16—The Daily Collegian Friday, April 13, 1984 FBI cautions beauty officials

Fugitive may pose as photographer to harm contestants By ROBERT WADE authorities said

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. – At the request of the FBI, Miss America Pageant officials warned organizers of state contests yesterday to look out for a fugitive posing as a photographer who is wanted in a series of Mangiacotti, adding that Wilder ap- for young women. slayings and disappearances of pears to have "an affinity for shore

Associated Press Writer

young women A letter and an FBI wanted poster is on the bureau's Ten Most Wanted Columbia to warn pageant officials at whether his organization would notify list, were sent to the 51 field exec- the local and county level about Wild- local pageants, his secretary said. utives of the Miss America Pageant, said Albert A. Marks Jr., executive director of the national contest.

"This isn't intended to scare," orudence.' Wilder, 39, is being sought in the disappearance of four others in similar operations," Marks said in is believed to be driving a 1981 Mer-Southern and Western states. The his letter. Australian-born race car driver also About 80,000 women will compete s being sought in the kidnapping of a this year in local contests for a shortly before young women disap-Florida woman and the stabbing of a chance to become one of the 51 wom- peared in Florida, Texas, Colorado 16-year-old girl in upstate New York, en to reach the nationally televised because Wilder is "consistent" in was "obviously quite concerned." seeking out attractive women.

areas.

the Miss America Pageant on a na- eants. tional basis is that his modus operan- Wilder is described as white, nearly finals here in September. Marks said. Walter Mangiacotti, in charge of "I don't want to read a story where the FBI's Atlantic City office, said he anybody's hurt, let alone one of our asked Miss America officials for help women," Marks said, noting the FBI Agent Joseph DeMarco in the FBI's "He poses as a fashion and-or mod- Miami bureau said the agency would eling-type photographer," said contact all groups running pageants

Harold Glasser, president of Miss Universe Inc., was not in his New Marks said he told field executives York City office yesterday and could for Christopher Bernard Wilder, who in each state and the District of not be reached for comment on Miss Universe Inc. runs the annual "The reason for the involvement of Miss Universe and Miss USA pag-

Marks said. "It's ordinary di is to ... offer to photograph, for 6 feet tall, 180 pounds, with a neatly any number of reasons, attractive trimmed mustache and beard, thinyoung women, notably at pageants, ning brown hair and blue eyes. He has murders of three women and the aspiring models, fashion shows and a five-inch scar on his right ankle and curv Cougar

> The FBI said Wilder was seen and Nevada

Court overturns ruling that divided twins' custody between teen parents

By The Associated Press

TYLER, Texas — An appeals court yesterday overturned a ruling that split the custody of 3-month-old an, Dr. Daniel Hamby, a Houston pediatrician, testiidentical twins between their teen-age parents, who fied that the babies should be breast fed for at least have filed for divorce. A three-judge panel of the 12th State Court of Appeals gave the mother custody of both infants until a final decision is made at the couple's divorce hearing. The appeals court overturned State District Judge Virgil E. Mulanax's March 28 order that said one of the Carter and Denise Carter custody of Chase Edward twins should live with Stan Carter, 17, and the other with Dena Denise Carter, 16. Carter's attorney, Ric Freeman, defended Mulanax's order, saying the divided custody would help the couple reconcile their marital differences.

"I'm not sure my client really wanted the divorce. With her being in Houston and my client in Upshur County, this was the judge's way to bring one child to Upshur County." Freeman said. Denise Carter's attorney, Mike Hatchell, said he was shocked by Freeman's justification, "which uses the Carter engaged in any moral or physically detrimental babies as a pawn to get the mother and father back together. The children were born Jan. 24. Three weeks later said. conduct Stan Carter filed for divorce and the mother took the

Carter

PHONE 234-1515 STATE COLLEGE 242 CALDER WAY

TICKETS: Advance tickets will cost $2.00 for students/youth and $3.00 for adults - AVAILABLE AT THE PENN STATE ICE PAVILION MAIN COUNTER TICKETS AT THE DOOR: $2.50 and $3.50 infants to her parents' home in Houston, where all three now live At a March 1 hearing to appoint a temporary guardinine months The mother asked for custody of both children, and the father asked for custody of one, saying he hoped he would be granted custody of both his sons within a year. Mulanax gave Stan Carter custody of Chad Edward In a brief filed with the appeals court, Dale Long, the divorce lawyer for Denise Carter, called Mulanax's decision "insensitive and barbaric. "At the very least, it shocks human sensibility to the point of being unconscionable, and for that reason cannot be anything but an abuse of discretion," Long He said no evidence was presented to show the children were abused or neglected or that Denise

