Britain's Shelly Walpole 6-1, 6-0.

Noah has played only one Volvo Grand Prix tournament since the French Open — partly because of a 42-day suspension and because of tendonitis in his right knee.

The injury forced him to retire during a match in the Players' International tournament in Montreal, and he later pulled out of the ATP Championships for the same reason.

Against Davis, a member of the U.S. Junior Davis Cup team and a qualifier here, Noah's all-court game was in command. The match was delayed for 75 minutes after Davis held serve to begin the fourth set. But Noah got the only service break he needed in the seventh game, then served out for the match.

The rain put off the first-round match of Martina Navratilova, the top women's seed. She will meet Emise Rapioni Longo of Argentina in the first match today.

Besides Lloyd, other seeded women who won their opening-round matches yesterday included No. 9 Andrea Temesvari of Hungary, No. 14 Jo Durie of Britain, No. 10 Zina Garrison, No. 13 Barbara Potter and No. 13 Claudia Kohde of West Germany.

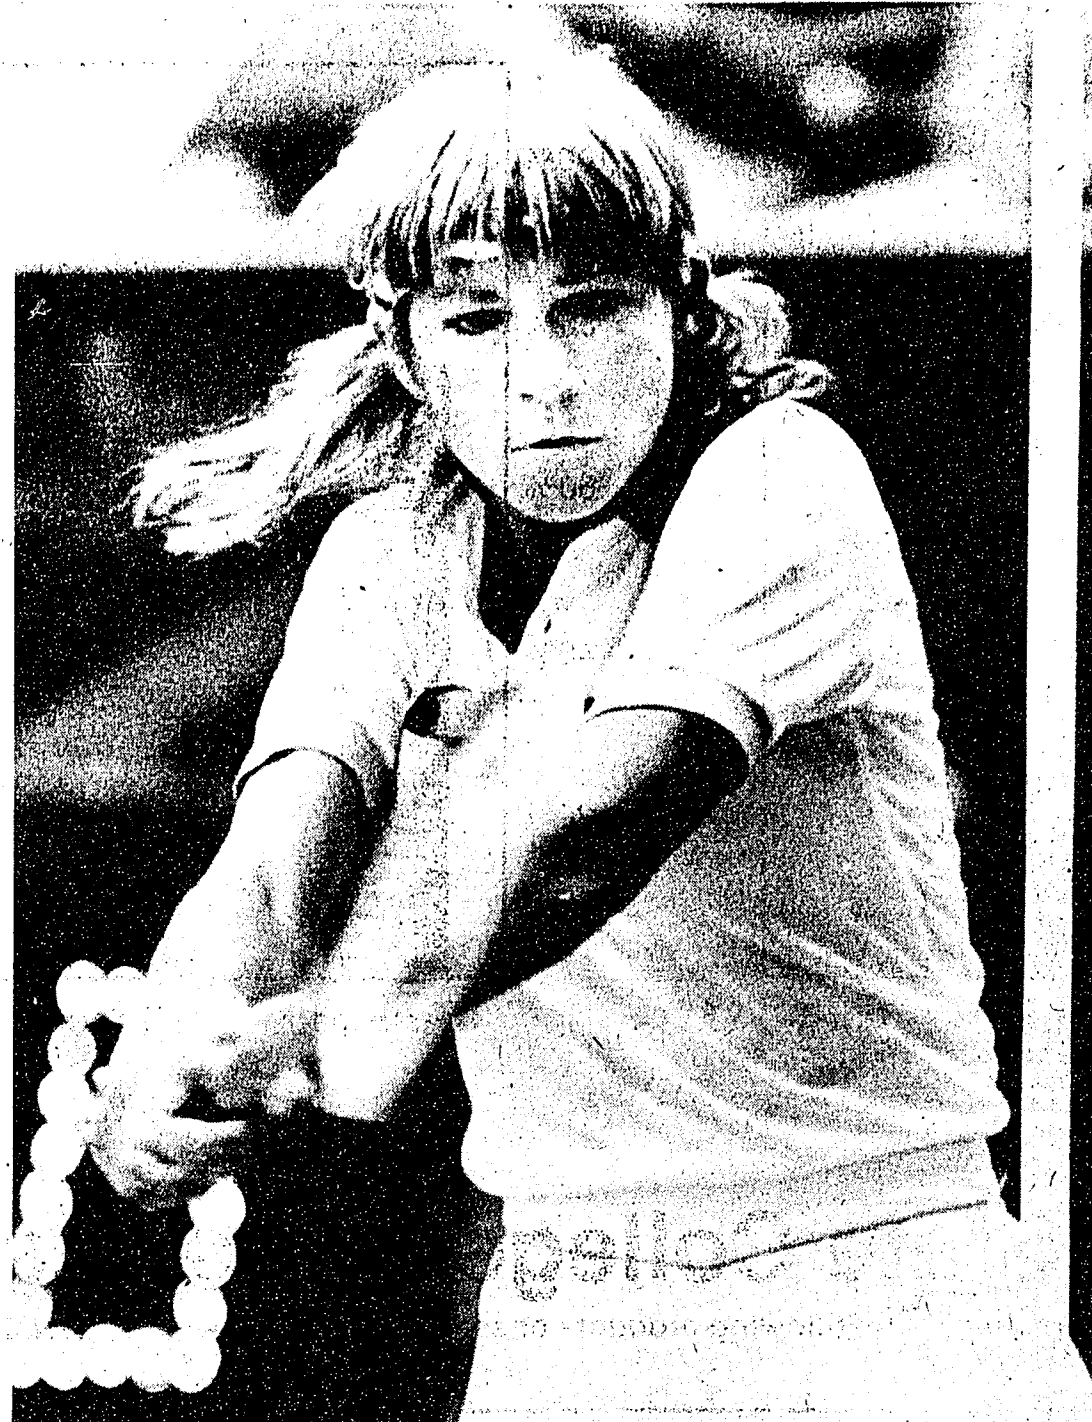

In a night match, fifth-seeded Pam Shriver took only 43 minutes to dispatch Laura DuPont 6-0, 6-3. Shriver, who pulled out of last week's tournament in Mahwah, N.J., with a shoulder injury, showed no signs of any problems as she completely dominated DuPont.

Besides the Navratilova-Rapioni Longo clash, the rain caused postponement of several other scheduled matches, including those involving No. 4 Wendy Turnbull of Australia, No. 12 Kathy Rinaldi and Canada's Carling Bassett. They all were rescheduled for today.

Temesvari stopped Jill Davis 6-3, 7-6; Durie ousted Ros Fairbank of South Africa 6-1, 6-3; Garrison eliminated Leigh Thompson 7-6, 6-1 and Kohde defeated Marie-Christine Calleja of France 6-2, 6-2.

Other seeded men who advanced were No. 12 Johan Kriek, who ousted Harold Solomon 5-7, 7-5, 6-4; and No. 13 Steve Denton, who stopped Mike Gandolfo 7-6, 6-4, 6-4.

"I'm not the greatest starter," Lloyd admitted when asked about dropping the opening game. "That's why when I win the toss, I choose to receive serve."

Defending champion Chris Evert Lloyd returns her patented two-fisted backhand against opponent Shelly Walpole during first round action yesterday at the U.S. Open in Flushing Meadow, N.Y. Evert Lloyd won the match 6-1, 6-0.

