NFL's first week includes big games

NEW YORK (AP) — The Super Bowl champion Los Angeles Raiders will host the Colts — the NFL doesn't refer to their hometown as Indianapolis or Baltimore — on Nov. 25 in an interesting matchup of mavericks. The Raiders begin the defense of their title Sept. 2 in Houston, where the Oilers will showcase their new million-dollar quarterback, former Canadian Football League star Warren Moon. Pam Trafford led the women's tennis team to a 8-1 victory over Bloomsburg on Wednesday, raising the team's spring record to 4-3. Trafford, playing at first singles, defeated Justin Landes, who was 20-1 going in to the match, 6-4, 6-0. The Lady Lion sophomore usually plays at the No. 2 spot, but moved up Wednesday because No. 1 singles player Linda Learmonth sat out the match. Head Coach Jan

Bortner said the win was important for Trafford and

"Playing at No. 1, the match was quite a victory for her," Bortner said. "She's playing very well and that was also a big win for us." At the second singles spot, Lady Lion Janet Whiteside defeated Kathy Masch, 6-0, 6-1.
