

Royals snap Tigers' 9 -game winning streak

DETROIT (AP) — Frank White belted a two-run home run, and the Kansas City Royals ended Detroit's season-opening winning streak at nine games with the aid of two errors by the Tigers.

Rookie Bret Saberhagen, 1-0, making his first major league start, held the Tigers to six hits and one run over the first six innings to pick up the victory with relief help from Dan Quisenberry. Saberhagen walked two and struck out four.

Quisenberry came on to start the seventh and earned his fifth save, despite allowing a ninth-inning homer to Kirk Gibson, his third.

Detroit's Dan Petry, 2-1, making his first start in nine days because of a rash of rainy weather, gave up eight hits while striking out four and walking two in eight innings.

The nine-game winning streak was the best start in the majors this season and the best in the Tigers' 64-year history, easily beating the old mark of six to start the 1911 season.

Already leading 3-1, White added a measure of insurance with his first home run of the season. It came with two out and Steve Balboni aboard via a walk.

Jorge Orta and Hal McTae each drove in a run during Kansas City's two-run third inning. Greg Pryor started the inning with a single and went to second on a sacrifice. Pat Sheridan singled, sending Pryor to third, and Orta singled deep to short to drive in Pryor. McTae singled Sheridan home to put the Royals ahead 3-1.

The Royals got an unearned run in the sixth with the aid of two errors by Detroit third baseman Howard Johnson. White wound up on second after Johnson missed his grounder down the line. White moved to third on Don Slaught's grounder and scored when Johnson's mislaid batted ball hit Davis' glove.

Detroit's first run came in the first when Lou Whitaker singled, went to third on Alan Trammell's hit-and-run single and scored on a grounder by Lance Parrish.

Blue Jays 2 Orioles 1

TORONTO (AP) — Garth Iorg's fourth hit of the day, a one-out triple in the ninth inning, snapped a 1-1 tie and gave the Toronto Blue Jays a 2-1 victory yesterday over Baltimore and a sweep of their three-game series.

Willie Upshaw opened the ninth with a single, and one out later Iorg drilled a fly ball into the gap in left center that deflected off the glove of John Shelby in center, bouncing to the fence and easily scoring Upshaw.

Iorg's triple made a winner of Jim Clancy, 1-1, who scattered seven hits in his first complete game of the season.

Scott McGregor, 1-0, took the loss.

White Sox 3 Brewers 1

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Richard Dotson tossed a five-hitter as the Chicago White Sox edged the Milwaukee Brewers 3-1 yesterday.

Dotson, 2-1, allowed only one walk and struck out one.

Chicago took a 1-0 lead in the fourth when Harold Baines lined a two-out double to left and scored on Greg Luzinski's single up the middle.

The White Sox added another run in the fifth when Tim Lincecum reached base on a fielder's choice, stole second and raced home on Rudy Law's single to left.

The Orioles took a 1-0 lead in the second inning on an RBI single by Joe Nolan. With one out, John Lowenstein and Ken Singleton walked, and one out later Nolan drilled a single to right that scored Lowenstein.

The Jays tied it in the fourth on Iorg's single to center that scored Upshaw, who had doubled.

Defense helped Clancy out of jams in the fourth, seventh and eighth innings with Jesse Barfield turning in the top defensive play in the eighth.

With Cal Ripken Jr. and Lowenstein aboard via walks, Singleton hit a long fly to right center. Barfield made a leaping catch at the wall, then threw a one-out strike to Upshaw at first to double off Lowenstein.

Mets 7 Expos 6

NEW YORK (AP) — Hubie Brooks' two-run homer with one out in the eighth inning gave the New York Mets their second straight comeback victory, a 7-6 triumph over Montreal Expos yesterday.

Jesse Orosco, pitching third relief appearance, maked the final two innings for his first victory. Dan Schatzeder, 0-2, gave up the winning hit to Brooks after walking Mookie Wilson with one out.

Gary Carter's two-run homer in the seventh inning, his third of the season, had given the Expos a 6-5 lead. It came with Tim Lincecum aboard via a walk and erased a 5-4 Mets lead.

Carter's two-run single also highlighted a four-run fifth inning.

George Foster had an RBI single in the Mets three-run first inning and added a solo homer, his third, to give the Mets a 5-0 lead. Darryl Strawberry drove in the other two runs in the first inning.

Oilers need killer instinct to help douse the Flames

The Edmonton Oilers will try to regain their killer instinct, which was killed by penalties that helped the Calgary Flames remain alive in their NHL playoff series.

The Oilers, leading the best-of-seven series 3-2, can eliminate the Flames tonight at Calgary.

Scoring on three power plays Wednesday night at Edmonton, the Flames avoided elimination with a 5-4 victory. They also kept Edmonton's Wayne Gretzky from scoring.

"I told the guys if they scored five goals, we'd win," said Calgary goalie Reggie Lemelin, who made 33 saves, including three on breakaways.

"I can't explain what happened tonight," defenseman Kevin Lowe of the Oilers said. "We had the killer instinct, the discipline, everything in games 3 and 4. In the first two periods (Wednesday) night, we didn't have it. The mistakes kept snowballing."

"When you're killing penalties all night it takes a lot out of the guys... and it kills your momentum," said Coach Gene Sather of Edmonton.

In other games tonight, Quebec plays at Montreal, and Minnesota at St. Louis. Montreal and Minnesota each hold a 3-2 series lead.

The New York Islanders won the other series 4-1, beating the Washington Capitals 5-3 Wednesday night. The Islanders will play in the Wales Conference final series against the winner of the Montreal-Quebec series.

Montreal will try to make the home ice an advantage, something it hasn't been yet in its series with Quebec. Two of the Canadiens victories have come at Quebec, while the Nordiques scored one of their two victories at Montreal.

The Canadiens got another superb effort from goalie Steve Penney in winning 4-0 at Quebec Wednesday night. Penney has given up only two goals in Montreal's three victories.

"The Nordiques missed their scoring chances, but you have to give them credit for that," said Coach Jacques Lemaire of Montreal. "With the players that Quebec has, it's almost inconceivable that they didn't score one goal."

"We had our chances, but Penney made big saves," said Quebec coach Michel Bergeron.