After that, it was a breeze for the women's No. 2 seed as she reeled off the next 12 games. "She basically didn't have anything to hurt me with," Lloyd said of her 17-year-old opponent, who joined the professional tour full-time this past January.

Lendl, who lost to Jimmy Connors in the final here last year and has yet to capture a Grand Slam tournament, never lost his serve as he dominated his Romanian foe. He had 5-1 leads in both the first and third sets as he took only one hour, 23 minutes to move into the second round.

"I'm never looking for tough matches," Lendl said of his easy victory. "I wish I was able to pace myself for two weeks, but it's better to play well all the time."

"Coming into the tournament I was practicing well and I thought I was hitting the ball well," he said. "We always gain confidence when we win. The more matches you play the more experienced you get in any tournament."

Asked if he felt he had reached his peak, the powerful right-hander said, "Last year may have been my peak and may be eight years from now. You never know."

Olympic officials rule Maree ineligible

By ENRICO JACOMINI
AP Sports Writer

ROME — South African-born Sydney Maree, the world record holder in the men's 1,500 meters who has competed for the United States in the World Track and Field Championships, is ineligible for the Los Angeles Olympic Games "as of today," the president of the International Olympic Committee said yesterday.

"Maree is not an American citizen nor does he have an American passport," Juan Antonio Samaranch told a news conference. "This makes him ineligible for the Olympics as of today, with no doubt."

"I expect that the United States will have clarified his position before Los Angeles, but if nothing changes he will not be allowed to run."

In Indianapolis, however, Pete Cava, a spokesman for the Athletics Congress, responded to Samaranch's comment by saying that that Maree is expected to be eligible to compete in the XXIII Olympiad.

"Maree has applied for an American passport and is awaiting approval. We anticipate he will be recognized as a citizen in December and thus be eligible to compete with the United States team in Los Angeles next summer," Cava said.

