

Hogeboom to start for Cowboys

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

DALLAS — Gary Hogeboom, who has never started a regular-season NFL game, was chosen yesterday by a jittery Coach Tom Landry to replace Danny White as a Dallas Cowboys' No. 1 quarterback.

Landry said he felt the team needed a spark before its regular-season opener against Los Angeles on Monday night and that "I've got a feeling Gary is the right one to start this game."

"My feeling about White is the same. He is an excellent quarterback," Landry said.

Landry also said he could change his mind about the starting job.

"I'm not sure which quarterback will take us to the Super Bowl, Hogeboom or White, time will tell," Landry said. "I hope Gary will live up to it. It may go on forever. Who knows?"

Landry was so jittery in making the announcement that at first he said the quarterback replacing White was "Phil" "Rozier," who is an offensive lineman.

Landry corrected that to "Hogeboom" as he mispronounced his new starting quarterback's name.

Later, the frazzled coach admitted the task was so unpleasant he wished he was on a lake "fishing with (former Minnesota Vikings coach) Bud Grant instead of making decisions like this."

Hogeboom said he was "excited and looking forward to the challenge. I know I have to produce. I've worked a long time to get where I'm at."

He said he realized "if I play bad, they'll sit me down just like they do in baseball."

Asked if it bothered him Landry doesn't know how to pronounce his name, Hogeboom laughed and said, "The coach told me that when I became the starter he would learn how to pronounce it."

White, who had started for four seasons but never got the Cowboys to the Super Bowl, had tears in his eyes talking about the change.

"In preseason I knew every mistake I made was being monitored," he said. "I was surprised in a way and in a way I wasn't. I'm upset and still a lot confused about what the reasons were."

White said he would still do anything he could to get the Cowboys to the Super Bowl, including punt. However, he said his long-range plans were indefinite.

"It would be impossible to accept (second string) on a permanent basis," White said. "I will remain dedicated to this team while I consider my alternatives."

White, who is making $550,000 this year, said his alternatives included "staying, being traded, or retiring."

"I'll decide at a later date what is best for my family and my career," he said.

The selection, Landry said, was not made on preseason performances although Hogeboom had the better record.

White threw four interceptions to none for Hogeboom, who rallied the team to a 31-24 victory over Houston Saturday night in the final exhibition game of the season.

"Both were at a high level," Landry said. "I just wish it was more clear cut. But the change is best for us right now."

Cowboy players applauded the move.

"The coach finally listened to us," said fullback Ron Springs. "Hogeboom was the most respected on the team. Danny had great stats but his confidence was lacking. Players don't like to hear things like that but it's the truth. We expected great things from Hogeboom."

Safety Dexter Clinkscales said Hogeboom is "cocky and confident. Maybe that's what we need."

Herzog said Monday, "I think it's a distraction to everybody."

Rozier's agent, Art Wilkinson, said he was waiting for the Cowboys to make a bid for his $1.9 million price tag to allow the former Nebraska running back to buy out his USFL contract.

Wilkinson said his latest proposal would trim the buyout figure to less than $1 million.

Maulers' President Paul Martha said the team, which signed Rozier to a $3.1 million, three-year pact early this year, still valued Rozier "and we won't give up easily if we give up at all."

But Martha added that "under the right circumstances, the situation could change."

Herzog, however, said he was not willing to wait much longer.

"It takes away from my time utilization while we're trying to put together our final roster," the Oilers' general manager said.

Federals seek move to Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP) — A deal is almost wrapped up to bring the Washington Federals here, but the lack of support from Mayor William Donald Schaefer poses a major problem, according to a member of an investment group trying to buy the team.

Richard Sammis, owner of a Perry Hall car dealership and part of a 10-member investment group, said "we'd have a team here tomorrow" if Schaefer would endorse his efforts to move Washington's United States Football League franchise to Baltimore.

But, Sammis told The Evening Sun, "Our opinion is the mayor wants the (Philadelphia) Stars here because he feels they're one of the top teams and if there's a merger (between the USFL and the National Football League), then he'd be back in the NFL."

Schaefer, traveling in Great Britain, was unavailable to comment on Sammis' lament. Press secretary Pat Bernstein said she knew nothing about the football negotiations.

The head of Schaefer's task force searching for a new football team, J. Henry Butta, was out of his office all day yesterday and unreachable.

The current owners of the Federals are under pressure to sell soon. The Federals have been a failing team at the box office and on the field during the USFL's two-year history. The team has been up for sale for months.

Phils, Mets win but lose ground to Cubs

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Sixto Lezcano and Al Oliver had two hits apiece and Lezcano drove in two runs in a seven-run second inning last night to lead the Philadelphia Phillies to an 11-4 win over the San Diego Padres.

Shane Hawley, 7-3, worked six innings to get the victory. Al Holland, who surrendered Terry Kennedy's 10th home run, pitched the ninth to collect his 20th save.

The Padres took a 3-0 lead in the first. Alan Wiggins and Tony Gwynn started it with singles. Steve Garvey singled home Wiggins, and Kevin McReynolds followed with a single to load the bases. Carmelo Martinez added a sacrifice fly and Luis Salazar a run-scoring double.

The Phillies rallied in the second when they sent 12 batters to the plate against loser Andy Hawkins. Oliver opened with a double and scored on Lezcano's single. Hawkins, 7-7, walked Len Matuszek and Ozzie Virgil to load the bases, and Ivan DeJesus to force in a run.

Juan Samuel added a two-run single to make it 4-3, then stole his National League-leading 60th base and continued to third on a wild throw by Kennedy, which allowed DeJesus to score.

Von Hayes singled home Samuel, then Oliver got his second hit of the inning. Hayes scored on Lezcano's second hit of the inning.

Garvey's run-scoring hit made it 7-4 in the fourth.

The Phillies made it 9-4 in the sixth on Luis Aguayo's run-scoring double and Hayes' second RBI single.

The Padres made it 9-6 in the seventh off reliever Larry Anderson, who made a throwing error, with a run-scoring infield out and a single by pinch-hitter Bobby Brown.

Matuszek's 11th homer, a walk to Virgil and John Russell's double accounted for the final Philadelphia runs in the seventh.

San Diego made it 11-7 in the eighth on consecutive singles by Wiggins, Gwynn and Garvey, who had three RBIs.

Philadelphia's Juan Samuel (8) steals second base as the Padres' Alan Wiggins jumps for a high throw in last night's game in Philadelphia. The Phillies continued their winning ways with an 11-4 victory.
