Mondale to reveal his plans on budget deficit, taxes

By SANDY JHNSON ssociated Press Writer

Reagan will raise taxes after the election, president who favors millionaires and big wrong," he said during a visit in which he Russians control over Eastern Europe. while the president told Polish-Americans corporations, he'll sock it to families of aver- invoked the names of Polish-born Pope John The president was applauded several times that his administration is not "any less ded- age income and leave his friends alone. Paul II and Polish labor leader Lech Walesa. and interrupted with shouts of "four more America.¹

the federal budget deficit today, renewed the he appealed to the patriotism of a people agreement. That agreement never gave them administration's arms buildup has m volatile tax issue by scoffing at Reagan's whose native land he said still suffers "under the power to dominate Eastern Europe and world a more dangerous place. Walter F. Mondale renewed his claim yes- "last resort" stand on increasing taxes. "Everyone knows that taxes must go up," the oppressor's boot." Those who believe they have crushed the to an agreement with the Soviet Union at the less dedicated to peace because we want a Poland as they have." That was a reference

By DAVID GOELLER

day that Democratic presidential nominee Walter F. Mondale is injecting religion into the campaign because he "doesn't have a prayer - even a voluntary prayer - of being elected."

created the church-state issue."

Walter F'. Mondale renewed his claim yes- Everyone knows that taxes must go up, those who believe they have a terday that "everyone knows" President he said. "But who will pay? If you have a Polish spirit with guns and brute force are end of World War II that effectively gave the strong America," he said. "I've known four wars in my lifetime and not one came about because we were too strong. Weakness is the greatest enemy of peace." It is that military buildup which Mondale

> quick as a flash EDTLER STAR

ATHLETIC

Alternate-wing housing may become a residence hall option

after you've read the Collegian...

write your mom.

UNDERSTANDING

The

ATONEMENT

Of

JESUS CHRIST

Sept. 12, 7 p.m. HUB Assembly Hall

Dr. Stephen Robison Asst. Professor — Ancient Scripture, Lycoming College

PENN STATE

RECORD EXCHANGE

RECORDS • NEW and USED

BOUGHT + SOLD + TRADED

ROCK • CLASSICAL • OPERA • JAZZ • NEW WAVE

OLDIES • FOLK • BLUES • ELECTRONIC

COMEDY . COUNTRY . BIG BANDS

BEATLES . PRESLEY . PERSONALITIES

REGGAE • CUTOUTS • RARITIES • ETC.

SHOWS • SOUNDTRACKS • IMPORTS,

state, Cronauer said.

who was president during the earlier proposal submis- in a different living option, Latta said. sions, was opposed to the idea, reasoning that co-ed housing was not morally right, Rovder said. However, ARHS is not only working for alternate-wing housing for men and women, but the organization is committed to continue working for improved residence hall life in general, Rovder said. Stanley Latta, assistant director of residential operations, said that the alternate-wing housing proposal is only one of several creative living options under consideration by Residential Life Programs." Another possible housing option would be thematic look at a particular issue or current event, Latta said. This option would be offered in addition to the interest house program now in existence.

Also, the room assignment operation may be re-evaluated, he said. Research has shown that it is beneficial to assign students with common interests and goals together both inside and outside of the classroom. The University has "not really looked at how we assign students to residence halls," Latta said. "When you fill out a housing assignment card, all we ask is if you would prefer to be with a smoker or a non-smoker.'

for the proposal, thought alternative housing would be ed housing. Rovder said. beneficial to interested students because it is very similar to apartment living, Latta said.

they could opt for this arrangement. We're not going to tive housing, Cronauer said.

TIRED OF LIVING "IN-TOWN"?