Maree has been living in the United States for several years. He has put in an application for American citizenship years ago, but at the World Championships in Helsinki, Finland, earlier this month he lamented that procedures were exceedingly long.

The star miler has been competing under the American flag since the World Cup in Rome in 1981. The International Track and Field Federation does not require proper citizenship but mere affiliation to allow an athlete to compete for a country.

"Maree was declared stateless in 1981 and that allowed him to compete for the United States in the World Cup under IAAF rules," said Pete Cava, press spokesman for The Athletics Congress in Indianapolis. "He also made the team for Helsinki."

"IAC is pursuing his case vigorously and we expect he will become an American citizen, with a regular passport, early in 1984, well in time for the Los Angeles Games."

Maree, who will turn 27 next week, broke one of track's most prestigious world marks last Sunday running the 1,500 meters in 3:31.24 minutes in Cologne and shaving 12 of a second off the time set by Steve Ovett of Britain.

He studies at Villanova and he has set his residence in Philadelphia.

Samaranch was in Rome for the inaugural meeting of the newly appointed council of the Association of Sports Federations competing in the Summer Games. The association is chaired by IAAF President Primo Nebiolo of Italy.

Moses breaks record

KOBLENZ, West Germany (AP) — Edwin Moses of the United States celebrated his 28th birthday yesterday by establishing a new world record over the 400 meters hurdles in 47.02 seconds.

Some 22,000 spectators enthusiastically celebrated Moses, who won his 88th consecutive race since 1977.

The record was made at the International Track and Field at this Rhine city's sold-out Oberwerth Stadium.

He had established the previous best of 47.13 in Milan on July 3, 1980. In fact, it was the fourth time that Moses established a new mark: He did 47.45 in Los Angeles in 1977 and 47.64 in Montreal, Canada, a year earlier.

"Next year I can run 46.50 if I can keep up the twelve rhythm," said Moses, who won the world championship at Helsinki earlier in the month. "But my timing wasn't quite right. I was born 28 years ago at 7:25 p.m., so the Koblenz record came about 20 minutes early."

It was the 24th time that Moses ran the event in less than 48.0 seconds.

Rose ends slump, pushes Phils past Padres

Bucs bow to Astros; still hold first by one game

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
AP Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA — Pete Rose snapped an 0-for-20 slump with a ninth-inning pinch-single over a drawn-in defense to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 4-3 victory over the San Diego Padres last night.

With one out, Ivan DeJesus singled to left and raced to third on a double by Joe Lefebvre, both hits coming off Elias Sosa, 1-3.

Rose was sent up to hit for Al Holland, 8-2, and Gary Lucas came on to pitch for the Padres.

Philadelphia Phillies' Juan Samuel, bottom, reacts negatively after being caught off first base by San Diego Padres' Alan Wiggins during the third inning of last night's game at Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia.

San Diego Manager Dick Williams elected to let Lucas, a left-hander, face the switch-hitting Rose instead of issuing an intentional walk to face the left-hand hitting Joe Morgan, who was on deck.

With a 1-0 count, Rose lined a shot over the head of center fielder Tony Gwynn who was playing shallow behind the drawn-in infield.

The Padres took a 2-0 lead off starter Charles Hudson in the second.

Ruppert Jones doubled and advanced to third on a wild pitch. He scored when Luis Salazar reached on a fielder's choice. Juan Bonilla doubled home Salazar.

