Booters top WVU, lose to Akron

By JOHN WEINEL and Collegian Sports Writers

How fitting it was that in the same week that Pete Rose broke Ty Cobb's hit record Head Soccer Coach Walter Bahr notched his 150th victory at Penn State. Bahr now trails the legendary Bill Jeffrey by three victories as the winningest soccer coach in Penn State history.

Bahr got win number 150 at the expense of West Virginia, Friday night as the soccer team (4-2) defeated the Mountaineers, 4-1 at Jeffrey

For the Lions, the season couldn't have started off better. In addition to Friday night's victory over West Virginia, there were the major defeats against Navy in the season opener and over last week's defeat of No. 6 St. Louis at the Puma Invitational, in addition to the victory over West

But what the Lions weren't counting on was being defeated 2-1 in overtime at the hands of No. 13 Akron yesterday in Akron, Ohio. Bahr, however, doesn't accept ful credit for the 150 victories.

"In all of those victories I didn't score a goal," Bahr said. "That's (his record) one of those honors that go with longevity. Penn State tried a different strate-

the first half. Jennings took a great pass from Potter and put the ball past West Virginia goalie Brian Hartlove. Exactly three minutes later Jennings tallied his second goal of the game on an assist by junior midfielder Niall