Long filed a motion Wednesday in state district court asking Mulunax to excuse or disgualify himself from presiding over the divorce.

n

The Biggest Little Steakhouse in the USA! Lunch Special! Complete Treat Sirloin Value Mea World's Biggest, Best Salad Buffet $4.99 with Beverage

Complete Treat Bone Steak Dini $2.99 $5.99 Sandwich with Frie Complete Treat $1.99 Dinner $7.99 11AM - 4PM, Mon. thru Sat FREE 1630 S. Atherton St. beverage (At University Drive)

sports.

Baseball team runs win streak to 6 By RON LEONARDI

Collegian Sports Writer

Penn State first baseman Randy Simcox says the baseball team consists of a bunch of individuals that like to "just go out and hit." And hit they have. Since jumping back into action last weekend, the Lions have been wacking the cover off the ball and Simcox's flaming lumber has been a prime contributor to the Lions' success. Yesterday afternoon at Beaver Field, Simcox, who entered the game with a team high .381 average, banged three more hits and continued his mastery at the plate, as the Lions (10-7) won their fifth and sixth straight games, pounding Lock Haven by scores of 9-2 and 12-2. The Lions pounded 19 hits in the double-header, 11 coming in the nightcap

Lock Haven, which split a twinbill with Mansfield yesterday, fell to 5-7 on the year. In the opener, Penn State righthander Tom Bart went the distance, picking up his third win against one oss, but experienced control problems and had to pitch out of several jams. The senior walked seven to go with seven strikeouts. The same could be said of Lion southpaw Eric Hohn (1-0), who won the nightcap. Hohn ran into trouble games." the ball — and winning — it some- fence. He doubled and scored in the trying to keep my eye on the ball littany Lion Todd Hostetler (right) rounds the bases following his first-inning grand slam in the opener of yesterday's double-header against Lock Haven at Beaver Field.

State Head Coach Shorty Stoner is strong offensive performance.

how tends to overshadow other as- third and knocked in a run with a and level off at the plate." several times, not through walks — pects of a club. Simcox has been one single in the fourth. the sophomore struck out seven and reason for this, but despite his In the nightcap, Hostetler picked of the week for his seven for eight walked only two - but relinquished three-hit afternoon, the Lion cap- up his sixth RBI on the afternoon performance in last weekend's tain had to take a back seat to third with a bases loaded walk in the three-game series with George Despite the pair of lopsided wins baseman Todd Hostetler, who was Lions' three-run first. His seventh Washington, has usually been a and the Lions' recent success, Penn the Lions' man of the hour with a RBI came in the third on a sacrifice slow starter but the Lion captain concerned with his pitching staff's Hostetler, a junior from Hol- brought back memories of his 1982 weight training program and a posisopple, led the Lion surge in season when he led the Lions with a tive attitude. "We're pitching behind way to game one, going three-for-four with .356 average. good but in a tight ballgame, those inning of yesterday's opener, Hos- er said between games. "It's just the concentration at the plate,' However, when a team is stroking out grand slam over the right field up and down at the plate. I'm just we are right now."

Simcox, the Atlantic 10 co-player

fly. Hostetler's performance credits his success to an off-season

"I went through a lot of hard work often," Stoner said. "It hasn't five RBIs and two runs scored. With "My swing has been coming in the off season and now it's just a haunted us because we're hitting one swing of the bat in the first around but it's still spotty," Hostetl- matter of being relaxed and keeping decide ball- tetler turned Lock Haven's 1-0 lead good to be playing day-by-day and Simcox said. "And we (team) don't into a three run deficit with a two- I'm getting my eye back. I've been expect to be any where but where best start in the club's 84-year history.

Please see related story, Page 18

By RICH BRADLEY Collegian Sports Writer

Field starting at 7:15.

a 12-11 score.

the Lions won 5-4)."

really go after the win."

fought battle.

Upset another top-ranked team.

