

Padres rally to beat Pirates, 8-6

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Steve Garvey hit a two-run homer in the third inning, then singled in a pair of runs during San Diego's five-run fourth that rallied the Padres to an 8-6 victory yesterday over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Padres trailed 5-0 after 2½ innings, thanks in part to a grand slam homer by rookie Doug Fobel off Andy Hawkins in the top of the third.

Garvey cut the margin to three runs in the bottom of the inning with his homer off Jose DeLeon before the Padres sent 10 batters to the plate in the fourth. The loss went to Rod Scurry, who walked to the only two batters he faced in the fourth.

Tigers 7 Twins 3

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Kirk Gibson hit a three-run homer and Alan Trammell homered, tripled and singled twice yesterday to lead Detroit to a 7-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins, giving the Tigers a sweep of their two-game, season-opening series.

Dan Petry scattered five hits over seven innings for the Tigers, who rallied after falling behind 2-0 in the second inning on a throwing error by second baseman Lou Whitaker.

In the second, Tom Brunansky singled and Randy Bush doubled and, with one out, Gary Gaetti walked intentionally to load the bases.

San Diego's Carmelo Martinez (right) runs into Pirates' shortstop Dale Berra during the Padres 8-6 win yesterday in San Diego. The Padres overcame a 5-0 Pirate lead to sweep the two game series.

Caps crush Flyers; Rangers win

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — Craig Laughlin and Dave Christian scored goals 32 seconds apart in the third period, giving the Washington Capitals a 6-2 victory over the Philadelphia Flyers last night and a 2-0 lead in their NHL Stanley Cup playoffs.

The third game of the best-of-five Patrick Division semifinals will be played in Philadelphia tomorrow night.

Laughlin's backhanded goal at 2:53 snapped a 2-2 tie for the Caps, who came from behind twice, just as they did in the opener Wednesday night. It was Laughlin's second goal in the playoffs.

On Washington's next foray down the ice, Christian's shot was stopped by Philadelphia goalie Bob Froese, but the puck rolled into the net as he tried to clear.

Philadelphia, which has lost eight straight playoff games in three years, took a 1-0 lead at 14:05 of the first period on a goal by Brad March.

Mike Gartner's second goal of the series tied it 1-1 at 15:28, but veteran Bobby Clarke put Philadelphia ahead 2-1 at 17:21. It also was Clarke's second goal in two games.

Alan Howarth scored the only goal of the second period for Washington at 4:55, and the Caps went on to defeat the Flyers for the fifth consecutive time. Bryan Erickson added a power-play goal for the Caps at 12:01 of the third period, his second of the series, and Doug Jarvis scored into an empty net at 18:29.

A Jensen, subbing for Pat Riggin, who suffered a bruised hand in the opener, turned aside 30 Philadelphia shots.

The Canadiens 3 Bruins 1

BOSTON (AP) — Mario Tremblay and Mats Naslund scored first-period goals, and rookie Steve Penney made them stand up with brilliant goaltending as the Montreal Canadiens edged the Boston Bruins 3-1 last night to take a 2-0 lead in their NHL playoff series.

The Canadiens, first-round playoff losers in the last three seasons, can wrap up the best-of-five Adams Division semifinal tomorrow on their home ice in Montreal.

The Canadiens finished fourth in the division, 29 points behind first-place Boston, but for the second consecutive night upset the Bruins behind Penney.

Tremblay got his first playoff goal just 16 seconds into the game. Bob Gainey took the puck off the backboard and Tremblay picked it up in the right circle and beat goalie Pete Peeters from a difficult angle.

The Canadiens went ahead 2-0 at 10:39 of the first period on a power-play goal by Naslund. Peeters made a stick save on Chris Chelios' 50-foot slapshot.

Canadiens 3 Bruins 1

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — Goal-tender Glen Hanlon posted the first Stanley Cup victory of his career, while Reijo Ruotsalainen and Peter Sundstrom scored power play goals, leading the New York Rangers to a 3-0 victory over the Islanders last night that evened their NHL playoff series at one game apiece.

The Rangers can end the Islanders' four-year domination of the championship by sweeping the next two games of this best-of-five series on their home ice tomorrow and Sunday. The Rangers won all three regular season meetings with the Islanders at Madison Square Garden.

Hanlon, who got his first shutout in 2½ years in the regular-season finale last Sunday, stopped 45 shots for his first win in eight Stanley Cup games. The shutout was the first suffered by the Islanders in post-season play since they lost 2-0 to Buffalo on May 5, 1980.