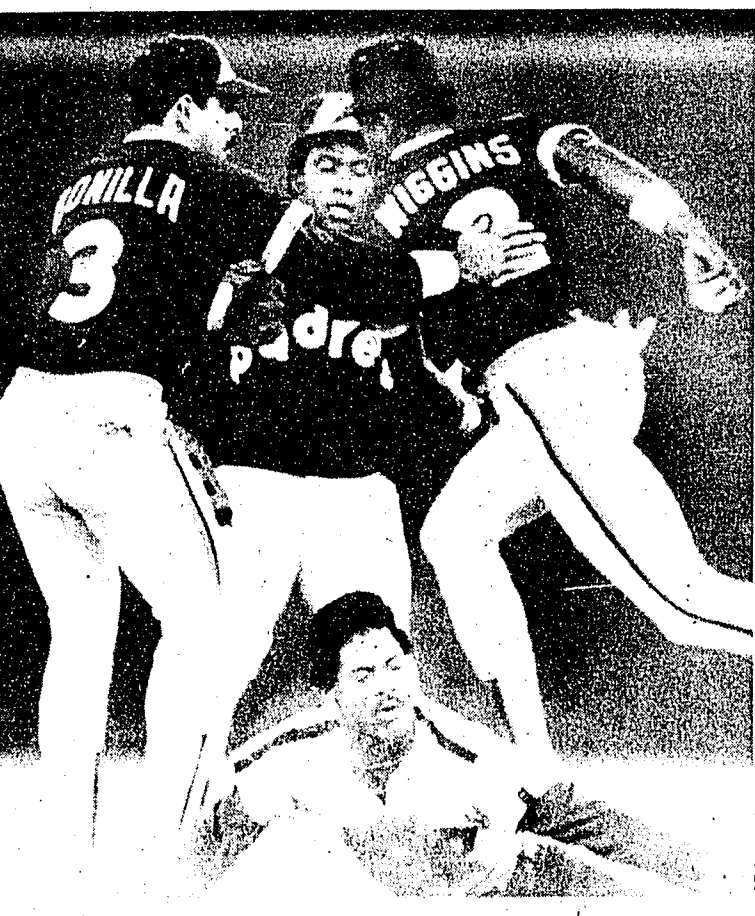

The Phillies tied it in the fifth off starter Mark Thurmond when Ivan DeJesus singled and raced to third on a single by Bob Dernier and scored on Juan Samuel's sacrifice fly. Gary Matthews then tripled home Dernier.

The Padres regained the lead in the eighth with only one hit off reliever Al Holland. Terry Kennedy opened with a single and reached second on a throwing error by third baseman Mike Schmidt. Gary Templeton sacrificed the runners to second and third and Salazar was intentionally walked to load the bases. Bonilla lofted a sacrifice fly to center for his second RBI of the game.

The Phillies, however, knotted it again at the bottom of the inning off Sosa.

Morgan started the inning with a pinch-single, stole second and continued to third on a throwing error by catcher Doug Gwosdz.

After Matthews struck out, Schmidt walked and Tony Perez hit into a fielder's choice to tie the game.

Houston Astros' Jim Gott, starting Toronto pitcher, faced six Orioles, retired none, and was lifted with the bases loaded and Baltimore leading 3-0.

Gott, 7-12, opened the game by walking Al Bumbry. Jim Dwyer then singled and Cal Ripken walked to load the bases. Murray, John Lowenstein and Ken Singleton followed with RBI single to chase Gott.

Niekro, 12-11, struck out seven and walked two.

Rod Scurry, 4-8, suffered the loss in relief for the Pirates as he was charged with two runs in 2-3 innings.

With two out and the score tied 1-1 in the eighth, Bill Doran singled and moved to third on a single by Terry Puhl. Ken Tekulve replaced Scurry and then bounced an infield hit down the third base line scoring Doran. Phil Garner sliced a double down the right field line to score Puhl and Thon.

Houston took a 1-0 lead in the second when Garner led off with a single to center. Garner stole second and went to third on catcher Tony Pena's throwing error. After two outs, Garner scored on a wild pitch by Larry McWilliams.

The Pirates tied it in the eighth when Dale Berra reached on an infield single with one out and went to second on Lee Mazzilli's pinch-hit single. Both advanced on a passed ball by catcher John Mizrock and, with Marvell Wynne at the plate, Berra scored on another passed ball.

With two out and the score tied 1-1 in the eighth, Bill Doran singled and moved to third on a single by Terry Puhl. Ken Tekulve replaced Scurry and then bounced an infield hit down the third base line scoring Doran. Phil Garner sliced a double down the right field line to score Puhl and Thon.

Houston took a 1-0 lead in the second when Garner led off with a single to center. Garner stole second and went to third on catcher Tony Pena's throwing error. After two outs, Garner scored on a wild pitch by Larry McWilliams.

The Pirates tied it in the eighth when Dale Berra reached on an infield single with one out and went to second on Lee Mazzilli's pinch-hit single. Both advanced on a passed ball by catcher John Mizrock and, with Marvell Wynne at the plate, Berra scored on another passed ball.

With two out and the score tied 1-1 in the eighth, Bill Doran singled and moved to third on a single by Terry Puhl. Ken Tekulve replaced Scurry and then bounced an infield hit down the third base line scoring Doran. Phil Garner sliced a double down the right field line to score Puhl and Thon.

Houston took a 1-0 lead in the second when Garner led off with a single to center. Garner stole second and went to third on catcher Tony Pena's throwing error. After two outs, Garner scored on a wild pitch by Larry McWilliams.

The Pirates tied it in the eighth when Dale Berra reached on an infield single with one out and went to second on Lee Mazzilli's pinch-hit single. Both advanced on a passed ball by catcher John Mizrock and, with Marvell Wynne at the plate, Berra scored on another passed ball.

