Ferraro raises war risk issue

AP Political Writer

CAMDEN, N.J. — Geraldine Ferraro ment Employees. Reagan would "heighten the risk of about 1,600 union members, listing from the environment to urban develwar" in a second term "unrestrained agreements the GOP incumbent has opment by the need for re-election."

through the Northeast and South, the collapse of all arms control negotia- issue, on which Democrats believe Democratic vice presidential nomitions." nee said Vice President George Bush After her speech, the 225,000-mem- At a brief news conference earlier is "playing loose with the facts" with ber union unsurprisingly voted to in Philadelphia, Ferraro rejected with Russia have risen. We have sent troops to Central America, and our young men have died in Beruit.

"The question is: Over the next four years what will happen to my son and with the election of Walter F.

"Both Fritz and I have supported the Trident II missile. As a matter of fact, if anyone had bthered to check my record, they would see I had voted for it consistently over the years," with Russia have risen. We have sent country. John and vour children and grand- on and with the election of Walter F. children? Will this president, unre- Mondale rests our hope for a better she said.

strained by the need for re-election, America. heighten the risk of war?

charges against Reagan in a Cleve- caring compassionate people or land speech to the annual convention not?"

Beginning a three-day swing now he has presided over the total paigning was the war and peace assertions that she and Walter F. endorse the Mondale-Ferraro ticket. Bush's contention that the Mondale-Mondale oppose two U.S. weapons New Jersey — with 16 electoral Ferraro ticket opposes both the Trivotes — and the rest of the Northeast dent II missile and the deployment of Painting a bleak picture of U.S. are crucial to the Democratic ticket's cruise missiles in Europe.

come down and the doors open for all Pershing 2 missiles but he "has not Later, Ferraro elaborated on her Americans or not? Will we be a been in the past."

of the American Federal of Govern- Citing the work of several of the Democratic politicians who joined said yesterday that American voters "This president never met an arms her on the platform, Ferraro atshould consider whether President control agreement he likes," she told tacked Reagan on issues ranging > opposed in the last 25 years. "And But the theme of yesterday's cam-Reagan is vulnerable.

foreign policy in general, Ferraro hopes for victory in November. "I'm going to have to correct the lold a crowd of about 1,500 at a city in her city hall rally, Ferraro paint-record, because again the Reaganed the November election as a stark Bush peple are playing loose with the "In the last four years, tensions choice between two futures for the facts," she told the news conference.

Questioned about the assertions "We face a choice between prosper- Bush made Sunday, White House "I don't want to take that chance," ity and bankruptcy. Will we be a safer spokesman Larry Speakes said Monshe said. adding that Mondale would nation or not? Will we be a prosper- day that he believes Mondale now is Democratic vice presidential candidate Geraldine Ferraro signals to crowd gathered at yesterday's rally from the steps of trade "proposals, not insults" with our nation or not? Will the barriers for the Trident II and deployment of Camden City Hall, Camden, N.J. as (right) Congressman James Florio (D.N.J.) looks on.

Anderson endorses Mondale

CAMPUS LOOP

Weekdays

Saturdays

TIMETABLE

1. *East Halls

Shields

2. Natatorium

4. University Drive

Pollock-Shortledge

EFFECTIVE AUGUST 21, 1984

White Building

7. College-Heister

8. *College-Allen

9. Bus Depot

11. Library-Kern

10. Rec Hall

12. Forum

13. Creamery

Every 20 minutes*

(minutes past the hour)

Buses leaving student parking lot near East Halls:

7:30 AM - 12:00 AM

7:30 AM - 2:00 AM

12:00 PM - 12:00 AM

00* 10 20* 30 40* 50

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG AP Political Writer

URBANA, Ill. - John Anderson, whose independent body." presidential candidacy captured millions of votes in 1980, Mondale said, "I once had John Anderson on the other endorsed Democrat Walter F. Mondale yesterday and side of me in a campaign. That's one of the reasons I'm in urged his followers "to walk with me now in support of the private life." Mondale-Ferraro ticket."

