

Bryant and Harvin duo makes Stars stronger

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Stars already boast a 5-1 record, but Coach Jim Mora said yesterday that his USFL team will be even harder to stop as running backs Kelvin Bryant and Allen Harvin see more action together in the backfield.

Allen Harvin is prepared to play halfback and fullback. More and more Bryant and Harvin will be in the backfield at the same time," Mora said.

"The formations will become more balanced and it will be more difficult for the opposition to zero in."

Both running backs have been hobbled by injuries at various times during the early part of the

Islanders begin 'Drive for Five' tomorrow

By BARRY WILNER AP Sports Writer

They've already established themselves as a dynasty. Now they go after history.

The New York Islanders have won four straight Stanley Cups. "Drive for Five" begins tomorrow night at home against their local rivals, the Rangers, in the best-of-five opening round of the NHL playoffs. If the Islanders can capture the championship again this spring, they will tie the all-time record of five consecutive Cups set by the Montreal Canadiens from 1956-60. And they'll have won an incredible 20 straight playoff series.

"That's behind us but it gives us inspiration," said defenseman Denis Potvin, the anchor of a strong defensive corps and a superb point man on the power play, especially in the playoffs. "We know what we've done before but we can't dwell on it. We can learn from it, though, and use it."

"I'm not worried at all," said Clark Gillies. "I have total confidence we can do it again. You have to have the faith."

"I'm not worried at all," said Clark Gillies. "I have total confidence we can do it again. You have to have the faith."

"We may have lacked a little intensity for awhile, but we got it when the playoffs approached."

Neither the Islanders or Rangers ever lack intensity when playing each other, which they've done five times in the playoffs. The Isles have eliminated the Rangers from the Stanley Cup chase the past three springs.

"I respect all teams," said center Bryan Trottier. "Any team in the playoffs deserves to be there. Our management deserves a lot of credit because they don't allow us to take anybody lightly."

The Rangers, who had their best season in 10 years yet still were only fourth in the division, won the season series with the Islanders 4-3.

"The record says we can play with them," said Rangers Coach Herb Brooks. "I think the reason we've been so successful with them recently is because we hold them in such high regard. We feel we have to play at the top of our game and can't

Korea may unite for Olympics

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — South Korea agreed yesterday to try and form a team with North Korea for the 1988 Summer Olympic Games in Los Angeles and for other international sports events.

South Korea said it was awaiting a response from North Korea.

Last Friday, North Korea had proposed that a single team be organized for international sports competition. The response from South Korea came in a letter from the head of this country's National Olympic Committee, Chung Ju-yong.

He wrote his North Korean counterpart and suggested that a meeting be held April 9 at Panmunjon to discuss the formation of one team. He said each side should be represented by four-member delegations headed by the deputy chairmen of the national Olympic committees.

South Korea never has accepted such proposals.

The letter from Chung termed North Korea's proposal last week a "delicate" acceptance of the earlier Seoul proposals.

"All as these proposals were advanced from a desire to achieve national reconciliation, there was no person whatsoever who you could not have accepted them. But you did not," the letter said. It called North Korea's new response "fortunate."

There was no immediate indication in Seoul of how successful the attempt might be to form a unified North-South team now. However, Chung's letter opened with bitter criticism of North Korea for a terrorist bombing last Oct. 9 in Rangoon, Burma, that killed 13 South Koreans in an apartment complex on the life of President Chun Doo-hwan.

The letter called the bombing a crime "against not only compatriots who share the same blood but against all peace-loving peoples of the world."

The tone of the letter did not appear to set a positive approach, urging strongly that North Korea apologize for the attack at Rangoon that has been blamed officially on North Korean agents.

Indianapolis welcomes Colts

By STEVE HERMAN AP Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Colts owner Robert Irsay, welcomed to Indianapolis with a key to the city from Mayor William Hudnut and loud cheers from a crowd of about 20,000 in the Hoosier Dome, said yesterday he played in the Hoosier Dome, said the city has notified of possible legal action against the Colts by Baltimore officials. Frick said the board's attorneys "have advised us we can't talk at all about the negotiation process" involving the move.

"We're in the process of checking out what happened out there (in Indianapolis) last week," said Andy Hartmann, a deputy city solicitor.

He said a court hearing would be scheduled within two days of the Colts' response to the judge's order, but that no such hearing had been scheduled yet.