With two out and the score tied 1-1 in the eighth, Bill Doran singled and moved to third on a single by Terry Puhl. Ken Tekulve replaced Scurry and then bounced an infield hit down the third base line scoring Doran. Phil Garner sliced a double down the right field line to score Puhl and Thon.

Houston took a 1-0 lead in the second when Garner led off with a single to center. Garner stole second and went to third on catcher Tony Pena's throwing error. After two outs, Garner scored on a wild pitch by Larry McWilliams.

The Pirates tied it in the eighth when Dale Berra reached on an infield single with one out and went to second on Lee Mazzilli's pinch-hit single. Both advanced on a passed ball by catcher John Mizrock and, with Marvell Wynne at the plate, Berra scored on another passed ball.

With two out and the score tied 1-1 in the eighth, Bill Doran singled and moved to third on a single by Terry Puhl. Ken Tekulve replaced Scurry and then bounced an infield hit down the third base line scoring Doran. Phil Garner sliced a double down the right field line to score Puhl and Thon.

Houston took a 1-0 lead in the second when Garner led off with a single to center. Garner stole second and went to third on catcher Tony Pena's throwing error. After two outs, Garner scored on a wild pitch by Larry McWilliams.

The Pirates tied it in the eighth when Dale Berra reached on an infield single with one out and went to second on Lee Mazzilli's pinch-hit single. Both advanced on a passed ball by catcher John Mizrock and, with Marvell Wynne at the plate, Berra scored on another passed ball.

With two out and the score tied 1-1 in the eighth, Bill Doran singled and moved to third on a single by Terry Puhl. Ken Tekulve replaced Scurry and then bounced an infield hit down the third base line scoring Doran. Phil Garner sliced a double down the right field line to score Puhl and Thon.

Houston took a 1-0 lead in the second when Garner led off with a single to center. Garner stole second and went to third on catcher Tony Pena's throwing error. After two outs, Garner scored on a wild pitch by Larry McWilliams.

The Pirates tied it in the eighth when Dale Berra reached on an infield single with one out and went to second on Lee Mazzilli's pinch-hit single. Both advanced on a passed ball by catcher John Mizrock and, with Marvell Wynne at the plate, Berra scored on another passed ball.

With two out and the score tied 1-1 in the eighth, Bill Doran singled and moved to third on a single by Terry Puhl. Ken Tekulve replaced Scurry and then bounced an infield hit down the third base line scoring Doran. Phil Garner sliced a double down the right field line to score Puhl and Thon.

Houston took a 1-0 lead in the second when Garner led off with a single to center. Garner stole second and went to third on catcher Tony Pena's throwing error. After two outs, Garner scored on a wild pitch by Larry McWilliams.

The Pirates tied it in the eighth when Dale Berra reached on an infield single with one out and went to second on Lee Mazzilli's pinch-hit single. Both advanced on a passed ball by catcher John Mizrock and, with Marvell Wynne at the plate, Berra scored on another passed ball.

With two out and the score tied 1-1 in the eighth, Bill Doran singled and moved to third on a single by Terry Puhl. Ken Tekulve replaced Scurry and then bounced an infield hit down the third base line scoring Doran. Phil Garner sliced a double down the right field line to score Puhl and Thon.

