

weekend

The Daily Collegian
Friday, Sept. 13, 1985

20

R.T., lead singer for the reggae band the Earthtones, entertains at the 19th annual Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts. The Earthtones will perform at Thea Chi tomorrow night.

films

On Campus

The Sure Thing Rob Reiner's second film tells the tale of a freshman at an Eastern college who travels to California to meet a girl whom his friends say is a "sure thing." On the way, he falls in love with his travelling companion and discovers that a real relationship is much better than casual sex. Tonight and Sunday night, 7 and 9, 112 Kern; tonight at 10:30, tomorrow night, 7, 8:40, 10:15 and midnight, 112 Chambers. Presented by the Graduate Student Association.

Half A musical tribute to the '60s; the story of opposing sides of the Vietnam war meeting face-to-face and discovering that neither has the answers. Excellent choreography. Tonight and Sunday night, 8 and 10, tomorrow night, 8:45, 10:15 Chambers. Presented by the GSA.

Batman The famous superhero and his eloquent sidekick take on the Joker, the Penguin, the Riddler and the Catwoman all at once! Lots of memorable fight scenes and "bat-gadgets." About as campy as the popular TV series, if not more so. Classic romantic scenes between Batman and Catwoman. Adam West stars as the Batman, Burt Ward as his faithful sidekick Robin. Don't miss it! Tonight and tomorrow night, 7, 9 and 11, Sunday night, 7 and 9, 102 Forum. Presented by the Penn State Science Fiction Society.

Beverly D'Angelo floats through a hallucinogenic dream sequence in Half, which shows on campus this weekend.

the Hollywood Bowl (obviously, you twit). Tonight and tomorrow night, 7, 9 and 11, Sunday night, 7 and 9, 10 Sparks. Presented by the Air Force ROTC Drill Team.

Code of Silence Chuck Norris stars in another martial arts movie. Tonight and Sunday night, 7 and 8:45, 112 Chambers; Tomorrow night, 7 and 11, 101 Chambers. Presented by the GSA.

Insatiable Marilyn Chambers takes all she can get in another favorite campus diversion. Rated X. Tonight and tomorrow night, 7, 9 and 11, Sunday night, 7 and 9, 108 Forum. Presented by the Penn State Movie Co-op.

Maria's Lovers Filmed in Brownsville, Penn., this movie tells the story of a woman (Nastassja Kinski) who is abandoned by her husband (John Savage). Both struggle to find love and suffer many hardships in their search. Anita Morris co-stars. Saturday night, 7 and 9, 112 Kern. Presented by France Cinema.

films

Downtown

Stop Making Sense The Jonathan Demme film, which highlights unique moments of The Talking Heads 1984 tour, features favorite songs like "Burnin' Down the House," "Psycho Killer," and

A Clockwork Orange Stanley Kubrick's twisted film asks the question, "Do we shape society or does it shape us?" Be prepared; this film is graphically violent and contains scenes designed to make a mass murderer throw up. Tonight, tomorrow night and Sunday night, 7 and 9:30, HUB Assembly Room. Presented by the Student Union Board.

Dawn Of the Dead George Romero's classic zombie movie that made the Monroeville Mall famous. Zombies appear on the scene and start chewing on the people. Anyone who dies after being bitten becomes a zombie. Surviving humans struggle to stay alive, because, although easily killed, the zombies overwhelm by sheer numbers. When you see this film you'll realize that Pittsburgh is not the best place to live after all! Tonight and tomorrow night, 7, 9 and 11, Sunday night, 7 and 9, 105 Forum. Presented by the Penn State Movie Co-op.

Monty Python — Live At The Hollywood Bowl Live Python at the Hollywood Bowl Live Python at

Back to the Future Michael J. Fox of "Family Ties" plays a thoroughly engaging adolescent who travels back in time and meets his parents as teenagers. His intrusion into the past creates a lot of problems — his mother thinks he's a total "dreamboat" and falls in love with him instead of his dad, who's the dork of the high school. Watching Fox get out of the situation is a lot of fun. One of the summer's most popular hits. It's a must to see. Shows nightly at 8 and 10 p.m.; Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday at 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. The Cinemas.