Quadrangle of the University of Illinois before a crowd People have forgotten who John Anderson is." estimated by the Secret Service at 10,000, mostly stu-

After receiving Anderson's backing, Mondale was fly- Mondale." ing home to Minnesota to meet with the Rev. Jesse "John Anderson doesn't have a constituency," Lake their support for the Democratic ticket. Mondale planned to meet alone with Jackson at his unhappy with Ronald Reagan."

ers, his running mate, Geraldine Ferraro, was in New race. Jersey raising questions about President Reagan's ability "A vote for the present administration is a vote for the "The question is: Over the next four years what will he said. happen to my son John-and your children and grandchil-....The former, Republican congressman added that the Z dren?" she asked. "Will this president, unrestrained by Reagan administration "has no plan whatever, at least none they are willing to confide to the American people, of the need for re-election, heighten the risk of war?

5.7 million votes in 1980 - nearly 7 percent of the 85 cracks deadly jokes into microphones." In 14 states carried by President Reagan, Anderson's were a number also supporting Reagan.

Mondale thanked Anderson for his support and then told the crowd that "this morning the White House said John Anderson is a 'nobody' ... but John Anderson is a some-

James A. Lake, spokesman for the Reagan-Bush cam-Anderson announced his support for the Democratic paign, was quoted by The Washington Post as saying: presidential nominee at an outdoor rally in the North "Who's John Anderson? Nobody. He's not a factor.

Lake said Anderson "doesn't deliver anything to Walter Jackson and other black leaders in an effort to energize said. "There is not a large body of Republicans out there who will belong to John Anderson because they are not and moving to smooth over differences with black lead- addressing the issues of budget deficits and the arms continuation of the present policy of fear and loathing,"

"I don't want to take that chance," she said, adding that how they are going to deal with a gargantuan deficit." Mondale would trade "proposals, not insults" with the He said that while the president often is referred to as "the great communicator," "he has yet to break the Anderson, a former Republican congressman, received sound barrier with our adversaries. ... Instead he wise-

Mingled among the pro-Mondale signs in the crowd vote was larger than the margin by which Reagan "Reagan - last of the tax fighters," and "Taxpayers love Reagan" were among them.

THE HUB CRAFT CENTER OPEN HOUSE

AUGUST 30th 7:30-9:30 pm Meet the Center's instructors and see them demonstrate their crafts! Refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome! Craft classes begin September 4th. A wide variety of classes are offered including drawing, calligraphy, stained glass, wheelthrown pottery, quilting, loom weaving, and

* STUDIO SPACE AVAILABLE *

T D

© H

ΑΒΨΔΕΦΓΗΙΞΚΛΜΝΟΠ 'ΡΣΤΘΥ ΧΥ FRATERNITY RUSH MIXER

meet representatives from all of Penn State's 51 fraternities and sign up for RUSH

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29TH

7:00 PM-9:00PM HUB BALLROOM

[1] K A M N O H . P E T O V , X Y Z A B Y A E Ф F H

LADY LION SOFTBALL TRYOUTS 30 at 5:00 pm Room 104 White TRYOUTS: Tuesday Sept. 4.6 at 3:45 to 5:45 Head Coach Sue Rankin 139 White Building or Manager Tracy Ferrero 865-8067

ATTENTION LEANER AND QUICKER FOR 84-85

Wheelchair lift van service is available for persons using wheelchairs. Service is provided bus stop to bus stop by prior scheduling. To schedule call 865-7571 Monday thru Friday, 7:30 AM to 4:30 PM.

sports...plus

Raiders, Dolphins should dominate AFC will grow shorter, and the air will have a nip the Dolphins on top. in it. It's the perfect time for football. Not to knock the USFL, but there is nothing like opening day in the NFL, and when the season unfolds this Sunday, fans across the country will be buzzing. "Real football" will be back.

And for myself, the coming of an NFL season always brings out the speculator in me. I always want to see how the "experts" have picked my team to finish. Will they finish .500, do they have a chance to make the playoffs, an outside shot at the Super AFC EAST Miami (11-5) — The trade of David Woodley Buffalo (7-9) — This may be stretching it. the Tampa Bay Bandits. to the Steelers made it official that the The loss of running back Joe Cribbs to the Pittsburgh (8-8) — Chuck Noll said it Dolphins are hinging their future on the USFL could be crippling to a Bills offense best: "Franco who?" The holdout of Franco strong arm of quarterback Dan Marino, that finished third to last in scoring in the Harris is the best thing that could have who last year became the first rookie in 13 conference. The Bills will only finish re- happened to the Steeler running game, years to lead the conference in passing. spectably if rookie Greg Bell can pick up opening the door for Noll to go ahead and fractured finger in his throwing hand suf- will be better than most people expect. they made the playoffs last season with the receivers Mark "Super" Duper and either they surprised a lot of people last season by situation can do nothing but improve this Coryell skidded to 6-10. But footballs will have to go with the Raiders.

