taining the America's Cup. It was a striking turnabout for the Americans, whose hold on sailing's most prized trophy had seemed in doubt Sunday after suffering the worst defeat by a U.S. boat since 1871. final leg 35 seconds behind. But Liberty obviously made some adjustments during Monday's lay vesterday's 10-15 knot breezes on

Rhode Island Sound. The 43-second victory, which took just 3 hours, 29 minutes and 17 seconds, gave Liberty a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven series. The next race is scheduled for today

Conner, who trailed Aussie skipper John Bertrand after the first windward leg in each of the first three races, led there this time and held a at all five roundings Saturday but safe, steady lead the rest of the way. The final margin, the closest so far in this series, was just five seconds less than Liberty's biggest lead of the day and just eight seconds more than equipment problems.

DENVER (AP) - NFL officials sary roughness they'll bring it to the will decide this week whether to take disciplinary action against Philadelphia's free safety Wes Hopkins for a tackle he made on Bronco rookie quarterback John Elway in last Sunday's game, The Denver Post report-

Elway had scrambled for 19 yards in the third quarter when Hopkins used his right forearm and knocked the belmet off Elway's head. Philadelphia was penalized for personal foul on the play. The Post said Art McNally, the National Football League's supervisor of officials, and his crew will review the game films to determine if said Bronco Coach Dan Reeves. "As "If Elway was a victim of unneces- him in the head."

After jumping to a 6-second lead at the start, Conner could not be coaxed into a tacking duel with the quickturning Aussies. He built a 36-second lead in the first

4.5-mile weather leg, stretched it to 48 seconds in the first of two 3.1-mile crosswind reaches and held that margin through the second. The Aussies managed to gain just two seconds in the next weather leg.

They picked up another 11 in the 4.5

The victory was the third in as many games for the Raiders, who joined the Dallas Cowboys as the National Football League's only unbeaten teams after three weeks of play. The Dolphins fell to 2-1. "Give the Raiders credit," said Miami defensive tackle Bob Baumhower. "They made the big plays and we didn't. They're tough. I don't know what it is about Monday night. We had a good record on Monday nights, but their record's better."

Better, Baumhower might have said, than anybody else in the NFL. Since the advent of prime time football in 1970, the Raiders are a remarkable 20-2-1. The Dolphins fell to 15-9-0 on Monday nights. "I wish we could get the commissioner to let us play all of our games on Monday nights," said Coach Tom Flores of the Raiders, obviously with tongue in cheek. "Up until our substitutions at the