St. Elmo's Fire Borrowing from the premise of The Big Chill, this movie follows the lives of seven recent Georgetown graduates as they adjust to the "real world." Although critics condemned it as a shallow rip-off, who can resist watching such decrepit behavior — alcoholism, cocaine addiction, casual sex, etc. — among a group of yuppies played by Hollywood's most appealing young actors? Starring Emilio Estevez, Rob Lowe, Demi Moore, Ally Sheedy, Judd Nelson, Andrew McCarthy and Mare Winningham. Shows nightly at 8 and 10 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday at 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. The Flick.

Burlap Ground Shows nightly at 8 and 10 p.m. Saturday and Sunday at 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m. The Garden.

Prizzi's Honor In this black comedy, Jack Nicholson and Kathleen Turner each play hitmen who get involved in the criminal underground's politics. The romance that develops between the two creates a conflict when each is ordered to kill the other. Which will prove more important — their love for each other or their loyalty to their heritage? Shows nightly at 7:30 and 9:45 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday at 2:15, 4:45, 7:30 and 9:45 p.m. The Movies.

E.T. This classic movie about an abandoned alien who befriends a young boy will please young and old alike. Directed by Steven Spielberg. Shows nightly at 7:45 and 9:45 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday at 1:45, 3:45, 5:45, 7:45 and 9:45 p.m. The Screening Room.

Pee-Wee's Big Adventure For sure, this lovable geek is no Rambo, but he's just as big a hero. A witty comedy of a man in search of his bike. Don't miss it if you're a Pee-Wee fan. Shows nightly at 7:45 and 9:45; Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday at 1:45, 3:45, 5:45, 7:45 and 9:45 p.m. The State.

Teen Wolf Yet another comedy starring Michael J. Fox, though this one doesn't have the appeal of his hit, Back

From left to right, Jack Nicholson, Kathleen Turner and Anjelica Huston, the stars of Prizzi's Honor, surround their director, John Huston (foreground). The movie plays downtown this weekend.

Once in a Lifetime. Even if you don't like the music, the bizarre antics of David Byrne are worth seeing — no one can carry a giant-sized suit the way he can. Shows nightly at 7:45 and 9:45 p.m.; Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday at 1:45, 3:45, 5:45, 7:45 and 9:45 p.m. The State.

Summer Rental One of those obnoxious summer vacation movies that you'd wish would die right along with the season. This one tries to sell itself on its star, John Candy. Shows nightly at 7:15 and 9:15 p.m. Rowland.

midweek films

Maria's Lovers Showing again at 7 and 9 p.m. on Monday, Kern. Presented by France Cinema.

sounds

Allan Row Martin O'Connor strums his guitar Friday and Saturday night.

Autoport The tickler of the ivories this weekend is none other than Jim Langton.

Brewery Take a chance with Random Draw tonight. Tomorrow night, The Screaming Ducks will quack.

Brickhouse Woody and Renee play from 7 to 10 tonight, preceded and followed by John Cunningham. Space Goop invites here tomorrow night.

Cafe 210 West Take a nostalgic journey with Bookends tonight. Tomorrow night get into rhythm and blues with Body and Soul.

Coffee Grinder What a surprise! Rick Jones plays tonight and tomorrow.

Le Papillon Relax with Tommy Wareham tonight and Saturday.

Lion's Den Brian spins the top 40's tunes this weekend.

Muckey Duck (Sheraton) Get mellow with Dan Burlan all weekend.

Phyrst Kick off this Temple weekend with Randy Hughes tonight at 7:30 and 9:45 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday at 2:15, 4:45, 7:30 and 9:45 p.m. The Movies.

Pub(Holiday Inn) Guitarist John Bressler does his thing Friday and Saturday.