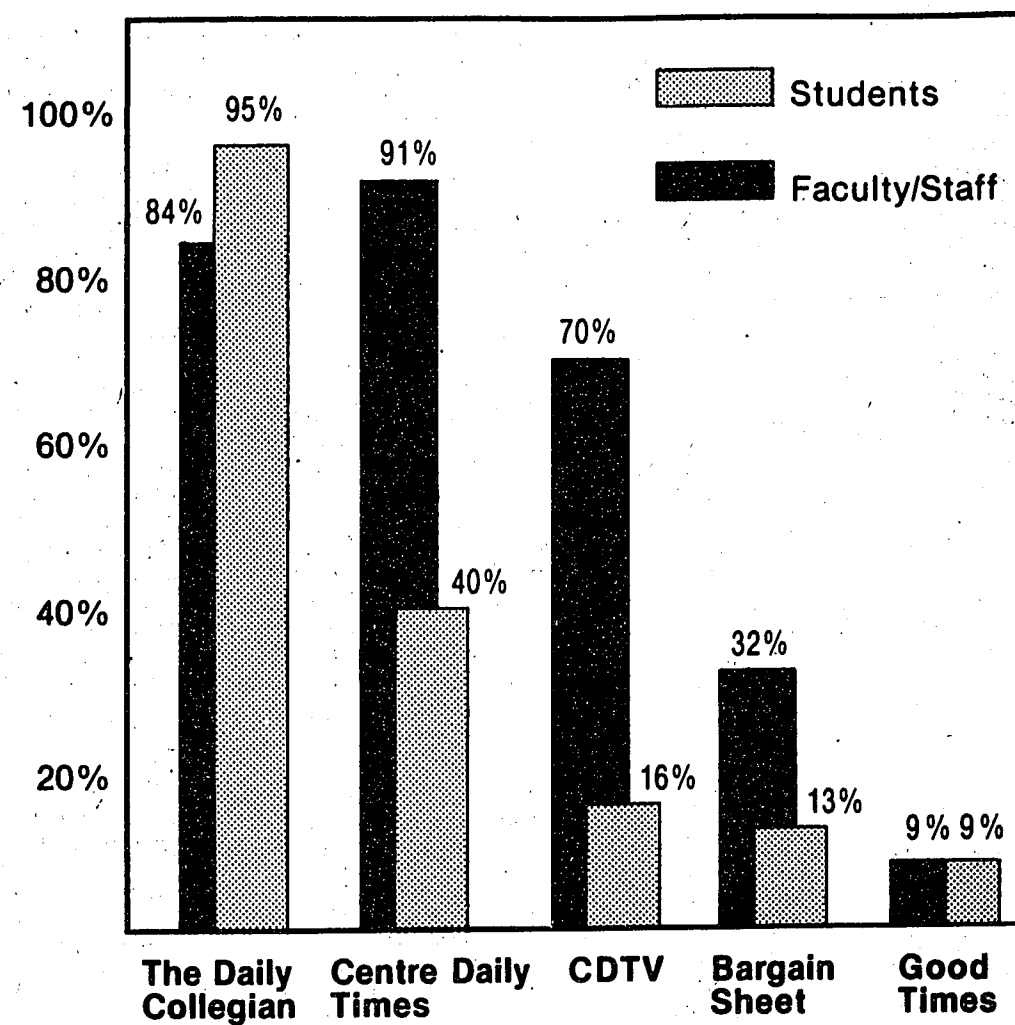

Houston took a 1-0 lead in the second when Garner led off with a single to center. Garner stole second and went to third on catcher Tony Pena's throwing error. After two outs, Garner scored on a wild pitch by Larry McWilliams.

The Pirates tied it in the eighth when Dale Berra reached on an infield single with one out and went to second on Lee Mazzilli's pinch-hit single. Both advanced on a passed ball by catcher John Mizrock and, with Marvell Wynne at the plate, Berra scored on another passed ball.

More facts are in*:

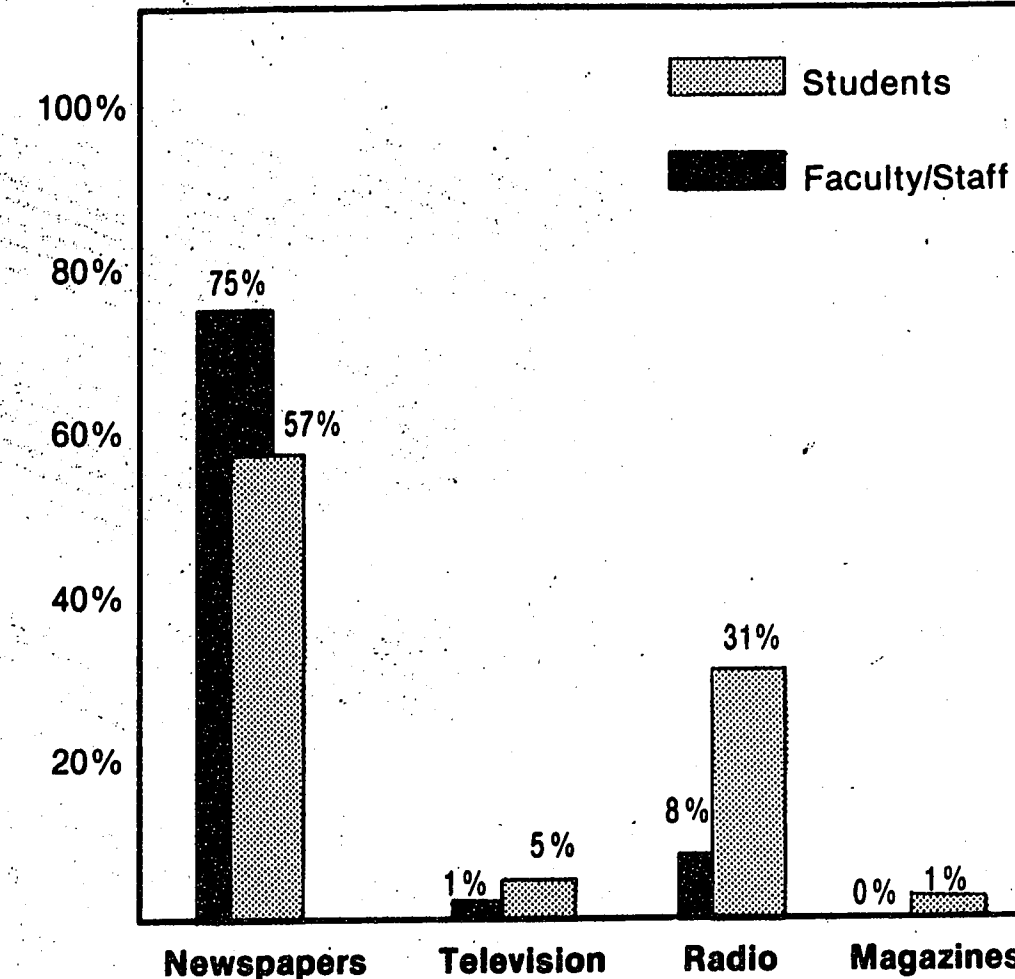

Newspapers read in past 7 days:

Respondents were read several names of daily and weekly publications. They were asked whether they have read or looked into an issue of that paper during the past seven days.