THEN CHECK THIS OUT:

- Private Lawns & Parking

– 2 Miles from Campus

- Carpeted w/Fireplaces

COLONEL DRAKE REAL ESTATE

- ³375-415 per month

- 3 Bedrooms

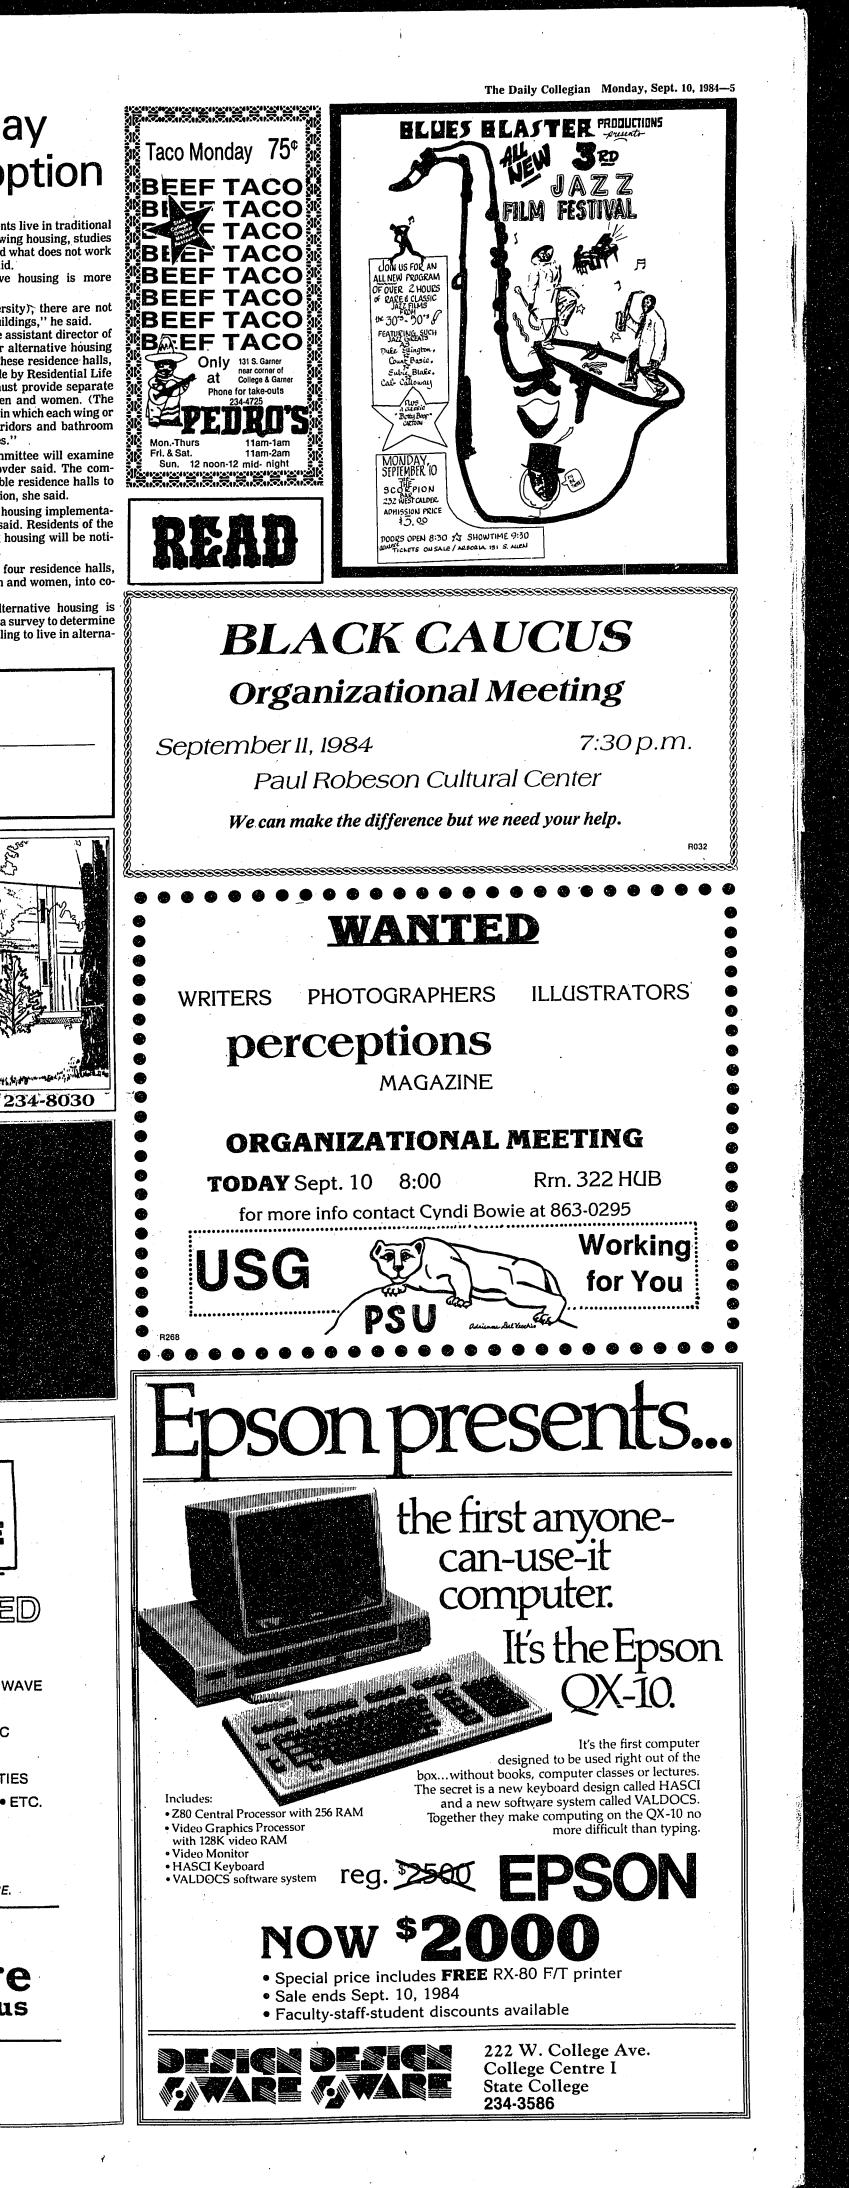

force this on anyone," he said. University is in one of the most conservative parts of the Enough is known about how students live in traditional residence halls. But with alternate-wing housing, studies Also, former University President John W. Oswald, can determine what is beneficial and what does not work Cronauer agreed that alternative housing is mor realistic than single-sex housing.