That's what the men's lacrosse team will try to do tommorrow night when it hosts sixth-ranked Rutgers under the lights at Jeffery

The Lions (4-4) will try to upset their second consecutive Top 10 team after beating seventh-ranked Hofstra 11-10 in overtime last Saturday. Tommorrow night's game will mark the 37th meeting between the two teams. with Rutgers (3-0) holding a 31-5 series lead. The last time Penn State won was in 1981 by

"Rutgers is the biggest rivalry

we have," Penn State Head Coach

Glenn Thiel said. "It's a very in tense game, even when we played them in the fall (a practice game

"This game will be much different, but it won't lack in intensity,' he added. "It'll be the same type of game it has been the last three years. It'll be two teams that will the Hofstra contest, remembered

"That game was pretty exciting," Coyle said. "It was close down to the end. It was a pretty heated game - there were almost a the first Rutgers game as a hard

Saturday in Chicago, yielded a single to leadoff hitter

Mickey Rivers on a 2-2 pitch, one minute into the game.

Lady laxers take on Rutgers

Lady Lion Betsy Williams (19) looks to pass the ball during action earlier this season against West Chester. The No. 1 women's lacrosse team will host Rutgers tomorrow at 1:00 at Lady Lion Field.

By RICK STOUCH Collegian Sports Writer

Rutgers at 1:00 tomorrow afternoon at Lady Lion her team will be ready.

Field After all. the No. 1 Lady Lions (6-0) have already met as some of the teams we have played and some of the five of the other teams in the top eight and treated all teams we will play," Rattray said. "No one should ever Redskins in this year's Super Bowl.

Penn State beat No. 5 James Madison by 16-4, No. 7 "But I think the best thing about this year's players is Chester, 15-3.

In addition, the other two squads in the top eight, Point Karen Rickards agrees that she couldn't see So the Lady Lions not only have past successes over top coming up to look ahead to.

Rutgers' part. The Lady Scarlet Knights (3-3) opened Tuesday and next Thursday. the season with wins over Swarthmore, 16-7, and Penn State is up for Rutgers, despite the possibility of Ursinus, 7-6.

vard 7-5. Last year, the Lady Scarlet Knights lost to for. series between the two schools.

has improved since last year and has a good goaltender and some good scorers. She also thinks Rutgers could present a good zone defense. And despite the previous No one could blame the women's lacrosse team if it results that might make it understandable for the Lady did not get psyched up for the game with unranked Lions not to be psyched up for the game, Rattray thinks

"It's tough to get up because Rutgers is not as tough but No. 4 Temple, who they nipped 6-5, with the same underestimate a team, but if we continue to play as courtesv the Los Angeles Raiders gave the Washington well as we've been playing, I think they'd have a tough time beating us Virginia by 16-7, No. 8 William & Mary by 23-3 and that they're level-headed. I don't think they take any No. 3 Delaware by 19-7. They've also beaten West game lightly because they realize that the total is mportant as far as post-season seedings goes."

No. 2 Maryland and No. 6 Massachusetts, come up next the team having any trouble getting ready for Rutgers on the schedule on April 19 and April 21, respectively. because of the opportunity to iron out some problems. "Rutgers won't be one of the top teams we'll play, but teams to remember, but games against top teams it'll be a good game for us to regroup and to work on some of the things we've been having trouble with," The Lady Lions should feel confident not just from Rickards said. "It'll also be good just for the game their own success, but from the lack of success on sense because this is our only game between lasi looking back at the Delaware game or looking ahead to But Rutgers then fell to Temple 13-2 and to Delaware Maryland. On the other hand, this is one contest the 21-3 before beating Montclair 14-3 and losing to Har- Lady Scarlet Knights should have no trouble getting up Penn State, 20-5, and have never won in the seven-game "We're the big one to beat, especially with our high scores and with our reputation going around now," Penn State Head Coach Gillian Rattray said Rutgers Rattray said.

few fights. They should coming out firing (Saturday) and I hope we do, Thiel said Rutgers is a very good Trabulsy (14 goals, five assists in goaltender Tom Florence), but we team, a team he would rank as the three games) and senior Bill Nas- know that. Rutgers will get their fifth-best in the country. "Rutgers is on the verge of being On defense, All-American goalie down the way he did in the fall, in the top four teams in the coun- John Naslonski has allowed just 17 we'll be OK.' try," Thiel said. "There's four ex- goals in three games. cellent lacrosse teams: Hofstra, off. They're the next best team." solid both on offense and defense.