New England (9-7) — The loss of first rough ride. These were questions I used to look in a round pick Irving Fryar (cracked ribs) for book to answer, but I've learned my lesson.
There are no "experts". I didn't see anyone possibly half the season should quell the Patriots' chances to catch the Dolphins. But ing off the Bengals? Though they dropped to pick the Seahawks to come one game from a defense that surrendered the third fewest 7-9 last season, the Bengals finished strong the Super Bowl, or the Jets to finish last, or points in the league last season, mostly after a 1-6 start that was caused by a host of the Giants 3-12-1. I didn't see the 49ers or without inside linebackers Steve Nelson or injuries, holdouts, and drug suspensions. Bengals picked for the Super Bowl three Clayton Weishuhn, should make New En- This season, the Bengals return the best gland a serious playoff contender. If quaroffensive line in the conference that includ-These are the kind of surprises that make terback Steve Grogan is sharp, he is one of es monster of a tackle Anthony Munoz and it virtually impossible to forecast accurate the best around, especially throwing to the second-year center Dave Rimington. Quarfinishes, and though I know there will be dangerous Stanley Morgan and young Ste-terback Ken Anderson should be as sharp as similar surprises in 1984, I'm giving the phen Starring. Tony Collins and Craig anyone in the league, but his primary re-James make up a solid backfield of an ceiver, Cris Collinsworth, may have his hardly be enough to make the Colts contend- much more can be expected.

New York (5-11) — The offseason trades of starting quarterback Richard Todd and O'Brien, who has never thrown a regular season pass, at the helm and Lam Jones and Joe Klecko injured, the Jets are in for a offense that could be highly explosive. mind elsewhere, like his future defection to Cleveland (7-9) — If Paul McDonald can possibly the best receiving tandem in the play well enough to offset the loss of Brian in the conference.

Davis' band of merry marauders is not the the Chiefs out of contention again. in the league. By the way, isn't there a law around. Haves in the same secondary?

I suppose NBC is saying it best. Now is the Nat Moore or Jimmy Cefalo will provide finsihing 7-9, the Colts were last in the season, with David Woodley the starter at soar over San Diego once again as Fouts Marino with outstanding targets. It will be conference in scoring. Running Curtis Dick- the moment over Mark Malone. A solid returns to propel the Chargers back in post Yes, soon the leaves will turn, the days the Killer Bee defense, however, that keeps ey gained 1,222 on the ground, but he will defense will keep the Steelers at .500, but not season play. Wes Chandler, Charlie Joiner, and Kellen Winslow provide Fouts with

> Sipe to the New Jersey Generals, the Seattle (9-7) — Though he took the Seadefensive linemen Abdul Salaam and Kenny
>
> Browns could make a run at the playoffs. hawks to the playoffs for the first time in Neil for nothing but future draft picks
>
> But that is a big "if", as McDonald was less their history, I'm still not convinced Dave indicates that the Jets are thinking in terms than impressive in three starts last season. Krieg is the right quarterback for Chuck of the future instead of the present. They
>
> If the Browns are strong anywhere, it is at
>
> Knox's team. The team will only improve as were touted as Super Bowl contenders a linebacker, where Chip Banks and Tom much as second-year running back Curt year ago, but with second-year man Ken
>
> Cousineau highlight possibly the best crew
>
> Warner, who comes off a rookie season of rushing for 1,449 yards. However, defense, Houston (4-12) — Once again, the cellar is the Seahawks traditional weakness, will reserved for the Oilers, despite offseason keep them out of post season play this year. acquisitions of quarterback Warren Moon Kansas City (6-10) — The Chiefs received and ex-Cowboy receiver Butch Johnson. a major blow when quarterback Bill Ken-The fact that workhorse running back Earl ney went down last weekend with a broken Campbell can hardly walk, let alone run, on thumb. Kenney surprised everyone last a badly swollen knee won't make first-year season by passing for the most yardage in Head Coach Hugh Campbell's job any easi- the AFC, but it will be Todd Blackledge who will open the season. Though they have entered the last few seasons with high L.A. Raiders (13-3) — Who else? So Al hopes, gaping holes in the defense will keep prettiest bunch around, but this motley Denver (4-12) - Sure. John Elway has the group of castaways knows how to win. And ability to become one of the top quarthough Jim Plunkett lacks grace and mobil- terbacks in the game in the near future, but ity, he gets the job done. It doesn't hurt to we will never see what he can do behind one have Marcus Allen in the backfield, but it of the most porous lines in the league. might hurt to have last season's leading NFL receiver — tight end Todd Christensen

