

Burroughs captures Amateur

By JOE MOOSHIL
AP Sports Writer

CHICAGO — Clark Burroughs, a 20-year-old Ohio State student, went wire-to-wire in capturing medalist honors in the 63rd U.S. Amateur golf championship.

Burroughs, who said his putting "was streaky" but "my driver was good," added a 38-65-73, one over par at the North Shore Country Club course, to his opening round five-under-par 66 at the Skokie Country Club course for a two-round total of 139, four shots under par.

Fred Dupre, a student at Louisiana State, was the only other player under par for the two rounds. Dupre had a 39-33-71 to match par at Skokie yesterday and a two-round total of 142.

Defending champion Jay Sigel had a 38-39-77, five over North Shore's par 36-36-72 for a total of 148 to make the cut by two strokes.

There were 14 players who shot 150 and had to playoff for six remaining berths to complete the field of 64 qualifiers who will begin match play today.

Chris Perry, Josh Mondry, Rock Gentile, Randy Nichols and Bruce Soulsby all earned a berth in the playoff before darkness descended.

Eight others will play for the final berth this morning before match play begins. The group includes Mark Mielke, Robert Lehr, Larry Zee, George Welch, Michael Barrow, Jerry Dee Nelson, Danny Thompson and Willie Wood.

Five players managed to match par of 143 over the two courses. They were Wayne Case of Thousand Oaks, Calif., who had a three-under-par 69 at North Shore for a total of 143; Bob Lewis of Warren, Ohio; Martin West III of Rockville, Md.; Billy Tuten of Palatka, Fla.; and Jim Hallet of South Yarmouth, Mass., who was the low amateur scorer in the Masters Tournament.

Shooting 1-over-par 144 were Clifton Pierce of Lawton, Okla.; Douglas Doxie of Seattle and Jerry Haas of Belleville, Ill.

Sigel and Nathaniel Crosby, the 1981 champion, were the only former amateur champions to make the cut. Failing were Marvin Giles III, the 1972 champion, and Fred Ridley, the 1975 winner.

Crosby, son of the late singer Bing Crosby, shot a two-over par 73 at Skokie Wednesday for a total of 149. Giles missed with a 153 total and Ridley skied to 165 as most of the golfers had trouble with the high winds which followed last night's rains.

Expos pitcher breaks into rotation

MONTREAL (AP) — Until a few weeks ago, Bryn Smith was the kind of guy who manager Bill Virdon called on in the fourth or fifth innings when the game was already out of hand. In other words, a long relief pitcher, one of the least glamorous jobs in baseball.

But given a rare start against St. Louis Cardinals on July 29, Smith swiftly proved his worth. In six starts he has only a 3-3 won-lost record, but a stingy 1.90 earned-run average and has earned a spot in the starting rotation.

He's also become quite outspoken, suggesting after the Expos returned home from a 3-7 road trip that the team had lost the will to win.

"I hesitated for a long time before talking about what was on my mind," Smith said. "But I told myself that someone on this team had to speak up. I wanted everyone to know that when I go to the mound, I work as hard as I can. I wanted everybody to ask themselves whether they were doing the same."

Smith certainly can't be faulted for his performance. In one of his losses, a 2-0 defeat by Pittsburgh Pirates on Aug. 13, Smith gave up one run in the eight innings he pitched. Last week in Los Angeles, Smith had a no-hitter through six innings and allowed two runs and two hits before being ejected in a brushback incident with Mike Marshall.

On Monday night at Olympic Stadium he shut out the San Francisco Giants 5-0 on six hits as the Expos won their fourth straight on their longest and most crucial homestand of the season. That finally earned Smith a spot in the rotation.

Smith's road to the Expos' rotation hasn't been easy. He was signed by Baltimore Orioles in 1975 and played minor-league ball in Miami, Charlotte, N.C., Denver, Memphis and Wichita before making the Expos, who acquired him before the 1978 season, last year.

"Some guys get $100,000 signing bonuses. The Orioles practically pulled me in off the street."

"I signed for nothing. But I've spent so long in the minors that I seem like a veteran. That's why nobody needed me, there was no initiation last year, even though I was officially a rookie."

In his second full season with the Expos, Smith has earned the respect of his teammates.
