NEW YORK - Getting his game into high gear, Jimmy Connors roared past Sweden's Thomas Hogstedt 6-1, 6-2, 6-3 yesterday to move into the third round of the U.S. Open Tennis Championships. Joining Connors in the third round was Britain's John Lloyd, who upset 10th-seeded Jose Higueras of Spain 6-3. 6-4. 7-5. It is the first time this year that Lloyd, the husband of Chris Evert Lloyd, has reached the third round in any tournament. In the women's draw, top-seeded Martina Navratilova breezed through her first-round match, crushing Emi lse Raponi Longo of Argentina 6-1, 6-0 in just 40 minutes. In night matches at the National Tennis Center in Flushing Meadow, sixth-seeded Guillermo Vilas of Argentina played American Tom Cain, while Andrea Temesvari of Hungary, seeded ninth in the women's draw.

met Virginia Wade, at 39 the oldest player in the main singles draw. Other seeds to follow Higueras to the sideline were Barbara Potter and Claudia Kohde of West Germany. No. 11 women's seed, 7-5, 6-7, 7-6, while Bonnie Gadusek eliminated

No. 13 Kohde 5-7, 6-1, 6-2. No. 11 Gene Mayer outlasted South African Christo Stevn 3-6, 6-1, 2-6, 6-4, 6-2 and No. 14 Eliot Teltscher staved off Sammy Giammalva 6-2, 6-3, 5-7, 4-

In women's play, No. 3 Andrea Jaeger eliminated Elise Burgin 6-2, 6-3: No. 6 Wendy Turnbull of Australia downed Sharon Walsh 6-3, 6-3; No. 7 Sylvia Hanika of West Germany ousted Peru's Laura Arraya 6-1, 6-3 and No. 12 Kathy Rinaldi defeated Vicki Nelson 4-6, 6-4, 6-3.

Carling Bassett of Canada was on the verge of losing, down 1-3 in the final set, when she won the final five games to post a 5-7, 6-1, 6-3 victory

Third seed Jimmy Connors slams a two-fisted backhand in action earlier this week at the National Tennis Center in Flushing Meadow, N.Y. Connors easily crushed Sweden's Thomas Hogstedt 6-1, 6-2, 6-3 to advance to the third round.

Luzinski to work out at 1st as World Series gets closer be premature."

The move is part of Manager

Tony LaRussa's contingency plan

But he is plotting Series strategy, and he knows this year's Series will be played under National League rules — no designated hitter — as it is in alternate years. That means Luzinski will have to start on the field. "Tony and I have talked about yet," Luzinski said. "I've had a back problem and it's still a little stiff. We want to make sure I'm 100 percent first.' The move is designed to keep Luzinski's prolific bat in the lineup. And its importance increases

it, but I haven't worked out there

Kittle leads the club with 27 home runs, but has hit just nine since the All-Star break and his average has slipped to .252 from .266 at midseason. Luzinski has belted 14 of his 26 homers and driven in 37 of his team-leading 77 "We have to be very careful not to RBI in the same stretch, although his batting average is only .241.