Though the Broncos earned a playoff berth last season with a 9-7 record, they were 21st - holding out. On defense, the Raiders in the league on defense and 26th on offense. remain one of the most intimidating squads Their record won't be as deceiving this time

However, if Marino cannot recover from a where Cribbs left off. My hunch is that he play some promising young backs. Though against having Mike Haynes and Lester AFC Champion — Though it seems like a fered during the preseason, Don Shula could Indianapolis (6-10) — The sharpest thing highly inept Cliff Stoudt at quarterback, the San Diego (10-6) — Oh, what a difference Dolphins making a serious run. I never like be in for a long season. The running game about the Colts this season is their new Steelers also coasted on one of the easiest Dan Fouts can make. Last season, when he to pick the defending Super Bowl champ will continue to be a question mark, but home, the spiffy Hoosier Dome. Though schedules in the league. The quarterback went down with a rotator cuff injury, Air because there are always surprises, but I

Balance makes 49ers possible Super Bowl champions

Washington (12-4) — The only thing that is

St. Louis (10-6) — Surprise, surprise! My door for Phil Simms, probably their most but I wouldn't bet on it. favorite pick of the preseason. Every year a talented signal caller, to take charge of the Minnesota (8-8) — A new era begins with 49ers humming along like a finely tuned strong as the 49ers' or Saints'. yard season, leads a strong ground game. team in the NFL.

keeping the Redskins from being a super- defense is just too good for them to finish in suckered into picking this team again. Sure, handled (or mishandled) by Jack Thomp- the playoffs. in capturing their third consecutive division Parcells' team was fifth in defense in the Lynn Dickey throwing to James Lofton and er's Steve DeBerg in the offseason. If De- earning a playoff berth. Rookie sensation title. On offense, there is no better field NFL Lawrence Taylor, perhaps the best at John Jefferson, the best receiving combina. Berg can get a dormant offense off the Eric Dickerson, who rushed for 1,808 yards, general than Joe Theismann, and to put him his position, leads a linebacking crew that tion in the league. But they have been ground and if the Bucs can recover from was the catalyst, and if he remains healthy behind the Hogs, the best offensive line in remains strong despite the losses of Brad expected to take control of this division the last season's decimating injuries to its of- again, the Rams could sneak back into post football, makes him all the more dangerous. Van Pelt and Brian Kelley to trades. The last few years now, and they always come fensive line and secondary, they could finish season play again. Vince Ferragamo will Old engine number 44, John Riggins, will trade of quarterback Scott Brunner to up with the same inconsistency and medioc- as high as .500. chug his way to another 1,000-yard season to Denver may have been the best offseason rity. Who knows, maybe new head coach postseason play; in '84 it will be the Cardi

Philadelphia (3-13) — Optimistic Eagle

Head Coach Les Steckel taking the reigns most well-balanced team in the league.

Attanta (3-11) — The Faicons received a terrific blow when it was learned that their nals. Coming off their best finish in a while fans are saying the addition of wide receiv- from the resigned Bud Grant. Steckel, a Quarterback Joe Montana is in his prime franchise, running back William Andrews, (8-7-1), the Cards' defense was sixth best in er Kenny Jackson and the return of a former Marine lieutenant, will have less to and is deadly when he goes to his favorite will miss the entire season due to a knee the NFL, and if it can continue to improve, healthy Wilbert Montgomery will take their fret over at quarterback than Grant did last target, Dwight Clark. On defense, the unit injury. Andrews, who gained 1,567 yards Jim Hanifan's team will fly. On offense, team to 500. But it will take more than that season when starter Tommy Kramer was that gives the 49ers that special edge is the last season, is the most underrated back in promising quarterback Neil Lomax, sev- to help an offense that produced the fewest lost for the year following a knee injury secondary, where cornerbacks Ronnie Lott the league, and without him, the Falcons enth leading passer in the league last sea- points in the NFL a year ago. Let's face it, during the third game. Kramer's return will and Eric Wright, and safeties Dwight Hicks won't stand a chance in this competitive son, is just beginning to spread his wings. the Eagles may have stolen the unenviable help, but the Vikings are just too inconsis- and Carlton Williamson make up probably division. Last year's top-rated quarterback Otis Anderson, coming off another 1,000- distinction from Houston of being the worst tent on defense to make a big move.

tween last year's starter Danny White and job. The lack of a quarterback controversy, backup Gary Hogeboom is only hurting plus the sweet running of soon-to-be record just the combination to put the Bears on top. Doug Williams to the USFL a year ago. Last his interceptions, he should be just the boost New York Giants (7-9) — The Giants' Green Bay (8-8) — There is no way I'll be season, they fell to 2-14 when the job was the Saints need to finally go marching into move the Giants made, since it opened the Forrest Gregg will get them over the hump, San Francisco (12-4) — Don't let last sea- (23) in the NFL. All in all, the Rams should the Vikings, with hard-nosed first year engine. Barring injuries, this could be the

Sims to the USFL, they would might as well Saints' fans have always been forced to only fly with Andrews. in for its biggest fall in years. Offseason Chicago (9-7) — One sure fire way of pre- have packed it in. Fortunately, they were settle for "wait till next year". Last season. NFC Champion — Again, only two teams retirements of Drew Pearson, Harvey Mar- venting a team from reaching its full poten- able to wrest him free from the Houston the Saints once again came oh so close to have a legitimate shot, the Redskins and tin. and Pat Donovan indicate a sign of tial is to platoon quarterbacks. Last season, Gamblers, the team he had also signed post-season play and oh so close to breaking 49ers. The Redskins will enter the NFC rebuilding. But what could hamper the Head Coach Mike Ditka threw a fly in the with. Even with Sims back, however, the .500. But a last second field goal in their Cowbovs more is the emotional state of the Bears' honey when he decided to relieve Lions will probably stumble from their 9-7 final game kept them at 8-8. They had the players. The team has been turned away starter Jim McMahon in mid-season and go mark of last season. Gary Danielson has defense — it was ranked second in the NFL. from the Super Bowl the past five seasons, with Vince Evans. But after Evans faltered, taken the starting quarterback duties from They had the running game — George three times in the NFC Championship McMahon took control again and led the Eric Hipple, but it is almost certain that Rogers gained 1,144 yards. But quarterback Landry get his Cowboys hyped for a new offseason, Evans jumped to the USFL, Monte Clark will not hesitate a switch. It ceptions while throwing for only nine touchseason? The great quarterback debate be- leaving McMahon the undisputed starting will be that uncertainty that will hold the downs, ending the season ranked next to the best four in the league.

NFC WEST

power is the lack of a decent secondary. the cellar again. Though they posted a the Packers probably have the best talent in son and Jerry Golsteyn. Seeing a clear need L.A. Rams (9-7) - The Rams surprised a disappointing 3-12-1 mark last season, Bill the division with the likes of strong-armed for help, Buc management traded for Denv- lot of people last season by finishing 9-7 and get good protection from a line that tied son's 10-6 record fool you, Bill Walsh has the improve, but their defense just isn't as

Atlanta (5-11) — The Falcons received a Steve Bartkowski is coming off his best Detroit (7-9) — If the Lions had lost Billy 'New Orleans (10-6) — It seems that season ever, but once again, the Falcons third straight Super Bowl.

Super Bowl Champion — The 49ers should have enough fire power to prevent the

John Weiss is a senior majoring in journa-Tampa Bay (6-10) — The Bucaneers are the Saints acquired Richard Todd from the lism and a sports writer for the Daily

Dallas further. As of now, Hogeboom is the breaking back Walter Payton, should be still reeling from the loss of quarterback Jets, and if the new starter can cut down on Collegian.

Lions back.

last in the conference. This year, however, game. How many more times can Tom Bears to a 5-2 finish (8-8 overall). During the once the offense sputters, Head Coach Ken Stabler was snake-bitten for 18 inter-Raiders from a second straight