The Daily Collegian Friday, April 13, 1984

Crenshaw takes lead in 1st round of Masters

By BOB GREEN AP Golf Writer

AUGUSTA, Ga. - Ben less 5-under-par 67 and took the lead, one stroke in front of Lee place I can't play," he said. Trevino, after the first round of the 48th Masters golf tournament yesterday

"It was a very good round of golf today." said Crenshaw, so often a challenger but not yet a winner in golf's Big Four events. "But." said the man who noted among his peers as one of the finest putters in the game, "it could have been better "I felt like I left a few shots out there. It easily could have been two or three shots better - and that's conservative." He hit 17 greens, reached two par-5s in two and did not make a bogey. The problem, said Crenshaw, lay with the putter, often the most potent weapon in his arsenal. This time, however, he made only two putts longer than 30 inches.

"I'm perplexed," said Crenshaw. "I had the putts at the right angle. I was putting from where I wanted to be. But I just missed 'em. The putter hasn't been that good this year."

Trevino, like Crenshaw fascinated with the possibility of winning this title — which ranks with the U.S. and British Opens and the PGA as the game's major events scattered seven birdies across his card in a swaggering, armswinging journey over the rolling hills of Augusta National. It was, he said, his best effort And there was portly Billy Caspever over the course he once vowed he'd never play again.

Championship, said he's changed afoul of the little 16th.

his mind and now ranks a victory in the Masters as one of his prime

"After the way I played the last Crenshaw played an almost-error- three rounds in the TPC, I reached way back and decided there's no

> The international group of four at 69, one back of Trevino and two behind Crenshaw, included Tom Purtzer, Mark Lye, the Japanese veteran Isao Aoki, and David Gra-

Graham, an Australian now living in the United States who has scored previous victories in the U.S. Open and PGA, had a share of the lead until he drove into the woods on the 18th, rattled around in the trees for a while and emerged with a double bogey-6. Ray Floyd, a former winner here, holed out from the fairway for an eagle-2 on the 14th and topped the group at 70. Also at that figure were George Archer, Tom Kite, two-time U.S. Open champion Hale Irwin, Nick Faldo of England and Gary Koch, the only two-time winner on the PGA Tour this season.

There were some other late challengers. But they found that Augusta National, wet from earlyweek rains but still possessing very fast greens, was not completely without its teeth.

Gary Player, the South African who has won this title three times, once got to four under for the sunny day. But he played the next two holes three over and drifted back, finishing with a 71.

But Trevino, 44, a runnerup in ment 14 seasons ago. He got it four the Tournament Players under par for a while - then ran

Tigers stay unbeaten with 9-4 win

unbeaten Detroit Tigers defeated Texas 9-4 yesterday, extending Detroit's winning streak to seven games, the The Tigers' best previous start was 6-0 in 1911. Morris, 3-0, in his first start since his no-hitter last DETROIT (AP) --- Alan Trammell, Chet Lemon and one in seven innings. He got relief help from Aurelio Lou Whitaker hit home runs as Jack Morris and the Lopez and Willie Hernandez Trammell walked in the first inning, went to third on a single by Barbaro Garbey and scored on a two-out single by Larry Herndon. Frank Tanana, 0-1, then walked Chet Lemon to load the bases and Rod Allen singled Garbey home. In the fourth inning, Trammell singled, Garbey

Morris allowed seven hits, struck out two and walked walked and Lance Parrish singled to make it 3-0.

Defenseman Marty Coyle, who Stu Helgeson (28) of the men's lacrosse team tangles with a defender in scored his first collegiate goal in action earlier this year at Astroturf Field. The Lions will face No. 7 Rutgers at 7:15 tomorrow night at Jeffrey Field.

> team, very poised, very confident." last week until the offense go fensive talent, and play a lot of different kinds of defenses.

The Scarlet Knights are paced on

Carolina, and then there's a drop Naslonski in the goal and handle it continues to play as well. the other Naslonski on offense in "They're a very good offensive State in the game against Hofstra should beat them."

Thiel said. "They play together started. After allowing two early very well. Their forte is probably goals, the defense got on track and defense. They have lots of de- grounded the Flying Dutchmen for the rest of the afternoon. "I think we'll be pretty solid on defense," Thiel said, "We'll have to offense by freshman attackman Ed have a great job in the goal (from lonksi (seven goals, seven assists). shots and if Florence can shut them

Coyle added that the defense had "We will have to penetrate their its best game of the year against Johns Hopkins, Virginia and North zone defense and beat John Hofstra. Another upset is possible if "Against Hofstra, that's the best Like all good teams, Rutgers is order to be successful," Thiel said. we've looked yet," Coyle said. "If The Lions' defense kept Penn everyone plays that well again, we