Saloon Spend another bewitching weekend with the Doctor.

Scorpion MX explodes tonight. Tomorrow night get even with The Avengers.

Shandygaff Gran Stan spins oldies and more tonight and tomorrow.

Sly Fox (Sheraton) This weekend take it to the limit with The Ultimates.

galleries

Boucke In Room 135 Boucke Building, black and white photographs of central Pennsylvania landscapes by Dan Mayers are on display through Monday.

Chambers Interior spaces and their inherent psychology are explored in Outside In, a print exhibit by Donald Furst and D.F. Bushman HUB Galleries Fire and Air, an exhibit including paintings, prints and works on paper by Andrew Svedlow is showing in all of the HUB Galleries. Svedlow's non-objective oil and acrylic paintings are featured in the Formal Gallery. The Art Alley and the Browning Gallery feature his most recent approaches to the figure. Svedlow graduated from the University with a doctorate in art education.

Jill Campbell's Baskets exhibit is also on display in the Art Alley and the Browning Gallery are open Social History Colloquium At 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Anthony F.C. Wallace from the University of Pennsylvania will speak on "Rockdale and St. Clair: Two Paths to Industrialization." This is the first lecture in a series on "Pennsylvania Communities in Historical Perspective." Location: Rare Books Room, Patten.

Allan String Quartet Concert The University's quartet-in-residence performs at 8 p.m. on Wednesday in the Music Building Recital Hall.

Local guitarist Randy Hughes, who is also a member of Cartoon, can be seen playing solo this weekend at the Phyrst.

every day from 8 a.m. to midnight.

Local guitarist Randy Hughes, who is also a member of Cartoon, can be seen playing solo this weekend at the Phyrst.

Chinese Student Assoc.
海濱的一天
That Day, On the Beach
Sun. Sept. 15
1:00 PM
101 Chambers

THE SCORPION
232 W. Calder Way
Presents
Friday — MX
Saturday — THE AVENGERS
Great ROCK n ROLL
This Weekend

The Penn State Science Fiction Society
presents
BATMAN
7,9,&11 FRIDAY & SATURDAY 102 FORUM
7,9 SUNDAY $ 2.00

DAWN OF THE DEAD

HEY PENN STATE. ONCE AGAIN GEORGE ROMERO UNLEASHES HIS ZOMBIES TO MUNCH THE FLESH OF THE LIVING. FILMED ON LOCATION AT THE ONE AND ONLY MONROEVILLE MALL. A GREAT CULT CLASSIC

105 FORUM FRI, SAT, 7,9,11 SUN, 7,9
THE PENN STATE MOVIE CO-OP

MARILYN CHAMBERS in Insatiable

108 FORUM FRI, SAT, 7,9,11 SUN, 7,9

$2 RATED X
HOW WELL AN X RATED MOVIE GOES OVER AT PENN STATE DEPENDS ENTIRELY UPON AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION. FEEL FREE TO SCREAM YELL, AND BARK AS MUCH AS YOU DESIRE

Code of Silence Starring Chuck Norris

108 FORUM FRI, SAT, 7,9,11 SUN, 7,9

THE ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW

FRI 8, 10, 12 $2.00
SAT 8, 10, 12 SUN 8 & 10 111 Forum

The Sure Thing
Rob Reiner's new romantic comedy.

The sure thing comes once in a lifetime... but the real thing lasts forever.

FRI 7 & 9 — 112 Kern
10:30 — 112 Chambers
SAT 7, 8:40, 10:15, Midnight
112 Chambers
SUN 7 & 9
112 Kern

Let the sun shine in!
HAIR

FRI 8 & 10
SAT 8:45 ONLY
SUN 8 & 10
101 Chambers

Code of Silence Starring Chuck Norris

FRI 7 & 8:45
112 Chambers
SAT 7 & 11
101 Chambers
SUN 7 & 8:45
112 Chambers
$2.00
GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOC.