FIND A PSU DATE

September 21, 1985

2. Fill out name, address, sex, class, and (optional) phone number. All addresses and

4. You will receive a print-out of the ten most compatible men or women for you. Each print-out will contain ten students' names, each with a phone number (if supplied),

1. bar

dinner

18. Where would you most like to go on a date?

19. How do you feel about fraternities/sororities?

5. stay home with my date

2. good for some people only

20. How do you feel about little kids?

football/basketball games

1, meet for coffee or a drink

22. On a typical first date, you would:

3. see a movie or concert

4. Ann Landers/Dear Abby

4. have dinner 5. other

1. the front page 2. sports

24. How do you feel about your sex life?

25. How do you feel about singles bars?

1. great place to meet people

2. meat market 3. never been to one 4. my second home 5. no opinion average people 2. the "in" group

28. Who can really make you laugh the most? . David Letterman 2. Johnny Carson

3. Edie Murphy 4. Joan Rivers

30 What characteristic do you look for most in a friend sense of humor

23. The section of the newspaper I read first is

3. depends on the kid

5. I'm a brother/sister and I love it

1. like them 2. can't stand them

Where do you go to meet new men or women friends

2. satisfying

4. non-existen

1. they're all snobs

3. they're okay

4. not sure

1. school

3. parties

2 have lunch

3. comics

1. ecstasy

Abortion should be: up to the women 2. the couple's decision

29. Do you find yourself:

3. generosity

I usuatly:

1. attack life

I consider myself:

1. outgoing and witty 2. shy and quiet

studious and reserved

3. get clobbered in the process

I most like to take classes that are

4. most beneficial to my future

1. physical characteristics

What attracts you most to someone?

rude and obnoxious

3. getting in the way

1. leading

3. lousy

party

4. movie

3. Send answer sheet along with $3.00 cash, check, or money order to answers will be kept confidential. Addresses will be used ONLY to mail your print-out

Who are the ten most compatible men or women for you at Penn State.

Just fill out the answer sheet below and let our computer determine who they are.

The fact that the person's name appears on your list is a great conversation starter.

REMEMBER, if you don't participate, your name will not be on anyone's list.

You will receive your print-out within five days of the deadline date.

4063 Meadowbrook Blvd.

Pittsburgh, PA 15227

Find out for only $3.00!

INSTRUCTIONS:

3. sometimes

2. sometimes

3. frequently

1. never

2. fame

3. health

4. love

I consume alcohol:

4. almost every day

3. I just want to get by

Which is most important in life

Send your answer sheet and $3.00 now.

Deadline for receiving answer sheets is Answer all questions below.

DATA MATCH

class, and a compatibility rating.

2. female

Which best describes your attitude toward school?

1. I want to excel 2. I want to do well

Does it bother you when others smoke?

Local documentary examines Halloween

By SHAWN SHIELDS Collegian Staff Writer

If a guest at a Halloween party is she said.

pher from the Documentary Resource Center making a movie. The DRC, a State College-based College residents as they prepare Thigpen said he believes he can retheir homes and costumes for Hallow- capture and expand on the theme een, said Carrie Crompton, DRC pro- presented in the first film with the use By JOHN MOLLO "We'll basically be filming every-

Why State College: town, it attracts people from different traditions die very hard." tions along with them, Crompton for next spring. It can be viewed on alive here where elsewhere they've pen said. fallen by the wayside." she said. People interested in sharing their lives a year. giving as an example the evening Halloween customs are urged to con-modified this tradition by holding trick or treat in the afternoon or, in some cases, canceling it altogether, wearing a motion picture camera on Kenneth Thigpen, co-founder of his shoulder and holding a sound DRC and a University English profesboom in his hand, he is not in cos- sor who deals with American folklore, attributes much of the local Chances are he is a cinematogra- Halloween enthusiasm to students. "(Students) make everyone else crazy, too," he said. The idea for the film came from a organization, is finalizing prepara- 1965 documentary done by Murice tions for a film it plans to make this Mook, a late University professor, who dealt with American Halloween of modern equipment.

Thigpen said his cameramen will ogether at Halloween," Crompton fraternity parties. ements to Halloween," Thigpen said. said last night. "It's a time of release for us. Peo- Dennis Heitzmann said the figure is only an it's still an isolated area and people are normally told not to take candy being notified. aren't afraid to be outdoors at night." from strangers are allowed to trick-Because State College is a college or-treat. Halloween is a tradition and problem with suicide," Heitzmann said. "But it backgrounds who bring their tradi- The film's release is tentatively set other part of the country."

ATTENTION: COLLEGE OF HUMAN

DEVELOPMENT STUDENTS

Dr. Ernestine Montgomery from the Career will maintain office hours in:

Development and Placement Center

Room 269-S. Human Development Building,

Beginning the week of September 9.

2000 @8 $ 000 @8 $ 00 0

'Banned book' celebration ends today

By KELLY LANKAU Collegian Staff Writer

to find some of your favorite authe books in question. Books such as in the activities. thors missing from the shelves. the Bible, Gone With the Wind, Lord Mark Twain, Charles Dickens, Dan- of the Flies, The Adventures of ielle Steele and Stephen King - Huckleberry Finn and other clasgone. Or perhaps, like Hester sics, along with books by contempo-Prynne, they would carry a scarlet rary authors such as Judy Blume, books, but people should have their Bannned Books Week believe most letter - B for "banned." Today wraps up the last day of dith Krantz and Norma Klein are of books that have been challenged or banned in the past All this week the Penn State Danielle Steele, Stephen King, Ju- own choice.'

supervisor for the campus Some court decisions have rebookstore, said for the last two moved the controversial books Imagine going to the library only Bookstore has displayed many of years the bookstore has taken part from the shelves while other decisions have supported the Constitu-"We want to let people realize tion's First Amendment guarantee that they are limited in the choice of of individual freedom of expression. what they can read," Wilson said. she said.

"We don't endorse any of these The organizations sponsoring Books have been banned for intentions of preserving the morals Banned Books Week '85 — "Cele- included in the display. These and many reasons, Wilson said. Most and values of their society, Wilson brating Your Freedom to Read" - hundreds more have been the sub- complaints are concerned with sex, said. However, the result usually is which brings attention to hundreds jects of controversy since 387 B.C. obscenity, objectionable language, the denial of another's right to read.

Filming will take place during Halloween and will follow several State loween and will follow several State College residents as they prepare Thigpen said he believes he can re-thing that goes on to get a composite be filming everything from the State Last year nearly 40 University students — a picture of how this community gets College Halloween Parade to local figure considered conservative - contemplated or attempted suicide, a clinical psychologist at the likely to succeed due to the choice of more violent "There are many different el- Center for Counseling and Psychological Services anywhere else I've ever lived," ple, in a sense, act out their fanta- estimate because officials are not sure how many Crompton sald. "Perhaps because sies," Thigpen said. "Children who attempts may have taken place without anyone "It's ironic that here in Happy Valley we have a does exist, although it is no worse here than in any Heitzmann said studies indicate that as many as campus at that time, and will be aired 1,000 suicides are attempted throughout the world "Lots of exciting traditions are still on WPSX-TV next Halloween, Thig-each minute. Suicide is the 10th leading cause of death in this country, claiming as many as 35,000 increase over the last two decades due to factors such as the increased pace of life, the breakup of cides are more likely to occur. the family, and possibly — as recent University Heitzmann said a common myth about suicide is that suicidal people are mentally ill. research indicates — news media coverage.

Women are almost five times more likely than men to attempt suicide, although men are more may be latent - manifesting themselves through methods, such as gunshot wounds. In Pennsylvania last year, people in the 20- to 24-year-old age of having suicidal tendencies. group had the highest rate of suicides at 14.5 per Native Americans have a five times higher than college students and professionals, who at the neak of their careers may feel a sense of lone-drugs. "Although every one experiences temporary depression, it's rarely the chronic feeling of total despair these people feel due to their unique normal rate of suicide, Heitzmann said. Other firearm or a large quantity of potentially fatal Heitzmann said that if someone suspects that a friend may be contemplating suicide, it is best to approach the person and urge them to talk to pressures and environment." Heitzmann said.

The University's Ritenour Health Center main-According to statistics, April is the peak month tains a 24-hour crisis hotline and can be reached by

For example, a person may give away personal belongings, Heitzmann said. Other signs are a change in behavior or personality and a declining interest in people, food or sex. Finally, a person

SCUBA! SCUBA! SCUBA! >

TRY SCUBA!

At the Nittany Divers Underwater Weekend Register in HUB Ground Floor • Introductory Lesson w/safety divers to accompany you

Session lasts 1 hour Sunday, Sept. 15 . Natatorium 2-8 PM Interested in trying-out for groups susceptible to suicide are the elderly, may acquire a means to end their life, such as a

PENN STATE CHEERLEADING?

Get your questions answered at our Information Session

> Monday, September 16 7 p.m. - 8 p.m. In Room 2 White Building

All groups participating in Homecoming '85

must send a representative to an organizational meeting at 7:00p.m. on Sunday in 60 Willard.

All questions & problems will be addressed.

Be There!

$Z\Phi B$ Zeta Phi Beta FALL FORMAL RUSH

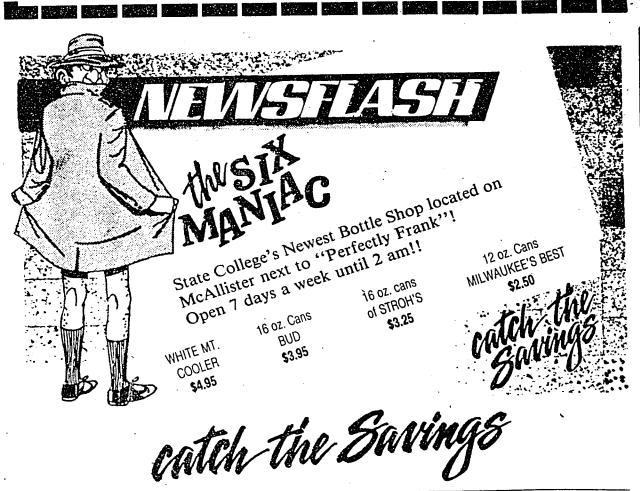

Sunday, September 15 13 Shulze Hall

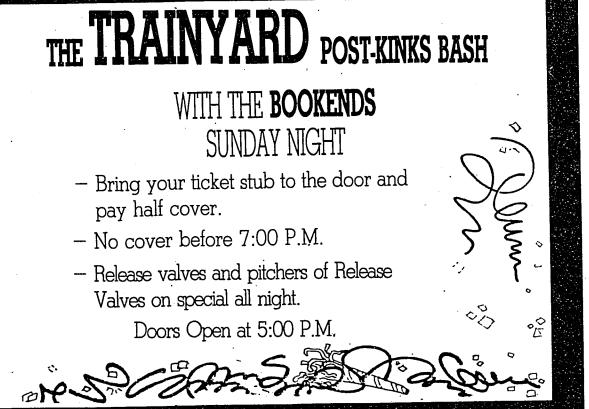

Students in The College of Agriculture You can attend a

Leadership Training Conference Sunday, September 15th 1:00 – 5:00 PM

Contact 217 Ag Admin. for information

Rush:

Black sororities working independently

Collegian Staff Writer

While sorority rush is normally a hopes to solve that problem. ease their rushees into sisterhood by formal social two weeks later, the said. .

Alpha Kappa Alpha President An- women. Heitzmann said that although suicidal intentions agreed that Panhel traditionally does pected to do.

At an informal social, Alpha Kappa members.

of their respective chapters nation- population, she said, but instead pro- ties.

gela Janey said although they might "Most Blacks want some type of friends and the fact that it was a be at a disadvantage because they do cohesiveness," Masterson said. not participate in Panhellenic Coun-Rush activities for Delta Sigma bothered her. Panhel President Laurie Maser life and what a pledge will be ex- given me a chance to meet people I not relate to the black student population but she said the Black Greek

Zeta Phi Beta will also conduct its own separate rush activities. Presi-Council, of which she is a member, dent Karen Campbell said the sorority is special because it has only seven schedule, including mixers and many Alpha rushees were interviewed on a "We are the smallest sorority on socials, the University's three historione-on-one basis and learned what is campus and this allows us to have a cally black social sororities hope to expected of them, Janey said. At a very close sisterhood," Campbel conducting their own individual rushees will learn about the pledge All Zeta Phi Beta's rush activities

Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority, Delta Delta Sigma Theta also chooses to and prizes for rushees, she said. Sigma Theta sorority, and Zeta Phi conduct its own rush activities, said Angela Jones (senior-telecommuni Beta sorority are conducting their sorority President Gina Masterson. cations), a black student and memown rushes, separate from the other The sorority does not alienate its ber of Alpha Sigma Alpha, did not 17 sororities, as part of the tradition members from the rest of the greek rush at one of the three black sororivides a special bond among black Jones said she chose to rush at Alpha Sigma Alpha with one of her traditionally white sorority never cil's rush activities, an increased Theta, which has 14 members, were "Color never really meant anyblack population on campus could held Sunday. A formal was held so thing," she said. "(Being a member increase the number of their rushees. rushees could find out about sorority of a traditionally white sorority) has

Jordan says funding is inadequate

By LAURA O'BRIEN Collegian Staff Writer

University President Bryce Jordan operation, program needs, student College of Human Development for told the Faculty Senate Tuesday that funding received by the University is come. not enough to cover the additional changes, excluding tuition, are almost $12 million while the total ex- retaining faculty in hard-to-hold posi- for recruiting minority students and pense changes are almost $25 million. tions, Jordan said, and for equity to improve programs such as the

The funding received from entirely on merit. statewide amounts "goes a short way to a very large deficit," Jordan said. operations is going to major mainte-There is a deep-seated and longnance, new facilities and fueling. lasting underfunding, he said, for the Jordan said. types of academic programs the University is trying to offer. The funding received by the University in 1982 was 19 percent below the national average, and Pennsylvania ranks 42 out of 50 states for the amount it allots to higher education, do some planning," he said. still ranks below average in 1985.

RELEASE ATTACK.

to convert budgeting from temporary to permanent status for certain propercent tuition increase over 1984-85.

get for the 1985-86 academic year are Administration, Science and The Lib-attributed to five categories: employ- eral Arts.

Allocations of $3.8 million went to al average increase. program needs, with the largest "We need to be continually conamount going to relieve working cerned about tuition costs," Jordan The additional expenses in the bud-pressures in the colleges of Business said.

Jordan said efforts are being made ee compensation, general costs of The funding will also go to the needs, and expenses offset by in- enrollment constraints, especially in the department of hotel, restaurant Jordan said the increases are nec- and institution management, Jordan essary for "protecting and enhancing said. Entrance constraints are also the academic quality of the Universibeing placed on the University's Behrend College near Erie. The employee compensation is for Allocations were made to programs considerations. He said allocations University for faculty increases will be based otechnology and management information systems in the College of The money for the general costs of Business Administration. Jordan said the $800,000 allocated for minority student aid falls short of 4. I don't care what is needed. He said he is also My parents are: 2. fairly understanding looking to develop more support for 1. the greatest general University student aid. 3, out of touch Jordan said the University contin-I think money is: ues to be a bargain compared to other 2. a nice thing to have 1. very important colleges in the state in spite of the 7.73 3. not important 4. the root of all evil

> What kind of music do you like best? 1. rock 3. country 4. soul 5. punk The biggest drawback to casual sex is: 1. it is morally wrong . 2 fear of disease 3, pregnancy

4, no drawbacks 5, lack of partner 10. Is it okay for a woman to ask a man out?

. very important 2. fairly important somewhat importan 4. not important How do you feel about religion?

. make money 2. get a job that I like 3. find and wife/husband

ANSWER SHEET Please Print

Be sure to enclose your $3.00.

When it comes to marriage, it . will definitely get married 2. will probably get married 3. probably won't get married 4. will never get married 2. small towr 3. suburb I worry most about: getting good grades having financial security 3. being popular 4. finding the perfect mate , just an exaggerated emotion 2. the answer to all my troubles beautiful and sweet the reason for a lot of sadnes Great moments in Hot Tub History . . . Tailgatus Maximus Send to: DATA MATCH 4063 Meadowbrook Blvd. Pittsburgh, PA 15227 511 E. Calder Way State College, PA 16801 Discover nittany hot springs (814-234-4383) Starting at noon daily Your ancestors did.... from $5.00