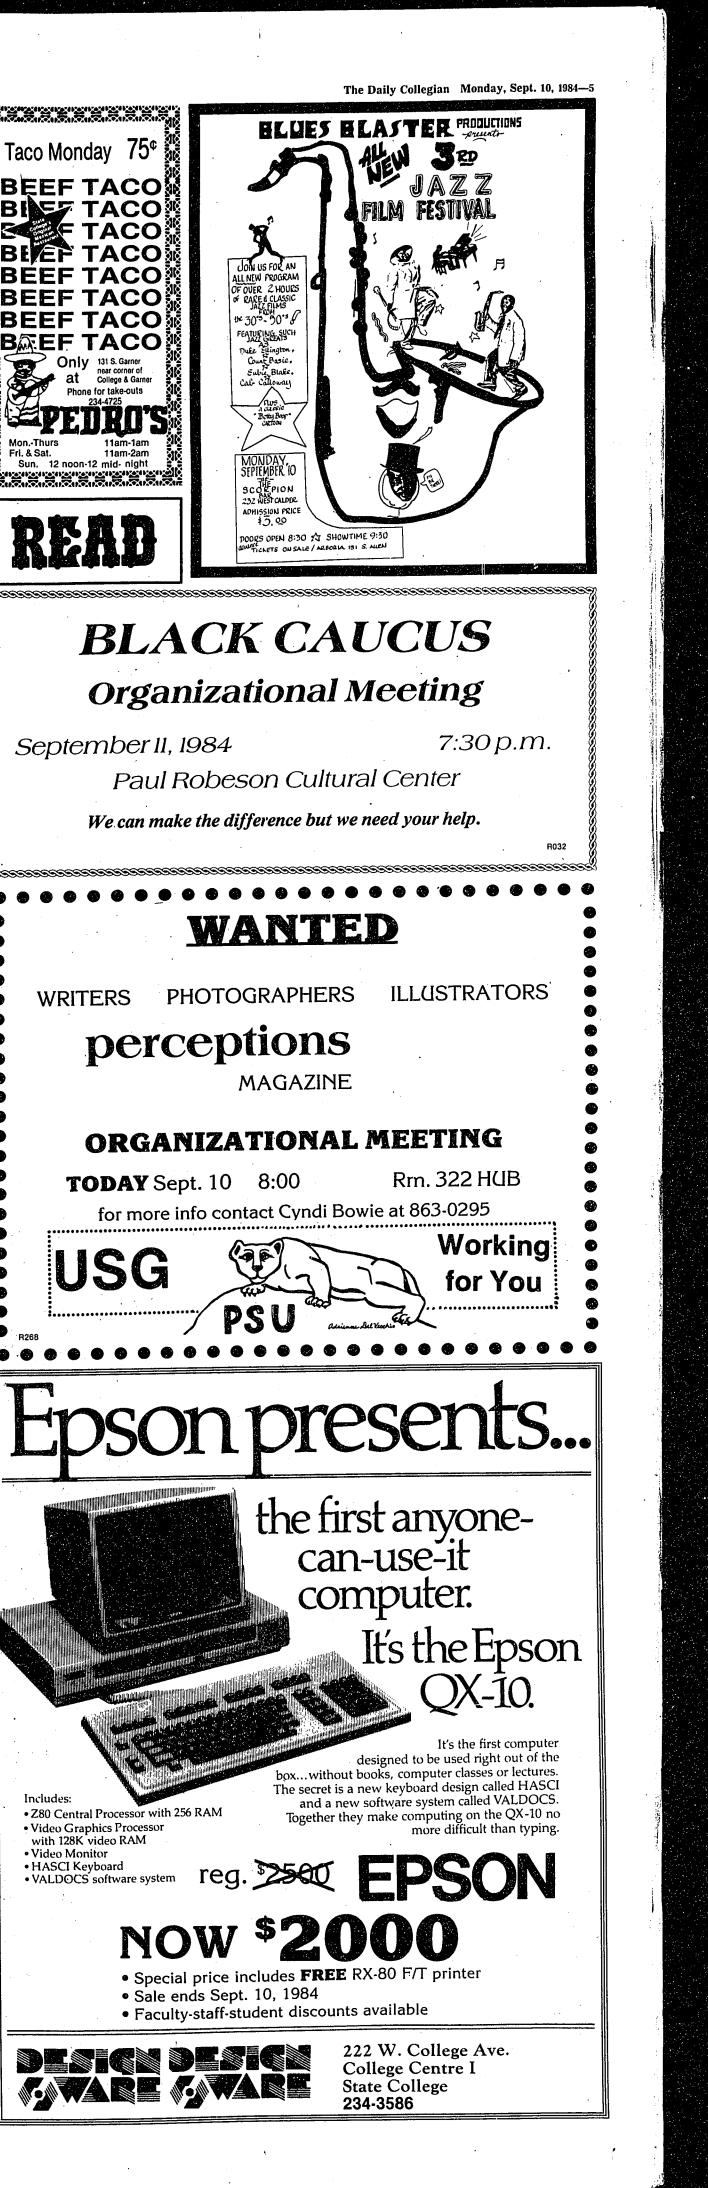

"Once you get out of (the University); there are no going to be single-sex apartment buildings," he said. ARHS recently sent a letter to the assistant director of each residence hall area asking for alternative housing residence hall recommendations. These residence halls, according to recommendations made by Residential Life Programs in a letter to ARHS, "must provide separate and private living quarters, for men and women. (The residence halls should be) buildings in which each wing or housing in which students would periodically take a close floor has separate and private corridors and bathroom > the recommendations received, Rovder said. The com-The targeted date for alternative housing implementation is Fall Semester 1985, Rovder said. Residents of the fied of the displacement by Dec. 15.

Before the final decision on alternative housing made, however, ARHS will conduct a survey to determine "I don't know if students (support) the program, but if students are interested in and willing to live in alterna-

10a.m.-4p.m.

Owned and Operated by The Pennsylvania State University

Deposit required. MasterCard or Visa Accepted.

September 10-14

Now when you buy an

ArtCarved college ring, ou'll get all the tools uneed, and usually torm or apartment. See our ArtCarved Repreorget to buy, for your entative for details

Penn State

BooKstore on campus Owned and operated by The Pennsylvania State University

OVER 6,000 DIFFERENT LP'S USED & OUT-OF-PRINT RECORDS

RECORD COLLECTIONS BOUGHT FOR TOP DOLLAR! NO QUANTITY TOO LARGE OR TOO SMALL... NO 78'S PLEASE.

SEPT. 10th THRU 14th

ARHS expects to convert two to four residence halls,