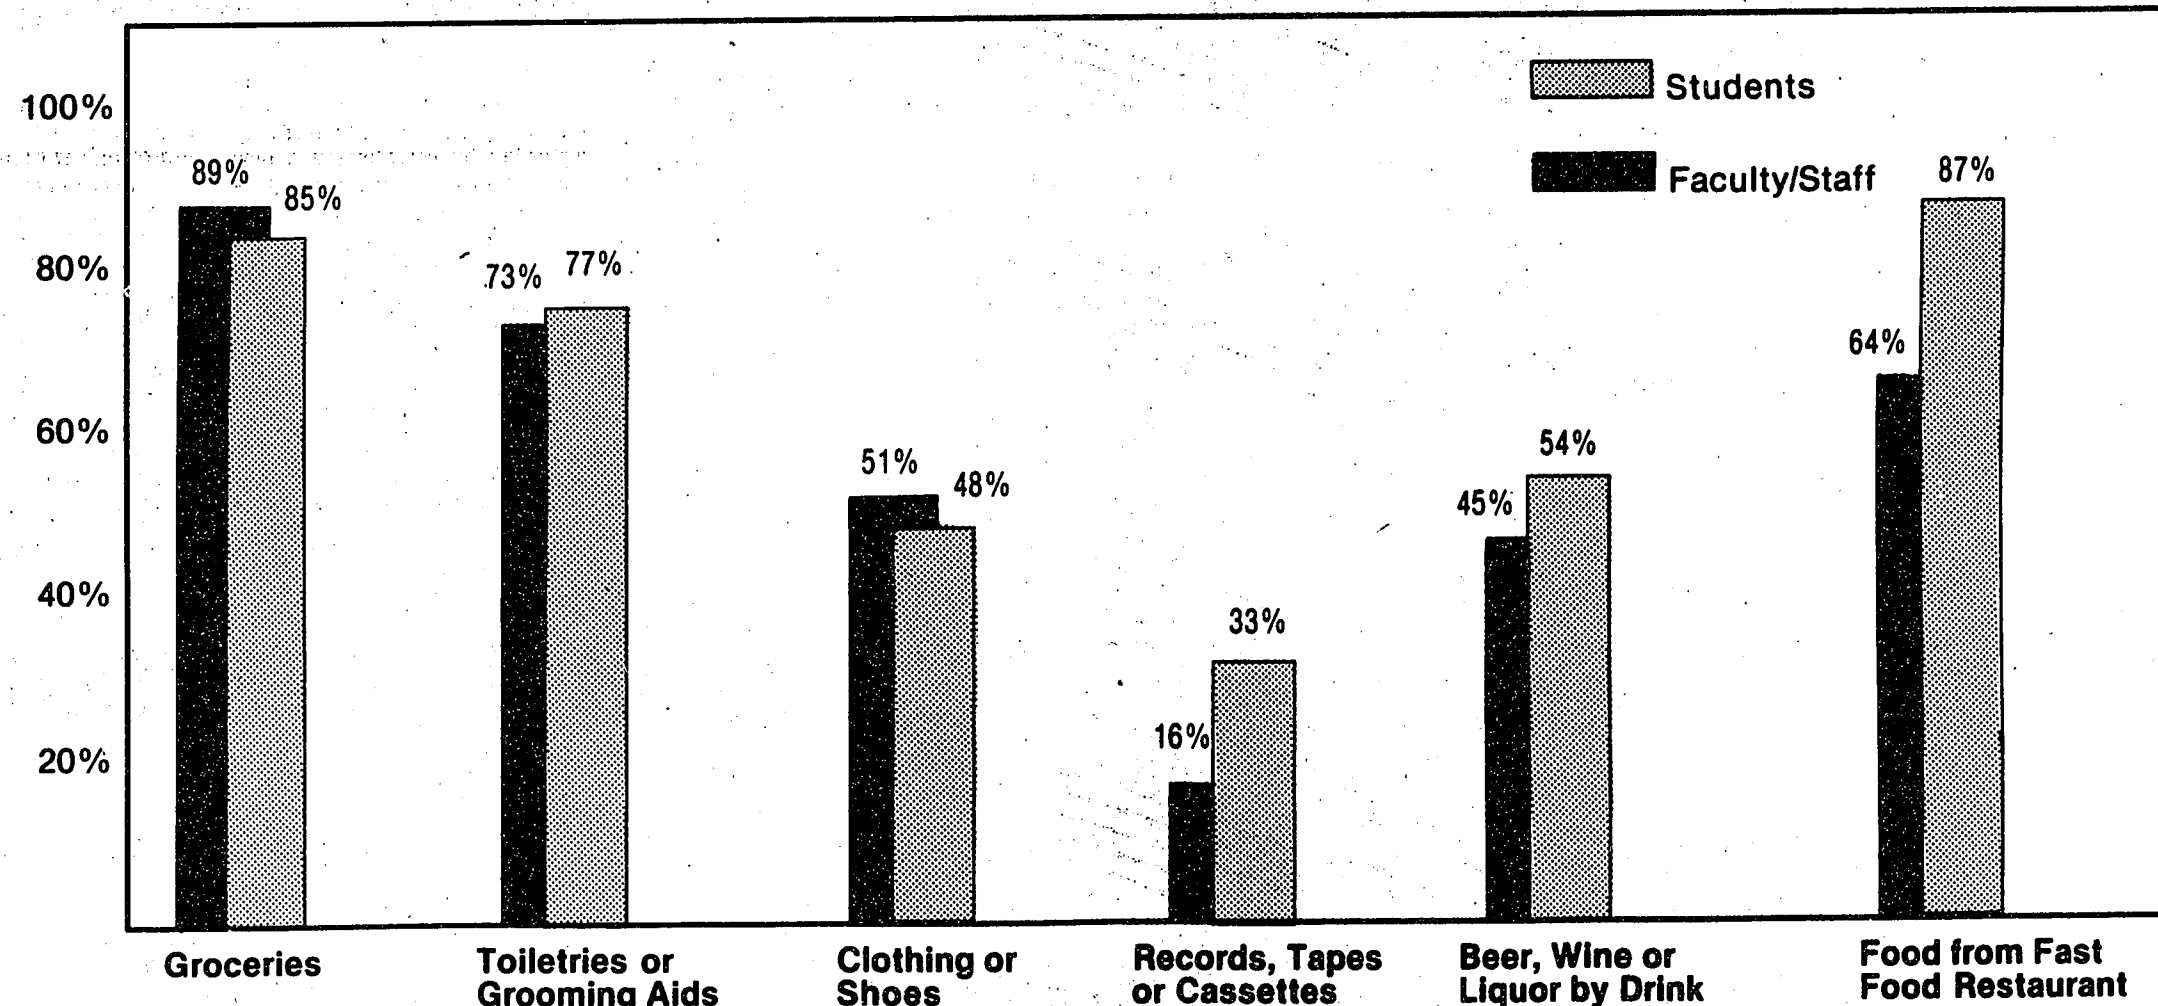

Source of advertising relied on most:

Respondents were asked which one source of advertising they rely on most to get information about goods and services purchased in the State College area.

Purchases in State College in the past 30 days:

Respondents were asked if they bought any of the following products or services in this city in the past 30 days.

In selling to the Penn State market, there's only one No. 1 medium to turn to. The Daily Collegian. The students, faculty and staff who turn the pages of The Daily Collegian rely on your advertisements for information about your place of business and the purchase of goods and services in the State College area.

Under the direction of student managers, approximately 100 students serve on the Collegian Business Staff to meet the needs of our local and national advertisers. That includes more than 20 sales representatives who work with our advertisers from the creation of the idea to the finished product. That finished product is placed in the No. 1 college newspaper in the country.

During 1982-83 we delivered more than three million copies of the Daily Collegian and Collegian Magazine on campus. Those copies represented more than 57 million pages of newspaper. When you want to reach the Penn State market, there's only one way to go. The Daily Collegian. We deliver.

the daily Collegian

*Source: Belden Associates, Dallas, Tex./1982