Icers close, but fall short of Irish

By RICH BRADLEY Collegian Sports Writer

JOHNSTOWN — The ice hockey team almost overcame its biggest challenge of the year this weekend when it played against Notre Dame — almost. The Lions (17-13-1) tied a powerful Notre Dame squad (21-1-1) 4-4 on Friday before losing Saturday by a On Friday, the pesky Lions rallied three times from one-goal deficits before finally claiming the lead at the 4:56 mark of the third period on Lynn Sipe's 28th goal of the year. However, Bob Thebeau tallied for the Fighting Irish nine minutes later and the scored was knotted Sipe almost avoided the overtime period when he had a breakaway with 30 seconds left but his shot went wide. Penn State managed only three shots on goal in the third period and did not even get a shot on goal in the 10-minute overtime period. They were outshot for the game by a 53-23 margin.

Greg Powers led the Lion scoring with two goals, his 16th and 17th of the season. Goaltender John Davis played an outstanding game for Penn State, repeatedly stopping Irish scoring attempts. Notre Dame scored on its first shot when Joe Bowie's slapshot went off of Davis' glove into the net just 4:07 into the game. It looked like Penn State was in for a long night against the former National Collegiate Athletic Association

"I was just thinking, 'oh, no, not one of those kinds of games where nothing goes right,' " Davis said. "You get worried when a powerhouse gets a cheap goal like that one because you think that the rest of the night is going to be the same way."

But Powers sandwiched his goals around a Steve Ely goal in the second period to tie the game at two. Adam Parsons scored with three minutes left in the second period to give the Irish a 3-2 lead going into the third period. But Nick Pappas tied the score just 1:36 into the third period and Sipe scored three minutes later to give the Lions their only lead of the game. "I think we took (Penn State) a little too light at the start and kind of got shocked in the beginning," Brent Chapman, Notre Dame's leading scorer, said. "By the ime we got it in gear, it was a little too late." In Saturday night's loss, referees Wayne Fleming and Roger Margolis played a large role in the game. The two whistled 41 penalties for a total of 100 penalty minutes, which resulted in 24 power plays. On Friday, Chapman was ejected and missed Saturday's contest because of a team rule involving ejec-Joe Bowie, Chapman's replacement, was thrown out just 7:13 into the first period of Saturday night's game. When Brad Rush scored on the resulting power play, it looked like Penn State would hand the Irish just their

Rush's goal would be the last the goal the Lions would score for the weekend, however, and Notre Dame scored three goals in both the second and third periods Saturday to notch their 21st victory
