Jabbar needs 21 for NBA mark

Associated Press Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Los Angeles Lakers' center Kareem Abdul-Jabbar needs 21 points tonight against the Utah Jazz to break Wilt Chamberlain's all-time NBA scoring record -a mark that once was considered unsurpassable. The nation's gambling capital is rolling out the red carpet for the game, which is expected to draw a capacity crowd of more than 18,000 fans, with 14,000 tickets already sold by yesterday. Those expected to attend include Chamberlain NBA Commissioner David Stern, Nevada Gov. Richard Bryan, and Abdul-Jabbar's parents,

In his 15th season in the NBA, Abdul-Jabbar has 31,399 regular-season points after scoring 27 against the San Antonio Spurs Tuesday night. Chamberlain, who played 14 seasons, scored 31,-419 points. However, Abdul-Jabbar already is the leader in total points — regular-season and playoffs — with 35,031, five more than Chamber-

"To be No. 1 in anything in American sport is omething to be proud of. I'm very thankful and I none everyone thinks I deserve it." Chamberlain is one who agrees that Abdullabbar deserves it.

"If anyone is deserving to break that record, it's definitely, definitely him," said Chamberain. "I'm proud that he will have it." The 7-2 Abdul-Jabbar has averaged 20.3 points per game against the Jazz this season, but scored 29 in their last meeting at Los Angeles. He has scored 20 or more points in the Lakers' last 17 wrestler Carl DeStefanis hasn't been ' thinking about that much recently. He's been too busy.

Jazz owner Sam Battistone. Scoring, however, has not been Abdul-Jabbar's only strong point.

It was only a month ago that DeStefanis became a national champion at 118 pounds as he defeated Bob Hallman of Northern Iowa 6-4 in the finals. For four years that had been his sole objective, and he never really thought much about the Olympics for good reason.

To make the Olympic team, DeStefanis would have to learn to wrestle the Olympic way, freestyle, a different type of wrestling than what he was familiar with in college. On top of that, almost all of the top

American freestylers are college graduates, who have spent years competing in freestyle competitions around the world in preparation, for their shot at Olympic gold. DeStefanis, on the other hand, has only wrestled in several freestyle tournaments in high school. In fact, several of his Penn State teammates boast more international freestyle But when it came time for Olympic

This selection has come as a surprise to many, including DeStefanis, who found out just last week that he was going to be wrestling. But with the Russians making three stops on their American tour (the other two were in Chicago and Colorado), Gable has given different people an opportunity to wrestle the Russians, who are recognized as the best freestylers in the world today.

With the major emphasis in freestyle being wrestling on your feet, something which DeStefanis excels getting ready for this match." To think that for anyone to change styles in the matter of a month and be ready to go against the best in the world is asking too much. But if anyone can do it, Penn State Head Coach Rich Lorenzo said, that man would be DeStefanis.

"Carl is going to be going against one of the best in the world, and there is no question that he is a large underdog going in," Lorenzo said. "But he is recognized as one of the best wrestlers in the country, and if he wrestles with the same pride and determination he exhibited throughout the season, he is capable of making it a long afternoon for his Russian
